Great Demonstration Attending the Exercises at the Shelter for Widows and Orphans at Decoto.

Scene at the Moment When the Cornerstone of the Masonic Home Was Lowered Into Position by Authority of the Officers of the Grand Lodge, F. and A. M., of California, at Decoto, Yesterday.

C L. PATTON, Chairman of the Board of Trustees of the Widows' and Orphans' Home.

The laying of the cornerstone of the Masonic Home on the site at Decoto was attended by a great demonstration.

The ceremonies were performed with great solemnity and precision.

The cornerstone was laid by the Master Mason of the Lodge.

The presence of the officers of the Grand Lodge and of the Masonic Body was greatly appreciated by the crowd.

The address of the Chairman of the Board of Trustees was listened to with great interest.

The occasion was marked by the laying of the cornerstone, which was done with great ceremony.

The audience was highly impressed with the address delivered by the Chairman of the Board of Trustees.

The day was bright and sunny, and the whole proceedings were conducted in a most orderly manner.

The demonstration was a great success, and the public were highly satisfied with the manner in which the exercises were conducted.

The cornerstone was placed in position, and the exercises were brought to a close.

The occasion was a great one, and the public were highly satisfied with the manner in which the exercises were conducted.

The day was bright and sunny, and the whole proceedings were conducted in a most orderly manner.

The demonstration was a great success, and the public were highly satisfied with the manner in which the exercises were conducted.

The cornerstone was placed in position, and the exercises were brought to a close.