

GREAT SPORT ON WILLOWS' TRACK.

Immense Crowd to Witness the Third Day's Racing.

HOMEWARD'S BAD BREAK

Won a Heat in Very Fast Time and Was Then Beaten by All.

LIKE JOHNSON NO GARRISON.

George L Was Heavily Backed and After a Hard Struggle Beat H's Field.

WILLOWS, CAL., Aug. 13.—The greatest sport ever seen in this section of the State was afforded the great crowd at the track today. In the 2:15 trot the unfortunate Fresno horse Homeward took the first heat in 2:13 1/2, stepping it off in grand fashion, but in the last flowing was drenched through making a disastrous break. This mark is a track record as well as the race record for Central California. This time was also equalled in the 2:12 pacing event by the Oakwood stock farm's erratic mare Javelin, who was on her good behavior and won in straight heats without making a skip.

Seaside, splendidly ridden by Spooner, captured the seven-furlong run in a drive from Quarterstaff. Old George L lasted just long enough to beat Irma out in the short dash. Jasper Ayers, who finally proved victor in the 2:15 trot, was driven by John Perkins, the young Visalia reinsman, who received an ovation at the conclusion of the race. The grand stand was filled with ladies and their escorts, and the management and the officers of the association are elated over the outlook.

The opening betting on the 2:15 trot showed Jasper Ayers and Gallette coupled bringing $10, Chico $4 and Homeward $1. The rank outsiders took the pole from Chico at the first turn and rattled off the heat in 2:13 1/2, with Jasper Ayers second, three lengths before Gallette. The betting now shifted in favor of Driver Clark's Fresno horse, he selling for $10 against $4 for Gallette and $4 for the field. Homeward broke at the turn and again when straightened away down the backstretch, finally making a bad stumble, which threw him so far out of it that he had the flag flashed in his face. Gallette ridden by Jasper Ayers and Chico, a hard-contested finish got the verdict by little over a length in 2:13 1/2.

The mare now sold favorite over the field at odds of $10 to $6. She led Jasper to a homestretch, where Perkins made his drive and gradually forcing to the front took the heat by two lengths from Chico in 2:15 1/2. The next two heats were also ridden by Jasper, who steadiest to business and seemed capable of going all day. Gallette put in a great bid for the fifth and deciding heat, when it was thought by all that she was dead tired and out of it.

The only two opposed to Javelin in the pacing event were Hanford Medium and Loupe. She sold a 10 to 6 favorite over the pair and stepped off three very stylish heats in 2:14 1/2, 2:14 1/2, 2:13 1/2. Hanford Medium made it very interesting for the first time in the second heat, but the effort pumped him out.

The lovers of the gallopers now had an inning. A field of seven went to the post, with Seaside being favorite at $5, Nevers next in demand at $3 and the field fetching $4. Nevers, who ran the fast race at Petaluma with a catch on her back, led the bunch until within a furlong from home, where Seaside took command, and ridden out by Quarterstaff, a length in 1:29. Faro was a good third. Ike Johnson, who rode Clara Johnson, was expected to shine as a Garrison up here, but proved a disappointment.

The last event was a four and a half furlong spin with another field of seven lining up. Robin Hood with Ames up was made a favorite, with the wise ones putting in their coin on George L. Narvaez got the latter away in front and in a hard drive beat the fast coming Irma out a neck in :56 3/4. Two dollar Paris mutuels paid $11.55.

Saturday will be a busy day at the track. All of the business houses have agreed to close and the free for all race and the big 2:27 trot are expected to prove strong drawing cards.

ENERGETIC SUFFRAGISTS. The Entire State Nearly Organized for the Coming Campaign.

Movements of Some of the Most Prominent Laborers in the Cause of Woman.

