

MEXICANS FIRE UPON CATTLEMEN

Shoot From Ambush at a Party Riding Near Lochiel.

Second Battle Fought Within a Week on the Border of Sonora.

Arizona Reply to the Fire and Three Combatants Are Wounded.

NOGALES, ARIZ., April 21.—For the second time within a week Americans and Mexicans have engaged in a clash at arms on the border. Following the news of the battle at Lochiel between Mexican soldiers and so-called desperadoes from the Arizona side of the line comes information of a fight between United States Customs Inspector H. W. Brady and several American cattlemen on one side and a half-dozen Mexicans on the other. It occurred at a point a few miles from Lochiel on Saturday.

There has been trouble for some time between the Mexican authorities of Santa Cruz on the Mexican side and cattlemen on the American side of the international line. The immediate cause of the battle on Saturday was the arrest two weeks ago of Tony O'Donald and H. W. Brady by Mexicans for rounding up cattle on the Mexican side. Brady caught his guard not looking for a moment and jumping on the officer's horse outside the squad to the line seven miles away. O'Donald is still in jail.

On Saturday Richard Harrison and three other cattlemen were riding along the line with Inspector Brady when six Mexicans opened fire on them from the brush with Winchester. The Americans immediately dismounted and returned the fire, but as the combatants were several hundred yards apart no one was killed. Two Mexicans received slight wounds and one American was shot in the leg, receiving only a flesh wound.

There is a difference of opinion as to who is wrong. The Americans claim they were after their own cattle, while the Mexicans hold that the Americans were taking Mexican cattle. The United States Treasury Department will investigate the action taken by Inspector Brady.

It is now said that the battle in the Lochiel saloon was not participated in by American desperadoes belonging to "Black Jack's" band, as was reported by the Alcalde of Santa Cruz, but that the Americans were cattlemen who were attacked by Mexican soldiers because of the trouble over the seizure of cattle. One of the Americans who was wounded was M. Escalante, a well-known Arizona stock-raiser. The affair has caused much excitement on this side of the boundary, and cowboys are openly threatening to cross over and teach their dark-hued neighbors a lesson they will not forget.

CHEATS CENTRALIA JUSTICE.

Governor of Minnesota Will Not Extradite an Ex-Banker Under Indictment.

CHEHALIS, WASH., April 21.—C. W. Johnson, who went to Minnesota over three weeks ago with a requisition upon the Governor of that State for Frank Hense, the ex-banker of Centralia, indicted by a Lewis County Grand Jury, returned without his man this morning. His failure was due to the absolute refusal of Governor Clough to surrender Hense under any circumstances to the State of Washington. Hence once promised to come and set the hour for leaving St. Paul with Johnson, but the Governor advised him not to go. At the hearing he accorded to Johnson and his attorney Governor Clough said:

"I will tell you before you proceed that neither you nor the Governor of Washington can pile affidavits high enough to get that man. You will never get him as long as I am Governor of Minnesota."

Johnson arrived in St. Paul on Friday, April 2. He went to the Governor's office to present his papers. The Governor made an appointment with him for the following day. When he returned to keep the appointment, the Governor refused to see him. He found Hense at the Governor's office having been to all appearances notified by that official at his home in Aitken, Minn. The Governor sent word by his private secretary that he proposed to leave Hense first and would listen to Johnson's afterward.

A week ago Saturday Hense sent to Johnson asking for a meeting. He appeared at the hotel on the following day and said that he would make no further objection to returning. He was willing to go back to Lewis County and stand trial.

This was agreed to and the hour for leaving St. Paul was set. Johnson's attorney, however, advised him against taking Hense without a warrant.

Johnson then told Hense he would have him arrested, as his attorney deemed it best. Hense broke down when he was arrested. He wept and declared he was ruined. He talked of suicide. Later he calmed down, and after he had spent an evening with Johnson and a deputy at the theater he returned to be reconciled. Governor Clough's conduct is said to be without known precedent.

WEDS A SANTA ROSA BELLE.

William Vernon Tukey of Idaho Leads Emma Angela Shea to the Altar.

SANTA ROSA, CAL., April 21.—The City of Roses lost one of its fairest buds at noon today, when Miss Emma Angela Shea became the bride of William Vernon Tukey. The ceremony took place at the residence of the bride's parents in this city, and that spacious mansion had been transformed into a veritable floral palace. Semi-tropical plants, lilies, lilacs, smilax, rosebuds and ferns had been used with exquisite taste, until the guests, accustomed as they were to living in a land of flowers, were amazed at the display.

