

Map of the Frontier and Country Between Ellassona and Pharsalia Showing the Line of the Turkish Advance to and the Greek Retreat From Larissa.

By retreating from Larissa and establishing a new line of defense at Pharsalia the Greeks abandon the whole of the "Thessalian Plain," which lies along the Peneus and its tributaries, to the Turks. Whether with the aid of their fleet they will be able to hold Volo and the railroad connecting it with Pharsalia remains to be seen. The new position at Pharsalia is a far stronger one than any they occupied to the north.

only for Germany, but for the whole of Europe. The best basis for the maintenance of peace is a strong army and a strong navy. I hope the German people will support my efforts to preserve these means for the maintenance of peace."

Greeks Go Home to Fight.
NEW YORK, N. Y., April 24.—Three hundred Greeks from this city and Chicago sailed for Greece to-day to fight. Among them was John Leontakos, professor of Greek in the Columbia University and Amherst College. This brave man is a scion of the greatest family of soldiers and fighting men in Greece. His Spartan ancestors have been warriors since long before Lucian laughed the old gods of Olympus out of credit. His father, Petros, was a soldier. His uncle, John, whose name he has, was killed in Kythnos with the Moraitini and Pericles revolutionists, who dethroned Otto in 1832.

Turkish Changes Denied.
WASHINGTON, D. C., April 24.—At the Turkish legation to-night the Secretary at the direction of the Minister handed the following statement to THE CALL correspondent: The reported replacement of Edhem Pasha by Chazi Osmán Pasha and that of Ahmed Helzi Pasha, commander of the army of Epirus at Janina, by Saad Eddin Pasha are officially and authoritatively denied.

Garibaldi at Athens.
ATHENS, GREECE, April 24.—Ricotti Garibaldi, son of the Italian liberator, who volunteered his services to the government, arrived to-day. He was received with great popular enthusiasm.

CIRUJEDA IN DISGRACE.
The Officer Who Caused Maceo's Death Ordered Home by Captain-General Weyler.

HAVANA, CUBA, April 24.—Colonel Cirujeda, who is now on the way to Spain, has lost all the glory he gained after he led the Spanish forces in the ambush and attack in which Maceo was killed. His disgrace is that he was in Havana without permission from Weyler when news was received of an expedition landing on the northern coast of this province near Santa Ana. Orders were sent him to start immediately to the front and capture the filibusters. Instead of doing so he went to Marianna, a suburb of the capital, remained there, and sent to Santa Ana a captain with 100 soldiers. This force met the insurgents under General Castillo and suffered such dire defeat that the captain and seventy of the soldiers were killed. The expedition landed safely and Cirujeda was recalled by Weyler. At the same time it was discovered the troops of Cirujeda by his consent were selling cattle to insurgents and to merchants in Havana. Weyler ordered him to leave for Spain.

AGUIRRE IS RELEASED.
One of the Competitor Crew Out of the Spaniards' Clutches.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 24.—George Washington Aguirre, an American citizen, was released from the Cabanas prison in Cuba to-day, and Jose Cepero, another American citizen, is to be set free from prison at Santa Clara as soon as certain legal formalities are complied with.

A telegram from Lee and a note from Dupuy de Lome, the Spanish Minister, informed the State Department of Aguirre's good fortune. The young man was captured with the Competitor crew last July. Lee succeeded in setting the case transferred to the civil courts, but he was not tried. He was born in the United States, but his surname made the Spanish cautious in dealing with him. The State Department for this Government for his release, and this caused a delay. Aguirre was released on condition he would leave Cuba.

Spanish agents have scented another filibustering expedition. De Lome has officially notified the State, Treasury, Justice and Navy departments to watch it. But all the officials concerned with the suppression of filibustering don't know what to do. The information furnished is exceedingly indefinite. All the Spanish Minister has been able to tell is that an armed expedition is about to start from some place along the Atlantic coast, between New York and Charleston. The Minister's suspicion points to both of these cities. He also suspects Philadelphia. There is not enough naval vessels, revenue cutters and Federal officers available to patrol the coast for several hundred miles, and the Government is awaiting another tip from the Spanish envoy.

WERE BOTH HIBBENS SLAIN?
There Is Now a Denial That One of the Supposed Murdered Men Is Yet Alive.

WICHITA, KANS., April 24.—The town of Paul Valley, L. T., was started recently by the sensational news that Jesse Hibben, who with his cousin Charles, was reported murdered in Arkansas about a year ago, was alive and had since done time in prison at Leavenworth, Kansas.

