

SUISUN HUNTERS

Will Oppose the Cordelia and Teal Clubs in Court.

Declare the Holders of Marsh-Land Privileges Block Navigation.

GROWTH OF BITTER FEELING. The Solano Supervisors May Prohibit Shooting to Prevent Possible Bloodshed.

SUISUN, CAL., Oct. 3.—Since the decision of the Supreme Court has been received in the case of the Cordelia Club vs. William King et al. there has been much excitement in local sporting circles.

Since the Cordelia Club leased the Chamberlain tract, consisting of 3000 acres, and inclosed portions of it, there has been war on the marshes during the duck-shooting season.

It is true the Cordelia and Teal clubs have inclosed some of their rented property, but their gamekeepers, it is claimed, go beyond such territory, where there are no inclosures, and warm sportsmen to keep away.

While these birds are within the plaintiffs' inclosure he has, under the statutes, such rights as entitle him to protect them from invasion by those not authorized to be there.

Embodied in their success in the Supreme Court the Cordelia and Teal clubs are placing further obstruction in the way of the so-called trespassers, and it is expected they will have a strong force of gamekeepers on hand by the time the season opens.

TENTS REARED ON SAN JOSE'S RANGE

Marksmen of California Gather for the State Tournament.

The Din of Battle Heard on the Cyclers' Gun Club Grounds.

SCORES ENGAGE IN PRACTICE. To-day the Sure-Shots of the State Will Meet in Friendly Competition.

SAN JOSE, CAL., Oct. 3.—Over 150 marksmen, representing gun clubs from almost every section of the State, were upon the range of the Garden City Cyclers Gun Club to-day practicing for the third annual tournament for the California Inanimate Target Association, which will be held in this city to-morrow and Monday.

and the greatest bluecock shoot in the world. The large section of land used for shooting grounds, situated on the Polhemus Tract West of the Hotel Vendome, and upon which five electric trapwires placed, was the scene of great activity and shots were fired in such rapidity that the grounds resembled the scene of a pitched battle against a concealed enemy.

The practice shooting commenced early this morning and continued until it was too dark to see the bluecocks. The marksmen tested all of their guns with the various cartridges and from the various traps in order to select the best agents for securing high scores to-morrow.

The San Jose men practiced very little, in order to give their guests every facility for enjoying the practice from a trap.

The Cyclers' Gun Club grounds now present a village-like appearance. Over a dozen large tents have been constructed. The largest of these belongs to the cyclers and is used as general utility headquarters. The Olympic Gun Club of San Francisco has a large tent well stocked with conveniences and luxuries for the use of its members and invited guests. Adjoining this is the tent of the Empire Gun Club of San Francisco.

The Reliance of Oakland, Antioch of Contra Costa County, Lincoln of Oakland, Stockton Athletic, Gilroy and Salinas rod and gun clubs have their own tents. Schilling & Son, Colt Fire Arms Company, Remington Fire Arms Company and San Jose Hardware Company each have tents and W. D. J. Hamby has a very large refreshment tent, in which meals are served.

The twenty-five traps which throw bluecocks are situated behind five wooden bulkheads. Each of these traps is loaded by a man in charge. The traps are thrown by an electric apparatus operated by a trapper who sits just behind the marksmen. Behind each bulkhead also sits a referee, who decides whether or not the rocks are broken. The contests to-morrow will require twenty-six trappers, fifteen judges, five referees and eighteen scorers. During the practice upon the grounds this afternoon a pigeon-hawk took the liberty of sailing over the range. C. C. McMahon of the Olympic Club spied it, and instead of shooting at a bluecock, lifted his gun and brought the bird to earth. This was the first live bird that had crossed the grounds since the advent of the marksmen, and it was given to H. Holmes to mount as a souvenir of the occasion.

Hotel Vendome, which is the headquarters of the association, has been tastefully decorated for the reception of the gunners. Bluecocks are used in forming the device, "Welcome C. I. T. A." and festoons of streamers made of empty cartridge-shells are suspended tastefully about the hotel offices and in the saloon.

There are among the visiting marksmen many of State renown. Among them are J. W. Shiel of the San Joaquin Gun Club, who won the high-water medal at both the Oakland and Stockton meets, and captured the Gold Dust medal at Oakland a year ago. Martinez Obick of Los Angeles also won a gold medal in Stockton, and has the honor of defeating Dr. Brewer, one of the celebrated shots of the world in a live-bird contest. J. S. Fanning of San Francisco holds the coast record for consecutive breaks, and on last Friday won the live-bird contest medal at San Bruno. Otto Fendler of San Francisco holds the Fay diamond live-bird contest medal and the Olympic Club record medal for breaking ninety-six bluecocks out of 100.

most enthusiastic workers in the interest of field sports; W. G. Golcher of San Francisco, who is a trophy giver as well as a crack marksman; Dr. A. M. Barker of this city, who holds the E. T. Allen trophy; B. Rambo of San Francisco, and Arthur West of Santa Ana, familiarly known as "Tribby," are also among the celebrated visitors.

