SCHAFFER'S MONEY TALKS

He Defies Officer Banks to Prove One Case of Bribery.

AN EASTERN VISIT DENIED.

The Ex-Chief Speaks Strongly and Backs His Words With a Big Bet.

OAKLAND OFFICE SAN FRANCISCO CALL, 908 Broadway, Dec. 7. Ex-Chief of Police Schaffer treats with scorn the testimony of a Chinaman, Ah Sing, that during his term of office he accepted bribes to allow certain lottery games to run without molestation.

It was reported to-night that the evidence obtained by Chief of Police Lloyd and Officer Banks would be placed at once before the Grand Jury, and that Louis Schaffer was intending to take a hurried trip to New York to attend to his horse-racing interests in the East.

"There is nothing to cover up," said Louis Schaffer, "and now that the ball has started rolling I shall be pushing it along. I will show up Policemen Banks, ex-Policeman McCleod, Felley and some others, and also will throw a side-light on Chief Lloyd. The evidence alleged to be obtained from the Chinaman is absurd on the face of it. It makes me appear to have accepted hush-money from lottery joints that are right opposite the office of my deadliest political enemy on Tenth street."

"The conversation that Chief Lloyd and Captain Wilson declare they heard was held in this fashion. They acknowledge that the Chinaman spoke too low to be heard, so Banks did the talking for both. This is the style in which the interview was conducted."

Chief Schaffer took money from you, didn't he? Isn't that what you said?" said Officer Banks. And if the Chinaman granted it was construed "yes" after Banks had again repeated the monosyllable.

"I am willing to place $1000 in escrow, to be paid to any charity in Oakland that Chief Lloyd may name, if he, or any of those working with him, can prove that I was guilty of one single act of malfeasance while in office. I am very glad that this thing has occurred, as it will enable me to clear away a few clouds that are hanging around. I do not believe, however, that those who have laid this scheme will be as anxious to hear any more of it. I will make this bet in good earnest, and I defy Chief Lloyd or anybody else to prove that any of their insinuations or utterances against the honesty of my administration are true."

Officer McCleod was dismissed from the force under Schaffer's administration and has applied for reinstatement, with some chance of success. Felley resigned and is in his mines in Mexico, but is now back in Oakland.

A Girl's Story of Suicide. OAKLAND, CAL., Dec. 7.—Bertha Roland, a girl 14 years old, told a story to-day about a possible suicide.

"Mr. Miller has often been over to our house," said she, "and while in the city yesterday I met him. He bought me a new pair of shoes and put them in his pocket. We boarded the ferry-boat at 8 P. M. and took a seat on the upper deck. We talked for awhile, but when about halfway across the bay I missed him. At first I thought little of it, but when the boat landed and he did not come for me I began to wonder where he was. I searched the train coming up from the pier, but could not find him."

"He has said a number of times that he would jump into the bay when he was despondent. He was a teamster, but had been unable to keep a work, and he did not want anything to lead me to believe he was going to take his life, but I believe he must have jumped overboard unseen by any one. He has the new shoes in his pocket, wherever he is. Although we have known him for some time none of us know where he lived."

Eastland's Successor. OAKLAND, CAL., Dec. 7.—At a meeting of the Oakland Gas, Light and Heat Company yesterday John W. Coleman was elected to fill the place left vacant by Joseph C. Eastland. In the memorial resolutions passed by the board, referring to the late director, occurs the following:

On December 8, 1865, he commenced the erection of a gas works in this city, acting as first secretary of the Oakland Gas Company, organized June 14, 1866, and was identified with it during the past thirty years as the active officer, holding the position of president from August 8, 1883, to his death.

In the management of the company was reflected his character, a character representing honor, fidelity and justice tempered with his every-remembering moment here.

At the Macdonough. OAKLAND, CAL., Dec. 7.—De Wolf Hopper and his merry company come to the Macdonough next Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings, and a special Saturday matinee.

"The Ring" will be presented Thursday and Saturday evenings, and "Dr. Syntax" Friday evening and Saturday matinee.

This will be Mr. Hopper's first appearance in Oakland, and a grand ovation awaits him.

The sale of seats and boxes begins next Monday, and an unusual rush for seats is expected.

