

MEMORIAL DAY ON THE COAST.

Graves of Departed Heroes Are Decorated With Flowers.

TRIBUTES TO THE DEAD.

Two Hundred Santa Rosa Girls Garbed to Represent "Old Glory."

AT THE SANTA MONICA HOME.

Fifteen Hundred Aged Veterans in Solemn Procession—Services at Many Cemeteries.

SANTA ROSA, CAL., May 30.—The graves of two-score veterans were covered with flowers to-day by those who revere the memory of their country's dead.

Company E, National Guards of California, under the command of Major L. W. Juilliard and Captain C. E. Haven, led the long procession, followed by a drum corps.

The next feature was something pleasing and novel. Two hundred little girls, dressed in red, white and blue, were so placed as to view a gigantic American flag, which, viewed from an eminence, seemed to flutter and wave like Old Glory in the breeze.

The children were splendidly drilled, marching and countermarching with a degree of accuracy which created an effect of great beauty.

After the "Living Flag" came a juvenile drum corps, followed by hundreds of school children carrying flags and banners. Citizens in carriages made up the balance of the parade, which was nearly a mile long.

At Rural Cemetery the beautiful ritual of the Grand Army of the Republic was read at the grave of Comrade J. H. Gads, lately called from a busy and useful life in this city to his last earthly home.

Ex-Mayor E. F. Woodward was the president of the day, and the Hon. H. C. Dibble of San Francisco delivered the oration.

SANTA MONICA'S TRIBUTE.

Citizens Join With Veterans in Honoring the Nation's Dead.

SANTA MONICA, CAL., May 30.—Decorations day was observed here by the entire population, hundreds paying their tribute to the Nation's dead.

The evening programme at the opera-house included a song by Mrs. C. M. Kearse, the reading of Abraham Lincoln's Gettysburg address by Miss Grace Elliott, a memorial address by Hon. George Holton, a song by Mrs. C. M. Kearse, "Cover Them Over With Beautiful Flowers," by Comrade J. M. Ferris, assisted by the Misses Vernice Miller, Carrie Elliott and Pearl Barker, and the singing of "America" by the audience.

At the Pacific Coast branch of the Soldiers' Home the day was fittingly observed. Besides the 1500 members fully as many more were present from Los Angeles and other places in Southern California.

The morning procession was formed in the following order: Home Band. Orator of the day and invited guests. Non-commissioned staff. Firing party.

John A. Martin Post No. 153, G. A. R. Uncle Sam Post No. 177, G. A. R. W. C. G. and Ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic with flowers for decoration. Members of the Home. Carriages. Citizens on foot. Citizens in carriages.

PATRIOTIC ANGELENOS.

Cemeteries Thronged by People Bearing Floral Emblems.

Stanton Post, American Relief Corps and Danforth Post, Veterans, went to Rosedale Cemetery, where the ritual of the Grand Army was given. Short addresses were made by Commander Baxter and A. C. Shafer.

John A. Logan Post Woman's Relief Corps went to the city cemetery. Chaplain Morrison prayed, the adjutant read orders, Miss Joy's class from the Seventeenth-street School sang "The Star-strangled Banner" and veterans sang "Sleeping in Their Graves for You."

At Simpson Tabernacle the programme opened with an organ voluntary. The American Star Drum Corps played a beautiful medley with file and drum. After prayer A. D. Coombs, A. E. Granger, J. E. Bossey and C. S. Cornell sang "Blest Be the Ground." F. W. Stein delivered an address, followed by the reading of ex-President Lincoln's address at Gettysburg.

REDWOOD HONORS HER DEAD.

Senator Bart Burke Delivers an Eloquent Memorial Address.

In the new Alhambra Theater, which had been tastefully decorated.

Commander J. H. Mansfield of George S. Evans Post No. 72, Grand Army of the Republic, opened the meeting with an address. Prayer was offered by Rev. L. D. Rathbone, followed by a song by the Redwood male quartet and a reading by Miss Mary Stewart. Senator Bart Burke of Santa Cruz, orator of the day, delivered one of the most eloquent addresses that the people of this county have ever had the pleasure of listening to.

