

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 28, 1897

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF.

John Curry has sued Charles Montgomery for $1200 on a promissory note. Mary E. McQuiddy has been granted a divorce from John McQuiddy for extreme cruelty.

Spang's concert at the California Theater yesterday was warmly appreciated by a large audience. Judge Baber will hear the habeas corpus case of Attorney James L. Crittenden next Friday morning.

The Christian Endeavorers will tonight have charge of the services at the First Baptist Church. The late William Dolan left an estate worth $6000. Sarah Dolan has applied for letters of administration.

Oliver, Yemmer, Mamie Scott, Estro, Lincoln H. Arundel and Magnet were the winners at legitimate yesterday. The storm that did so much damage along the coast seems to have been general as all the vessels now arriving from Honolulu report unusually heavy weather during the 17th, 18th and 19th inst.

A chorus of 500 voices will be one of the features of the exercises at the Pavilion on the evening of St. Patrick's day. The members of the League of the Cross will meet for their regular meeting on Tuesday at 8 o'clock at Van Ness avenue.

The next annual session of the Junior Order of United American Mechanics will be held in Sacramento next Tuesday. A chorus of 500 voices will be one of the features of the exercises at the Pavilion on the evening of St. Patrick's day.

The district committee appointed to canvass business street for funds to erect a monument collected more than $1000 in half an hour yesterday. Judge Sewell, Hunt and Slack yesterday passed on evidence yesterday to view the disbursement of Cassius M. Jenkins.

The local movement to aid Cuba has received a new impetus since the meeting of the Mayor's committee. There will soon be a mass-meeting. The district committee appointed to canvass business street for funds to erect a monument collected more than $1000 in half an hour yesterday.

At the first bicycle meet of the Academic Athletic League, held at the Velodrome yesterday, the championship was won by the local high school. Paul Graves, alias Milton Berry, was booked yesterday for burglary, and to-morrow will be married in the City Prison to Anna L. M. Stone, 819 Ellis street.

DAMAGED VESSELS ARE COMING IN

They Were All Caught in the Recent Heavy Gale.

The W. H. Dimond Came in From Honolulu With a Jury Rudder.

Two Big Trees, Imported From Japan, Were Destroyed on the Mail Dock.

The storm that did so much damage along the coast seems to have been general as all the vessels now arriving from Honolulu report unusually heavy weather during the 17th, 18th and 19th inst. The captain of the barkentine W. H. Dimond said yesterday:

"We left Honolulu February 2 and had fine weather and smooth sea all the way to longitude 133 deg. 10 min. west and latitude 37 deg. 19 min. north. On Wednesday the 17th inst. we got some heavy but squalls. In the afternoon made fast all light canvas, but at 5 P. M. ship in 132 deg. 18 min. west, 37 deg. 15 min. north, carried away the rudder stock in topmast stay and lower to goail. Made all sails fast except a storm sparker and goosewinged lower topsail. Got the vessel on the starboard tack; vessel laboring heavily all night and making four inches of water per hour. Blowing a gale all the next day.

"At 3 A. M. Thursday last the small boat was washed overboard and the rudder carried away. Everything movable on deck was blown overboard. The vessel was at sea for three days, and moderate some on Sunday got the jury rudder shipped and made sail for port. The time made from that time to port and the barkentine got in yesterday afternoon a little worse for wear, but still in the ring.

"The barkentine and Mohican were both in the same gale, but while the former lost a considerable portion of her rail and some of her rigging, the Mohican escaped without any serious damage. There will be an interesting race between the Whitehall boats from Meigs wharf to-morrow. W. M. Fitzgerald has put up a stake for $25 for the winner and has also promised a keg of beer to occupants of the last boat in. The course is to be from Meigs wharf around Blossom Rock, thence around Alcatraz Island and back to the starting point.

"The following men have entered their boats: James Farrell, Morris Beham, Thomas Sanger, James Senne, Thomas Crowley, Dave Crowley, Thomas Hayden, Gus O'Connell and John Fitzgerald. The men have also made up a pool of $45 of which $30 goes to the winner, $10 to the second boat and $5 to the third. When the remaining six boats find that their chances of the money prizes are gone they will quit the interesting contest over the attempt to get in last.