The woman suffragists are rapidly completing the organization of clubs in all the voting precincts of the State. The work has been carried on with a rapidity and thoroughness which speaks volumes for the devoted energy and efficient methods of the ladies having it in charge. The counties are to have clubs in every town and village where a vote can be cast, and the undertaking, though it seems a stupendous one, is rapidly approaching a most successful outcome.

been given charge of the same work in Mendocino. Her labors in Sonoma County wrung the warmest praise from press and people, even the anti-suffragists joining their commendations to the general voice. Mrs. E. G. Greene has nearly finished establishing clubs in Santa Cruz, and is already preparing to commence the work in Santa Clara County. Miss Emma M. Gay, an ardent young suffragist and a charming speaker, has been sent to organize the counties of Placer and Nevada, while Mrs. Ida Hazlett, whose phenomenal success in Lassen County has made her power in suffrage circles, has gone to Fresno, where new victories await her.

Every one remembers Miss Harriet May Mills and her splendid paper read at the Woman's Congress. She will have a chance to use her eloquence to great effect in Santa Barbara, whither she has gone to organize that populous county. Miss Anthony and Mrs. Sargent will leave to-day for San Jose in order to take the measure of the situation in the Garden City and vicinity as viewed from the suffragist standpoint.

SAUSALITO POOLROOMS.

The Harrison Company Continues Its Business Openly—Voting for Carnival Queen.

SAUSALITO, CAL., Aug. 13.—The case of the Harrison Company, poolroom men, now running the entire pool business in town, came up for hearing before Judge Pryor Wednesday evening. On motion of the counsel for defense, J. W. Cochran of San Rafael, a change of venue was granted, and the case will be tried in Mill Valley before Judge Fottrell.

In the meanwhile Harrison & Co. carry on their business, despite the Marshal and the order issued from the Board of Trustees.

Schwartz will wait till some action is taken by the Town Council before reopening.

Voting for Queen for the carnival is steadily progressing. Two ballot-boxes have been placed in each end of the town, and the citizens generally are taking an active interest in the canvass. So far ladies residing in the pretty town of Sausalito: Miss R. Miller, Miss K. Becker, Miss Lichtenstein, Miss K. Gorman-Raisch and Mrs. J. M. Kilgarriff.

The whaler, the Etna, anchored in Sausalito Bay this morning.

A MISSIONARY OF LAOS.

The Rev. Hugh Taylor's Story of Work Among the Malays.

Build Queer Houses on Poles—Thirty Teachers, All of the Presbyterian Board.

The Rev. Hugh Taylor, a missionary of Lakawan, in the province of Laos, in the north of Siam, arrived here on the Coptic yesterday, accompanied by his family and Miss Isabella A. Griffin, a missionary of Chuengmai, which is the principal city of Laos. All are missionaries of the Presbyterian board.

Mr. and Mrs. Taylor are from Nebraska, and have been in Laos eight years. Their three little children have learned the native language, and cannot speak English.

"There are thirty missionaries all told in the province of Laos," said Rev. Mr. Taylor, "and all are of the Presbyterian board. The town of Lakawan, where Mrs. Taylor and I have been, has about 25,000 people, while the province has 3,000,000."

"Our missionary work is very encouraging. The natives are of the Malay race. They are quiet and tractable. Their main industry is agriculture. Rice is their principal product, but they raise a few vegetables and a little corn.

"The main trade of the Malay race is about their only export. We are in the mountain region of the Maauing River, an upper tributary of the famous Manam River. The native houses along the river are of bamboo and thatch and are built on poles, because of the danger of floods.

"The country is tropical and produces bananas, oranges and other similar things. It is malarious, however, and this constitutes one of the drawbacks.

"We have two schools there, one for boys and the other for girls. The latter has as high as sixty students at a time. Books are issued in the native language. We had the type made five years ago, and began publishing the books three years ago."

Mr. and Mrs. Taylor are at the Occidental. They will be here several days before starting for their old home in Nebraska.

BOTH SHOOT TO KILL.

J. Carr and Special J. W. McMenomy Have a Duel in the Auzeiras.

Officer F. W. Riey Arrives in Time to Prevent a Killing—Carr Taken to Jail.

