THE BAY DISTRICT RACES.

FRED GARDNER DEFEATS CLAUDIUS IN THE LONG-DISTANCE HANDICAP.

IMP. SANTA BELLA IN FRONT.

WELL RIDDEN BY HENNESSY, AUTEUIL WON THE TWO-MILE HURDLE RACE.

Previous to the first race Joe McCarthy disposed of Jostie G to Al Hauser, a young New Yorker means. He ran a very fair race, which she should improve on next time out.

Monita twisted a plate in Wednesday's race, which accounted for his poor showing the latter part of the race. He ran second yesterday at very comfortable place odds.

Tod Sloan rode three of the winners yesterday, and was greatly creditable over being beaten on Claudius. Many think had he started for the front sooner it would not have happened.

Marionette acted very rank at the post, trying her best to unseat Shaw, and twice nearly returning to the judges' stand the reverse way of the track. At that, she ran a fine race, finishing fourth.

Could an outsider have done imp. Santa Bella in the two-year-old handicap Bookmaker Hugh Jones could have retired from business and lived on his wealth. He took all the coin that came his way on her, but the "cat came back" and the line he had back of his stand after the race looked like a run on a savings bank.

A well-versed programme drew out a regular holiday crowd to the races yesterday, disproving the impression that the thoroughbred is losing his hold on the fickle public. Larger fields have not been witnessed in many months. It was a rosy day for favorites, four first and two second choices heading the field past the winning post, casting gloom in the bookmakers' camp, who are away behind in the day's sport.

The one disastrous dump of the day for speculators was the defeat of Claudius, who was looked upon as a "cast-iron" in the mile and a half handicap, with but three starters.

The son of imp. Brutus, carrying top weight, 115 pounds, opened equal favorite in the first betting with the Westchester stable's entry, Fred Gardner, with 90 pounds in the saddle, it being even money and take your pick. Adelaide was the outsider at 20 to 1. The money poured into the books in such large quantities on Claudius, that when the horses were called out 1 to 2 was visible against him on but a few of the boards, while 7 to 5 was plentiful against Gardner.

The outsider, Adelaide, who ran surprisingly good race, cut out the running, trailed by Fred Gardner, who ran a very fair race, but he was leisurely a couple of lengths further away. Adelaide turned into the stretch the second time with a lead of a length. Sloan now made a move with Claudius and was half a length behind Fred Gardner.

Chevalier on the latter horse let out a link, assuming the lead, and Sloan on the favorite attempted to get through next the rail below the furlong pole, but Adelaide, riding badly, swerved in and cut him off. This cost him his chance for the race, for before he could get his horse moving again Gardner had gained too much of an advantage, and beat the cinchy first choice out two lengths by a margin of 2-3/4 length. Adelaide was eight lengths away.

The 9 to 10 offered against Gondola winning the opening race, a cheap five-furlong dash, seemed a most liberal price, taking heed of Thursday's consideration, and such proved the case, for he won easily from Sleeping Child, with Josie G in the show.

With but four starters in the next race at five and a half furlongs, Mr. McDonough's English bred filly, Miss Brummel, it was thought would dispose of Tim Murphy without trouble, and she was a warm 11 to 20 favorite, with 11 to 5 chalked again to the roan horse. Sloan, but it was not the race predicted. The filly cut out the pace, McKnight reserving Murphy for the rub in the stretch. The two had it nip and tuck for an eighth of a mile, the two-year-old winning at the wire by a short half length, in the fast time of 1:06 3/4.

The Hyder Ali mare Miss Fletcher seems to be quite at herself just at present, for she took the first race, a mile selling dash in a gallop from Miss Brummel, an even-money chance. Normandie was third. Time, 1:42.

The bookmakers were badly shaken up over the result of the two-year-old handicap at five and a half furlongs, with seven starters. Carrying top weight, imp. Santa Bella was made an even-money favorite, at which price she was heavily backed by the wise contingent. Redington, Marjorie and Joe K. were also outclassed, but received some support.

The favorite was away second to a straggling start, but at once went out in front and, simply playing with her field, won as she pleased. The winner, Josie K., coming from back in the pack, passed Redington, who was tiring badly the last fifty yards, and beat him out half a length for the place. The winner covered the distance in 1:34 3/4.

The eight jumpers that sported colors in the hurdle race, two miles over eight fences, furnished a very pretty sight, all getting over safely and finishing without mishap.

Mestor carried the bulk of the coin, going to the post 5 to 5, but Swift lay altogether too far out of the race with him, which, added to a stumble over the last hurdle, deprived him of any part of the money. Auteuil, on the other hand, had good choices in the betting, ridden with rare judgment by Mike Hennessy, won at the finish easily from J. O. C. with Arctic in third place. The winner's time was 3:45 3/4, three and a half seconds lower than the coast record.

Thirty-first day, Saturday, October 26.—Weather fine; track fast.

GOOD NEWS FOR HORSEMEN.

Large Purses, With No Entrance Money, at the New Track.