The Hibbens were residents of Paul Valley, as was the cook named Jones, who was tried for the murder and hanged. Since the publication of the report, which was given out by James Cain, now of Mason Valley, Arkansas, D. M. Spain of White Bend, L. T., uncle of Charles Hibben, has denied the story throughout. He declares that the Hibbens were murdered and their bodies buried near Beaverville, Arkansas, and that Jones was wearing Jesse Hibben's clothes when arrested and riding Charles' saddle. He says the house in which they camped was burned and portions of the skulls and other parts of two bodies were found in the ashes. He says that Jones had in his possession stock belonging to Charles Hibben. James Cain wrote a letter on the same date reiterating every statement previously made concerning Jesse Hibben except that he (Hibben) is not now in jail and giving as his authority one L. B. Condit, who was a fellow prisoner with Hibben. He says Hibben told Condit that himself and Jones (the man that was hanged) had plotted to murder Charles and their other partner, that Hibben took the money and left Jones the stock and left Jones the money to commit. Hibben started back through the nation and was arrested and tried at Muskogee for peddling whisky, was convicted and sent to the penitentiary at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas.

Enjoyed His Wealth but a Short Time.
NEW YORK, N. Y., April 24.—Antonio Maximo Mora, who, after a quarter of a century of personal and international contention, received in 1895 from the Spanish Government $300,000.76, in settlement of his famous claim for the confiscation of his property in Cuba, died to-day in the Hotel Grenobles.

GROVER MAKES A LITTLE SPEECH

"Present Problems" His Subject at a Club Dinner.

Attributes Business Stagnation to the Policy of Protection.

Applause and Laughter Greet His Remarks, Regardless of Opportuneness.

NEW YORK, N. Y., April 24.—Grover Cleveland discussed "Present Problems" at the tenth annual dinner of the Reform Club to-night. Cleveland read his speech. With his eyes glued to the manuscript most of the time he delivered himself in a dreary monotone, frequently stumbling at polysyllables. He was, however, and the 500 admirers who crowded the banquet hall widely applauded all his utterances. The gallery was crowded with ladies, among whom were Mrs. John G. Carlisle and Mrs. Charles S. Fairchild. Cleveland said in part:

We have gathered to-night as patriotic citizens to do something for the country, and to state the prosperity of our fellow-countrymen and protecting the fair name of our country against shame and scandal. On every side we are confronted with popular depression and complaint. These conditions are perhaps largely due to the work of agitators and demagogues who have busily sown the seeds of discontent in order that in the harvest they may reap a plentiful and lasting gain. While scattering the seeds of discontent they have also cultivated the growth of sectional and class suspicion and distrust, which tends to choke or destroy the fraternal feeling which leads to consensate counsel in the day of common misfortune, and which is absolutely essential to the success of our plan of government.

The fundamental truth that our free institutions offer opportunities to all within their influence for the advancement and improvement of their condition has been so far denied that honest acquiescence is called for and the feeling which leads to consensate counsel in the day of common misfortune, and which is absolutely essential to the success of our plan of government.

It was a rude awakening for the negligent and overconfident and a day of terror for sober and patriotic men, when the bold promoters of this reckless creed captured the organization of a powerful political party, and setting its banners shouted defiance to the astonished conscience and conservatism of the country. Hosts of honest men, in blind faith, were induced by the promises of the day to be accustomed to follow, falling to discover that the party legends had been effaced. Deliverance, however, came through the action of those who saw the trick and loved the principles of their party too well to follow its stolen banners in an attack upon those National safeguards, which party as well as patriotism should at all times defend.

Cleveland traced these influences to their culmination in the demand for the free coinage of silver and continued: It was a rude awakening for the negligent and overconfident and a day of terror for sober and patriotic men, when the bold promoters of this reckless creed captured the organization of a powerful political party, and setting its banners shouted defiance to the astonished conscience and conservatism of the country. Hosts of honest men, in blind faith, were induced by the promises of the day to be accustomed to follow, falling to discover that the party legends had been effaced. Deliverance, however, came through the action of those who saw the trick and loved the principles of their party too well to follow its stolen banners in an attack upon those National safeguards, which party as well as patriotism should at all times defend.

These who believe a crisis is at hand can hardly fail to see the party in power so joined to its idol of mad protection and so completely doomed to popular condemnation that it is now in a position of defense against impending peril. The path of duty and the best hope of safety lie in an immediate and earnest attempt to accomplish the rehabilitation and reorganization of the Democratic party and its return to the principles of true Democracy. The task is not easy, but it is surely not hopeless. The work has already been inaugurated by the creation of an organization and the declaration of Democratic principles so sound, clear and patriotic that they should rally to their support every true Democrat and supply the important radical perversion of party principles.

