

TO FAVOR PATRIOTS.

BRAZIL WILL VERY SOON RECOGNIZE CUBANS AS BELLIGERENTS.

TAKES THE INITIATIVE.

NO LONGER TO WAIT FOR ACTION UPON THE PART OF THE UNITED STATES.

ENGAGEMENTS WITH SPANISH.

IN SEVERAL IMPORTANT BATTLES THE INSURGENTS WERE BADLY DEFEATED.

BOSTON, Mass., Oct. 17.—At last the initiative has been taken in the recognition of the Cuban insurgents. A dispatch to a morning paper states authoritatively that within the week the Government of Brazil will issue a proclamation announcing this intention. This statement is given out by a member very high in the Brazilian Government, and there can be no doubt as to its import.

For some time past Brazil has been trying to secure the co-operation of the United States in jointly recognizing the struggling patriots, but as her efforts have been unsuccessful she resolved to go ahead on her own responsibility. At a special meeting of the Cabinet, which was held on the 14th, the members composing it unanimously agreed to support the Government in any such action.

The Spanish Minister at Rio Janeiro has made the strongest protest against any such action, but without avail. He has communicated with the home Government and it is expected that he will be recalled at any moment. The special meeting of the Cabinet which has been called for the 23d inst. is thought to be for the express purpose of putting the question before the Government, so that the recognition of the insurgents may take place before the end of the month.

Dispatches from Santiago de Cuba received to-day stated that the rebels bring intelligence of two large battles fought on the 11th and 12th near Sabana. The insurgents had established their field headquarters in the mountain passes to the east of the River Cantos.

They numbered nearly 2000 men, under General Maceo. On the afternoon of the 11th a large Spanish force, under General Navarro, from Santiago de Cuba, made an advance on the rebel lines and were repulsed with heavy slaughter, 300 men being lost in the skirmish. On the 12th they were re-enforced by two regiments of Grintas, from the garrison at Dos Caminos, and once more made an attack on the insurgent lines.

The Spanish troops had with them a field battery, which created havoc among the insurgents, forcing them to retreat. The entire field hospital and a large quantity of stores fell into the hands of the regulars. The rebel loss was unknown, but it must have been very heavy. The Spanish lost 250 men.

On the 14th a small body of rebels were overtaken by a superior body of Spanish cavalry near Puerto Principe. During the day both sides received re-enforcements, resulting in a pitched battle. The rebels were defeated, their loss being light. The Spanish loss was about 200 men. General Navarro claims that the whole of the insurgent force in the eastern part of the island has practically been defeated, and that they do not hold out much longer. In spite of this fact, preparations are being made for an extensive fall campaign.

MADRID, Spain, Oct. 17.—Queen Isabel II, now in Paris, has sent the following cablegram to General Martinez Campos, in reply to a cablegram sent her on her birthday: "More than ever I thank you for your kind congratulations. You know that my heart accompanies you. I ask God to protect you and give you victory. Ever your sincere and grateful friend, Isabel."

On the 30th inst. the Duke of Tamames sails for Cuba. One report says that he will take command of a regiment of volunteers. Another that he goes on an important political mission. Several Cabinet meetings have been held at the residence of the Premier, Senor Canovas del Castillo. They were devoted to the Cuban question. It is announced that 12,000 troops will start for Cuba October 22.

FLAGS FOR THE POPE.

Old Glory Will Soon Be Displayed at the Vatican.

NEW YORK, N. Y., Oct. 17.—When the American pilgrims had their audience with Pope Leo in last August they carried into the Vatican three American flags. These they left as souvenirs of their visit at the shrines at Loretto, at Lourdes and at Paray le Monial. The flags were blessed by the Pope and he expressed his great pleasure at their beauty, the bright colors especially attracting the eye.

He expressed regret that the pilgrims did not bring a flag for him also, as he desired to have one for the Vatican. This desire he was told would be satisfied as soon as the pilgrims got home. In accordance with this promise, the Brooklyn Catholic Young Women's Association, of which the Rev. Edward W. McCarthy is spiritual director, will have two elaborate silk flags made of regulation size and texture, and will forward them to Rome, where they will be offered as a Christmas gift to the Pope. They will be hung as portieres in the passageway leading to the Pope's private apartments.