E. B. Pomroy's Funeral. OAKLAND, CAL., Dec. 7.—The funeral of the late E. B. Pomroy will be held to-morrow afternoon. Rev. Dr. J. K. McLean will officiate. Harry J. Snow, James M. Shanley, Frank M. Cosgrove, Leo Park, R. H. Magill and Gibson Davis, employees of the Times, will act as pallbearers. The honorary pall-bearers from the Bohemian Club will be Donald E. Graham, Charles R. Peters, George W. Nagle, Albert Gerberding and William Greer Harrison.

Teacher is Missing. OAKLAND, CAL., Dec. 7.—Peter Reader, a well-known shirt-tailor of 831 Washington street, is missing. He is an aged man and has not been seen by his family since last Wednesday morning. He left home with the intention of purchasing some meat and said he would return at once. He never came back and his family are extremely anxious. His aged wife can give no reason for his action. The missing man is 61 years of age, has gray eyes and a mustache. He is a brother to Philip Reader, the well-known fireman.

Went to Portland. OAKLAND, CAL., Dec. 7.—It was ascertained positively to-day that Lella Bowen, the missing girl, had been in company with Walter Emery, taken the steamer to Portland. The Chief of Police of that city has been notified by telegraph and when the young couple arrive they will be detained until their parents decide what course to take.

There is No Smallpox. OAKLAND, CAL., Dec. 7.—Health Officer Mayon was informed last night that a passenger on the infected steamer Kaiser Wilhelm II would arrive in Alameda from Amsterdam this morning.

Stuart Badly Wanted. OAKLAND, CAL., Dec. 7.—Charles Edward Stuart, the man who lives by duping widows, is being sought by the police in this city. It is glad to be rid of him. An official in this city has just received a letter from G. Cline of Stockton asking for Stuart's address, as he would like to settle with him regarding some board bills and a few loans. Stuart has gone.

Gambling House Raided. OAKLAND, CAL., Dec. 7.—The well-known card-store and gambling-house of A. D. Denny on Broadway was raided to-night by the police. The proprietor and J. H. Jones were arrested, and the former was charged with conducting a banking game. A crap outfit was seized and carried to the City Hall.

Judge Wood Sustained. OAKLAND, CAL., Dec. 7.—Judge Erick rendered a decision to-day sustaining the sentence of Judge Wood in the case of the indicted lottery-jointer. Heine was ordered to pay a fine of $100 and appealed to the Superior Court.

HISTORY OF A DAY.

Alameda County Happenings Told in Brief Chapters.

OAKLAND OFFICE SAN FRANCISCO CALL, 908 Broadway, Dec. 7.

The annual meeting of the Blind of Temescal will be held next Monday. Mayor Davie and Councilmen Bassett and Broshian of the Finance Committee counted the cash in the treasury's office this morning. William Bresser has brought suit in San Francisco against the Oakland Consolidated Street Railway Company to recover $10,295 damages.

Mr. Tilly Abbott has evidently decided to abandon any claim for alimony, and the husband has withdrawn his opposition to her suit for divorce.

Justice White reduced his staff of outside deputies to-day by four. He filed revocation of the appointments of G. E. Aitken, A. S. Miller, J. O. Taylor and H. Kigardie.

The Grand Jury yesterday returned a true bill against C. H. Laing, who was employed as a spotter by the License Collector in getting evidence against persons suspected of selling liquor without license. The grand jury returned a true bill against Laing, J. A. Delano, Charles Pickett and Charles Reynolds.

Mrs. Maria C. Bacon of Alameda has sued her husband for maintenance, asking for $300 a month. She says they were married in Los Angeles in 1874; that he deserted her last July; that he is worth $250,000, and that he earns $250 a month. He is a real estate dealer in San Francisco.

Rev. Samuel Weyer, a Christian Hebrew, will address the men's rally at the Y. M. C. A. to-morrow at 3:30 P. M. Mr. Weyer has had a remarkable experience. For some years he lectured against Christianity. Song service preceding the address will begin promptly at 3:30 o'clock. All men invited.

The detectives of the District Attorney's and Sheriff's offices are still working up evidence against Gibraltarelli, Devincenti and Lazzaruto, charged with the murder of Felice Arzuffo, who was shot following up all the possible clues, and it is stated that a strong chain of evidence is being worked up establishing their guilt.

