

LOS ANGELES' FRIDAY CLUB. A Flourishing Organization of Prominent and Brainsy Women.

PHILANTHROPIC WORK. Artists, Authors, Newspaper and Magazine Writers in the Ranks.

PRACTICALLY A LECTURE CLUB. Mr. J. C. Harvey Entertains the Ladies With a Sketch of His Ideal Tropical Garden.

LOS ANGELES, CAL., May 8.—The Friday Club, an organization of ladies, with the largest membership of any similar association on the Pacific Coast, held a regular meeting at its hall on South Broadway this forenoon. This organization contains many of the most prominent and intellectual women of Southern California.

To a call correspondent, who was present on this occasion, many of the ladies expressed the hearty approval of the paper's "new departure." This association of splendid women is practically a lecture club. Several gentlemen and ladies of National reputation have lectured before the body on a wide range of topics.

The officers are: President emerita, Mrs. C. M. Severance; president, Mrs. J. A. Osgood; vice-presidents, Mrs. W. A. Spalding, Mrs. B. C. Whiting; secretary, Mrs. G. H. Wadeigh; treasurer, Mrs. G. M. North.

The subject this morning was "A Tropical Garden in Southern California and a Few Notes on Orchids," by J. C. Harvey. Mr. Harvey is president of the Los Angeles Botanical Society and is especially interested in the experimental garden this society has established in Elysian Park in this city.

The speaker commenced his paper with a little sketch on the threshold of the equatorial region and touched with graphic lights the magnificent beauty of its vegetation, the color of the beautiful forests, the massive dome-like structure of the trees, the independent growth of parasites, ferns and numberless aerial plants, and the prodigious influence of warmth and moisture were all shown in high relief.

Of orchids, Mr. Harvey exhibited numberless plates of these curious and beautiful plants found in Asia, Africa, Peru, Brazil, Mexico, the West Indies, Madagascar and the adjacent islands. The speaker touched on the extreme beauty of the orchids, the aerial and terrestrial, the former found in hot regions on the banks of streams, and constantly bathed by spray, and the latter in temperate regions.

The essay and talk were very delightful and greatly enjoyed by the club, the ideal garden portrayed by Mr. Harvey being greatly appreciated by the many lovers of flowers.

BRUTALITY PUNISHED. A Los Angeles Teamster Has to Take His Own Medicine.

LOS ANGELES, CAL., May 8.—"The man not afraid to wantonly beat his horses" got his deserts this morning on South Broadway. G. A. Phelps is the gentleman in question. In a most vicious and inexcusable manner he was found by J. E. Kelly belaboring his team with a horse whip. The good Samaritan protested against the cruelty, but all in vain.

PASADENA'S ROGUE BARON. He Plays Havoc With the Fair Sex and Hotel-Keepers.

LOS ANGELES, CAL., May 8.—Pasadena has had an experience with a rogue baron, who filled several roles with about equal grace and dignity. He was first the son of a great Russian general. His check and pretensions gave him passport into the "best circles," and he made court to one of Pasadena's handsomest young ladies, who, until his real character was suspected, gave the claimant to "high title" every encouragement for this particular "baron" not only sported a legitimate title, but was in his mind, at least—a man of prodigious wealth.

some of the people with whom he associated regarding his title, and they wrote to certain San Francisco people whose names had been used by him, and the reply was made that his name and title were those of another man.

Then the Baron changed the fiction he related and told his intimates that he was the chief of a great private detective bureau maintained by the A. P. A. in San Francisco and New York, his chieftainship being of the coast branch. He also claimed to be a detective gathering evidence in the Ashley vs. Baldwin seduction case at San Francisco, which is now in the court and in which the Pasadena woman is the plaintiff. He was not "working at it," however, his principal occupations being apparently to run up a big hotel bill and pay frantic court to the young lady who would not now accept his suit.

Detective Goodwin put in an appearance last Wednesday evening at the hotel where the Baron lodged and spent the night there. This morning the Baron came to this city and departed just in time to avoid an explosion of parental wrath, if not an exposure of a past more or less checked career. The detectives refuse to divulge his true name on account of his highly honorable family in San Francisco.