Behind a bank of ferns the orchestra played a wedding march as the bridal party took its place under the lovers' knot, where Rev. Father J. M. Cassin, rector of St. Rose's Church, pronounced the lovers husband and wife.

The bridal costume was of white satin, trimmed in old Brussels lace, with bridal veil of tulle. The maid of honor was Miss Anna Shea, a sister of the bride, who wore a gown of light blue silk, with a covering of crepe de chine and lace trimmings.

REEDLEY FORGERY CASE.

Expert on Handwriting Testifies Against Bandits.

FRESNO, CAL., April 21.—Carl Eisen-schimmel was on the stand today in the trial of Professor W. A. Sanders, for the forgery of William Wootton's name to a $1000 draft. Eisen-schimmel is from San Francisco and is an expert on handwriting. He unhesitatingly pronounced the signature to the draft to be a forgery. He went into the details of his study of the signature and his reasons for believing it to be a forgery. He laid particular stress on the fact that Wootton always wrote the letters of his name in pairs as follows: "W-o-o-t-t-o-n." There were plain disconnections between each couple. In the signature to the draft the name was written continuously, without any breaks.

Eisen-schimmel also pronounced the signatures to the deeds by which Sanders transferred the Wootton ranch to himself to be forgeries. The expert proved a very strong witness for the prosecution. His examination will be resumed in the morning.

HALE-NORCROSS RULING.

Motion of Respondent to Dismiss Proceedings Denied.

CARSON, NEV., April 21.—A ruling was made by the Supreme Court today in the Hale & Norcross case. Baggett, on behalf of Cronin, one of the parties contending for the superintendency of the mine, moved to dismiss the proceedings on the ground that a writ of mandamus would not lie in a case when the title to an office was at stake, and also for lack of jurisdiction. The motion of the respondent to dismiss the proceedings was denied, and it was ordered that the case be continued to April 23 for the hearing of evidence that either party may offer under the pleadings involved in the case, and also for the hearing of argument on the evidence by counsel for relator and respondent.

Sholto Douglas Drew Checks That Could Never Be Cashed.

BAKERSFIELD, CAL., April 21.—The name of "Lord" Sholto Douglas again adorns the records of Kern County Superior Court. In the days when his Lordship wooed and won Miss Loretta Addis at Frank Carson's place, he drew checks on a local bank to the amount of $446 in favor of Carson. These checks have never been paid, and now T. J. Packard, to whom they have been assigned, has brought action to recover.

Felton Burglar's Fate.

SANTA CRUZ, CAL., April 21.—Harry Hamilton, who was caught while robbing a saloon at Felton recently, was today sentenced to five years at San Quentin.

District Attorney Lindsay had convinced Hamilton that a plea of guilty would be the proper thing for him, and as he had not been convicted on a prior charge in this State, the sentence was a light one.

Sudden Death at Poso.

BAKERSFIELD, CAL., April 21.—J. H. Barrington, a merchant of Poso, was found dead in his store this morning.

An investigation by the Coroner disclosed that death resulted from natural causes. Barrington was a pioneer. He resided for a long time in Tuare County, and left considerable wealth.

MANY EVENTS HOTLY CONTESTED

There Were a Number of Striking Features at the Tourney.

Watched by a Big Crowd of Spectators for Two Hours and a Half.

To-Day Will Be the Final One and Interesting Military Movements Will Be Presented.

The interest in the military tournament at the Presidio does not seem to be waning. Judging from the immense throng that, despite the cold wind and almost blinding dust, remained for two hours and a half watching the many events that were presented. The major portion were of a military character and proved very interesting.

To-day will be the final day of the tournament, and the programme contains many performances that will be new to the spectators and will no doubt be watched with satisfaction.

There were seventeen events on yesterday's programme, the first of which was a contest of arms, consisting of a sword and a dagger. This was the first between the winning teams. The rivalry between the teams for first place urged the men on with the result that better time was made over the ten-foot wall than on the previous day. D. Company of Benicia won in 31.35 seconds. Battery H, Angel Island, was second.

The semi-final of the mounted wrestling occupied attention for some time. The contestants were Balch and Souvlesky. They wrestled for one hour and a half, neither gaining a fall or an advantage. They retired from the field and the result was not announced.