JUST BEFORE THE GREAT BATTLE.

O. W. Winthrop and Captain Lees Array Their Forces.

CAMPBELL TO BE HERE.

The Defendant Claims to Have Five People to Prove an Alibi.

EVIDENCE OF THE DETECTIVES.

The Police Believe They Have a Complete Chain to Prove the Prisoner's Guilt.

Whether it is the sun of Austerlitz or that of Waterloo which has risen, Oliver Winfield Winthrop may know this morning if he cares to fight his accusers.

His trial is set for 10 o'clock before Superior Judge Wallace, at which time he may ask and obtain time to plead; plead not guilty and have the case set for future hearing, or else enter the field boldly without delay and let a jury decide whether millionaire James A. Campbell's accusations have foundation or his declaration of innocence is correct.

Captain Lees is positive he has a complete chain of evidence to prove Winthrop's guilt. He claims to have traced his movements from the time he is said to have spoken to Donald Urquhart about a scheme to kidnap Campbell and other people of wealth, to the time Detective Cody placed the prisoner under arrest in Oakland on Monday morning last.

The Chief of Detectives would be sure of his case, of course, if he could secure the mysterious "Pete" who is supposed to have helped Winthrop in torturing Campbell at the 4109 California-street cottage. "Pete," as well as "Dollie," the writer of the letter found in Winthrop's possession, insist on remaining uncaught. Still, that makes no difference to Captain Lees. He has enough evidence on hand now to win the fight, so he says.

In the meantime, however, the detective force is out hunting up past records. There is an effort being made to show that a grave mistake was made by the court that found Winthrop not guilty of the murder of Mrs. Jennie Matthews over one year ago.

There are men who worked in the cemetery where Winthrop was superintending at the time, and to whom he owes money, who claim that he, only recently, promised to pay his indebtedness from a big raise of money he expected very shortly.

There is Donald Urquhart, the main witness besides the complainant, Campbell, and there is the circumstantial evidence of Winthrop's leaving town in disguise after having been seen in the company of Campbell Monday afternoon, the date of the millionaire's disappearance.

Winthrop simply laughs at these accusations. He says he can explain them away by telling a truthful account of all his doings. He says he can prove he never rented the California-street cottage; never took Campbell there, and that while the millionaire planter says he was being tortured, he (Winthrop) was miles away from the place in the company of reputable people, whose testimony must be accepted as incontrovertible. In other words, that he can prove a perfect alibi from the facts.

His acquaintances, Mr. Hess, Arthur Porter and D. C. Allen of 927 Market street, as well as Attorney Quitsow, were with him at different times when he is accused of being with Campbell.

Two respectable ladies also spoke to him and were in his company Monday afternoon when he is supposed to have been trying Campbell to chairs and frightening him in the hope of having him sign a $20,000 check. He will bring up other witnesses also to show that the Hawaiian's habits are such that he drinks to excess, after which he is filled with hallucinations of robbery, torture and kindred things not countenanced in reputable communities.

This is how the position of the two factions can be summed up, and both claiming to be ready for battle it is likely there will be no delay.

ALAMEDA COUNTY TO AID

Oakland Churches Tendered for the Christian Endeavor Convention.

The Executive Committee of the Golden Gate Union Receives Gratifying Reports.

The free use of all churches in Oakland for any meetings or headquarters for the various State delegations during the great International Christian Endeavor convention to be held in this city next summer was officially tendered to the executive committee of the Golden Gate Union last evening by A. R. Waters of Oakland, who had been delegated to make such an offer in the name of the Alameda County Christian Endeavor Union.

In making the offer Mr. Waters said the union had over 400 members, besides 1500 juniors, and all of these stood ready to assist in the work of preparation, and would do anything from scrubbing to leading a procession.

The secretary was authorized to thank the union.

KELLY'S FATE S IN THE BALANCE.