GROUND BENEATH A CAR. Frightful Death of a Mexican Who Was Bent on Murder.

LOS ANGELES, CAL., May 8.—As a northbound Pasadena electric car was proceeding rapidly along Buena Vista street this evening two Mexicans, one pursued by the other and each with a knife in his hand, attempted to cross the street in front of the car. The first one, Jose Morales, succeeded, but the other, Salas Garcia, was struck by the car, dragged 100 feet and literally ground to pieces. The car was derailed and traffic blocked for an hour while the fragments of Garcia's body were being got out from underneath the trucks. Morales, who started the fight by striking Garcia and then retreating, has been arrested. Both men are from Cucamonga. Garcia was forty years old and had a family.

W. C. T. U. Election of Officers. LOS ANGELES, CAL., May 8.—The State Convention of the W. C. T. U. of Southern California, in session at Pomona, elected the following officers for the ensuing year: Mrs. N. P. J. Button of Riverside was chosen president; Mrs. Mary E. Garbutt of Los Angeles, vice-president; Miss Gabriella T. Stickney of Los Angeles, corresponding secretary; Mrs. L. H. Mills of Santa Ana, recording secretary; and Mrs. S. W. Plimpton of Santa Barbara, treasurer.

General Mansfield's Funeral. LOS ANGELES, CAL., May 8.—The funeral of General John Mansfield, ex-lieutenant Governor of California who died suddenly Wednesday morning, took place today from the family residence. Rev. B. W. R. Taylor, rector of St. John's Episcopal Church, conducted the services. A committee of the Los Angeles Association of Friends of the Deceased, headed by Mrs. M. A. Pierce, attended the obsequies. The pallbearers were Hon. Walter Van Dyke, Hon. R. M. Widney, Dr. W. W. Ross, H. T. Lee, S. B. Caswell, Colonel L. H. Messinger, E. J. Planch and Professor J. T. Pierce. The remains were taken to Rosemead Cemetery for cremation in accordance with his oft-expressed wish.

TRAGEDIES IN SAN JOSE. Freeman Butts, Mistaken for a Burglar, Receives a Death Wound.

A Mexican Sends a Bullet Through His Breast After Failing to Kill His Mistress.

SAN JOSE, CAL., May 8.—Freeman Butts, a young man about 20 years of age, was shot and perhaps fatally wounded by Joseph Guinasso, in the Wilcox, about 12 o'clock last night. Some two weeks ago a small house on the place was burglarized, and since then Paul Guinasso, a son, had been sleeping in the place, and unknown to Mr. Guinasso, young Butts has been occupying the place with his son. About midnight Guinasso was aroused by the barking of his dogs and went into the yard with a pistol in his hand. He saw a light in the house, and on looking through the window saw a man who was not his son in the place. He pushed open the door and fired, and as the man fell he recognized him as young Butts. Young Guinasso had not yet got home, and Butts was preparing to retire. The bullet penetrated the right lung and lodged under the shoulder. The chances of Butts' recovery are slim. Guinasso surrendered himself at the jail, but was allowed to go.

SUICIDE OF A MEXICAN. After Attempting to Kill His Mistress, With Whom He Had Quarreled.

SAN JOSE, CAL., May 8.—Ray Arcia, a Mexican about 40 years, committed suicide at Santa Clara last evening by shooting himself in the right breast. For several years he has been living with Mrs. M. S. Rodriguez. Yesterday afternoon they came to this city, and on their return home he had a fight with Mrs. Rodriguez and missed her. She ran from the house, and he followed her into the yard. He snatched the trigger several times, and placing the revolver against his breast, said: "Now I am going to die; goodbye." He pulled the trigger and fell, expiring almost instantly. It is supposed he had a fight with her, and was unloading, and was trying to scare Mrs. Rodriguez. An inquest was held this morning, but nothing was developed leading to the cause of the suicide.

TO FORECLOSE A MORTGAGE. Suit Involving a Portion of the San Antonio Rancho.