The 400-yard race was next called, in heavy marching order race was next called, in heavy marching order. By heavy marching order it meant that the soldier wears campaign dress, is equipped with rifle, bayonet, scabbard, woven cartridge-belt and 100 rounds of ball cartridge and carries a knapsack containing one blue shirt, one undershirt, pair of drawers, one pair of socks, one pair of shoes, and a blanket, with half shelter tent, overcoat and cap rolled on the outside. A haversack containing knife, fork, spoon, tin, tin cup, tin can, when he passed him and won in 12.25 minutes.

Then there was an 880-yard bicycle race, the men in light marching order, with arms and equipment. It was a hot race on the wheel or the rider. For this there were four entries and the contestants found it not as easy to pedal as when atired in racing costume. Roberts, of Fort Mason and Vann of the Presidio were the only starters. Roberts stopped on the quarter stretch because the strap holding his rifle to the handlebars stopped his wheel. Vann won.

The final of the broadsword contest next occupied attention and was decided in favor of Davis, by a score of 12 to 8. Webber's three. This was not as good a contest as the previous days, neither making time to be the aggressor.

There were three entries in the 100-yard race. There were five bayonets stuck in the ground ten yards apart. The runners started for the most distant point, brought back a bayonet.

Another military event was the equipment race, in which there were two contestants, Bowling of Company C, Benicia, and Puckett of Company G, Presidio. The contestants were equipped with rifle, blanket roll, rounds of ammunition and white gloves. They ran straight away, leaving rifle at 10 yards, gloves at 20, blanket roll at 30, ammunition at 40, belt at 50, legging at 60, hat at 70 and then turned at 80 yards and while returning replaced all clothing and equipment to the ground at 100 yards, falling out.

There were five entries for vaulting and three for bareback horse, but only two contestants. Bowling of Company C, Benicia, and Puckett of Company G, Presidio, were the winners.

The gun detachment contest between Light Batteries C and F, Presidio, was an exhibition showing the readiness of each detachment was composed of seven corporals, gunner and seven cannoneers wearing equipments and posted as prescribed by the drill regulations at piece from scratch. A picket fence 100 feet high and two inches apart, at fifty yards distant, and a solid wall 100 feet high, at seventy yards, and after passing over these the last one stood in the position of the soldier at order arms. Engstrom won in 32.5 seconds.

The dead body rescue race No. 1 had but two contestants—Miller of Troop B, and Fitch of Troop K, from the Presidio. A manikin filled with lead, made as near as possible in the shape and size of a man, was on the line of each contestant's feet. The manikin was placed on a dummy, placed it across the saddle, mounted behind, and returned to scratch. Miller won in 22.5 seconds. Fitch was unable to raise his manikin at first, but was finally ordered to do so, and he did.

A team of two men from Company D, Benicia, and one from Company G, Presidio, gave an exhibition of shelter-tent pitching. The tent was set up in each tent, hats and blouses off, reclining on blankets spread on the ground. There were light marching equipments on either side of the tent. At the signal the men struck tent, put on clothing, rolled blankets in shelter halves, put on equipments and fell in at a line ten paces to the front in the position of the soldier at order arms. The Benicia team won in 2 minutes and 18 seconds, but the Presidio team did better work and looked better on inspection.

The second heat in the relay race between E. Fort Mason and F (light battery), Presidio, was won by the Fort Mason team in 2 minutes and 9 seconds.

The events of the day closed with the tug-of-war, which resulted in a victory for Company G over Battery E—gaining by two inches.

BALBOA AVENUE.

CHOYNSKI AND "FITZ"

Parson Davies Forwards a Sweeping Challenge to the King of Pugilists.

The Olympic and National Clubs Have Arranged First-Class Cards.

"Parson" Davies, who is the manager and guardian to some extent of the noted pugilist Joe Choynski, Jimmy Barry and Bob Armstrong, has sent on a sweeping challenge to Bob Fitzsimmons, the champion fighter of the earth. The following is a copy of a letter which was forwarded yesterday by Mr. Davies in behalf of Joe Choynski to Al Smith, a not-d sportsman and holder of heavy-weight stakes. It speaks for itself:

"I will match Joe Choynski against Robert Fitzsimmons for the world's championship of the world, the match to be under Queen-bury rules and to be fought on a ring 40 feet square. I will give $1000 in support of the following challenge: I will match Joe Choynski against Robert Fitzsimmons for the world's championship of the world, the match to be under Queen-bury rules and to be fought on a ring 40 feet square. I will give $1000 in support of the following challenge:

The celebration will be held at the Chutes, Saturday, June 19. During the day there will be a grand entertainment at the Casino, at which addresses will be delivered by prominent orators. The programme will be followed by a grand ball, and the day will be closed by dancing. At the same time there will be a grand national games, literary exercises, maypole and other amusements going on on the grounds of the Casino.