"Tommy O'Connor who is aged 9 years, and lives at 2129 Greenway street, and Johnny Growing and were sitting in the boat when it was carried away. The boat was carried out past Fort Point when Captain Dave Shaw in the tug Redwood saw them and tried to rescue them. The boys had to swim to the rescue. The boys had to swim to the rescue. The boys had to swim to the rescue.

"A boat had been run out from the life-raft station, but when the men saw the tug heading for the boys it was hauled ashore again. The boys got a thorough soaking and were sitting in the boat when it was carried away. The boat was carried out past Fort Point when Captain Dave Shaw in the tug Redwood saw them and tried to rescue them.

"The barkentine W. H. Dimond arrived from Hawaii under a jury rudder yesterday. She and the barkentine Mohican were damaged in the same storm, but the barkentine was the greatest sufferer. Collector of the Port Wise has ordered that $2000 be paid and $4000 worth of opium now in the bonded warehouses be held there pending an investigation as to the legality of its possession.

SUBSCRIPTIONS ARE POURING IN

Merchants Immediately Respond to the Call for Help.

More Than One Thousand Dollars Collected in Half an Hour.

A Hundred Families Are Now Supported by the Organization of the Unemployed.

The funds in the hands of Daniel Meyer, 218 Pine street, for the relief of the unemployed, were placed up to date amount to $2296 50. District committee 4, whose sphere of activity includes Sansome street from Market north, began the work of soliciting subscriptions yesterday and in the course of a half hour collected $1150. Lipman Meyer, the chairman of this committee, says that in no instance was an application refused and the low at subscription on the list was $25. "I feel convinced," said Mr. Meyer, "that we shall have no difficulty in raising as much as $100,000 for the boulevard undertaking."

It is also well to remember that the result of yesterday's work is a measure of what may be accomplished hereafter, because the majority of the large business houses close on Saturday afternoon, especially in the district exploited by Mr. Meyer and his colleagues, and those gentlemen therefore had no time to make more than a superficial canvass. The following were among yesterday's contributions:

- Wheeler & Co. $150
Sachs Bros. & Co. $100
H. S. Crocker & Co. $100
Neustadt & Bros. $100
Comitree-Rosefield Sons. $100
Siebe-Heis & Co. $100
San Francisco Brewers' Company. $100
Blake, Moffat & Towne. $100
G. W. McNear. $50
Lewis Meyer & Co. $50
Henry McLaughlin & Co. $50
E. C. Evans. $25
Cuniff, Gham, Curtis & Welch. $25

There were also many other contributions. The following are among the names of the contributors: H. Schussler, $100; D. Meyer, $100; Mrs. M. Langley, $10; S. D., $20; Wheelmen of Selby Smelting and Lumber Company, $20.

There were also many other contributions. The following are among the names of the contributors: H. Schussler, $100; D. Meyer, $100; Mrs. M. Langley, $10; S. D., $20; Wheelmen of Selby Smelting and Lumber Company, $20.

There were also many other contributions. The following are among the names of the contributors: H. Schussler, $100; D. Meyer, $100; Mrs. M. Langley, $10; S. D., $20; Wheelmen of Selby Smelting and Lumber Company, $20.

There were also many other contributions. The following are among the names of the contributors: H. Schussler, $100; D. Meyer, $100; Mrs. M. Langley, $10; S. D., $20; Wheelmen of Selby Smelting and Lumber Company, $20.

There were also many other contributions. The following are among the names of the contributors: H. Schussler, $100; D. Meyer, $100; Mrs. M. Langley, $10; S. D., $20; Wheelmen of Selby Smelting and Lumber Company, $20.

ABANDONED A CHILD.

Mr. and Mrs. Cornabrens Discover a Pretty Little Girl Baby on Their Doorstep.

Henry Cornabrens and his wife, who reside at 620 Steiner street, were the recipients last evening of an unwelcome donation, albeit the gift was such as in any well-regulated household where it belonged would be priceless. The gift in question was nothing less than a beautiful year-old baby, which Mr. and Mrs. Cornabrens found on their doorstep upon their return to their residence at 11 o'clock last night.

