FIGHTING, BUT FRIENDS.

Young Men Republicans Do Some Old-Time Politics.

OAKLAND, CAL., Dec. 5.—The Young Men's Republican Club, which held a very stormy election last night, will not be disrupted by the two factions who were anxious to elect their own president.

President Stetson, who was elected after ex-President Walsh had left the chair, may have to go through the formality of another election if it is shown that last night's proceedings were irregular, but if this be the case he will certainly be re-elected, as it was proved conclusively that his friends are largely in the majority.

SUCCESS WITH TOBACCO.

San Leandro Board of Trade Makes an Interesting Experiment.

The First Crop Is Now Being Dried and Is Pronounced to Be of an Excellent Grade.

OAKLAND OFFICE SAN FRANCISCO CALL, 908 Broadway, Dec. 5. After many experiments, the San Leandro Board of Trade has proved the possibility of raising tobacco in the vicinity of San Leandro in sufficient quantities and of such quality as to make its cultivation profitable.

LEAD THE COAST IN SELF-DENIAL

Oakland Corps of Salvationists Eat Bread and Water for the Cause.

They Raise a Large Amount of Money and Are Helped by Juniors.

Little Soldiers Prove Equal to Their Seniors in the Matter of Sacrifice.

OAKLAND OFFICE SAN FRANCISCO CALL, 908 Broadway, December 5. The Oakland corps of the Salvation Army, which enjoys the distinction of being the first branch to be organized on the Pacific Coast, is also the banner self-denying corps of the West.

The Little Daughters of Adjutant Reid, Who Have Worked Hard to Make the Oakland Corps the Banner Self-Denial Corps on the Coast.

by the army, was the means of raising $550 among the local soldiers. These figures represent a vast amount, when the various ways and means by which it was raised are taken into consideration.

The spirit of self-denial was practiced alike by the child of the millionaire and of the struggling officer. Little Faith Montgomery of Benah, whose parents are the richest Salvationists in the land, did her part, but did no more than the children of Adjutant Reid, whose income depends solely on the excess of the collections above the running expenses of the corps.