In the evening there will be a grand ball, and the day will be closed by dancing. At the same time there will be a grand national games, literary exercises, maypole and other amusements going on on the grounds of the Casino.

To make this programme a grand success will require a large amount of work, and in order that each detail may have the proper care and attention, the following committees are appointed: Finance, literary exercises, musical exercises, tableaux, games and outdoor dancing, illustrations, fireworks and decoration of grounds, advertising and printing.

On Monday evening there will be a grand banquet at the Palace Hotel, for which a banquet committee should be appointed.

On Monday, J. C. Lawson, the chairman and the first and second vice-chairmen were appointed, and the following committees were appointed: Finance, literary exercises, musical exercises, tableaux, games and outdoor dancing, illustrations, fireworks and decoration of grounds, advertising and printing.

Several suggestions were made regarding the tableaux, and after the chairman had requested the chairman of each committee to report, at a meeting to be held next Wednesday night, a proposed plan of action, the meeting adjourned.

The proceeds of the celebration will be devoted to the Victoria Hospital Association for the benefit of the hospital fund.

NOTES OF THE THEATERS.

Succes of "Mary Pennington, Spinster"—The Pearl Ladd Recital at the California Theater.

"Mary Pennington, Spinster," is chiefly remarkable for the opportunities it gives the audience to see a comedy of doing clever character drawing.

Fashion is showing itself copy of minstrelsy at the Baldwin Theater, and is giving most of its attention to Miss George Cayvan at the Columbia. In view of the great success scored by the play, the manager of the Columbia announced Ward and Vokes, who will present their satirical "A Run on the Banks."

Mistrelsy is drawing topheavy houses at the Baldwin, that is to say the biggest crowd is in the gallery, and the orchestra seats are the least crowded portion, of the

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR CONCERT

The San Francisco End of the Chorus Holds a Rehearsal.

The San Francisco division or nucleus of the chorus, which will consist of 3000 voices and render the preliminary concert before the opening of the great Christian Endeavor Convention, held rehearsal Tuesday evening at Calvary Pre-bterian Church. There was a chorus of about 200 voices present, and splendid progress was made.

A. M. Benham of Oakland, chairman of the music committee, opened the rehearsal, and conducted a number of selections. The Barry and Anthony will promply be one of the hardest contests that has ever been witnessed on this coast.

The betting on the Barry and Anthony fight, which will take place on Friday evening at Woodward's Pavilion, was very high. The Barry and Anthony will promply be one of the hardest contests that has ever been witnessed on this coast.

The fighters must report at headquarters promptly at 7:30 o'clock on the evening of the fight or forfeit $100. This means no delays, and an early start of the spectators for their respective homes.

FEATURES OF THE THIRD PROGRAMME.

house. The performance is entertaining and wins the applause that a good variety performer always does win in these days of the popularity of vaudeville.

"The Overland Route" is one of the best things the Alcazar has produced for some time. Its name is the most unsatisfactory part of it, seeing that the action passes chiefly on shipboard, but Tom Taylor was writing of the days just after the Indian mutiny, before the isthmus of Suez was cut, when the Red Sea route to India was called "The Overland Route," somewhat paradoxically it must be confessed. The fun of the old comedy has lost none of its spirit and the Alcazar Company handles it well.

Mamie Sheridan Wolford's romantic melodrama "The Brand of Cain," is proving a welcome offering at the Grand. Miss Wolford herself plays her part with nerve and spirit, and the members of the stock company second her admirably.

"The Lily of Killarney" is in its last nights at the Tivoli. On Monday "Shamus O'Brien" will be produced with Dennis O'Sullivan in the title role.

Grand-opsingers are proving to be the taste of Orphanum audiences, Albert being an especial favorite. The acrobats and the trick baboon and donkey are all appreciated by the usual large audiences.

Pearl Ladd, the clever child pianist and reciter, will give the following programme at her concert at the California Theater on Saturday evening:

"Harmonious Blacksmith" (Händel); "Berceuse" (Chopin); "Norwegian Rhapsody" (Grieg); "Valse à la Major (Moszkowski); "Rigoletto" (Liszt); sonata for violin and piano (Beethoven); Nathan and Deborah; and Pearl Ladd; "Invitation to Dance" (Schubert); "Hungarian" (Liszt); "Tremolo" (Gottschalk); potpourri from "Romeo and Juliet"; Pearl Ladd; selections from "The Merry Widow"; "The Sixty"; characteristic dance (by request); Maillidis, the royal Spanish dancer and Pearl Ladd.