The child was well dressed but not sufficiently protected from the cold and must have suffered if it was long upon the steps before its discovery. A handkerchief was tied around the child's legs to prevent it from crawling away, but there was no note or any possible clue to the identity of the child's unnatural parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Cornabrens had no use for the child and promptly notified the Central police station. A patrol wagon was sent to their relief and the baby was taken to the Receiving Hospital, where it remains.

Carrier-Pigeon Prize-Winners. A special meeting of the Pacific Coast Pigeon Society was held last evening at 632 Market street for the purpose of receiving the report of the committee appointed to settle the dispute arising out of the Sacramento races held on January 10. Those present were: Dr. Bryan, A. Carlisle, Mr. Welch, H. E. Curzon, J. J. McLean, G. W. Leitch, G. G. Bassford and G. T. Marsh. The committee awarded to Dr. S. George of Antioch the first prize, a beautiful silver cup, presented by George H. Croley. G. S. Bassford was awarded the second prize. The third prize, a gold medal, was declared not won, as no time was kept on the arrival of the others.

For the first time since their arrival in the State the Putes played under their Christian names. The details of the game are given in the following official record:

Table with columns: Name, R, H, E, B, S, P, O, A, K, O. Rows include Stanfords, Putes Indians, etc.

Stanford's Baseball Nine Outclasses the Pute Team. A Giant Young Pitcher of Promise Among New Palo Alto Players.

Stanford University defeated the Pute Indians of Nevada at baseball yesterday afternoon on the Central Park grounds. The score was 10 to 2. It was practically the opening game of the season for the university team, a test of the ability of the material that after over a month's more careful training under Coach "Bill" Lane will meet the University of California nine in the annual championship series of the matches. To the Indians, however, it was an old story, for they have been playing together as a team for several months and have been in many games while traveling under the management of white men.

After this explanation of the status of the two teams it is not difficult to say that the Putes play a game of ball that might be creditable to a lot of Chinamen. As base runners and fielders they are, generally speaking, awkward and unskillful, and scarcely approximate the ease and swiftness often attributed to young men of their race. Had it not been for the material assistance of a professional catcher, whom the Stanford manager protected to protect the amateur standing of the collegians, the Indian team might not have made so good a showing comparatively as the score indicates.

Sixteen errors by the Indians and five by the collegians tell the story. Only one Indian made an error, and that was Stanford man, Sharp, the third baseman, made four of the five credited to his team. His playing both in the field and at the bat indicated that although he was on the Varsity last year, he is the weak man of the team at present.

COLLEGIANS BEAT NEVADA INDIANS

Stanford's Baseball Nine Outclasses the Pute Team.

A Giant Young Pitcher of Promise Among New Palo Alto Players.

Ten to Two the Score and Red Men Aided by a Professional Battery.

Stanford University defeated the Pute Indians of Nevada at baseball yesterday afternoon on the Central Park grounds. The score was 10 to 2. It was practically the opening game of the season for the university team, a test of the ability of the material that after over a month's more careful training under Coach "Bill" Lane will meet the University of California nine in the annual championship series of the matches. To the Indians, however, it was an old story, for they have been playing together as a team for several months and have been in many games while traveling under the management of white men.

After this explanation of the status of the two teams it is not difficult to say that the Putes play a game of ball that might be creditable to a lot of Chinamen. As base runners and fielders they are, generally speaking, awkward and unskillful, and scarcely approximate the ease and swiftness often attributed to young men of their race. Had it not been for the material assistance of a professional catcher, whom the Stanford manager protected to protect the amateur standing of the collegians, the Indian team might not have made so good a showing comparatively as the score indicates.

Sixteen errors by the Indians and five by the collegians tell the story. Only one Indian made an error, and that was Stanford man, Sharp, the third baseman, made four of the five credited to his team. His playing both in the field and at the bat indicated that although he was on the Varsity last year, he is the weak man of the team at present.

The work of Beckett, the freshman pitcher, was commendable. He struck out ten men, gave only two bases on balls, and allowed but four hits by his delivery, two of the hits being secured by the white collegians. Stanford's one of whom is from the Philadelphia team and is coaching the Putes and lending his services behind the bat whenever there is an opportunity, yet evident contrast in pure amateur principles. In Beckett Stanford probably has found a man to take the place of "Billy" McLain, the veteran Varsity pitcher, who, having served four years, is no longer eligible to the team according to the existing intercollegiate agreement.