SAN JOSE, CAL., May 8.—The German Savings and Loan Society of San Francisco today began suit in the Superior Court against Anais Hale, administrator of the estate of Joseph P. Hale, and other heirs of the latter's estate, to foreclose a $75,000 mortgage on 1850 acres of land along the San Antonio Creek, in this county. The land is part of the San Antonio rancho. The mortgage was given to secure a note executed by the deceased on May 12, 1891, for $75,000, bearing interest at 7 1/2 per cent per annum. Hale, who was a San Francisco capitalist, died in that city on April 13, 1893. The claim was allowed by the Superior Court in San Francisco on June 17, 1893, and a decree of foreclosure and sale was asked.

BROADSWORD CONTEST AT SEATTLE. SEATTLE, WASH., May 8.—In the broadsword contest to-night at Armory Hall Baron Ivan Malchin, who recently won the world's championship from Captain E. N. Jennings of this city, bested J. B. Orm by 11 to 5 out of a possible 21 points.

WEAK LENSES ARE CURELY HACKED and the general assembly was by a persistent, deep-seated cough, which Dr. D. J. Jay's expectorant may be relied on to cure. You will derive certain benefit from it also if troubled with either Asthma or Bronchitis.

HANFORD'S GREAT REVIVAL SEASON.

Remarkable Religious Enthusiasm Evoked by an Evangelist.

MANY NEW CONVERTS. Nearly One Hundred and Fifty Immersed by the Rev. S. M. Martin.

KINGS COUNTY INTERESTED. Revival Services at the Christian Church Reopened Last Night—A Persuasive Preacher.

HANFORD, CAL., May 8.—For seven weeks Hanford has been in the throes of quite a remarkable religious revival, and last night Revivalist S. M. Martin, at an expense of $20 a lecture, began another season of his meetings at the Christian church in this city. The Rev. Mr. Martin is advertised as "One of the most successful evangelists in America," and if his work in Hanford can be taken as an indication of his persuasive powers his press agent has not availed himself of even the usual license accorded that profession. Heretofore Hanford has never been famous for its religious zeal, though the city has maintained its fair quota of churches and preachers. But now Hanford is stirred, and an extraordinary interest, even among the non-church-goers, is manifested in these revival services at the Christian church.

In manner and appearance Mr. Martin is the typical revivalist. His face is clean-shaven and expressive and his long black hair adds strength to it. His speech is rather deliberate, but always earnest and forcible and often quite eloquent. He has made nearly 150 converts in this city alone and added them all to membership in the Christian Church. Such effective work as this has attracted attention to him from all over the country, and it is quite likely that during the next few nights of his labors here the list will be greatly increased. A full list of those who have recently joined the Christian church, through the efforts of the Rev. Mr. Martin, is as follows:

THRILLING AND SUBLINE. A Sea Captain Describes a Volcano on the South American Coast.

SEATTLE, WASH., May 8.—A volcano near Hilo, on the South American coast, is reported to be in active eruption by Captain Birkholm of the American schooner S. F. Redfield. Upon her return trip from Honolulu, whither she had taken a cargo of lumber, the Redfield headed to ward the South American coast, and she passed within a few miles of the group of islands where volcanic eruptions caused such excitement in 1889. Captain Birkholm says he could plainly hear a subterranean rumbling. The volcanic mountain is conical in form, and flames and smoke broke forth from the very top, which is contrary to former eruptions of this mountain. The sight was most thrilling and sublime," the captain says, "and the flames resembled a great bonfire lighting up the entire sky. While no lives were lost, the disturbance was a violent one. The last eruption of the mountain came from the side, and in this instance through the openings so formed great streams of lava flowed down toward the beach."

SEATTLE DIVORCE CASE. Numerous Depositions Filed in Favor of Mrs. Dawson.

SEATTLE, WASH., May 8.—Some twenty depositions and affidavits favorable to the defendant, Mrs. Mamie C. Dawson, in the Dawson divorce case, were procured by her counsel, ex-Mayor J. T. Ronald, who has just returned from San Francisco and other California cities. They tend to show that the conductor of Mrs. Dawson while "doing" the various flower festivals in Southern California in 1894 was most exemplary; that she did not while in Los Angeles drink with young men, as alleged, by the plaintiff, Dr. Dawson, who is a prominent merchant of that city and a strong prohibitionist.

