

THREE VOTES FOR SENATOR'S WIFE

Makes a Small Showing in the First Ballot at Olympia.

Followers of the Incumbent Say That He Has Strength in Reserve.

Contest in Washington's Legislature Goes Promise of Being a Protracted One.

OLYMPIA, WASH., Jan. 19.—The first Senatorial vote was taken at noon today in the two houses of the Legislature. The result was: Turner 17, Daniels 14, Squire 3, Cline 9, Clark Davis 6, Baker 6, Winsor 10, Eaton 4, Denny 23, scattering 17. Turner and Squire are free-silver Republicans, Eaton a Democrat, Denny a gold Republican and the others Populists.

The attempt to secure a caucus to-morrow night will not succeed. Fifty-seven votes are needed for a caucus. The present outlook is for a protracted contest. Cline's friends believe he is the man. The Squire men are not jubilant to-night, though making many claims of reserved strength.

The "third house," composed of Populists, held a meeting to-night and appointed a committee of three to see if a Populist daily paper could be run here during the Senatorial campaign. The Populists in line for the nomination to be Senator. A committee to arrange for a parade of Populists each night was also appointed. Indignation is expressed at Populists who voted for Turner to-day. Every possible power will be brought to bear to hold them in line for a middle-of-the-road Populist for the Senate.

DEADLOCK IN UTAH.

Bitter Feeling Between the Thatcher and Rawlins.

SALT LAKE, UTAH, Jan. 19.—The first ballot in the Utah Legislature for United States Senator, taken this afternoon, resulted as follows: Thatcher (D), 19; Rawlins (D), 18; Henderson (D), 16; Lawrence (Pop.), 4; Brown (R), 3, scattering 2. Necessary to a choice 33.

THREE FURLE BALLOTS.

Idaho Populists Desert Claggett and Center on Walton.

BOISE, IDAHO, Jan. 19.—Three ballots were taken in the State Legislature to-day for United States Senator. The Populists left Claggett and centered on Walton. Dubois held the vote of the silver Republicans while the Democrats favored Lewis and Nelson, Populists, alternately. The first two ballots gave Walton 28, Dubois 25, Lewis 16, and the third ballot resulted: Walton 28, Dubois 25, Nelson 16.

There was strong contention in the Populist caucus. The eight men of the party offered to vote for Claggett if his name should then be withdrawn, but this was declined, and although it is claimed the Democrats will support Claggett, his name will likely pop up again, as he controls the caucus, and is reported to have said that the Senator would be either himself or Dubois.

In Nevada's Legislature.

CARSON, NEV., Jan. 19.—Nothing of importance came up to-day in the Nevada Legislature except that in the Senate a concurrent resolution was introduced and referred to a committee to the effect that no regular session of the Legislature exceed thirty days and that no special session exceed ten days. Senate bill 1 passed the Senate, appropriating $30,000 for the Legislature. The women's suffrage bill was made a special order for January 27.

No Quorum at Salem.

SALEM, OR., Jan. 19.—The House and Senate met at 2 o'clock. The Senate adjourned until to-morrow at 10 A. M. There was no quorum in the House, and consequently no organization. There is a very general rumor among the members of the "third house" that an organization will be formed to-morrow, but there appears to be no substantial foundation for the rumor. It is said the concession will come from the "regulars," but they shake their heads when asked to state a truth. Unless some compromise is effected before long, there will be no legislative session this year.

TO SELL YOUNGVILLE HOME.

Directors Desire That the State Acquire the Property.

NAPA, CAL., Jan. 19.—Papers were filed in the Superior Court yesterday by H. M. Barstow, asking for authority on behalf of the Veterans' Home Association, to sell its property near Youngville to the State. This is an outgrowth of the pending dispute between the State officials and the home directors over the status of the home and its right to State aid. The proceeding is taken now in order that the whole matter may be considered by the Legislature. It is contended next week. The evidence against the accused is almost conclusive, and the once desperate highwayman was very meek, indeed, when he appeared in court to-day.