CONTAGION IN ALAMEDA.

Consumption Classified as Contagious and Will Be Watched.

A Bacteriologist Appointed to Examine Suspected Cases—The Telegram to Resume.

ALAMEDA, CAL., Dec. 7.—The Alameda Board of Health has appointed Dr. W. B. Stephens to be the official bacteriologist of the board. It is to be his duty to examine the sputum of all persons who are suspected of being affected with tuberculosis. This is in accordance with an ordinance which the board recently had enacted classifying tuberculosis as a contagious disease.

All patients who are able must pay a fee for the examination of their sputum, the amount of which it was proposed to make $2.50, but final action on which was postponed until next month.

Printed notices are to be mailed to physicians practicing in Alameda, calling their attention to the law classifying tuberculosis as a contagious disease and requiring them to send to the Health Officer particulars of all cases which they may be called upon to treat in their practice. Dr. Stephens has issued his notices to all of the public schools should undergo a strict examination as to their physical condition before receiving an appointment. He also hinted that there were worse diseases than tuberculosis in the schools.

There were twenty-one deaths in Alameda during the month of November, which was an unprecedentedly high number. There were twenty-seven births, eleven males and sixteen females. The Sanitary Inspector inspected the sanitary arrangements of sixteen new houses during the month and seventeen sewer connections.

A Small Fire. ALAMEDA, CAL., Dec. 7.—At a quarter to 7 P. M. a fire in the rear porch of a house at 1220 Chestnut street owned by Miss Lynch, but occupied by W. M. Cameron. The fire was caused by a coal-oil heater exploding and siding of the house before it was extinguished. The whole Fire Department turned out, but men with garden-hose and shovels, with which they threw sand, had the flames out before the apparatus was in place to work.

The Telegram to Resume. ALAMEDA, CAL., Dec. 7.—E. H. Nauman, receiver of the Telegram, filed his bond to-day in the sum of $3000, with Mrs. Jennie Marshall and Mrs. Mary Wise as sureties. The sureties are the wife and mother of E. L. Marshall, one of the proprietors. Nauman says he will get out a paper next Tuesday morning.

Receipts of a Musical. ALAMEDA, CAL., Dec. 7.—The receipts of the musical given November 25 at the residence of Charles E. Elliott for the benefit of the Woman's Exchange were $239. The cash destined for the benefit was $15. The Thanksgiving dinners were furnished all the poor families in Alameda who were known.

WALSH ORDERED TO JAIL.

Judge Wood Sentences the Secretary of the County Republican Committee.

ENMITY WITH A HISTORY.

A Political Circular Cuts a Prominent Figure in the Annals of the Case.

OAKLAND OFFICE SAN FRANCISCO CALL, 908 Broadway, Dec. 7. The quarrel between Judge Wood and Attorney Phil M. Walsh, secretary of the Republican County Central Committee, reached a climax to-day. Walsh had been ordered to apologize when court opened this morning or "suffer the consequences." Attorney Chapman was in court to represent Walsh in case the contempt proceedings were called, but to the surprise of everybody the case was not called and it was thought that the Judge had reconsidered the matter.

Police Judge Wood of Oakland. [From a photograph.]

At 1 o'clock, however, Judge Wood opened court and formally directed the clerk to enter a lengthy order, adjudging Walsh guilty of contempt and fining him $25 or one day's imprisonment in the city prison.

After citing the circumstances of the alleged contempt, as printed in to-day's CALL, the order proceeds:

WHEREAS, On this 7th day of December, 1895, the court having waited until the hour of noon, and the said Phil M. Walsh, secretary of the said Republican County Central Committee, since said 6th day of December, 1895, failed, neglected and refused to make any apology or offer any excuse for such conduct;

Wherefore, it is now in open court ordered and adjudged that the said Phil M. Walsh is guilty of the offense of contempt of court, committed in the manner heretofore set forth, in the use of disorderly, contemptuous and insolent behavior toward the Judge while holding this court, and in the use of the same course of trial and other judicial proceedings, and as a punishment therefor it is therefore ordered and adjudged that the said Phil M. Walsh pay a fine of $25, and in case said fine is not paid by the 7th day of December, 1895, that the said Phil M. Walsh be imprisoned in the city jail, city of Oakland, county of Alameda, State of California, until the said fine be fully satisfied, and the proportion of one day's imprisonment for every $25 of the said fine.

