

THE STRUGGLE FOR DAILY BREAD

The Army of the Unemployed Increases Day by Day.

Women and Children, Evicted and Homeless, Seek Shelter at the Armory.

Work on the Boulevard May Probably Commence This Week. Subscriptions Wanted.

Work necessary for the relief of the immediate wants of the great army of the unemployed is almost at hand. The committee having the matter in charge...

The committee sets the figure necessary to be subscribed for the full completion of the work at $30,000. All of this, of course, is not for a beginning.

The barracks at 614 Howard street presented yesterday a strong argument for the need of speedy relief. The big cheerless place was crowded with disconsolate men.

One of them, with two children, had been evicted from a sort of underground apartment at 131 1/2 Clara street.

Webster Hicks is the husband in the other case. His wife and little girl of 10 years are trimly dressed and seemed to be well cared for.

The premises were not rented to any other person, and the committee who had the work of the organization in charge...

Other committees were appointed to solicit provisions, cooking utensils and money.

The members of the Coursing Club Assembly around the festive board.

The first annual banquet of the Interstate Coursing Club was held last night at the Vittoriano Restaurant, 315 Pine street.

The members had a most enjoyable time in the evening, and the banquet was a success.

The proposed road will extend from Seventh avenue and the park, immediately adjoining the Olympic Club grounds.

The amount needed for the insuring of sufficient work to relieve the distress is about $50,000.

those actually deserving and needing this assistance. The final arrangements for the right of way, deeds of land, etc., were completed yesterday.

Subscriptions may be made at the office of any of the daily papers, at the Merchants' Association (Mills building), at the Chamber of Commerce, at the Mayor's office or to any of the committee.

Subscriptions will be collected on installment from those who prefer that this be done. Publication will be made by the committee presently of the place where applications for employment should be made.

This general committee will meet on Tuesday at 11 A. M. at the Merchants' Association, Mills building, and will then determine upon sub-committees, a place of meeting and any other matter that may come before it.

LAWYERS HONOR JUDGE McKENNA

Bar Association Banquets California's Representative in the Cabinet.

Warm Words of Esteem and Affection by His Fellow Attorneys.

The Guest of Honor Speaks Feelingly of His Indebtedness to the Bar.

There was nothing lacking in the cordiality with which the Bar Association last evening honored its distinguished member, Judge Joseph McKenna, who is about to leave for Washington to assume a position in the Cabinet of the President.

The banquet was a success, and the guests were entertained in the most comfortable manner.

JUDGE CAMPBELL ON CHOPSTICKS

Elaborate Toast at the Banquet of Yinn Yee Kong Sow.

Given to Show the Real Character of the Chinese Population.

Chinese and European Bills of Fare and Chinese Music—List of Those Present.

Gentlemen, here's a toast to the ivory chopsticks of the Chinese, which, I must admit, are far and away ahead of the American fork, so far as eating Chinese dishes is concerned.

The speaker was Police Judge Campbell, and the occasion of the toast the annual banquet of the Yinn Yee Kong Sow Benevolent Association, held last evening at the Hang Far Low restaurant, 713 Dupont street.

The banquet began at 9 P. M., and consisted of a great many courses of the peculiar and celebrated dishes so pleasing to the palate of the Oriental epicure.

At 7 P. M., or two hours prior to the banquet, the American guests who had arrived before the toast of the Chinese quarter by competent guides hired for the occasion.

During the progress of the banquet, the Chinese musicians flooded the room with a torrent of shrill "melody" at preconcerted signals.

Elaborate Toast at the Banquet of Yinn Yee Kong Sow.

Given to Show the Real Character of the Chinese Population.

Chinese and European Bills of Fare and Chinese Music—List of Those Present.

Gentlemen, here's a toast to the ivory chopsticks of the Chinese, which, I must admit, are far and away ahead of the American fork, so far as eating Chinese dishes is concerned.

The speaker was Police Judge Campbell, and the occasion of the toast the annual banquet of the Yinn Yee Kong Sow Benevolent Association, held last evening at the Hang Far Low restaurant, 713 Dupont street.

The banquet began at 9 P. M., and consisted of a great many courses of the peculiar and celebrated dishes so pleasing to the palate of the Oriental epicure.

At 7 P. M., or two hours prior to the banquet, the American guests who had arrived before the toast of the Chinese quarter by competent guides hired for the occasion.

During the progress of the banquet, the Chinese musicians flooded the room with a torrent of shrill "melody" at preconcerted signals.