The Congressional Candidate May Be Turned Down.

HANLY'S PROXY FORGED. To Be Placed Before the Democratic State Central Committee.

A LIVELY MEETING TO-NIGHT. William Hinton Jr. Says That an Affidavit Will Be Secured for the Fight.

THE FORCES THAT ARE arrayed against Joseph P. Kelly, the Democratic candidate for Congress of the district convention in the Fifth Congressional District, are preparing for a grand coup when the Democratic State Central Committee meets to-night, and if Kelly's name is on the ticket after the Democratic State Convention adjourns it will be because his friends in the committee are stronger than his foes.

The hopes of the anti-Kellyites rest on proving that the candidate was indorsed by means of a forged proxy, and this they claim to be able to do without the slightest difficulty.

When the ballot for Congressional candidates was taken at the recent district convention in the Fifth there were ninety-six delegates present, twenty-six from Santa Clara, six from San Mateo and the remainder from San Francisco. Forty-nine votes were necessary for a choice, and this number exactly Kelly received, after the friends of the opposing candidates had done everything in their power to win his election.

While the votes were being recorded the name of W. C. Hanly, a hardware man, was called, and his proxy was offered by two men, one of them being Thomas J. Walsh and the other a man named Wilson. Each claimed that he held the only genuine proxy, and the matter was placed in the hands of a committee, which retired at once to pass on the documents.

The proxy held by Wilson was typewritten, while that in the possession of Walsh was written. After some deliberation the Wilson document was accepted, and the vote secured Kelly the indorsement, he receiving a bare majority.

When the result was announced Max Popper arose and moved that the indorsement be made unanimous, which was done. Shortly after that rumors came to the ears of the friends of James H. Barry, who had proposed to move the convention, that underhand means had been used to gain for Kelly the indorsement of the convention, and a quiet investigation was begun.

The Hanly proxy matter seemed a fruitless field for search, and those who took the matter in hand were not long in striking a lead that developed into just what they had been looking for.

Hanly was interviewed and flatly denied that he had given a proxy to any one else than Walsh, and said that if his name was signed to any other document purporting to be a proxy it was a forgery. William Hinton Jr. in one of those who has been taking an active interest in the matter, and he thinks that the crucial test will come to-night.

"There seems to be no doubt," he said last evening, "that Kelly's indorsement for the convention is a forgery, and that of a forged proxy. Whether he was cognizant that the matter was being handled as it was does not appear, nor does it really matter, for if he did not have a genuine majority he cannot get the indorsement fairly and should not be allowed to keep it."

"Hanly has stated unequivocally that he did not give any one but Walsh a proxy, and his affidavit to that effect will be secured and presented with other evidence that has been gathered, at the meeting of the State Central Committee to-night."

"We hope of course that this will stop the entire matter, and that the indorsement will be ignored by the State Convention, but there may be an obstacle to this in the action of the District Convention in making the indorsement unanimous. Mr. Popper of course has endeavored soon to make this move, and it is apparent that there was anything wrong when he moved to make the indorsement unanimous, or it never would have taken that shape."

However, there is no doubt that there will be an interesting time at the meeting to-night, and if Kelly pulls through it will be because of his superior strength."

BRIDGES SAYS "THANKS!"

The German Democratic Club Receives Letters From Bryan and Sewall.

The German-American Democratic State Central Club signaled its meeting in the editorial rooms of the California Democrat Wednesday by receiving and filing with pride letters from W. J. Bryan and Arthur Sewall, in which these candidates, over their signatures, acknowledged the receipt of resolutions passed by the club at its last meeting and transmitted by President Greenblatt.

This organization is several years old and it has recently revived its activity. At the meeting Herman Joost was elected first vice-president and Rudolph Harold second vice-president.