The warrant was placed in the hands of Detective Nick Williams for service, but Walsh was not to be found. A CALL reporter saw him this evening and he said:

For the Police Court I have the most profound respect, but for Wood personally I have the greatest contempt. It does not surprise me that he should take advantage of his position to vent his spleen in the manner he has seen fit to do. It is just about his caliber. Mr. Chapman is my attorney and he went to San Francisco to-day after he left the Police Court, where we went to represent me in the alleged contempt proceedings. Wood probably ascertained this and thought it would be a good idea to throw me in jail with the probability of my remaining there over Sunday. He knows it is difficult to catch a Superior Judge on Saturday for the purpose of hearing an application for a writ of habeas corpus, and this gives him an opportunity to vent his spite, bigoted malignity.

Judge Wood refuses to talk of the matter, and simply says that all his actions and the reasons therefor are clearly outlined in the order of commitment. Much surprise has been expressed that Judge Wood should have spoken from the bench on the "known enmity" of the attorney for the occupant of the bench. Justice Wood had ample ground on which to base his remark. Some months ago, before Walsh commenced regular practice as an attorney, he issued his order of commitment of a circular that it is claimed by Wood's friends contained statements that were full of contempt. A copy of this circular was obtained to-day. It is as follows:

To the members of the American Protective Association and also those who do not belong to that organization—Gentlemen: Believing as I do that there are some among the American Protective Association who are patriotic and patriotic in their motives, who will not uphold one of their number in petty persecution intended to benefit his individual self and no one else, who desire to see fair play, who do not wish to see clashing between those of other beliefs and other nationalities, these words are addressed:

A few years ago I was appointed by Judge Ogden as shorthand reporter in the Police Court of this city, and subsequently, when that gentleman was promoted to a seat on the Superior bench, I was reappointed by Judge Allen.

The city charter of Oakland provides for the election of two City Justices, one of whom shall be designated by the Mayor to act as a Police Judge. At the last State and county election John J. Allen, whose worth and merit was recognized by the people of Oakland, was elected City Justice, the former running over 1700 votes ahead of Wood. Notwithstanding this splendid endorsement from the people Dr. George C. Pardee, then Mayor, in his wisdom removed Allen and appointed Wood as the Police Judge. One of Wood's first acts was to notify me that I could not continue to occupy the position of reporter under him because I was a Catholic. At that time I made the following statement to him: "I am a native of this State and a resident of Oakland for about twenty years. My mother, who is living, is an Irish and my father is an English. I was baptized in that faith. My father, who is dead, was a Protestant. He showed his patriotism and love for his adopted country by joining for the Union in the ranks of the Sixty-ninth New York Regiment, sometimes called the Irish Brigade, and incidentally served six months in Libby's prison."

I have never been other than a Republican in politics, and during the last campaign served as secretary of the Republican County Committee, in which capacity and otherwise I helped to advance the interests of Wood as well as those of the public. I have never been prejudiced against a man because of his color or religion. Whatever education I have was obtained in the public schools of this city. My sympathies are and always will be on the side of the public school system. I belong to no society which is sectarian in its character and which excludes any person on account of color, nativity or religious beliefs. I do not inform me that members of the A. P. A. were so prejudiced in their demands to have me removed that he was forced to accept their wishes. I told him then and I repeat it now, "I do not believe the members of the A. P. A. as a society are after my head, although some of my personal and political enemies in the organization are. Furthermore, I stated and now repeat it, that he had made a bargain by which George W. Reed's brother-in-law, the late Attorney General, was to be appointed Deputy District Attorney. This bargain was consummated and the secretary of the organization in the name of the clerkship (salary $125 per month) were compelled to stand aside until the Wood family had its fill at the public crib. They are feeding yet."

I understand that Dr. George C. Pardee objected most forcibly to the young man who received the appointment to the clerkship. Wood decided that he could afford to sacrifice the position of the clerkship to the honor of the Police Judge, rather than have his brother of tender years forego the pleasure of receiving a salary of $125 a month from the District Attorney for displaying his lack of knowledge of the law. Wood, in order to show his allegiance to the A. P. A., after turning down" the organization in the name of the clerkship, decided to make me the "horrible example."