Mrs. F. H. Throp of Clermont avenue, who was one of the organizers of both the American pilgrimages, is a member of the Catholic Women's Association, and for its work a special blessing from the Pope was obtained. The official document stating this is to be framed and hung in the clubhouse in Garfield place.

MADE OFF WITH THE BILLS.

An Old Trick Successfully Worked by a Sneak Thief.

NEW YORK, N. Y., Oct. 17.—G. G. Lane, the venerable cashier of the Maritime Exchange bank, made a deposit at the Corn Exchange Bank at noon yesterday, then drew a check for $319. He walked over to the window opposite, placed his roll on the window sill, put on his glasses and began to count the bills.

A well-dressed stranger who stood at a desk near by, apparently drawing a check, called Lane's attention to a one-dollar bill on the floor at his feet, and as Lane stooped to pick it up snatched up a roll of $300 that Lane had counted, threw Mr. Lane off his feet and dashed for the door. Although promptly followed he succeeded in making his escape. The old sneak game which Thomas Byrne described in his famous book, "Professional Criminals of America," as one of the most venerable tricks of bank sneaks, had been successfully practiced in New York's financial center at the busiest hour of the day. Not a policeman or detective appeared for twenty-five minutes. Then it was too late. It has been many years since bank sneaks have attempted to operate below the dead line which Byrnes established at Fulton street.

KILLED BY INDIANS.

Two American Miners Said to Have Perished in Mexico. ST. LOUIS, Mo., Oct. 17.—A special from Hermosillo, Mexico, says that George T. Harrison and J. F. Baker, mining men from Colorado, arrived there ten days ago and left for the Yaqui Indian country, where they had been told were to be found rich gold mines. A Mexican guide accompanied them, and arranged for living quarters yesterday and reports that they met the Yaqui Indians 100 miles southeast. The Indians fired, killing both the Americans. The guide claims that he was kept a prisoner for two days and then released, after first being admonished never to visit the country again. The guide is suspected of having murdered and robbed the Americans.

Coming in a Freighter.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Oct. 17.—Harry S. Welch, son of D. M. Welch of this city, has started for Los Angeles, Cal., in a freighter to visit his father's estate. In one end of the car box-stalls were built for two horses which he takes along. Next to them are two carriages. The rest of the freighter is crisscrossed and arranged for living purposes. A window was made in one side and a stove and other convenient articles were put in. Welch's bed is a sailor's hammock. He has not forgotten to provide himself with a well-selected library. The car will go by the Boston and Albany, the Baltimore and Ohio and the Santa Fe routes.

MONEY MEN OF AMERICA.

INTERESTING SPEECHES MADE AT THE ASSOCIATION OF BANKERS.

ST. JOHN OF NEW YORK ARGUED FOR A DOUBLE STANDARD AND COINAGE OF SILVER.

ATLANTA, Ga., Oct. 17.—The American Bankers' Association elected officers to-day. E. H. Pullen of New York was chosen president and R. J. Lowry of Atlanta vice-president. The features to-day were the speeches made by W. P. St. John of New York and Edward Atkinson of New York. Mr. St. John argued for a double standard and opening of the mints again to silver. Mr. Atkinson spoke first.

Mr. St. John, who is president of the Mercantile National Bank of New York, replying to Mr. Atkinson, said that according to Mr. Atkinson current antagonisms as to money are due to distinctly different schools of finance. He condemned Mr. Atkinson's charge of injustice to the creditor in granting the debtor the option of coins with which to pay and resented the suggestion of a silver basis in the United States as the result of the silver strike.

Mr. St. John, who is president of the Mercantile National Bank of New York, replying to Mr. Atkinson, said that according to Mr. Atkinson current antagonisms as to money are due to distinctly different schools of finance. He condemned Mr. Atkinson's charge of injustice to the creditor in granting the debtor the option of coins with which to pay and resented the suggestion of a silver basis in the United States as the result of the silver strike.

