CALLED A YELLOW DOG.

CHAMPION CORBETT TOLD JULIAN THAT FITZSIMMONS IS A CUR.

JIM WAS GREATLY DISGUSTED.

OFFERED TO FIGHT THE AUSTRALIAN FOR NOTHING AND THEN RETIRE FROM THE RING.

HOT SPRINGS, ARK., Oct. 22.—There may be two or three minor fights pulled off in this resort within the next two or three weeks, provided that the decision of the Supreme Court is favorable and that, as expected, the Governor will not further interfere, but there are less prospects of Corbett and Fitzsimmons meeting in the ring than there were twenty-four hours ago.

Corbett came to town from his training quarters this evening for the express purpose of meeting Martin Julian, the representative of Fitzsimmons, and as the result of a stormy interview, in which Julian rejected every proposition made by the champion, the latter "washed his hands of the whole business," to use his expression, and left the conference-room with the announcement that he would go out of training at once.

President Dan Stuart of the Florida Club, who goes to Dallas in the morning to return on Sunday, said to-night that the club still had under consideration the matching of Corbett with another man and the pulling-off of the two remaining fights. Julian also leaves in the morning for Corpus Christi. His final announcement in the imbroglio is this:

"I will have Fitzsimmons here on the 31st and ready to fight, as provided by the articles of agreement. If the Florida Club is no longer connected with the affair, and there is no purse in sight, then we will be willing to fight in private in a place to be selected by a Chicago man now here for the side bet of $10,000.

"If Corbett will not consent to this, then we will demand the forfeit of $250, and as the people identified with the Florida Club are supposed to be all honorable men we assume they will pay over promptly."

This is the situation as it is likely to remain for the next nine days. Corbett's hurried visit to town was precipitated by the information conveyed to his training quarters at Spring Lake this afternoon by Manager Brady and the United Press representative that Julian proposed to go away in the morning, leaving Corbett without any idea where he was.

The champion was engaged in a boxing bout with Professor John Donaldson, having earlier in the day badly flattened Steve O'Donnell's nose by a chance blow, putting that worthy hors d' combat for the time being. Just as soon as he received the news of Julian's intended departure Corbett quit his exercise, was quickly rubbed down and driven at break-neck speed to the depot, which was hardly reached in time to catch the 5:30 train.

While en route to the depot he met a resident of this city, who was driving out to the quarters to convey a verbal farewell message from Julian that he would have Fitzsimmons on the ground on October 31, an item of information that was received with a contemptuous snort.

On arriving at the Arlington Corbett sent word to Julian that he desired to see him at once, and in about ten minutes the representative of the Australian responded. The manager's office was placed at the disposal of the party, which comprised Corbett and Julian, Brady, Dan Stuart, Vendig and the representative of the United Press, Corbett insisting that the latter be admitted.

Corbett and Julian faced each other about three feet apart, and for several moments neither said a word. Corbett was the first to break the silence. The following is a stenographic report of the war of words:

"Did you send word to me that if I was not in Hot Springs by the 31st of October Fitzsimmons would come out to Spring Lake and fight me?"

"No, I did not send out word to that effect. Fitzsimmons would be glad to get such an opportunity."

"In the first place is Fitzsimmons anxious to fight me now as he claimed to be when he made this match with me in the New York Herald's office more than a year ago?"

"Yes, I think his actions indicate that he is willing and anxious to do so."

"Well, if he wants to fight me why does he not agree to fight me on November 11 instead of October 31?"

"Because he has made up his mind to fight on October 31."

"Has Fitzsimmons got his $10,000 stake money up in New York?"

"No; that has been attached, but we have $10,000 more to put up."

"Where is that money?"

"I don't care to state, but I can get it if necessary within two hours and post it with any responsible person you may name in Hot Springs or any other place, barring New York City."

"Do you expect me to believe, Mr. Julian, that Fitzsimmons insists on fighting for $10,000, on October 31, when he can get $40,000 for waiting two weeks later?"

"I don't care what you believe; you can do as you please. I am speaking for Fitzsimmons. In order to have the fight we would rather fight for $10,000 on the 31st."