The letter from Mr. Bryan was as follows: LINCOLN, Neb., July 31, 1896. M. Greenblatt, San Francisco, Cal.—Dear Sir: I am in receipt of your favor of July 20, conveying to me the resolutions adopted at the meeting of the German-American Democratic State Central Club of your city, and I desire to express to you, and through you to the members of your club, my sincere thanks for the resolutions passed and for the kind expressions of good will on the part of your club. I am gratified to receive the assurances of assistance in our campaign from the German Democrats of California, and desire to express the hope that your club may continue to grow in number and influence in your city as the campaign progresses. Again thanking you for the friendly interest you have manifested in my behalf, I am, yours very truly, W. J. BRYAN.

Mr. Sewall's missive read as follows: BATH, Me., July 27, 1896. M. Greenblatt, Esq., German Democratic State Central Club, San Francisco—DEAR SIR: You will please extend my thanks to the German Democratic State Central Club of California for their hearty indorsement of our ticket and platform.

KELLY'S FATE S IN THE BALANCE.

The Congressional Candidate May Be Turned Down.

HANLY'S PROXY FORGED. To Be Placed Before the Democratic State Central Committee.

A LIVELY MEETING TO-NIGHT. William Hinton Jr. Says That an Affidavit Will Be Secured for the Fight.

THE FORCES THAT ARE arrayed against Joseph P. Kelly, the Democratic candidate for Congress of the district convention in the Fifth Congressional District, are preparing for a grand coup when the Democratic State Central Committee meets to-night, and if Kelly's name is on the ticket after the Democratic State Convention adjourns it will be because his friends in the committee are stronger than his foes.

The hopes of the anti-Kellyites rest on proving that the candidate was indorsed by means of a forged proxy, and this they claim to be able to do without the slightest difficulty.

When the ballot for Congressional candidates was taken at the recent district convention in the Fifth there were ninety-six delegates present, twenty-six from Santa Clara, six from San Mateo and the remainder from San Francisco. Forty-nine votes were necessary for a choice, and this number exactly Kelly received, after the friends of the opposing candidates had done everything in their power to win his election.

While the votes were being recorded the name of W. C. Hanly, a hardware man, was called, and his proxy was offered by two men, one of them being Thomas J. Walsh and the other a man named Wilson. Each claimed that he held the only genuine proxy, and the matter was placed in the hands of a committee, which retired at once to pass on the documents.

The proxy held by Wilson was typewritten, while that in the possession of Walsh was written. After some deliberation the Wilson document was accepted, and the vote secured Kelly the indorsement, he receiving a bare majority.

When the result was announced Max Popper arose and moved that the indorsement be made unanimous, which was done. Shortly after that rumors came to the ears of the friends of James H. Barry, who had proposed to move the convention, that underhand means had been used to gain for Kelly the indorsement of the convention, and a quiet investigation was begun.

The Hanly proxy matter seemed a fruitless field for search, and those who took the matter in hand were not long in striking a lead that developed into just what they had been looking for.

Hanly was interviewed and flatly denied that he had given a proxy to any one else than Walsh, and said that if his name was signed to any other document purporting to be a proxy it was a forgery. William Hinton Jr. in one of those who has been taking an active interest in the matter, and he thinks that the crucial test will come to-night.

"There seems to be no doubt," he said last evening, "that Kelly's indorsement for the convention is a forgery, and that of a forged proxy. Whether he was cognizant that the matter was being handled as it was does not appear, nor does it really matter, for if he did not have a genuine majority he cannot get the indorsement fairly and should not be allowed to keep it."

"Hanly has stated unequivocally that he did not give any one but Walsh a proxy, and his affidavit to that effect will be secured and presented with other evidence that has been gathered, at the meeting of the State Central Committee to-night."

However, there is no doubt that there will be an interesting time at the meeting to-night, and if Kelly pulls through it will be because of his superior strength."

BRIDGES SAYS "THANKS!"

The German Democratic Club Receives Letters From Bryan and Sewall.