ANOTHER VISALIA TRAGEDY. Result of a Feud Between the San Yups and See Yups.

VISALIA, CAL., May 8.—How Yue was mortally wounded with a pistol shot inflicted by Chong Chook about 8 o'clock this evening. As How Yue came out of the Joss house he was met by several Chinamen. He claims that Chong Chook, who is a China Joe, passed a pistol to Chong Chook, ordering him to shoot. The assailants escaped.

How Yue is a nephew of the late Sue Lung of the firm of Sue Cheong Lung Company, the largest Chinese store here. Last night the firm's store was set on fire, but it was extinguished by the occupants. How Yue belongs to the San Yups and last year was arrested and sworn out by a supposed member of the See Yups charging him with murdering a Chinaman in Sacramento in 1891. At the preliminary examination there he was discharged. How Yue had wanted to sue for the arrest of the prosecuting witness, but the officers could not find him, and it is thought that this was the motive for tonight's crime.

THE WEAVERVILLE MURDER. No New Developments in the Retrial of Van Horn and Crow.

WEAVERVILLE, CAL., May 8.—The second day of the retrial of Bayles Van Horn and John Crow has been devoid of incident and to some extent reminds one of the rehearsal of a play, simply covering ground already gone over. The prosecution are running their witnesses through with great rapidity and have curtailed the testimony of the witnesses introduced by them at the former trial. For a time they decried from the beaten track and it looked as though some sensational was going to happen when William Espey was called to the stand and questioned regarding his conversation with Joseph Gregory, it evidently being the purpose of the prosecution to endeavor to show a conspiracy the result of which was Jack Littlefield's death.

RETURNS FROM JUNEAU. A Portland Man Says That Everything Is Booming Up There.

Portland, Or., May 8.—C. S. McDuffee has just returned from a business trip to Juneau, Alaska. He says things up there are livelier than in the days of '49. "It is all nonsense for people to say that men are coming away from Alaska because they can't find employment," said Mr. McDuffee. "I didn't see a beggar nor an idle man in all the time I was there. Every boat brings great throngs of men, who start for Circle City in the sledges, either by hand or by dogs. A laborer can get $10 a day for his work when he gets up there, and there is plenty of work for all who go. Juneau is the liveliest city I ever saw. There are about 2000 people and thirty-eight saloons. The people—men, women and children—sleep most of the day and sit up celebrating almost all night. All nationalities are represented, and gambling-houses, dance halls, etc., run in full blast. Every hotel is packed as full as it will hold, and every steamer that comes in is loaded to the guards."

To get to the mines from Juneau takes about six weeks. The inlet must be first crossed to Dyea, about 100 miles. From there there is a walk of fifty miles across the mountains to the headwaters of the Yukon, dragging provisions and outfit on sledges, either by hand or by dogs. Each party takes about six months or a year's provisions, a sheetiron stove and a whip-saw. "When the Yukon is reached the whip-saw is brought into requisition. Trees are felled and ripped up into rough lumber and a boat is built. After that the trip is an easy one, for all the party has to do is to get into the boat and float down the Yukon to the gold fields."

JACK, THE STRANGLER. Waives Preliminary Examination and Is Committed to Jail.

PORTLAND, OR., May 8.—John R. Cosgrove, the thug, who attempted to strangle to death Marie Leville, a French courtesan, on the night of April 28, declined a preliminary examination in the Municipal Court and has been committed to the County Jail pending the action of the Grand Jury. The detectives say that Cosgrove has the most forbidding eyes they ever gazed into. The longer one looks into them the more proof they furnish of the possessor's nature.

BAD FOR THE FAVORITES. Rookies Win Heavily on the Eastern Tracks.

CHICAGO, ILL., May 8.—The struggle of the day at Sheffield came up in the last race, in which Dago and Belvoir contested a head and head finish, Dago winning out by a nose. MADERA ESCAPES. Tracked by the Officers to a Point on the Fresno River.

THE BUCKBOARD FOUND. A Breakdown Compels the Outlaws to Resort to Horseback Riding.