"That is absolutely impossible, and you know the reason as well as I do."

"I don't see any reason for postponing the fight. Fitzsimmons is in proper condition now and I don't know what he will be by the 11th of November."

"Then he is in good condition?"

"Never better."

"Did you make a statement to the effect that the club had postponed this fight because I was not in condition to fight on October 31?"

"I don't want I said. I may have said it. I don't know the club's secrets and I might do some thinking, but I don't think it best to commit myself."

"Will you kindly tell me that you think yet that I am not in condition?"

"Yes, I think so yet."

"Well, now to relieve your mind, I'll tell you what I'll do. You know, if we fight on the 31st we don't get a cent. We fight on the 11th we get $10,000. Now, if you think the club postponing the fight to let me time in which to get into condition go and get Fitzsimmons as quickly as you can and I will fight him for nothing. Can you get him before the Governor can do anything to prevent the fight?"

"I have heard nothing about the Governor going to stop it."

Corbett laughingly replied: "Have you

THE TWO-YEAR-OLDS HELD FULL SWAY AT THE TRACK YESTERDAY.

FAVORITES WON THREE RACES.

MARIONETTE BEAT MONITOR OUT THROUGH SHAW'S SUPERIOR RIDING.

The well-known Eastern pincener and owner, Frank Phillips, out in yesterday, taking Abe Stein's place in the ring, who retired.

Tod Sloane was fined $100 by Striker Ferguson Monday, for beating the flag with Bravura, so he has decided to take a brief rest on the ground.

The 100 to 1 that Forsina made a most creditable showing in the last race and will take some beating next time out. She was but a neck beat of Monitor entering the stretch.

The old favorite, Happy Day, started in the fourth race and finished with his first essay since his return to California. He plumed his ears back in his preliminary gallop as though he did not fancy the hard going as well as the sand out at the ocean beach.

At a meeting of the board of stewards of the California Jockey Club held Monday evening Frank Maley, who was suspended some months ago for being mentioned in connection with the pulling of the horse Ricardo, was restored to the full privileges of the track. Al Leach ruled off a couple of years back when trainer of Queen Bee, who ran an unsavory race, was also reinstated.

Entries for the stakes of the California Jockey Club will close on Friday, October 25. On account of the changing of the date for the opening of the Pacific Coast Jockey Club's new track at Los Angeles it was decided to let the club out to run all of its two-year-old stakes off during the present year. If such an obstacle should present itself the stakes remaining unentered will be run for in January, 1896, the youngsters who will then be three-year-olds, to correspond with the same rule will apply to the three-year-old stakes.

There was two-year-old racing galore at the track yesterday, no less than three of the events on the card being for members of the kindergarten division. A mile selling dash and a short six-furlong run completed a not over-attraction programme. The attendance was poor and business was dull for the nine bookmakers in the ring. Three favorites managed to reach the wire in front.

Corriente, a 10 to 1 chance, ridden by Mike Hennessy, stepped out of the maiden class in the opening race at four and a half furlongs, finishing two lengths ahead of the 2 to 1 favorite, Rhætia. Harry O, on which a hot tip was out, finished a good third.

The mile run looked a foregone conclusion for Miss Fletcher, and she was heavily backed at odds of 4 to 5. Leading all the way, she won hands down from the rest of the field, finishing with a superior riding in 1:01 flat. Charlie Boots finished a good third.

A fairly good-looking lot of maiden two-year-olds faced the flag in the third race. Of the eight starters imp. Endymion was the talent's pick and was speedily backed from the start. He was ridden by English-born youngster was the first to show when the flag fell, and leading all the way won easily from the hard-riding Ollie M, second choice. The winner covered the four and a half furlongs in the very creditable time of 55.3.

The short six-furlong spin with five starters, ridden by maiden jockeys, was a dreary betting affair. Three Forks, with Bryan up, was backed from 8 to 5 to give the money, and did so in a very creditable time of 1:12. Happy Day was an ordinary third.

The traditional upset had to occur in the last race, a five-furlong race for the more speedy ones of the two-year-old brigade. Monitor carried the day through Shaw's superior riding in 1:01 flat. Charlie Boots finished a good third.