The suggested exhaustless supplies of silver are to be met, he claimed, with a supposed exhaustless supply of gold in 1893. He claimed that the object of the bimetalists is to enlarge the world's aggregate of everything else is enlarging, and said that the tendency of that would be to provide producers a fair share of the wealth which they produce, the result being a tendency in law toward the dissemination rather than toward the aggregation of wealth. He thought that independent bimetalism in the United States would be successful if attempted under present conditions, foreign and domestic, and at the present ratio of about 16 to 1.

WHITE-RIBBON DELEGATES.

Gathering at Baltimore for the Convention of the W. C. T. U.

BALTIMORE, Md., Oct. 17.—Delegates from thirty-eight States have arrived here to take part in the twenty-second annual convention of the W. C. T. U., which begins a five days' meeting at Music Hall to-morrow. Over 500 women engaged in temperance work at all branches of reform are expected to be present. Miss F. E. Willard calls the convention to order.

To-night the usual consecration meeting to precede the convention was held at Mount Vernon Place, where Miss Elizabeth Greenwood presiding. A number of white-ribbon delegates and several of the ladies who participated in the National Purity Congress proceedings met at Inman's Church to-day and discussed ways and means for the extension of the physical culture, purity and rescue work of the W. C. T. U.

PLAYED "DUCK AND DRAKE."

No Farmer Goodhart Caused the Arrest of a Mayor.

READING, Pa., Oct. 17.—Detective Dorr called on Mayor Shanahan yesterday and arrested him on a warrant issued by Alderman Eby. Information had also been out against Chief of Police Cullen, but as he is in Buffalo he has not yet been arrested. The information was sworn out by Eli H. Goodhart, who is a farmer residing in lower Alsace Township.

He alleges that a party of six men, among whom were Mayor Shanahan, Chief Cullen and others he did not know, "entered his field, trod down the grass and otherwise injured it by playing 'duck and drake.'" They also knocked from a tree and took away chestnuts. The Mayor appeared before Alderman Eby and entered $500 bail for appearance on Monday at 2 P. M.

BOTH MAY USE "DEMOCRAT."

Ruling of the Nebraska Supreme Court on a Controversy.

LINCOLN, Neb., Oct. 17.—The ruling of Secretary of State Piper that each faction of the Democratic party in Nebraska, free silver and hard money, had an equal right to the use of the word "Democrat" in designating candidates on the official ballot, was sustained by the Supreme Court to-day. The free silver wing had brought suit to enjoin its rival from appearing under that designation, and the injunction was denied. The court declares that it is neither the province of the Secretary of State nor of the judiciary to determine the question of which is right or wrong in a case which is purely political. Justice Post intimated that the present law was defective and must be remedied.

Emperor and Empress There.

Berlin, Germany, Oct. 17.—The Emperor and Empress to-day attended the inauguration of the Evangelical church at Conzelles. The ceremony, which was an imposing one, was attended by a crowd of notable persons. The Emperor and Empress were enthusiastically cheered by thousands of people who lined the streets.

THAT FATAL RIOTING.

SLAUGHTER OF ARMENIANS BY DESPERATE MOSLEM MOBS.

SOLDIERS IN THE WORK.

THEY FIRED ON THE PERSECUTED PEOPLE AND HELPED IN THE MASSACRE.

SOME TURKS IN OPPOSITION.

THE BETTER CLASSES SHELTERED WOMEN AND CHILDREN IN THEIR HOUSES.

LONDON, Eng., Oct. 17.—The Daily News will to-morrow publish a dispatch from Constantinople giving a description by an eyewitness of the rioting at Trebizond. He says that four separate Moslem mobs surrounded the Armenian headquarters at 11 o'clock on the morning of October 8 and began to pillage the shops. Being opposed, they fired on the Armenians and in pillaging the shops and houses. The scene continued until 4 o'clock in the afternoon, when nothing was left to pillage and nobody remained to be killed. The mob then began to disperse.

The better class of Turks did their best to protect the lives of the Armenians. They sheltered the women and children and many men in their houses. The mob attacked only the orthodox Armenians, leaving Catholics alone. Only two non-Armenians were killed, both being Greeks. One of these was within a kahn, where resistance led to the killing of all the inmates, numbering fifty-five. No women or children were killed in the town.

