SANTA CRUZ LITIGATION.

Third Action Against the Electric Light and Power Company.

SANTA CRUZ, CAL., Jan. 4.—A complaint was filed in the Superior Court this morning by Fred W. Swanton against the Santa Cruz Electric Light and Power Company, which makes the third suit of the kind he has begun to file.

The Electric Light and Power Company, prior to February of last year, negotiated a loan of $40,000 from the City Bank of this city and for security gave bonds for $30,000, with the agreement that should the bonds not be taken up in one year's time the bank should become the owner of them.

Swanton alleges in his complaint that he has never received financial consideration for his services, and fixes $3500 as a reasonable charge, for which amount he sues.

NEW YORK, N. Y., Jan. 4.—The action for libel brought by David Gideon, the turfman, against Phillip Dwyer, the chairman of the jockey club, in which he claims $50,000 damages, was up on a motion in the Supreme Court chambers yesterday before Judge Beekman.

Gideon alleges that Dwyer made charges damaging to his standing on the turf, at a race meeting held in St. Louis some years ago. Dwyer, Gideon says, alleged that he was guilty of underhand dealing in turf transactions, and made other similar statements.

Judge Beekman yesterday entered judgment and ordered a writ of inquiry to issue to the Sheriff to assess the damages in the suit.

charge of contempt which may mean a term in the County Jail.

The difficulty arose out of a dispute over lands. On October 16, 1895, Kutner & Huffman of Fresno leased from E. B. Perrin 7000 acres of the Chowchilla ranch, ten miles west of Madera.

This land is all under fence and was rented by Kutner & Huffman as sheep pasture. The lessees took immediate possession of the premises and occupied them until a few days ago.

In December, 1895, Perrin contracted the land to Gordon Griffith, a real estate man of San Jose, for the purpose of making a sale, Griffith representing that he could settle a colony thereon.

This he failed to do, but he did lease the land for one year beginning January 1, 1896, to the Miller & Lux estate. This, it is claimed, was without the knowledge of Perrin and presumably outside of the agreement between himself and Griffith.

On December 28 Miller drove 600 head of cattle to the land, broke down the fence and turned them into the pasture. He was at once notified by Kutner & Huffman to remove them, but did not comply, whereupon Kutner & Huffman turned them out.

The cattle were driven back by Miller the same day, and armed men were placed by him along the fence to prevent any further action by Kutner & Huffman. Among these men was "Billy" Morrison, a well-known fighting man with a record of having killed several men.

Kutner & Huffman then had J. F. Warren, Miller's foreman, and the vaqueros under his charge, arrested, charging them with forcible entry and detainer. They were released on nominal bail.

Suit was brought on January 2 by Kutner & Huffman against Miller and others, and an injunction issued to restrain them from occupying the lands.

This injunction was served the same day it was granted, but in disregard of it he again yesterday caused the fence to be broken down and his cattle turned into the pasture.

To-day warrants were again issued for the arrest of Warren and the vaqueros, but so far no return has been made upon them.

SARAH BERNHARDT COMING.

The Great Actress Leaves Havre for America.

NEW YORK, N. Y., Jan. 4.—Sarah Bernhardt, the great French actress, left Havre to-day for America.

Bernhardt is between 50 and 60 now. She made her first triumph way back in 1839. But when she glides upon the stage of Abbey's Theater in a few days the audience will scarcely believe her more than half that age.

This time she will show Americans her "Gismonda," a creation in which her catlike movement and passionate abandon have full play.

Those who see her in that role will be unable to believe that the actress has passed the years of dangerous emotion, but will see in her their old-time favorite, who alone of all stage women can realize the conception of her who "dances men's souls to the shores of sin with the light of her wanton eyes."

Bernhardt will not forget her old successes. We shall see her slowly fading Camille, her passionate Theodora and her fierce La Tosca.

ARONSON AND CURTIS.

They Have Had Trouble Over Producing "Gentleman Joe."

NEW YORK, N. Y., Jan. 4.—Rudolph Aronson has issued a long statement of the trouble between him and M. B. Curtis over the play of "Gentleman Joe," which is announced for production at both the Fifth-avenue and Bijou next Monday night.

He accuses Curtis of having played him false in presenting the piece where he had no part in it.

How he did. Aronson agreed to advance Curtis the necessary money and went to London to make the necessary arrangements. During his absence Curtis produced the play. Aronson secured a later version of the play, which he will produce.

REFORMERS MAY UNITE.

An Interesting Movement Started for the Coalition of the Parties.

Various Elements That Would Be Welcomed Into the Ranks of the Populists.

