There is a resort on Jackson street, near East, where all the loafers on the water front go to get a schooner of wine for 5 cents. About fifteen of them were sitting in the place half asleep yesterday, when some young fellows slyly slipped a lighted bomb into the room.

When it went off it broke the windows and knocked all the bottles off the shelves. The loafers were sobered with fright and came tumbling over each other in their eagerness to get away from the place.

It is very important that our fruit exhibit should be thoroughly replenished during the present fruit season. As we have no means of getting fruit except through the efforts of our respective representatives I ask you a special favor and as a duty which you owe to the board as the representative from your county to see that we are supplied with shipments of the various kinds of fruit in their season. The Blue and the Gray.

Both men and women are apt to feel a little blue, when the gray hairs begin to show. It's a very natural feeling. In the normal condition of things gray hairs belong to advanced age. They have no business whitening the head of man or woman, who has not begun to go down the slope of life. As a matter of fact, the hair turns gray regardless of age, or of life's seasons; sometimes it is whitened by sickness, but more often from lack of care. When the hair fades or turns gray there's no need to resort to hair dyes. The normal color of the hair is restored and retained by the use of and plums, prunes, peaches, pears, nectarines, etc., should be sent in their season. It is hardly necessary to say to you that only the best and soundest of the different varieties is desirable for our purposes.

Trusting you will give this matter your at- tention and see that we have supplies of fruit from your locality to thoroughly replenish and freshen your exhibit, etc.

MARRIED BY A JUDGE. Sequel of the Alameda Elopement of Annie Francis and Edward Caldwell.

Edward Caldwell and Annie Francis were married yesterday in the office of District Attorney Barnes under circum- stances dramatic enough to satisfy the most exacting lover of sensation. Cald- well was arrested on May 23 last on a charge of having abducted the girl who yesterday became his bride, and since that date has been confined in the County Jail.

Both lived in Alameda, and when one day the girl, who is but 16, disappeared Caldwell was at once suspected of having a hand in it, and was taken into custody on the complaint of Miss Francis' father. She was in his company when arrested, and was locked up as a witness. The parents of both were at first opposed to a marriage, but finally agreed that this was the only course and gave their consent.

Judge Belcher was asked to officiate, and, surrounded by a crowd of male and female friends, they were united. The bride's mother fainted when her daughter was pronounced the wife of Caldwell.

In Australia horses and cattle are now being branded by electricity from storage batteries. The temperature is uniform and the brand safe and artistic.
