Entries for the Bicycle Races That Are to Be Decided at Goodwater Grove.

STOCKTON, Cal., Sept. 3.—The best attended meeting of the Admission day committee was held at headquarters to-night.

GOODWATER GROVE, NEAR STOCKTON, CAL. The Half-Mile Track Where the Bicycle Meet During the Native Sons' Celebration Is to Be Held Is Located in This Grove.

was decided to obviate all such difficulties as was experienced last year at Sacramento by stationing water-carts, filled with ice water, at intervals along the line of the parade, as well as placing barrels of ice water at points where the procession will pass from which water will be handed to thirsty marchers.

The seven other bands will be placed on yachts and barges at intervals along the line of parade. Two will be on the floats, accompanying the Turn Verein Mannerchor. Arrangements have been made to have a tug meet the twelve yachts that have promised to take part in the procession at Antioch and a committee will get to San Francisco to-morrow to get other tugs to tow up the launches that will come from there to participate in the carnival.

The offer of the Naval Reserve to come here for carnival night has been accepted. Four whelboats and a launch belonging to the Naval Reserve will be towed up here on the morning of the 7th inst., by one of the boats of the California Navigation and Improvement Company.

are to be four events, but the entry list has proved so large that they will have to be run off in heats, making practically twelve races.

Some of the best riders in the State, from both the amateur and professional ranks, have entered, and the race meet will be one of the best if not the best ever held on this coast. A glance at the entry list as given out by the committee late to-night will assure all who desire to attend that they will see some speedy riding, especially as the track is now in the best of condition.

Already five professionals are in training at the grove. These are F. M. Byrnes of the Imperial Cycling Club; W. A. Terrill, Bay City Wheelmen; Ed Chapman of Napa, who will ride with the Olympic Club Wheelmen; Dan Whitman of Los Angeles and Oscar Osen of the Olympic Cyclers.

The mile amateur handicap will have to be run in four heats, as will the other amateur events. Following is a complete list of the entries: One-mile handicap, amateur—George Jackson, C. C. W.; Milton McCook, unattached; Percy R. Mott, Reliance; E. F. Flynn, Imperial Cycling Club; W. Heathman, Stockton Road Club; R. A. Henderson, S. R. C.; E. A. Webb Jr., Imperial Cycling Club; A. W. F. Okon, Un.; William Lonigan, S. R. C.; L. A. Payne, Charles F. Bauer, L. A. Young, Walter Leitch, Jacob Hirsch, George Jackson, all Capital City Wheelmen; Milton M. Cook, Un.; Percy R. The races will start at the grove at 1:30 on the afternoon of the 9th, and as the parade will be over at noon there will be plenty of time between the two attractions. The regatta will not start until the races are about over.

Two of the big floats, one entitled "California" and the other representing a scene in Hades, entitled "No Native Sons Dwell Here," were finished to-day and the other will be completed by the 6th inst., when they will be accepted by W. W. Westby, R. P. Lane and George C. Becker of the carnival committee. It has been arranged that Director-General J. D. Peters and Chairman Grant of the carnival committee shall lead the pageant in the water in a beautifully decorated launch. Ten marshals will have charge of the ten divisions of the procession on the water, and on every float and every boat they will have an aid to see that every detail of the affair is carried out according to programme. These marshals and aids will be uniformed in white duck suits and blue yachting caps, with their badge of authority on the caps, and their word is to be law. In this way it is hoped that there will not be the slightest hitch in the arrangements.

BUCKLEY'S SLATE WORKED ALL RIGHT

The First Night of the Democratic Municipal Convention.

NEALON FOR CHAIRMAN

A Big and Enthusiastic Assemblage of "Real Under-Dog Democrats."

IT WORKED WITH PRECISION

Committees Were Appointed and the Convention Adjourned to Saturday Night.

