

STEVE DONNELL DEFEATS SLAVIN

The Sponge Is Thrown Up During the Fifth Round.

SPORTS HEAVY LOSERS.

A Hot Battle at First, but the Australian Was Out of Condition.

RESULT OF A RECENT MISHAP

His Slugging Powers and Gameness of No Avail Against Steve's Cleverness.

MASPELH, L. L., Sept. 21.—Steve O'Donnell fought Frank Slavin to a standstill in the fifth round at the Empire Athletic Club to-night, and the latter's seconds, seeing their man was all but out, threw up the sponge after the fourth round on a minute and thirty-five seconds. Slavin fought badly all the way through and the bell only saved him in the fourth round. After the fight Slavin addressed the crowd as they were filing out. He said:

"I'm licked to-night, gentlemen; but I think the man that has been behind O'Donnell will give me another chance when I am in better condition. I have been hurt ever since Thursday and only came here so as not to disappoint the public and my backer."

As long as O'Donnell mixed it up Slavin was the stronger at the short range, but when Steve stood off it was all up with Slavin.

About 1000 sports made the journey to see the event, which was to have been a twenty-round contest. The crowd had scarcely been seated when a rumor was started to the effect that Slavin had hurt his arm, shoulder and back by a fall last Thursday and that he was in no condition to fight. It was stated that he had only come over to make an appearance and had done no work since the alleged accident. The betting was all in favor of Slavin and the majority of the sports seemed to think that the "accident" was a well-laid scheme to induce the O'Donnell contingent to put up their money. As good as 6 to 4 could be had against Steve's chances, as Slavin's supporters calculated that his slugging powers and gameness would prove too much for O'Donnell's cleverness.

FITZ RELEASED ON BAIL

Lanky Bob Must Answer the Charge of Arranging a Prize-Fight.

Pompador Jim Manages to Eude the Officer With a Warrant for His Arrest.

NEW YORK, N. Y., Sept. 21.—Bob Fitzsimmons was arrested at Bartholdi Hotel at 1:30 p. m. today by Detective Sergeant McNaught, who brought him to police headquarters. The arrest was made on a warrant charging Fitzsimmons with misdemeanor in arranging in this city for a prize-fight. So far as known Corbett, for whom the detectives have a warrant, has not yet been arrested.

Fitzsimmons was arraigned in the General Sessions Court this morning before Judge Fitzgerald. The courtroom was crowded. Fitzsimmons leaned on the railing in front of the Judge's desk and looked straight at the Judge. He carried a silk hat in his hand and wore a Prince Albert coat. His manager, Martin Julian, stood beside him, but he had no counsel. The indictment was read and Fitzsimmons was asked if he wished to plead. After a whispered conversation with Julian, he pleaded "not guilty." The Judge then held him in $1000 bail, and as no bondsman was ready the Judge added: "Committed until bail is furnished."

Fitzsimmons turned pale as the idea of a prison cell struck him, but he was not taken to a cell. He was taken up to the detectives' office in the General Sessions building to await until some one could be found to go bail for him. Fitzsimmons finally secured bail and was released. The District Attorney said there were two counts to the indictments. He further said that the case of Fitzsimmons and Corbett, who had been jointly indicted, was the first arrested made since the law was amended. The indictments against the two pugilists were found by the Grand Jury a week ago today.

CROSS' WORK AT STANFORD.

Palo Alto Football Candidates Already Show the Effect of His Advice.

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, CAL., Sept. 21.—Coach Cross had the men out this evening, and from the vim and spirit which the players put into their work it is pretty certain that his arrival has already had its effect. The men go at the game with more dash, and while their playing is full of fumbles and is very ragged at present, Cross says that before the game on the 10th of October, with the same amount of energy, he will have a winning team in the field over the State boys. The men on quick starting and accuracy in falling on the ball. For, as he says, "there is lots of chance to save and to make ground if all the players are speedy at falling on a fumbled ball."