At 6 o'clock the Governor and other officials appeared upon the scene, and the Governor proclaimed that anybody found armed would be arrested and summarily punished. Leading Turks obtained permission for the Armenians to lodge in the barracks, where military protection was given them, it being feared there might be a renewal of the disorders during the night.

An official return places the number of the dead at 180, but well-informed persons place it at between 400 and 500. On the same day, October 8, several villages outside of Trebizond were burned and pillaged and many persons were killed. Other villages were partly looted. The efforts of the officials and influential Turks saved many lives. After matters had quieted down the foreigners returned to their homes from the ships on which they had taken refuge. By October 13, when the eyewitness left, nearly all the foreign and native refugees had returned.

THE SULTAN YIELDS.

Agrees to Sign the Reform Scheme of the Powers.

LONDON, Eng., Oct. 17.—The Chronicle to-morrow will publish a Constantinople dispatch saying that the Sultan gave an audience to his Ministers early on Wednesday. They implored him to sign the scheme of reform submitted by the powers, and his Majesty at last gave way and consented to do so. While one part of the populace has been pacified by the announcement of the acceptance of the scheme, there is great excitement in Constantinople proper, where there are strong signs of popular feeling against the scheme. The Sofias, Mohammedan theological students, are crowding together from all directions. Patrols of soldiers are stationed at every hundred yards about the city.

MANY ARMENIANS RELEASED.

Work of the Commission of Inquiry Appointed by the Powers.

LONDON, Eng., Oct. 17.—A dispatch from Constantinople dated yesterday says that the commission appointed by the Powers to inquire into the guilt or innocence of the Armenians who have been arrested since September 30 has caused the release of forty-seven of the prisoners, who are declared to be innocent of any complicity in the rioting.

TO BE GIVEN A WIFE.

Korea's King Will Be Provided with a New Queen.

NEW YORK, N. Y., Oct. 13.—A special cable dispatch to the Herald from Seoul, Korea, says: The King will be provided with a new Queen to-day. The Japanese Minister has asked the Korean Minister of War to sign a paper assuming all responsibility for the recent murder at the palace. The Korean Minister to Japan has resigned and Kioka Chuen, chief of those concerned in the conspiracy, who wants to leave the country, has been appointed in his place. There were disturbances yesterday in the neighborhood of the palace.

Russian Black Sea Fleet.

LONDON, Eng., Oct. 17.—The Times will to-morrow publish a dispatch from Odessa saying that the Russian Black Sea fleet, consisting of four ironclads and eight other vessels, arrived at that place on October 13. They hastily embarked stores and sailed on the 15th to cruise near the Bosphorus. The fleet usually finishes its cruising at the end of September.

Strike of Stonecutters.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 17.—The stonecutters who have been preparing granite for the new government building at the Dugan stoneyards went on a strike this morning. About eighty stonecutters and twenty helpers are out. The men demand that they be paid twice a month instead of once a month, which has been the custom since the work was begun. Contractor George Dugan refused to make this concession, and the men quit. The stone already cut will be laid. This will give about a month's work for the stone-layers at the building, and then all work will cease throughout the winter.

Resignation of McKenna.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Oct. 17.—Edward C. McKenna, general superintendent of the Great Northern Railway lines, late this afternoon tendered to Manager Warren his resignation, to take effect November 1.

Post will to-morrow publish a dispatch from Berlin saying it is reported that Dr. von Boetticher, the Imperial Home Secretary has resigned, but the rumor cannot be confirmed.

ARRESTED IN BELGIUM.

Capture of the Burglars Who Escaped From New York.

NEW YORK, N. Y., Oct. 17.—A special to the Herald from Washington says: "Harry" Russell, one of the notorious postoffice burglars who startled the country by their sensational escape from the Ludlow-street jail in New York, on July 4, has been arrested in Brussels, Belgium.

Two other men and a woman were arrested with him and these men are supposed to be "Joe" Killoran and "Charlie" Allen, who were arrested with Russell and escaped from jail with him.

