course. A number of other American horses were competitors, but with the exception of Quarter Stretch none of them was placed. The course has now been cleared of several notorious "pullers" and it is thus hoped by the real friends of sport that genuine results may be attained in future races.

REPRESSIVE LEGISLATION MAY BE ENACTED BY THE COMING REICHSTAG.

The semi-official press of Berlin gives very brief notices to the acceptance by the Sultan of Turkey of the proposals submitted by the powers in regard to Armenia and cautiously refrains from stating that they regard this settlement as the final ending of the crisis.

VON BOETTICHER'S SCANDAL. AGAIN ACCUSED OF IRREGULARITIES IN CONNECTION WITH THE GUELPH FUND.

BERLIN, GERMANY, Oct. 20.—Semi-official reports agree in fixing the time of the opening of the next session of the Reichstag on November 21. All of the best informed sources of political opinion credit the Government with the intention of adhering closely to the decision arrived at some time ago not to again introduce an anti-revolution bill in any form, the chances of such a measure passing the Reichstag being apparently no better.

OPPOSE A THIRD TERM. LEADING DEMOCRATS DECLARE AGAINST CLEVELAND'S ASPIRATION.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 20.—The relations of capital to labor, so far as they apply to strikes and lockouts, during the past seven and a half years, are exhaustively treated in the annual report of Colonel Carroll D. Wright, the Commissioner of Labor, which is made public today.

GREAT LOSS IN WAGES. TIE-UPS HAVE RESULTED MORE DISASTROUSLY TO LABOR THAN TO CAPITAL.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 20.—The report shows that during the foregoing period Illinois had the largest number of establishments affected both by strikes and lockouts, there having been 10,000 of the former and 1193 of the latter. WOMEN CHRISTIAN WORK. INTERESTING SUBJECTS DISCUSSED AT THE SECOND DAY'S SESSION.

BALTIMORE, Md., Oct. 20.—At the second day's session of the Women's Christian Temperance Union the devotional services were conducted by Mrs. Annie M. Palmer, National evangelist of Iowa. After some routine business had been disposed of the subject "Methods of Promoting Our Principles" was discussed.

RAVAGED BY FLAMES. PRAIRIE FIRES SWEEP OVER THE NORTHWESTERN STATES. MANY LIVES ARE LOST. SETTLERS PERISH WHILE FIGHTING TO PROTECT THEIR HOMES.

CHICAGO, ILL., Oct. 20.—A special from St. Paul, Minn., says: For the last two days the arid wastes and blistering winds of Arizona and New Mexico seemed to have been transferred to the American and Canadian Northwest. The chief difference is that instead of the scorch of an equatorial sirocco the icy blasts of the poles have held sway.