Besides being narrow-minded and bigoted, he is vitally anxious and he believes the A. P. A. will remain in power until by means of it he will be able to ascend the judicial platform in a high position. He is after a position in the law. I am a lawyer and I am a man who is contemptible, who as a lawyer is without merit, and who as a Judge is reeking with bias and prejudice. I remain, respectfully, Sir, your obedient servant.

Judge Wood paid no attention to the circular and nothing occurred openly between the two men till yesterday.

WOOD CHRISTIAN'S MEET. Annual Conference of College Young Men's Christian Association.

Enthusiastic Sessions at Berkeley. Academic Football at the University.

Berkeley, Cal., Dec. 7.—The annual conference of the Northern California College Young Men's Christian Association was called to order this morning at Stiles Hall. Eleven institutions were represented with a total delegation of fifty members. Following is the list of colleges represented: Stanford University, University of the Pacific, consisting of Napa College and the San Jose College, California College, East Oakland, State Normal; Pacific, San Anselmo and San Francisco Theological seminaries; San Joaquin Valley College, Cooper Medical College.

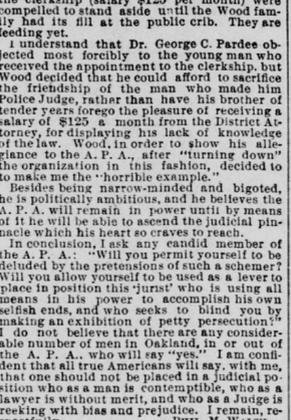

ALL WORKING TOGETHER.

MANY MUSICAL FEATURES.

Mayor Davie Will Open the Fair From an Original Footstool.

OAKLAND OFFICE SAN FRANCISCO CALL, 908 Broadway, Dec. 7. The big tabernacle and the almost equally large annex are now the busiest scenes in Oakland. The noise of hammers is heard in every direction and at the official quarters a steady stream of exhibitors is continually going in and out, each bent on business. Only nine days elapse before the opening and although much has been done there will not be an idle moment from now on.

Booths, stands, galleries, rostrums, counters and all the paraphernalia necessary to make a successful exhibition are being rapidly erected and the marks on the allotted spaces indicate that every inch of the Alameda County will be suitably represented. The mechanical department is well under way and there will not be a foot of vacant space when the exposition opens. Some exhibitors have even gone so far as to offer good prices for sections laid off for promenades, but these offers had to be refused.

The surplus of the receipts, and it is considered certain that there will be a surplus, will be devoted either to the Associated Charities or to form the nucleus of a fund for establishing a permanent public museum. The expenses are very light, the executive committee are donating their services, and only salaries are paid to the men whose time is wholly occupied with the work, under the direction of the committee.

The ladies of the Ebell Society, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Trowbridge, are in charge of the entertainment portion of the fair, and they have their programme well under way. The Fifth Regiment band has been engaged to furnish the music for the afternoon concerts. They will play every afternoon, from 2 to 5 o'clock. The Alameda County Musicians' Union have donated their services for the opening night, and the First Congregational Church orchestra will form part of the programme.

The German singing societies of the county will unite in contributing toward the programme for Friday evening. An effort is being made to secure the children of the public schools to give an entertainment one evening in connection with the regular programme. These features, together with the Acme and Reliance clubs, the city clubs and addresses, the well-known speakers, will constitute the programme for the week.

Among the exhibits will be an immense pumpkin from Mission San Jose, weighing about 600 pounds, which Mayor Davie will stand upon this pumpkin to make the address of welcome.

Horticultural Commissioner Puyal is at the head of floral and horticultural exhibits and he has been promised the most ornamental in the show. As far as to the success of the exposition has vanished," said President Nelson to-night. "We did not anticipate that there would be such a rush of exhibitors, and although we had completed the big annex to-day, which adds 800 feet to our space, we would be tempted but to the short time at our disposal to build another one. Everybody seems united, and as was proved by the Mayday fete when it was held, all together they can get anything they want."

WHEELING ITEMS. Bald and Cooper, the Eastern Racers, Have Returned Here.