The linemen, too, are receiving a great deal of attention, and it is evidently Cross' idea to make the Stanford line so strong that Berkeley will be unable to move it down the field in the second half of the game as she has done in some former games. Professor Angell, who takes great interest in the students' athletics here and has identified himself with their interests here as much as any other member of the faculty, is convinced that Stanford's chief weakness in the past has been the over-training of the men. To this he attributes the fact that Stanford always shows up best in the first half of the game and Berkeley in the second half. Cross is also of this opinion from what Water Camp has told him and the descriptions he has read of the contests. This he intends to avoid by giving the men less work than heretofore, but devoting more time to signal work and developing the endurance of the men by running and other like exercises.

Of the backs, Cross is well satisfied with the material with which he has to work and expects to develop some first-class players from among the number of aspirants for varsity honors.

STANFORD VS. BERKELEY.

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, CAL., Sept. 21.—It has already been decided to hold the intercollegiate football contest with Berkeley on November 14, twelve days previous to the big game on Thanksgiving. Both events will come off at Central Park.

AN AWKWARD MISTAKE.

A Washington Official Is Twice Arrested in Switzerland as a Criminal From Montevideo.

BERNE, SWITZERLAND, Sept. 21.—An awkward mistake on the part of the Swiss detectives has caused great annoyance to George F. Curtiss of Washington, an assistant librarian of the American Congress. When Mr. Curtiss arrived at Grindelwald he was pounced upon by detectives, who mistook him for a criminal from Montevideo, for whom they were searching. Mr. Curtiss was locked up despite his energetic protests, but later the production of his passport and other documents convinced the police that they had made an error. He was therefore released and profuse apologies were made to him for the unfortunate mistake. Mr. Curtiss then proceeded to Geneva, where the police made the same mistake as to his identity and he was again locked up.

TYNAN APPEALS FOR AID.

Asks for Protection as a Citizen of the United States.

PARIS, FRANCE, Sept. 21.—The fact that Patrick J. Tynan, the alleged dynamite conspirator, who was arrested at Boulogne-sur-Mer, has applied to Mr. Eustis, the American Ambassador at France, and to President Cleveland, demanding protection as an American citizen, was announced in the dispatches of the United Associated Presses on Tuesday last, but at that time the contents of his letter to Mr. Eustis were not known. It is now learned that Tynan's letter informs him of the fact of his arrival in the United States in March, 1883, and his naturalization in 1888. He gives his place of residence in New York, enumerates the members of his family and refers to Judge Fitzgerald, Recorder Goff and Judge Roger A. Pryor as his friends. He says that he left New York with the object of making a European tour, but learning he was being shadowed by English detectives he traveled under an assumed name. In the course of his travels he went to Italy, Belgium and France. He says his intention to return to New York on September 20, Tynan pledges his honor that he has not taken part in any political affair in France, and that he has done nothing beyond the ordinary sight-seeing of a tourist.

The Sixth Regiment band of this city contributed to the pleasures of the day for the fair ones and their escorts in the grand stand, and Killip & Co. looked to it that the betting fraternity gathered in the ring was not neglected. The day was cool and pleasant, and the track, considered one of the best in the State, was in fine condition. The arrangements for the comfort of the public were perfect. The trotting was judged by Senator B. F. Langford and the president of the society, F. D. Cobb. The timers were C. L. Orton, W. H. Parker and Charles Owen. W. P. McNair, whose splendid starting has given such general satisfaction throughout the circuit, dispatched both the trotters and runners in faultless fashion.

The Australian starting-gate was a novelty in this part of the country and made an instantaneous hit. F. E. Mulholland, a San Francisco turf scribbler, placed the first horses past the wire in the running events. The energetic and wide-awake officers of the society, not to be caught napping at the post, have concluded to keep a pace with the times, and have booked to set Wednesday aside as "ladies' day," the fair sex passing through the gate without admission fee.

He began by referring to the Chicago platform and Mr. Bryan's public utterances, and told what they proposed to do. He said that there are three monetary rates—one of weight, one of value and one of value. Mr. Bryan advocated the one of weight. He would have the Government coin the silver of the world and try to make the people accept it at par when it is given the same price as the gold. The Government never did, and never will, and never could create value. All it could do with free and unlimited coinage would be to guarantee fitness and weight.