FOR THE AMERICA CUP.

CONDITIONS UNDER WHICH THE INTERNATIONAL RACES WILL BE SAILED.

TIME LIMIT IS SHORTENED.

PROVISIONS ALSO MADE IN CASE THERE IS CROWDING AT THE START.

NEW YORK, N. Y., Oct. 22.—The proposed conditions for the international races next summer between the Distant Shore and the American boat for the America cup, which was mailed to Percy Yellottson, secretary of the Royal Victoria Yacht Club, through whom Charles Day Rose, the owner of the Distant Shore, has challenged, reached the other side to-night.

The conditions are practically the same as those laid out for the Defender-Valkyrie race and are of course subject to the approval and suggestions of Mr. Rose and the Royal Victoria Yacht Club. The only marked change in the conditions is in the time limit, which has been reduced from six to five and a half hours. The cup committee give as the reason for the reduction the speed of modern racing yachts.

There is also a provision for postponement if in the opinion of the regatta committee the space around the starting line is not sufficiently clear. The date suggested for the first race is July 23, which is ten months from the receipt of the challenge.

The races will be sailed off Sandy Hook, the best three out of five to decide, and one day, not counting Sunday, to intervene between the races unless changed by agreement. The first race is to be to windward or leeward and return, the second over a triangular course, the third the same as the first, etc., the course to be strictly nautical miles.

There is also a clause providing for serious accident to either vessel prior to the preparatory signal. Should such occur the boat shall have sufficient time to provide for repairs before being required to start, or, if such accident shall happen during the race, before being required to start in the next race.

The America cup committee closes the letter by expressing its appreciation of the spirit of the challenge and of the confidence shown by the challenger in the former's committee.

WHIST VS. POKER.

The San Francisco Club Defies the Trists to Ruin It.

The following communication is self-explanatory:

The daily Examiner of October 16 having, at the request of one P. J. Tormey, published an article headed "The First Whist Club," wherein said Tormey charges, in substance, that poker is played in the San Francisco Whist Club and countenanced by its directors, and further, that the constitution of the club was altered in the printing by omitting therefrom a by-law prohibiting gambling:

That the truth of the charges made may be known to our members and the public in general the directors and officers of the San Francisco Whist Club state the facts to be as follows:

The San Francisco Whist Club was incorporated in May, 1894, and its constitution was formulated by the directors, correctly copied into the books of by-laws and signed and ratified by the members, including P. J. Tormey. The constitution of this corporation has never been printed and no clause of it was ever changed.

Shortly after the corporation was formed it was brought to the attention of the board that a few club members had on several occasions played poker in the smoking-room of the club. The board immediately passed a resolution prohibiting it, and it was at once discontinued and never has been resumed. To the knowledge of our board of directors, the only

JUST CONSIDER

SAN JOSE, CAL., Oct. 22.—The crowd in attendance at the baseball game at Recreation Park this afternoon was not large, but the work done by the players deserves more than passing mention. The playing of the local nine was especially good and the tables were neatly turned on the men from Oakland, San Jose winning the second game of the series by a score of 5 to 1.

The features of the game were the hitting of Twitchell, the neat fielding of Weaver and Burns' work in left field for the Oakland. During the progress of the game Twitchell made a three-bagger and one single, one of his hits giving San Jose an earned run. Weaver took care of everything that came his way and at the close of the game had eight putouts to his credit. Following is the score:

Table with columns: Name, AB, R, BH, FO, A, E. Rows include Weaver, Burns, Taylor, Hollingsworth, Bolan, Fisher, etc.

Defeated Lake Forest.

CHICAGO, ILL., Oct. 22.—The Chicago Athletic University played its last game of football here to-day, before departing on its Eastern trip. Lake Forest took a score of 30 to 0. The Athleticists made no trouble in scoring on the Varsity five times—three times in the first and twice in the second half. Owing to injuries received by the Indianapolis member, Captain Camp nor Slater played. Blaney took the latter's place at halfback, while Brown called the signals instead of Camp.