Secretary Olney sent a cablegram this afternoon to Minister Ewing in Brussels, directing him to request the Belgian authorities to hold all of the men until the arrival of an officer from the United States who could identify them.

The Belgian officials will, doubtless, comply with this request, and Russell and his companions, if they are Killoran and Allen, will be behind the bars in this country again as soon as the necessary proceedings for their extradition can be taken.

Gossip of the Approaching Vanderbilt-Marlborough Marriage.

Gowns Worth a King's Ransom Being Imported From Paris.

NEW YORK, N. Y., Oct. 17.—Miss Consuelo Vanderbilt, whose wedding with the Duke of Marlborough is now quite close at hand, is passing her time very quietly. She accompanies her mother, Mrs. W. K. Vanderbilt, to the new residence at Madison avenue and Seventy-second street, frequently, though she does not remain there long. Mrs. Vanderbilt is overseeing the placing of furniture, tapestries, pictures and hangings in the house every day, and has but little time to spare. The Duke dines with Mrs. Vanderbilt and his fiancée every evening, either in their private dining-room at the Savoy or in company with Oliver H. P. Belmont at the Waldorf.

Of the 4000 wedding cards issued a fair proportion went to different families of the English nobility. The entire British diplomatic corps stationed at Washington will be present, including the Ambassador, Sir Julian Pauncefote, Lady Pauncefote and her suite. Lord and Lady Gough will also attend. Although not yet settled the impression is that Lord Westmore of higher rank than any other single man of the Embassy, will be one of the ushers.

Naturally every one at this wedding will be desirous of retaining some souvenir of the occasion. Mrs. Vanderbilt has considered this point and has, it is said, made some admirable selections.

Miss Consuelo has never looked prettier than when in public of late. At the little family dinners or at the theater she has been very becomingly attired in deep rose color (her favorite hue), old blue or emerald green, with chic French hats. At regular intervals, when on this side of the water, new installments of French finery come to the leading Parisian houses to Mrs. Vanderbilt and her daughter.

Besides the important wedding and the outfit for the bridal trip, there is whatever will be done in regard to a trousseau before the wedding. Apropos of the bridal costume a prominent woman socially said to-day that Mrs. Vanderbilt had two bridal gowns sent over from Paris for her daughter, one a magnificent affair suited to a great heiress and the future Duchess of Marlborough.

On this the lace is worth a King's ransom. The veil is wide and long enough to be caught way back on the dainty head of the young bride and to sweep down to the very border of the long train of superb satin. When this is worn some of the finest diamond ornaments in the world will ornament the corsage and coiffure.

The other wedding gown is of the youthful style, dainty, girlish of make and simple to a degree. With this full tulle veil will be worn and the emblematic orange blossom wreath.

Denies All the Charges.

NEW ORLEANS, La., Oct. 17.—Jerome K. Coulter, whose arrest was telegraphed last night, charged with embezzlement while acting as Deputy City Treasurer of Omaha, disclaims having committed any offense against the law, and says the charge against him is the result of a political fight. When his term of office expired he was without employment, and left Omaha in search of work. There was no charge against him when he left, and many persons in Omaha have been advised of his whereabouts since leaving there. He is willing to go back without a requisition.

Killed by an Explosion.

CHICAGO, Ill., Oct. 17.—By the explosion of a dynamite blast in the ruins of the Manufacturers building on the World's Fair grounds at noon to-day Samuel Hobart, a laborer, residing at Sixty-third and Halsted streets, was instantly killed. Hobart's head was blown off. He was three blocks away from the scene of the explosion. The men employed in tearing down the building were sitting close to the building eating their lunch when the explosion occurred. The cause of the explosion is unknown.

Has Gone to Europe.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Oct. 17.—A. K. Ward, secretary, treasurer and manager of the Memphis Barrel and Heading Company, has been missing since last Tuesday, and it is thought he has gone to Europe. He is accompanied by his wife. Ward has forged the names of relatives and business friends who were present at a meeting of other money-lenders, the aggregate amount of paper outstanding being between $50,000 and $100,000. Much of this paper is said to be floating in New York and other money centers through brokers.