The German-American Democratic State Central Club signaled its meeting in the editorial rooms of the California Democrat Wednesday by receiving and filing with pride letters from W. J. Bryan and Arthur Sewall, in which these candidates, over their signatures, acknowledged the receipt of resolutions passed by the club at its last meeting and transmitted by President Greenblatt.

This organization is several years old and it has recently revived its activity. At the meeting Herman Joost was elected first vice-president and Rudolph Harold second vice-president.

The letter from Mr. Bryan was as follows: LINCOLN, Neb., July 31, 1896. M. Greenblatt, San Francisco, Cal.—Dear Sir: I am in receipt of your favor of July 20, conveying to me the resolutions adopted at the meeting of the German-American Democratic State Central Club of your city, and I desire to express to you, and through you to the members of your club, my sincere thanks for the resolutions passed and for the kind expressions of good will on the part of your club. I am gratified to receive the assurances of assistance in our campaign from the German Democrats of California, and desire to express the hope that your club may continue to grow in number and influence in your city as the campaign progresses. Again thanking you for the friendly interest you have manifested in my behalf, I am, yours very truly, W. J. BRYAN.

Mr. Sewall's missive read as follows: BATH, Me., July 27, 1896. M. Greenblatt, Esq., German Democratic State Central Club, San Francisco—DEAR SIR: You will please extend my thanks to the German Democratic State Central Club of California for their hearty indorsement of our ticket and platform.

gated it with an unprejudiced motive come to one conclusion as to the cause of our distress to-day—our defective monetary system—and the remedy lies in a reform of that system and restoration of silver to a primary money and free coinage, unrestricted and unlimited, to both gold and silver. Yours truly, ARTHUR SEWALL.

No Fusion With Democracy. Chairman Wardall of the State Central Committee of the People's party of California will leave for Los Angeles this morning to attend the Congressional Convention of the People's party.

He informed a CALL reporter yesterday that the proposed scheme for a fusion of Democrats and Populists on the Congressional ticket in that district had fallen through because of the inability of the Democrats to agree upon a man with whom they could fuse.

"We will nominate a man of our own for Congress," said Chairman Wardall, "and the chances are that we will put up a straight ticket all through. There are three candidates for Congress there: Rev. W. C. Bowman, H. C. Dillon and A. R. Sprague. Nothing will be done with reference to the proposed fusion on Presidential electors until after the meeting of the National Executive Committee of the People's party in Washington next week. By that time the Democratic National Committee will have been heard from and a basis of union will have been formulated."

Mr. Wardall will return to this City next Monday.

SEIZED DISEASED MEAT.

Unwholesome Beef Caught While En Route to Chinese Butchers.

The Drivers of the Wagon Taken Into Custody by Police Captain Spillane.

Captain Spillane of the police made an important capture of diseased meat yesterday, and as a consequence Thomas Maloney and Patrick Harrington are now charged with violating the laws against selling or having in possession tainted meat, and a warrant is out for Hugh O'Neil, whose horse-slaughtering establishment was exposed several months ago.

The men were driving a wagon loaded with the meat to town from the direction of South San Francisco yesterday when stopped by the police officer. He surmised that the meat was unfit for food and had them in custody until Market Inspector Ben Davis could be summoned. The Inspector at once said that the beef was from cattle that had suffered from tuberculosis and he swore to complaints against the men. They stated they had received the meat from Hugh O'Neil, whose slaughtering establishment was recently moved across the San Mateo County line and that they had been instructed to deliver the meat to Tuck King, a Chinese butcher at 748 Sacramento street. King and O'Neil will also be arrested for participating in the handling of the meat.

Dr. Neif, the acting veterinary surgeon of the Board of Health, stated that the meat was the worst he had ever seen. Efforts had been made to remove all evidences of tuberculosis from the carcasses, but many remained, the tubercles adhering to the ribs being as large as marbles.

THE EXAMINER WILL MOVE.

Its Plant to Be Placed in the Nucleus Building.