BABIES HELP THE FUND.

"Ruth and Naomi" at the California for the Uemplayed.

A Clever Performance, Which Will Help to Build the Boulevard.

The children of Congregation Beth Israel repeated their pretty performance of "Ruth and Naomi" at the California Theater last night, for the benefit of the Uemplayed.

The friends and admirers of the clever little people almost filled the lower part of the house, and there was a very good showing upstairs. The exact net sum realized is not yet known, as all the tickets are not yet in, but it will probably be between $200 and $250.

The performance, which was very artistically managed, was under the supervision and direction of Mrs. L. H. Morgenstern and Mrs. S. Myerson. Some of the children who took part were verging on being grown up, others were mere babies; but they all did their roles very well, and their performance was a most interesting and profitable one.

All the ballets were charmingly arranged and were executed with almost professional skill by the airy, fairy little dancers. The lower dance, performed with the aid of large quantities of flowers, was especially graceful, and the harvest dance was novel and picturesque.

The dances were all trained by Miss Minnie Dreyfus and the ballets were under her personal supervision.

The music to "Ruth and Naomi" was arranged by Benno I. Barnett, the leader of the orchestra which accompanied the clever little singers. Alice Lewis was quite dramatic and effective as Ruth and Sadie Mendelson made a dignified Naomi, while Mabel Benjamin sang pleasingly of Orpha.

The other characters who distinguished themselves in speech and song were Rose Fields, who took the part of Boaz, Leo Levin and Abe Myerson the reapers, Mamie Levin, servant to Naomi, a brat Abrahamson, a messenger, and Sissy Goldstein, the cupid of the east. The following young ladies looked charming, and acted well as Jewish maids: Ida Levy, Goldie Harris, Phoebe Wolff, Ida Morgenstern, Lillie Fuda and Mabel Kochman.

The Gospel Wagon. The gospel wagon of the Epworth League was out again Monday evening. Dr. Case hated the horses on Taylor street, near Market, and the choir of the Epworth League, consisting of large and attentive throng of listeners, audience was respectful and seemed to be impressed by the earnestness of the speakers. The ladies in the wagon sang to the accompaniment of the portable organ. Miss Burton addressed the people assembled in the street.

Are Needed to Prevent the Development of Diseases at the End of Winter.

SEEDS OF CONSUMPTION

Catarrh, Bronchitis and Throat Disease Are Seemingly the Result of a March Cold—Hunyon's Cold Cure Breaks Up the Worst Form of a Cold at Once.

IMPOVERISHED BLOOD

And Deficient Circulation Call for Munyon's Blood Cure, the Best Blood Tonic on the Market—It Enriches and Purifies the Blood, Promotes Appetite and Gives Renewed Strength and Vitality.

Professor Munyon says: "The idea that one must take 'Spring Medicines' is a great mistake. It is true that at this season of the year many changes take place in the human body that affect the blood, liver, kidneys and nerves, but in healthy people these changes occur without the help of medicines. In fact, it is a sin against nature to take medicines when a doctor tells you to take them, unless you are ill. The so-called Spring Medicines for the blood are also bad because they pretend to cure all diseases with one medicine. If you have a cold, a kidney remedy not only does you no good, but may do harm; if your liver is sluggish, a nerve cure is useless. In fact, there is only one way to cure promptly and permanently, that is, by treating each organ with the appropriate remedy. A separate cure for each disease is the grand and true principle on which the Munyon system of treatment has gained its marvelous success."

"If you have an April cold, the first thing to cure the cold, as this is the season of the year when the colds are most numerous, is to take a course of the Cold Cure. The most obstinate colds yield in a few hours to Munyon's Cold Cure. Pneumonia, catarrhal diseases and throat troubles are always prevented by this remedy. Where colds are complicated by other diseases, the Cold Cure should be alternated with Munyon's Cough Cure."

"The debilitated condition which affects many people in the spring season is Nature's warning that some organs are weak and often precedes serious diseases. It is a condition which needs careful investigation, and which calls for treatment, not with spring medicines, but with the remedy that will remove the cause. If the stomach is disordered, Munyon's Dyspepsia Cure will act as a stomachic, and bowels regulator, assisting digestion and curing such symptoms as pain or soreness in the stomach, indigestion or distress after eating, fullness in the stomach, shortness of breath, poor appetite, coated tongue, sour or bitter raising from the stomach, heartburn, wind on the stomach, constipation, dizziness, faintness and loss of energy."