BLOODHOUNDS FOR THE CHASE. Trained Animals From Missouri Are Expected to Run Down the Fugitives.

MADERA, CAL., May 8.—William Lavore and Jack Roberts have not been captured yet, and everything seems to indicate that they do not intend to until they have exhausted all avenues of escape. The officers succeeded in tracking them north across Fresno River and then east, where they drove into and up the stream for some distance, driving out of the river on the south side and taking the old Dustheimer road which leads to Bates, the place in which they were first captured.

About thirteen miles from town the officers found the buckboard in which the outlaws had been making their escape, where it had been broken down and they had been compelled to abandon it.

The buckboard had been left in the middle of the road with the harness and the prisoners had then resorted to riding horseback. The officers thought the horse had been undoubtedly run all the way, and if the chase was kept up they would at last wear him out and compel them to take to their feet.

Deputy Sheriff Timmins brought up some bloodhounds yesterday afternoon from Fresno to join in the hunt, and, if a trail is found, the dogs will be scented, and in this manner it is hoped they will be able to locate the outlaws.

The bloodhounds have been imported from Missouri, and have been in Fresno something over a year, where they have been in training. They have shown themselves to be able to do some clever trailing, but this will be their first experience in trailing outlaws, and they will be given a chance to show what they can do in a practical manner. Timmins and his party started out last night, and they expect the hunt to begin in earnest to-day, when Sheriff Westfall will be relieved. When last heard of Westfall was about four hours behind on the trail, and it is not unlikely that he has overtaken his men by this time.

CHAMPION TARGET SHOT. Fred Gilbert Wins the Honors at the Clay-Pigeon Tournament.

Captures a Valuable Trophy in Addition to Rich Stakes in Money.

GUTTENBURG, N. J., May 8.—Fred Gilbert of Spirit Lake, Iowa, won the title of "champion target shot of America" at the initial clay pigeon championship tournament which was concluded here this afternoon. Gilbert broke 266 out of a possible 300 "flying" targets, defeating E. D. Fulford of Kansas City, who tied for second place with 261 birds each. Rollo Heikes of Dayton, Ohio, finished fourth with a total of 258 broken.

The final struggle was very close, with two events to decide the winner. The score read: Fulford 228, Gilbert 227, Elliott 225 and Heikes 224.

The Kansas City man had the worst luck in the semi-final event and only scored 18 out of a possible 25. Gilbert broke 22, Heikes 21 and Fulford 20. The score was second, Elliott 249, Fulford 248, Heikes 245 and Elliott 243.

For the first few pairs in the deciding event the issue was still in doubt. Elliott was shooting doubles in great form, but his low record in the expert rule left him practically out of the race. Gilbert quickly drew away from Fulford, and Heikes, killing 17 pairs to their 13, and won the championship amid great applause.

Captain A. W. Money, one of the promoters of the tournament, made a short speech, and presented Gilbert with the championship cup. The trophy is a handsome silver cup valued at $300, and will be held subject to challenge at due notice. The winner is a well-known live-bird shot in the West. He won the Deport cup at the big shoot at Baltimore last October. In addition to the title and trophy Gilbert won about $500 at the tournament, and had the best general average—643—on the four days' shoot. Fulford's average of 636 was second best, and Elliott came next with 624. Heikes was close on with a general average of 620.

LOUISVILLE, KY., May 8.—Five well-contested and exciting races were run today, two of which were very much on the "dumb" order. Only two favorites won, and the books got their first win of the meeting. There was a splendid crowd in attendance. Weather warm and bright and track fast.