Will Leave Mare Island.

VALLEJO, CAL., Jan. 19.—The United States ship Adams came out of drydock yesterday afternoon and will be ready to go to San Francisco with a draft of apprentices for drill purposes.

Warships at Santa Monica.

SANTA MONICA, CAL., Jan. 19.—Three United States vessels—the battleships Monterey and Monadnock and the Coast Survey steamer Geinay—anchored last night on the bay. The Monterey left for San Diego to-day.

By Chance a Laboring Man Rescues an Entombed Companion.

While Shoveling Sand Into a Wagon He Uncovers the Unfortunate.

Had Missed His Fellow-Workman but Knew Not That Caving Earth Had Buried Him.

SANTA CRUZ, CAL., Jan. 19.—For nearly an hour yesterday Charles Dean of Ben Lomond was entombed alive. With Charles Dean abundant cause for thanksgiving, for had not a shovel wielded by a fellow-workman pierced the earth that covered him he would not now be recounting his awful experience. It was not that his rescuer knew that he was entombed; the discovery was quite by accident and came in the nature of a surprise. How Dean succeeded in breathing when covered by several feet of sand is a problem which the people out at Ben Lomond to-day have not yet been able to solve.

REDDWOOD'S POSTMASTER DEAD.

Valentine Hussey Succumbs to an Attack of Grippe.

REDDWOOD CITY, CAL., Jan. 19.—Valentine Hussey, an old citizen of San Mateo County, died yesterday from an attack of grippe. Though he had been ailing for some time past, he had been confined to his room but a short period. He was a native of Ireland and 63 years of age.

Santa Barbara Socialism.

SANTA BARBARA, CAL., Jan. 19.—The largest meeting of the series under the auspices of the Social Labor party was held last night. Mrs. A. Blair Thaw read an able paper on "Plato's Republic." She spoke of Plato as being the greatest mind the world ever produced. To his categories neither Roman nor Saxon has been able to add anything since his time. Plato, she said, the Christian found inspiration in the Mohammedan philosophy. After reading Plato, the Englishman exclaimed, "How English!" the Italian "How German!" and the Italian "How Roman!" He stated that it was impossible for mankind to be happy without looking out for assistance. This brought forth a lengthy and varied criticism from those who believe in taking care of the material man.

TROUBLES OF A CORPORATION.

Goes Into Insolvency to Settle Strife Between Its Members.

SANTA CRUZ, CAL., Jan. 19.—The Grover-Cunningham Mill and Lumber Company has, in order to settle the differences between the two companies composing the corporation, filed a voluntary petition in the Superior Court asking to be declared insolvent. The liabilities of the petitioner are written in the petition as $29,767, and of this amount Cunningham & Co. claim a credit of $22,500 and Grover & Co. a credit of $3110. The actual debts of the corporation in fact are small.

THE COGS BOY RUNS AROUND.

SANTA CRUZ, CAL., Jan. 19.—The steamer Coos Bay ventured to make the landing here last night at low tide and ran aground just as it reached the wharf. The force of its movement was increased by a long swell that jammed the vessel so hard against the piling at the end that a dozen piles were burst from their fastenings, and one of the steamer's small boats was crushed into kindling wood. The passengers received a severe shaking up, but no one was injured. The tide was unusually low and the swells were long but not high. The land and sea were easily and without damage two hours earlier.

Gold on the Beach.

SANTA CRUZ, CAL., Jan. 19.—The recent developments in the old mines at Gold Gulch near Felton by the Russell Brothers have excited the interest of O. A. Foster to resume the washing of the beach at Twin Lakes, the Baptist church summer resort, at Felton. The past year good washes have been made at that point, but the metal is dust gold and difficult to wash in paying quantities. The gold has washed down from the hills and is held in place by the shifting of the beach sands moved by the surf.

Gold Struck Near Garlock.