The municipal convention of the Buckleites swung beautifully and proudly into play at B'nai B'rith hall last night. The first section of the well-planned and lubricated convention programme went through with perfect precision and much up a ticket and appoint a convention. We believe in primary elections and the principle that is the cornerstone of Democracy, that the majority should rule. The gentlemanly name for temporary chairman typifies this idea. He is a man with plenty of brains, whether he is from Nob Hill or Tar Flat, a fair hearing and a square deal. It is that tried, true and faithful Democrat, James C. Nealon.

There was a whoop of applause, nominations were quickly closed and amid more hurrahs Mr. Nealon went to the platform. Mr. Nealon on taking the stage was greeted with cheers. He thanked the convention for his election as temporary chairman and said that he desired to do something for the party in this City and County and to do justice to all in the convention. The local party was divided and there was need of care and prudence. It might be possible to unite the party. This was done everything in its power to bring unity and success.

W. T. Haverly was named for temporary secretary. There was no other nomination and Haverly was quickly declared elected. Daniel Ripston, Fratrot Kanfman and Frank X. Foley were elected as assistant secretaries. Charles McCarthy of the Forty-fourth District moved that a committee of eighteen on credentials be appointed by the chair. This was voted and a recess of ten minutes was taken while the chair made out his list as follows, one from each Assembly district: Twenty-eighth District, Timothy Ryan; Twenty-ninth, W. D. Mogan; Thirtieth, George Smith; Thirty-first, Charles J. Gallagher; Thirty-second, John McGee; Thirty-third, Daniel Riordan; Thirty-fourth, William Murray; Thirty-fifth, J. Dolan; Thirty-sixth, John White; Thirty-seventh, Samuel Goldstein; Thirty-eighth, Peter Garrity; Thirty-ninth, William Cook; Fortieth, John Driscoll; Forty-first, Thomas L. Wand; Forty-second, R. L. Barry; Forty-third, Henry Hart; Forty-fourth, James Cosgrove; Forty-fifth, Arthur Forcade.

A similar proceeding resulted in the announcement by the chairman of the following committee on platform and resolutions: Twenty-eighth District—George McEvoy. Twenty-ninth—Thomas Brisnan. Thirtieth—John H. Miller. Thirty-first—J. H. O'Brien (chairman). Thirty-second—Richard Barry. Thirty-third—Charles Schilling. Thirty-fourth—James J. Flinn. Thirty-fifth—Michael Kiernan. Thirty-sixth—William King. Thirty-seventh—Harry W. Kelly. Thirty-eighth—Charles Kram. Thirty-ninth—L. F. Compton. Fortieth—Henry Ash. Forty-first—Chester W. Keogh. Forty-second—F. N. Brooks. Forty-third—William Henderson. Forty-fourth—James Cosgrove. Forty-fifth—Arthur Forcade.

Chairman Nealon requested both the committees to meet to-night at the party headquarters on Ellis street, and a motion to adjourn until Saturday night was quickly carried.

James C. Nealon was elected temporary chairman and not an anti-Nealonite showed his head or raised his voice against even this part of the programme. A committee on order of business and one on platform and resolutions were appointed, after which the convention promptly adjourned until Saturday night, when permanent organization, platform and probably the nomination of a candidate for Mayor, will be the features of the second session of the convention. To-night the committees mentioned will meet and the reports are now ready for them. The main hall and the galleries were packed to the doors with as typical an assemblage of practical municipal Democrats as ever rustled the sawdust on the floor of a San Francisco hall, and made the air blue with all kinds of tobacco smoke. Reel B. Terry, in nominating Mr. Nealon, complimented the delegates in representing the "real old-line, under-dog Democrats" of San Francisco.

The Republican State Central Committee will meet next Saturday for the purpose of filling the vacancy caused by the resignation of Colonel Crocker as a nominee for Presidential elector. Major McLaughlin, chairman of the committee, said yesterday that, in accordance with a suggestion made by John D. Spreckels, a representative of the workingmen of this State would in all probability be selected to fill the vacancy. All the members of the committee with whom he had conversed had expressed themselves in favor of such an appointment, and he himself was heartily in accord with the idea. The workingmen of California were entitled to have a representation on the ticket, and he had no doubt that the committee next Saturday would make the appointment on the lines suggested by Mr. Spreckels.