Seven furlongs, Souffle won, Penury second, First Mate third, Time, 1:22 1/2. Five furlongs, Burlesque won, White Frost second, Assasin third, Time, 1:09 1/2. One mile and fifty yards, Judith won, Lester second, Frotal third, Time, 1:47 1/2. The maiden stakes, six and a half furlongs, time won, Bonnie Dundee second, Leonaise third, Time, 1:29 1/2. CHICAGO, ILL., May 8.—Captain Nash will protect the game to-day between the Phillies and the Colts, in which the latter got the decision by a score of 4 to 3. The trouble happened in the first half of the ninth inning. Thompson hit safely and Cross went to first on an error by Daheln. Nash had three balls and two strikes called on him. He started to wrangle with the umpire and Griffith pitched a ball over the plate, struck Nash's bat and he fled into fair ground in front of the plate. Kittredge threw to Everett and a double play was completed on Nash at first base. He claims he was not standing in the batter's box when the ball was delivered, but the umpire decided otherwise. Griffith pitched a star game. Score: Chicago.....00000320—5 8 3 Philadelphia.....01000020—3 5 2 Batteries—Griffith, Donohue and Kittredge; Mott and Boyd's. Umpire—Egan.

MONTEREY TO CELEBRATE Semi-Centennial Jubilee of the American Occupation of California.

Military and Naval Demonstration Such as the Coast Never Saw Before Is Promised.

MONTEREY, CAL., May 8.—The executive committee of the Society for the Semi-Centennial Celebration of the American Occupation of California has issued the following circular: We are preparing to celebrate in Monterey what is virtually the founding of one of the great empires of modern times—the Pacific States of the American Union. England had her jubilee when Victoria celebrated the fiftieth year of her accession to the throne; and we are celebrating the fiftieth year of the postoffice of Pio Nono.

California, this year of her jubilee, commemorates a fact of much greater importance and significance. We are in communication with our National authorities in regard to the grandest military and naval pageant this coast has witnessed for the public since the Monterey Bay on the 6th and 7th of July next. We also expect such a civic demonstration as shall be remembered for many years to come with the greatest of the event celebrated—the American occupation of California.

The anniversary of the first raising of the old flag at Monterey is a fact which should assuredly inspire the most ardent feelings in the hearts of all Californians. We ask all to unite with us, respectively to the old motto, "United we stand," and make this a grand occasion worthy to be remembered eternally in our annals. We are sure that the patriotic sentiment as shall make this occasion a monumental one on our stamp and seal that we approve and appreciate the work of our own hands in building up this glorious Western addition to the American Union.

are doing and propose to do? For the executive committee: T. J. Field, President; S. J. Duckworth, Secretary; EDWARD BERWICK, General Manager. Kid on the Warpath. TOMBSTONE, ARIZ., May 8.—The "Kid" and his band of murderous Apaches are again on the warpath, three of the best known citizens of this county having been killed by them a few days ago, close to the Mexican line. They are F. S. Reid, a cattle-raiser of prominence in the Territory, who has moved for years on Cave Creek, aged 65 years, and Gus Wiener, foreman for Reid. Another victim was one of the Hand boys, a brother of the young man who was so brutally murdered and mutilated by the redskins a month or so ago.

How Different Men Are To-Day. In the olden times, so we are told, men spent most of their time fighting for country or for love of the primitive maid, whose beauty was of that womanly sort which inspired in the heart of her manly lover such a passion that he thought it a pleasure to die for her.

In those days men were not faint-hearted nor weakened. They did not know of the ruinous habits which are responsible for our weak, debilitated men of to-day—the habits which drain from the body all the energy, ambition and courage of manhood. Excesses, dissipations, youthful folly—all tend to wear out manhood. Being contrary to the laws of nature, they sap the very foundation, the heart of manly vigor, and leave only the shell, the nerveless, empty frame—empty of the life and energy of manhood.

"I would give all I possess in this world to be able to live my life for the past ten years over again," wrote a correspondent to Dr. Sanden recently. He expresses the feelings of many sufferers who come to Dr. Sanden for aid. And do they come in vain?

"I owe my very existence to your wonderful belt," says J. W. Nunes, Niles, Alameda County, Cal. Dr. Sanden's Electric Belt aids weak men by giving them new vital power. Electricity soaking into the nerves for three to six hours every day or night fills them with vitality and restores manhood.

"Your Electric Belt cured me of Seminal Weakness two years ago, and I am still praising it," J. M. Hubbard, Westminster, Orange County, Cal. Dr. Sanden's Electric Belt is the only one made that is suited to the treatment of weak men. It is applied in a special manner for this special trouble, and it gives an energy to the weak parts within a few days. It always causes a permanent restoration of vital power in three months.