It is probable that in the near future the Examiner will be moved to the Nucleus building on Market and Third streets. Some time ago W. R. Hearst purchased this property with a view of establishing there a new home for his paper. Lack of room and other causes caused him to temporarily abandon the project. That he intends soon to make this move is apparent from the fact that he has recently purchased of the Cook estate twenty feet more of ground on Stevenson and Third streets. The sale and transfer was yesterday confirmed in the Superior Court. From what can be learned, the Nucleus building will not be torn down, but extensive alterations will be made that will permit the housing of the Examiner there.

THE FINISH.

Get in at the Finish! Don't stand back and let others get away with all those $9 Suits! Sale closes Saturday night.

All our ready-made Clay Worsted, Cheviot and Scotch Tweed Suits, that were $11.50, $14 and $17, go this week at $9.00!

If you miss this sale you miss the crowning sale of the remarkable campaign we have conducted this year.

Next week we open our New Fall Stock. All these suits must be out of the wry.

COME TO THE FINISH!

Our workrooms are open for inspection to any and all who care to know how we make our clothes. All our books and likewise open to all legitimate labor organizations who care to know the wages we pay our employees.

GOLD FOR GOLD TO BE THE RULE.

No Cause for Uneasiness Among Savings Bank Depositors.

POLICY OF THE BANKS.

There Will Be No Attempt to Pay in Silver Should That Metal Be Remonetized.

BANKERS MUST BE HONEST.

Their Prosperity and Existence Depends on the Confidence of Their Customers.

One of the unexpected results of the present agitation of the money question is the uneasiness that has been created in the minds of savings bank depositors, and for which there is no apparent reason. This feeling has deterred some from making further deposits and induced others to withdraw some portion, and in a few instances all, of their money from the institutions to which it had been intrusted.

The result of this, it is claimed, is not in any way to weaken the banks, but to cause a contraction in the present amount of gold in circulation. People, instead of putting their savings in banks, whence they are returned to circulation through loans, keep their money in their person or secrete it in some place or about their dwelling, where it is kept idle and rendered unfruitful.

This feeling of uneasiness is due to the fear that should silver be remonetized at the ratio of 16 to 1 the banks would attempt to repay depositors who had surrendered gold in silver coin that would in the opinion of these fearsome people be at a discount.

How unfounded are such misgivings is shown by the interview with President B. A. Becker of the German Savings and Loan Society.

"Nothing more absurd could be conceived than this idea," said Mr. Becker, when the subject was broached to him. "You ask whether the savings banks will attempt to repay depositors in silver should free silver be declared for in the coming election. Most decidedly not. The bank that would attempt to do that could not keep its doors open for forty-eight hours. There would be no need to pursue such a course. Let me explain."

"All loans made by the savings banks of this City, and of the whole State for that matter, are made payable in gold coin—both principal and interest. We receive gold from depositors—the gold with which to make these loans, and it is preposterous to suppose that any bank will attempt to pay back to depositors anything else but gold."

"We handle very little silver, and frequently have to send to the Mint to get what little silver coin we require to make change. We would thus have to go out of our way to procure silver, and the method we would have to follow under such circumstances would be nothing less than dishonest."

"The moment you find a man dishonest you don't want to do any more business with him, and the savings bank business more than any other is built up on confidence. The moment that is lacking up goes the bank."

When Mr. Becker's attention was called to the fact that a question had arisen as to whether contracts, notes, mortgages, etc., made payable in gold coin could not be paid in any legal tender—silver, if that metal was remonetized—he replied:

"A specific contract law exists in California which provides that contracts made payable in gold must be paid in that kind of coin. There are some States in which there is no such law, and all debts can be paid in any legal tender, no matter what is specified in the contract. In such States gold, greenbacks, gold notes, silver certificates, National bank notes and silver coin, should silver be remonetized, would all be available for the use of the debtor."

COLUMBIAN WOOLEN MILLS, 541 Market Street. Advertisement for suits and clothing.