The directors of the new Pacific Coast Jockey Club held a meeting at the Palace Hotel on Friday evening, at which it was decided the purses to be offered at the coming meeting would be $400 and $500, with no entrance-money fee. This will be good news to horse-owners, who have been crumbling for the past year about racing for their own money with poor results.

The work of putting the top coating of loam on the new track was completed yesterday, and on Saturday next the stalls will be ready for occupancy.

President Henry S. Crocker, who is working industriously to make the coming meeting at Ingleside a success, left for the East last evening on business pertaining to the affairs of the new jockey club, and also the coming horse show, of which association Mr. Crocker is also the president.

To-morrow evening a convention of turfmen and livey stable proprietors will be held at the Baldwin Hotel to take measures toward the improvement of the road leading from the park to the track at Ingleside, and also the one to the beach. This could be made one of the prettiest drives out of the City, but it is now in bad condition from the heavy teams that have passed over it.

New Athletic Park.

Preparatory steps have been taken to secure proper grounds for the construction of an athletic park.

It is surmised that the plans will culminate in the fitting up of proper space for a baseball diamond, football field, bicycle track and for other kindred sports.

A company has been formed, and $25,000 capital has already been subscribed. The next move to be made will be the incorporation of the syndicate.

One feature of the new movement is the fact that most of the members of the new syndicate are well-known business men.

Henry Harris, the ex-manager of the San Francisco of the old California League, has been appointed manager.

In an interview yesterday Mr. Harris said he was sanguine of the success of the new enterprise. It had not been under taken without due contemplation, and everything pointed to a realization of the promoters' wishes. He declared that the leading cyclists and baseball men of the East will be represented on the new track and field, and that the present sentiment seemed to promise that the venture would be one of the most popular ever inaugurated here.

Lecture on God's Women.

For the benefit of the Teachers' Mutual Aid Society a lecture on "God's Women" will be delivered by Rev. Anna H. Shaw at Metropolitan Temple, Wednesday evening.

THE OWL DRUG CO., 1128 Market St., Trusses That Fit, Silk Elastic Rose That Wear, Shoulder Braces, Rubber Goods, Our Specialty.

SUICIDE IN THE PARK.

An Unknown Man Shoots Himself in the Right Temple.

A well-dressed man, about 40 years of age, was found by two young men last night in Golden Gate Park, near the superintendent's office, with blood all over his face and a revolver in his right hand. They notified the park police, who summoned the ambulance, and the stranger was taken to the Receiving Hospital. Dr. Thompson found that he had shot himself in the right temple and the bullet had lodged in the brain. The chances are that he will not recover.

The man was conscious, but he positively refused to give his name or any reason for attempting to commit suicide. There were no papers in his pocket, and the only thing that would give a clue was a silver matchbox, with the inscription, "A. P. H. Co., Xmas, 1892." The band on his coat bears the name of a tailor in Olympia, Wash.

Will Sing at Calvary.

Frank Vertreese Pollock of the Bostonians is announced to sing at Calvary Presbyterian Church this morning. This gentleman is possessed of a remarkably rich tenor voice, and his many friends will be glad of the opportunity to hear him outside the line of his profession. His selection is "If With All Your Hearts." The service will be held at 11 o'clock, also sing at the opening exercises of the Sabbath-school, which convenes immediately after the church service.

HOWARD WINS THE CITRUS BELT HANDICAP IN REMARKABLY FAST TIME.

STANFORD FRESHMEN WON.

Santa Cruz High School Players Defeated in a Closely Contested Football Game.

SANTA CRUZ, CAL., Oct. 26.—A large crowd of people of Vuc de l'Eau Athletic Park this afternoon witnessed a football game between the freshmen eleven of Stanford University and the High School eleven of this city. It was an enthusiastic gathering and throughout the game cheered, waved handkerchiefs and made all the noise possible with throats, cowbells and horns. The game was a close one, the Stanford team winning by a score of 4 to 0. This speaks well for the Santa Cruz team, which does not have the training advantages of the university eleven.

The game was called at 3 o'clock, Santa Cruz kicking off. Throughout the first half the ball was not at any time further than sixty feet from the center. The half ended without a score, the ball being in Santa Cruz territory.

In the second half the Stanford team kicked off and got the ball on a fumble. For a time the odds were in Stanford's favor, and in about fifteen minutes Brown made a touchdown from the ten-yard plate. Stanford missed goal. Santa Cruz then kicked off, but in the short time was unable to make the touch line. The line-up was as follows:

The Stanford men were the guests of the Santa Cruz eleven this evening, and were entertained at a theater party, followed by a supper.

Lady of Victories.

At the French church on Bush street the feast of "Our Lady of Victories" will be celebrated to-day. The masses will be at 7, 8 and 9 A. M. and a solemn mass at 11 A. M. There will be special music by the choir. Rev. Mr. Conde, S. M., will celebrate the mass and Rev. E. Genetz will preach.

Moving Drugs.

By selling all goods at cost don't pay, but moving all goods by selling some drugs at cost and others at a small profit keeps the money turning and returning.