LOS ANGELES, CAL., Jan. 19.—The possibilities of gold finds on the desert in the region of Mojave and Randsburg seem to be without limit. The latest report of a rich find has just been received from Garlock, a town between Mojave and Randsburg. Two ranchers who were prospecting struck a ledge of assays $800 in gold and $80 in silver to the ton. It is said the discovery was made in a section that gave no surface indications of being a mineral region.

Nevada County Contest Ended.

NEVADA CITY, CAL., Jan. 19.—The case of Ridge vs. Nilson, for the office of Superior Judge, was abruptly ended yesterday by counsel for the plaintiff moving for a dismissal. The defendant had gained four votes and the plaintiff lost four in the recount, and the latter did not care to go further with the contest.

Solano County Franchise.

SUISUN, CAL., Jan. 19.—A franchise was granted by the County Supervisors to-day to the Clear Lake Electric Power Company to construct, maintain and operate a system of electric light power and telephone lines over the roads of Solano County. These systems will run through Solano, Napa and Lake counties.

Monster Spout Observed by Seamen of the Brig Courtney Ford.

The Swirling Column Ascends to an Altitude of Over a Thousand Feet.

Lashes the Ocean Into a Foam-Covered Calderon for Hundreds of Yards Around.

PORT TOWNSEND, WASH., Jan. 19.—The brig Courtney Ford from Tahiti brings an account of a remarkable water-spout witnessed in the tropics on the voyage to this port. In longitude 148 and latitude 151 4, on November 23, at 6 P. M., a tremendous water-spout was observed scarcely a mile from the vessel. During the first five minutes it remained stationary and reached an altitude of over 1000 feet, ending in a curious cumulous cloud. Its base was several hundred feet in diameter, and around it the sea was lashed into a caldron of white foam for a space of several hundred yards in circumference.

SLEEPS FOR ELEVEN DAYS.

Strange Sumber of a Young Lady of Danbury, Conn., Who Awakes With an Appetite.

DANBURY, CONN., Jan. 19.—Miss Charlotte Pittilla awoke from her eleven days' slumber yesterday. She showed slight indications of returning consciousness Saturday night, and her doctor expected the change that came yesterday morning. When some of the members of the family went into the girl's room after breakfast they found her lying with her eyes open and apparently conscious. When they spoke to her she answered by asking for something to eat. Her voice was weak but her words were scarcely audible. After they had taken food to her the doctor arrived, and perceiving her extremely weak condition, gave orders that she must not be disturbed. She has been sleeping since then. "I have only been sleeping," she said, "since I have been ill."

CINCINNATI, Ohio, Jan. 19.—When the First National Bank of Newport did not open its doors yesterday there was much excitement. A crowd of excited depositors assembled in front of the bank, clamoring for an explanation. No one was allowed in the institution. The officials sent out word that the bank was solvent, but had been forced to close for lack of ready money. Depositors, however, refused to be satisfied. The directors of the Olympic Gun Club were strongly in favor of examining into the bank's affairs. The capital stock is $200,000. John Trapp is president.

McCord, a consular agent of the United States. A cablegram has just been sent to the United States Minister in Lima, directing him to inform the Peruvian Government that the case must be settled without delay. A communication received from the Minister a few days ago announced that Peru desired in which to investigate the facts in the case. Secretary Olney at once advised Mr. McKenzie, the United States Minister to Peru, that Peru had more than eleven years to conduct an investigation, and that this time was quite enough.

PETERSBURG, RUSSIA, Jan. 19.—Despite the fact that the czar has sent for Dr. Bergmann, the distinguished surgeon, to come to St. Petersburg to perform an operation on his Majesty, his condition is not at all serious. His Majesty's medical attendants attribute his present condition to the fatigues incident to his recent travels.

NEW YORK, N. Y., Jan. 19.—Joseph Bloch, a wealthy fur merchant, the proprietor of Brooklyn, was murdered to-night by an unknown man. A hundred or more men had gathered before Bloch & Hirsch's factory seeking work and were creating a disturbance.