A procession was formed and marched to the cemetery in the following order: Redwood City Fire Department. Redwood Cadets. Public School Children. Grand Army Veterans. Woman's Relief Corps. Citizens of Carriages.

At the cemetery prayer was offered by Rev. O. M. Hester, and Major Norris of Palo Alto delivered the address, "The Unknown Dead." The graves of departed comrades were decorated.

The members of the G. A. R. Post and the Woman's Relief Corps with their invited guests, returned to the Odd Fellows' Hall, where refreshments were served. After singing the old war songs, intermingled with reminiscent speeches by the veterans, the meeting was adjourned.

WOODLAND GRAVES DECORATED.

Soldiers and Citizens Participate in Patriotic Ceremonies.

The procession formed on Second street and the march to the City Cemetery was begun at 10 o'clock. In the parade were: Company F, N. G. C., school children, W. H. Seward Corps No. 20, W. H. Seward Post No. 65 and citizens in carriages.

At the cemetery the usual services were conducted by the Grand Army post, after which a memorial address was delivered by Rev. Frank H. Hinkley of the First Congregational Church. The ceremony of decorating the graves of the dead soldiers concluded the exercises.

Memorial exercises were held in the schools yesterday and this morning the school children joined in the procession to the cemetery, where ceremonies of an appropriate character were held over the graves of departed soldiers, concluding with an address by the Rev. G. W. Hays.

The theater was elaborately decorated by the ladies and the exercises for the day were concluded there with music suitable to the occasion and an address by Hon. Henry C. Dibble of San Francisco.

OBSERVED AT TUCSON.

TUCSON, ARIZ., May 30.—Memorial day was generally observed here, business houses being closed. At 4:30 o'clock a parade formed at the opera-house, with Negley Post, ex-Confederate soldiers, militia, city officials, secret societies and a great number of citizens in private conveyances in line.

The procession wended its way to the cemetery and decorated the graves of the country's dead. A. J. Sampson, grand commander of the G. A. R. of Arizona delivered an address on the plaza this evening.

NOTRE DAME GRADUATES.

Seven Young Ladies Awarded Diplomas at Redwood City's Academy.

Entertaining Commencement Exercises in a Prettily Decorated Auditorium.

REDWOOD CITY, CAL., May 30.—Graduation exercises were held at the Academy of Notre Dame in this city yesterday, and more visitors than could find comfortable seating-room crowded the auditorium of the school.

The programme opened with an entrance march by Misses Wolf, Hedge and Dowling. This was followed by the chorus, "Floral Greeting," by the junior pupils.

The operetta "Genevieve," in three parts, was rendered by these seven young ladies, who constituted the graduating class: Misses Eva Solen, M. Lynch, M. O'Brien, M. Dolan, K. Murphy, M. McCarthy, Pauline Hanson.

Another interesting number on the programme was the original allegory, "Youth and Her Visitants," rendered in recitation and song by a number of young ladies clad in pretty costumes, who represented Youth and her attendant virtues: Pleasure, Sorrow, Experience, Patience, Truth, Faith, Peace, Wisdom, Hope, Prayer and Labor.

Miss Dolly Keruse supplied the accompanying music. Miss Murphy, the class orator, recited an original poem entitled "Semper Fideles," the class motto. Owing to the absence of Rev. D. O'Sullivan, the parish priest, Rev. Father O'Riordan of Menlo Park presented the diplomas to the graduates.

SELMA GRADUATES.

Fourteen Students of the Union High School Receive Awards.

SELMA, CAL., May 30.—The graduating exercises of the Selma High School were held in the opera-house last evening. The house was crowded to the doors. The decorations were artistic, the class motto, "Rowing, Not Drowning," being displayed over the stage, surrounded by a wreath of ivy, white flowers and greens were displayed in profusion.