The crack Eastern racers, E. C. Bald of Buffalo and T. W. Cooper of Detroit, with their managers, Asa Windle and James Temple, arrived from the south last night, where they have been racing the past fortnight. Bald and Windle will remain here a few days and then go East for the holidays, returning in February to train for next season. Cooper and Temple are undecided whether to winter here or remain here throughout the winter. They like California so well they both dislike to leave. The racing season is now over and the men are enjoying the first rest they have had since last spring. While here they will be entertained by the Bay City Wheelmen.

A meeting of the North California division, League of American Wheelmen, has been called for next Saturday evening, at the rooms of the Bay City Wheelmen. The newly elected officers will then take charge and much important business is to be transacted, including the appointment of the various committees and the selection of the league organ. Over the latter proposition there is much competition, as there are fully a half dozen papers trying to secure the plum. Chief Constable Kerrigan has given no indication of what his intentions are in this regard, or in the matter of the appointment of official handicapper and racing board chairman, though E. M. Welch, the incumbent of the latter office, will doubtless be selected to succeed himself. A prominent

LEVY'S EXPULSION.

The Supreme Court Holds That Magnolia Lodge Legally Discharged Him.

The Supreme Court has decided that Max Levy was legally expelled from the Magnolia Lodge of Odd Fellows, and have accordingly reversed Judge Seawell's writ of mandate which ordered that he be reinstated.

One clause of the by-laws announces that whoever carries the affairs of the order into the civil courts is liable to expulsion, and so Levy incurred the penalty of that clause. He was entitled to benefit, in an order for six months the lodge paid them, but at the end of that time he was ordered to appear before the lodge court to show cause why the benefits should not be discontinued.

He at once sued for a writ prohibiting the lodge from stopping the payments. After that he was promptly expelled under the clause mentioned, and Levy Seawell, compelling the lodge to reinstate him. This writ the Supreme Court has set aside, holding that the clause was present in the by-laws when Levy joined, and that he violated it with full knowledge of its purport.

NEW BEDFORD ROPE.

The Tubbs Cordage Company Does Not Want to See It Brought to San Francisco.

The Tubbs Cordage Company created a little wonderment yesterday by sending out the following notice:

We beg to advise you that we have withdrawn our price list under date of September, 1895, and hereafter will be pleased to quote you prices upon application. For some time past a couple of ship chandlers have been importing rope from New Bedford, and the cordage company has been cutting against the Eastern houses. Whalers and some other old skippers will have New Bedford rope, and that is all there is to it. In consequence the ship chandlers have to keep it.

The cordage company has realized this fact and has sent out the above circular. At the office of the concern it was said that material change in the rates to wholesalers would be made, and the purchasers of 10,000 pounds would be treated as well as heretofore. Rope that comes into competition with the New Bedford article, however, will probably be sold at lower rates.

Judge Campbell's Courtroom. Judge Campbell is still hunting for a suitable place for a courtroom. It has been suggested that a courtroom be fixed up for the judge in the vicinity of the California-street police station, which would prevent the prisoners booked there from being transferred to the City Prison. The judge is opposed to the scheme and wants his courtroom in the City Hall. It is probable arrangements will be made to place his present courtroom in a proper sanitary condition.

RUPERT SCHMID'S STUDIO.

The Sculptor Has Built Himself a Home on Van Ness Avenue.

His Own Idea of Venus Was Not Lost After All, but Occupied a Cosy Corner.

Rupert Schmid, the sculptor, has left his former modest quarters near the New City Hall and built himself a residence on Van Ness avenue, near Pacific, which, if not palatial, proves at least that the making of artistic tombstones and monuments is a more paying occupation in this city than some would represent it to be.

The Schmid abode is of wood and is embellished with balconies, turrets and gables in a highly ornate style. Within the sculptor has had reception-rooms fitted up, in order that he might fittingly welcome the Tribunes of the four hundred, when they come to have their beautiful feet reproduced in marble. Rupert Schmid also dabbles in aristocratic hands, and he has had several nice, plump, little cushions placed in convenient corners of his reception-rooms, in order that the ladies who want posterity to admire their hands may practice posing them in graceful attitudes. The crowning glory of the Schmid