There will be about 200 marksmen before the trap to-morrow morning, and probably several thousand visitors. Special arrangements have been made for the comfort of the ladies who will be present. Many of the visiting marksmen are accompanied by their wives.

PASSED MANY FORGED CHECKS. San Jose Business Men Swindled by a Young Man Whose Living Expenses Exceeded His Income.

SAN JOSE, CAL., Oct. 3.—A. de Chazen, who was formerly employed as bookkeeper at the cream of tartar works on Bush street, in this city, is held in the City Prison on a charge of forgery. It is believed his forgeries will reach nearly $800, ranging in sums from $20 to $100.

De Chazen, who is a rather sporty young Frenchman, and said to be well connected in France, was employed as bookkeeper by Mr. de Latour for several years. For a while De Chazen lived at the Saint Claire club, but this was too hot for his salary as bookkeeper, and in order to save his debts he was compelled to forge his employer's name to several small checks. Mr. de Latour paid the notes, and about a month ago he was discharged.

Last Thursday he cashed a $75 check at the Farmers' Union, and when it was presented at the First National Bank it was pronounced a forgery. Manager Andrews of the Farmers' Union then laid the matter before Chief Kidward and an investigation was begun. De Chazen could not be found, but Mr. de Latour, in order to save him from prosecution, paid the amount of the check.

The matter had been scarcely squared when Turel & Co. of the City Store complained of having been defrauded out of $75 on a similar check. So anxious was De Chazen to get the money that he offered to discount the check. Brassy & Co. also reported having a $20 check of De Chazen's on hand.

On Thursday De Chazen went to San Francisco, and while there is believed to have worked off a $100 check on the strength of Mr. de Latour's credit, and yesterday he returned to this city. Last night he got a $50 check cashed by John Corroto, the North Market street liquor dealer, and within an hour Mr. Corroto ascertained that it was a forgery, having submitted the check to the bank teller.

It was learned that De Chazen had purchased a ticket for El Paso, Tex., and intended to leave the city. Chief Kidward at once placed an officer at the depot, and this morning De Chazen was arrested as he was about to board the 5:45 A. M. train for Oakland at the broad-gauge depot. At the City Prison he was found to have $37 75 on his person and four more forged checks payable as follows: Forty-five dollars to B. Romere, and indorsed in that name; $50 and $35 to himself, and $45 to F. Lassere, and indorsed in that name. All these checks were signed with De Latour's name. De Chazen admits his guilt, but says everything will come out all right.

WOULD CHANGE THEIR NAME. Relatives of Murderer Dunham Petition the Superior Court.

SAN JOSE, CAL., Oct. 3.—Charles Duane Dunham and Addie Margaret Dunham, brother and sister respectively of James C. Dunham, the murderer of the McClellan family at Campbell, to-day petitioned the Superior Court to have their names changed from Dunham to Cobb.

The petitioners state that the charge of murder against their brother has brought great shame, disgrace and humiliation upon them and that they are shunned and avoided by former friends and acquaintances and are prevented from forming desirable friendships and becoming acquainted with many good people. They expect to graduate from the State Normal School next month and they fear that the name of Dunham will retard and hinder them in any business they may engage in. They expect to engage in teaching and the petitioners believe if they are allowed to abandon the name of Dunham they will not be so burdened or embarrassed socially or so hindered or embarrassed in obtaining positions as teachers as otherwise. The petition will be heard Wednesday, November 4.

PORTLAND WIFE MISSING. Left a Letter Declaring She Would Commit Suicide.

PORTLAND, OR., Oct. 3.—Charles Hunt, an employe of the Albina Elevator Company, has been abandoned by his wife of six weeks and reported to the police to-day his suspicion that she is dead. His theory is based upon the subpoenaed letter Mrs. Hart left for him yesterday noon:

Mr. Hart: No doubt you will be surprised that the bird has flown. But the glided case was gold but a day, and you have caused me and mine much sorrow. May God give you what you rightly deserve. You say you were a Christian before you met me, and now that I am gone you may retract your steps. You talked last Friday about jumping into the river. Meet me there; it is big enough to hold me, too. The 10 cents you gave me when we married will take me to a good place to make the plunge. My ring I leave you. It has not been off my finger since you put it there, but it will never get on again. My clothes you can take home, so I can be used for children or some one else, as I can never need them more. It will not be long till we meet in heaven, I hope, and may the Lord forgive you.

If my body is found, dress me in my wedding dress. You can tell mamma why I have gone. You know what a devil you have been to me. EMMA.

P. S.—Had I money I might try to live, but life is too hard to begin all over again.

Santa Rosa Nonagenarian Dead.

SANTA ROSA, CAL., Oct. 3.—Mrs. Elizabeth Allen, aged 93 years, is dead. She was born in Alexandria, Va., in 1803, and came to California from Ohio in 1875.