CHICAGO, ILL., Jan. 4.—The fact developed this afternoon that an important move is on foot looking to a rounding up of representative members of all reform parties, such as the Bimetallic League, Prohibitionists, Woman Suffragists, Grangers, Trades Unionists, etc., at the time and place that may be fixed for the national convention of the People's party with the view of forming a coalition of these elements and the placing in the field of a union Presidential ticket.

The National Committee of the Populists meets at St. Louis a week from next Friday for the purpose of deciding upon the place and date for holding the convention, and that city, as well as Milwaukee, Minneapolis, Dallas, Atlanta, Omaha and Kansas City are in the field for the privilege of entertaining the delegates.

The Illinois committee has also been quietly working to the same end, and Eugene Smith, the National committee man from this State, has been in correspondence with leading members of the party East, West and South.

The numerous replies that he has received have developed the existence of a remarkably strong sentiment in favor of inviting the silver, temperance and other reform elements to meet with the Populists for conference a day or two before the National Convention, and the National Committee at its forthcoming meeting will be asked either to so word its call as to lay the ground-work of such a union, or issue a special invitation to all reform parties to meet at the time and place for which the convention may be set.

Committee man Smith said this afternoon that, from the extent of his correspondence, he was satisfied that every State in the Union would be represented by its full complement of delegates and alternates, and that it would be one of the largest National political gatherings of the year.

AN INSANE MAN MAY HANG.

LINCOLN, NEBR., Jan. 4.—Unlucky action by the proper officials is speedily taken John B. Walker of Lexington, Dawson County, will be hanged on January 10 for murder.

Walker is insane—at least Governor Holcomb is now so convinced, as are many neighbors of the condemned man.

The Governor is interested in the case, and at the same time worried, inasmuch as he presided at the trial and sentenced Walker while he was District Judge. Walker while he was a hermit, and killed a neighbor who ventured on his land.

The law provides that county officials where the crime was committed must pass on a condemned man's sanity; but, possibly owing to the bitter feeling against him, this has not been done, and he has no friends to intercede. As a last resort the Governor may grant a temporary reprieve.

CHANCES OF BLACKBURN.

There is a Prospect of a Bitter Struggle for the Kentucky Senatorship.

AS AT PRESENT CONSTITUTED, THE LEGISLATURE IS EQUALLY DIVIDED BY DEMOCRATS AND REPUBLICANS.

FRANKFORT, KY., Jan. 4.—The biennial session of the Kentucky Legislature convenes Tuesday.

The session of the Legislature is limited to sixty days, and under the law the voting for Senator cannot begin until two weeks after the first day of the session.

Up to yesterday it was the opinion of many that there would be no election and Senator Blackburn's seat would be vacant from March 4, 1896, until the Legislature met again in 1898.

On joint ballot, without unseating any Democrat, the Legislature now stands: Democrats 68, Republicans 28, Populists 2. The House Republicans intend to unseat Kaufman (D.) of Lexington and perhaps Tompkins (D.) of Owensboro.

The Democrats, however, claim that there is no evidence on which this can be done.

Congressman W. Godfrey Hunter of the Third District will in all probability receive the Republican nomination for United States Senator.

Congressman Walter Evans and Augustus E. Wright, both of this city, are prominent candidates, but Hunter has all the Louisville Republican votes, so it can be plainly seen that Evans and Wilson are out of it.

The Democratic vote in the city of Louisville is about 1000, and whether or not all the sound-money Democrats will go into it is a question. If they do it is argued the two Populists must come over to him.

COMMANDER KINGSLEY DEAD.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 4.—News was received to-day of the death on board the United States training ship Essex, now at Yorktown, of Commander Lewis Kingsley, U. S. N., commanding that vessel.

Lewis Kingsley was born in New York. He was appointed as acting midshipman at the Naval Academy September 28, 1861; graduated, 1865; schoolship Sabine, 1865-6; promoted to ensign, December 1, 1866; Lackawanna (second rate), Pacific fleet, 1867-8; promoted to master, March 12, 1868; torpedo station, 1869-70; commissioned as lieutenant, March 29, 1869; Brooklyn (second rate), European fleet, 1870-2; Hydrographic office, 1873; Colorado (first rate), North Atlantic station, 1874; torpedo station, 1875; Ossipee (third rate), North Atlantic station, 1875-8; naval station, New London, 1878-81; Lackawanna, Pacific station, 1881-4; promoted to lieutenant-commander, November, 1881; assistant director, navy yard, Washington, D. C., 1884-5; torpedo station, 1885-6; receiving-ship New Hampshire, 1886-8; Richmond, South Atlantic station, 1889-90; navy yard, 1891; promoted to commander, May 6, 1892.