In the sixth inning Beckett fanned the Putes, and in the seventh inning Captain Thompson and young Clemens are also among the possibilities for the pitcher's position, which has been considered the best place to fill in this year's Stanford team.

Beckett, the pitcher; Young, the first baseman, and Freeman, the center-fielder, are a noticeable trio of giant young athletes among the Stanford players. Each is over 6 feet 2 inches in height and weighs close to 200 pounds. All are football players. Beckett was guard on the freshman team that defeated the Berkeley freshmen. Young sings bass in the Glee Club. Freeman is one of the Stanford intercollegiate and Southern California teams' champions in doubles.

Among the new men are Claire Strohn, who played first base for the coast champion Tufts-Lyons team, and Loughhead, who was starstopper for that team. Both are Los Angeles boys. Tom Thompson, Fred and Strohn Stanford appear to have three reliable batters. Young is the heaviest hitter of the team, but like many home-run men his long fly often fall into the hands of distant fielders.

Jeffs is an unusually lively man behind the bat and is sure on all sorts of fouls. He is next quick as an outfielder on the Varsity football team and he is quick as a baseman. As a team the Stanford players of this season give promise of better performance.

Sweetness and Light.

Put a pill in the pulpit if you want practical preaching for the physical man; then put the pill in the pillory if it does not practise what it preaches. There's a whole gospel in Ayer's Sugar Coated Pills; a "gospel of sweetness and light." People used to value their physic, as they did their religion,—by its bitterness. The more bitter the dose the better the doctor. We've got over that. We take "sugar in ours"—gospel or physio—now-a-days. It's possible to please and to purge at the same time. There may be power in a pleasant pill. That is the gospel of Ayer's Cathartic Pills.

More pill particulars in Ayer's Curebook, 300 pages. Sent free. J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.

ances than the Varsity nine of '96 that had McLain for pitcher. They appear, however, a little too careless in base-running. Three times the Indians were able to double them up. The game was witnessed by a small crowd, the sympathies of which were with the Indians. Youthful rosters took particular delight in remarking suggestively upon the length of Left-Fielder Wright's hair. The Indian woman and her papoose, the team's mascot, occupied a conspicuous place in the grand stand. For the first time since their arrival in the State the Putes played under their Christian names.

Table with columns: Name, R, H, E, B, S, P, O, A, K, O. Rows include Stanfords, Pute Indians, etc.

The Associated Creditors of the City and County have taken steps to call forcibly to the attention of the Board of Supervisors their claims by addressing a communication to the board, which was filed with the clerk of the board yesterday. This communication is signed by J. R. Le Count as chairman of the creditors. The text is as follows:

A resolution providing for an amendment to the constitution of this State under the terms of which 'San Francisco may at any time pay the unpaid claims for material furnished and work done for said City and County during the forty-third and forty-fourth fiscal year,' is now before the Legislature and coming on in regular course for consideration by the Senate and Assembly.

We call upon every creditor of the City and County of San Francisco. We know that the resolution will have some chance of passing, but we need your co-operation and your representatives in the Legislature and Assembly. Make the same request of any other members of the Legislature from any part of the State, and do all that is in your power to secure the adoption of this resolution.

It is the last hope of the creditors of the City and County of San Francisco. We know that the resolution will have some chance of passing, but we need your co-operation and your representatives in the Legislature and Assembly. Make the same request of any other members of the Legislature from any part of the State, and do all that is in your power to secure the adoption of this resolution.

A DOCTOR WHO VISITS EVERY HOME.

You will naturally wonder how a physician can visit every household throughout the country. He does it in this way: This little article goes into every home, and through it Doctor Cook speaks to every family. He speaks to you. He asks you, in sacred confidence, the following questions, which you will do well to answer in person or by letter:

Advertisement for Doctor Cook's medicine, including a portrait of the doctor and a list of ailments treated.

Advertisement for Kelly & Liebes' shirt waists, featuring an illustration of a woman and a list of products and prices.