READY FOR CONGRESS.

STATESMEN ARE ALREADY ARRIVING AT THE CAPITAL.

REED IS HARD AT WORK.

PREPARING A LIST OF HOUSE COMMITTEES AND CHOICE CHAIRMANSHIPS.

LOUD AND HILBORN'S CHANCES.

GOSSIP AT THE PROBABLE REPUBLICAN REORGANIZATION OF THE SENATE.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 17.—In less than six weeks Congress meets again, and a number of Senators and Representatives are already on hand. It is reported that Mr. Reed, in contemplation of his election as Speaker, is already at work on his committee assignments. His work is being done very quietly at his home in Portland, Me., for of course he cannot take counsel with members of Congress at this time, as this, in advance of his election, would be considered presumptuous. But some of his intimate friends have lately visited him in the interest of themselves—friends who seek choice committee places.

It is believed that Mr. Loud is ranking member of an important committee and is entitled to this assignment by reason of his service and familiarity with the duties. He also ranks first on the Committee of Claims, and will probably be chairman of either one or the other. It is understood that Mr. Bowers would like the chairmanship of the Committee on Military Affairs, on which he served last Congress.

Mr. Hilborn having served a greater part of last Congress before he was unseated, cannot be regarded as a new member, and will doubtless apply for some chairmanship. The Committee of Immigration and Naturalization would probably suit his taste, but in the Fifty-third Congress he served on the District of Columbia Committee, and may be re-assigned. He is a friend of Mr. Reed, being a native of Reed's State, and knew him in California when Reed was a schoolteacher and law student in the early days.

Republican leaders are divided on the question of reorganizing, or attempting to reorganize, the Senate. Senator Chandler and others of that ultra type are spoils-men, and want every crumb of Senate patronage, and oppose Senator Sherman's conservatism. Senator Proctor said to THE CALL correspondent to-day: "It seems to me that it will be necessary for Republicans to reorganize the Senate. But there has been no arrangement, understanding or correspondence upon that subject so far as I am aware. I do not understand, as has been suggested in some quarters, that there was an agreement among Republican Senators at the close of the last session that there should be no reorganization of the Senate at this session, except by Republican votes. If there was an agreement of that kind I was not a party to it. Republicans may not care to resume the responsibility for reorganization of the Senate under existing conditions, but as a matter of fact they cannot avoid the consequences of their plurality. The plurality of the Senate, for that matter, practically carries control with it. Control of the Senate, of course, would give to the Republicans power to initiate legislation which would be an advantage. I do not think that the question of patronage is likely at all to enter into this matter. There certainly has been no indication of any contest upon the part of Republican Senators on that question."

"I have heard nothing of any rivalries of that kind which are spoken of in the newspapers. There certainly is nothing in the suggestion that there will be an attempt, if the Republicans shall reorganize the Senate, to depose Senator Morrill from the chairmanship of the Committee on Finance. He is the senior Republican of that committee, and if the Republicans should regain control of the Senate he would undoubtedly be given the chairmanship, which he held at the time the Republicans lost the Senate.

"I certainly do not see how the Democrats can desire or expect to control the Senate so long as they will not have a majority which would make that control effective. And there is no probability that they will secure such a majority. The only way in which the Democrats could secure control of the Senate would be by combining with all of the Populists. That seems to be altogether impracticable. It does not appear to me to be possible that the Populists as a body will co-operate with either party. This is only an assumption on my part.

"I have no information as to the probable action of the parties as a whole, or as to any one of them. Nor do I know what attitude Senators Jones and Stewart, of Nevada, will take, both of whom claim to be Populists. There have been recent reports that Senator Jones has abandoned his relations to the Populists and is likely to return to the Republicans. I do not know how that may be, or how accurate those reports are. As for Senator Stewart, I do not imagine that he is so embittered on account of silver controversies that he will act as a rule with the Democrats rather than with the Republicans. He is, of course, an intense silver man, and is the mainstay of the silver party. But on all questions aside from those which relate to silver Senator Stewart, I should say, is an earnest Republican. He is certainly opposed at heart and by his record to most of things for which Democrats stand except as regards silver."