Republicans visiting this City from the interior continue the most flattering accounts of the feeling of the people in the parts of the country in which they reside. J. McNeill of Stanislaus County says that there has been a great change in sentiment in that county within the past two weeks. The people realize that silver monometallism will not cure the evils which now afflict the poor, the worst of which evils is lack of employment. Protection is being recognized as the adequate remedy, because the lack of it has been so severely felt under the present Democratic administration, and because under the system of low tariff American manufactures have languished because of the competition of goods made by foreign pauper labor.

T. J. Sherwood, editor of the Marysville Democrat, was seen at the Grand Hotel last night. He is one of the stalwart pioneers of the State and was for a time Land Registrar under President Cleveland. Mr. Sherwood is doing some excellent campaign work and is more than pleased with the result of his investigations.

Franklin Bull, a well-known contractor, at present in charge of the work of building the Government jetty at Eureka, Humboldt County, reports that the people are enthusiastic up his way for protection and for the downfall of the Democratic party, which they say has experimented with this country long enough. There is a great demand up there for Republican literature, largely from Democrats who believe that this country needs a change. U. M. C. Peters of Niles, one of the best-known farmers in that neighborhood, reports political prospects most encouraging. Farmers are beginning to feel that a good deal of protection in their case would do them good and that they would like to stimulate manufacturing industries and create a market for their products.

M. C. Winchell of Vallejo reports Vallejo as a second Vermont, true to the core and a stayer to the last. F. P. Primmo of Redding brings down a good report from that loyal northland, that Republicanism is growing stronger there every day. Henry L. Collins of Stockton had little to say in addition to the statement of Park A. Buell in yesterday morning's CALL.

"San Joaquin County and Stockton are solid for McKinley and protection, and labor can stop that wave. There are too many workmen there for things to be otherwise." There will be a rare treat at the Auditorium, corner of Eddy and Jones streets, next Thursday night, when General W. H. L. Barnes, one of those rare men who improve as they mellow with age, will speak on the issues of the hour. Those who wish to hear this graceful orator will do well to go early. The gallery will be reserved for ladies and their escorts.

SHOUT FOR MCKINLEY. The Army and Navy Republican League Shows Its Colors Again. Leland Stanford Camp 2, Army and Navy Republican League of California, held a large and very enthusiastic meeting at Kohler & Chase building, 26 O'Farrell street, last evening. The commander stated that 115 new members had signed since last meeting, making an active membership of 565, and he is of the opinion that the membership will amount before the month of October closes to at least 1000, making a full regiment and fully prepared for the battle. Eloquent speeches were made on finance, tariff and protection to American industries by Hon. Noble Hamilton, department commander. General Robert A. Friedrich, John H. Durst and Captain Leon E. Jones. Miss Clara Demming recited "Barbara Fritchie" and "Battery B." Miss Dora Johnson recited "Widow Grant's Last Speech" and "Maid of Gettysburg."

KOWALSKY WAS MAD. The Election Commissioners Refused to Recognize His Friends. Colonel Kowalsky appeared before the Election Commissioners yesterday morning and demanded recognition for the handful of queer people represented by him, whereupon Commissioner Creswell dryly remarked that he would relegate those pleasures of the mind implied in Colonel Kowalsky's oratory until later in the session when the citations had been disposed of. On motion of Block the colonel's application was indefinitely postponed, for the reason that the Republican party already had three representatives before the board, namely Mr. Ruef, representing the State Central Committee, and J. M. Chas. Tilton, who voted against him, and regular Republican County Central Committee.

The pink aster in Colonel Kowalsky's buttonhole quivered with rage and chagrin as the colonel breathed a threat that City Engineer Tilton, who voted against him, would probably want a nomination for office at some time in the future, and then, and then—but the colonel magnanimously smothered the rest of it.