LOST THE TRAIL NEAR ROCKY BAR.

Two Women Attempt to Cross the Mountains on Snowshoes.

STRAY FROM THE PATH.

One Succumbs to the Bitter Cold and Dies in Her Companion's Arms.

FOUND BY A MAIL-CARRIER.

He Comes Upon the Half-Frozen Survivor, Weeping Over the Body of Her Friend.

ROCKY BAR, IDAHO, May 30.—Mrs. Morrow, Boise City and a friend, Miss Hoffman, started several days ago to travel on snowshoes over the mountains from Atlanta to this place.

The foolhardy venture, which few men care to attempt, resulted in the death of Miss Hoffman near the summit of the mountains, and Mrs. Morrow's life is despaired of.

These two frail women, actuated by a spirit of adventure, underwent an experience such as few of their sex could survive, and that one of them still lives is a matter of wonderment for the hardy mountaineers.

Soon after starting from Atlanta, which is eighteen miles from Rocky Bar, they lost the trail and night overtook them. It was bitterly cold and they could find no shelter.

They dug a hole in the snow beside a large tree, and crouched there to await the death that they believed would come. During the night Miss Hoffman succumbed to the cold and exhaustion.

A mail-carrier who passed the next day found Mrs. Morrow in a very exhausted condition, holding the stiffened corpse of her friend in her arms. They were found one and a half miles from the regular trail through the mountains.

The scene was as startling as it was pitiable. The anguish of the survivor, mourning over the body of one of her sex in that out-of-the-way place, and alone in the night, moved the mail-carrier to tears. Aid was summoned and Mrs. Morrow and the body of Miss Hoffman were carried to a settler's cabin. Mrs. Morrow is now lying in a critical condition at this place.

TROUBLE IN A SAN LUIS BANK.

Stockholders Petition in Court for a Decree Removing Three of the Directors.

SAN LUIS OBISPO, CAL., May 30.—A complaint was filed in the Superior Court yesterday by I. G. Wickersham of Petaluma against James L. Crittenden, S. W. Wilson, Thomas T. Crittenden and the Bank of San Luis Obispo, asking for a decree removing James L. and Thomas T. Crittenden and S. W. Wilson from the office of directors of the bank, to close up the business of the bank by liquidation and, for that purpose, to appoint a receiver to take charge of the assets of the bank, convert them into money, discharge all liabilities and distribute the balance to the stockholders.

The complaint alleges that the bank is a corporation with a capital stock of $100,000 divided into 1000 shares of $100 each; that the plaintiff is the owner of 534 shares and James L. Crittenden owns a small majority of the stock, and has since October 14, 1890, that the defendants, S. W. Wilson and T. T. Crittenden, have each ten shares transferred to them by James L. Crittenden to enable them to act as directors, but James L. Crittenden is the actual owner; that at one time the bank was doing a large and profitable business.

It had assets of about $600,000 in bills receivable, bank premises valued at $170,000, other real estate valued at $28,000, cash $31,000, and overdrafts of $100,000. It had a paid-up capital of $100,000, and a surplus of $390,000, and deposits on open account of $210,000, and it was the leading bank in San Luis Obispo.

It is also charged that Crittenden, having control of the board of directors, draws a salary of $250 per month, pays a cashier $175, and his brother as bookkeeper $150 for wholly unnecessary services, and that the business of the bank has been gradually destroyed by the mismanagement of James Crittenden, and that no recuperation is possible. Bills receivable have run down from $600,000 to $45,000; time deposits from $250,000 to $30,000; and in open account from $310,000 to $18,000.

Another interesting number on the programme was the original allegory, "Youth and Her Visitants," rendered in recitation and song by a number of young ladies clad in pretty costumes, who represented Youth and her attendant virtues: Pleasure, Sorrow, Experience, Patience, Truth, Faith, Peace, Wisdom, Hope, Prayer and Labor.