WERE BOTH HIBBENS SLAIN?
There Is Now a Denial That One of the Supposed Murdered Men Is Yet Alive.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 24.—Mrs. P. H. Sharpstein is critically ill in the Post-Graduate Hospital as a result of a thirty-minute X-ray exposure at Binghamton last January. A few days later she felt the first twinges of a sore developed on the hip which fails to respond to treatment. Skin-grafting is now proposed. The exposure which caused the trouble was undertaken after a similar exposure on an 18-year-old boy had resulted in the same disease.

COLONEL SHAFTER'S PROMOTION.

Although There Has Been Opposition the Senate Will Confirm His Nomination as General.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 24.—The nomination of Colonel Shafter to be brigadier-general was on Thursday unanimously reported to the Senate by the Committee on Military Affairs of that body. Charges had been preferred, but did not prevail. The CALL correspondent understands that in addition to protests mentioned in former dispatches there was some opposition offered by the labor element in the West on account of Colonel Shafter's action in the railroad strikes in California a few years ago.

There is not the slightest doubt of his confirmation, but action will be delayed for about ten days. The Senate was not in session yesterday or to-day. It will meet on Monday, but will immediately take a recess until Thursday, on account of the Grant ceremonies in New York. The Senate will on Thursday take another recess for three days. It is expected that Colonel Shafter's nomination will be confirmed on Monday, May 3. He is now at the Ebbitt House.

Japanese Laborers Released.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 24.—The Commissioner General Sumner of the immigration bureau has ordered the release of the Japanese laborers held in San Francisco for violating the contract law. When Stump saw a newspaper paragraph about the Japanese he telegraphed the immigration commissioner there to furnish the facts in the case. He received the answer that there was not sufficient evidence of illegal contracts to hold the men.

Wu Ting Fang Arrives at Washington.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 24.—Wu Ting Fang, new Chinese Minister, arrived this afternoon from San Francisco in a special car. Yang Sun, the retiring Minister, who has been transferred to St. Petersburg, will sail on May 8.

IAN McLAREN'S HERESIES.

The Great Author to Be Placed on the Presbyterian Grid on the Annual Synod.

LONDON, ENGL., April 24.—The annual synod of the Presbyterian church of England, at which an attack is to be made upon Ian McLaren's alleged heresies, opens at Sunderland on Monday, and there already prevails the nearest approach to excitement which can possibly occur within such a sedate body. A petition asking for an inquiry into Watson's heterodoxy has been printed and circulated among the members, and lobbying is in full swing for and against the erring brother. The petition gives a chapter and verse from McLaren's "Mind of the Master" and his suggested creed from the sermon on the mount.

The petitioners declare that "if such statements are allowed to pass without any disavowal or explanation on the part of Watson or any notion of them on the part of the church the result will be most disastrous to the spiritual life of the church, and also eventually to its outward progress and prosperity."

HAD TOO MUCH CONFIDENCE.

Directors Give a Bank Cashier All Kinds of Chances and He Becomes a Heavy Defaulter.

ATLANTA, GA., April 24.—Harry A. Cassin, a young man of fine family and heretofore of exemplary reputation, was to-day discovered to be a defaulter to the amount of $45,000. He was cashier of the Georgia Loan, Savings and Banking Company. So implicit was the confidence of the directors that he was permitted to make loans without reporting until the end of the year. He availed himself of this to invest the company's funds in private enterprises. He has transferred personal property worth $10,000 to the bank officials. It is announced that he will supply the remaining deficit to avoid prosecution.

Scrofula Swellings

On the Neck and Great Weakness Caused by Impure Blood—Was Constantly Growing Worse. "When my son was 7 years old he began to complain of soreness on both sides of his neck, and soon lumps began to gather on one side and grew to half the size of an egg. We then became more uneasy and began to doctor him for scrofula. He gradually grew worse, however, until at the age of 12 years he lost all hope of his recovery. He became so weak he could sit up but a few minutes at a time. My wife saw Hood's Sarsaparilla recommended as a great blood purifier and we sent and got a bottle. We began giving our boy the medicine according to directions and it was not long before we saw he was improving. He continued taking it until he was in very good health. He is now 13 years old and is well. We recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla for all troubles caused by impure blood." S. M. SILVER, Grouse, Oregon.

NEW TO-DAY - CLOTHING.

ATTRACTIONS

NEW AND NUMEROUS

The last week in April, opening Monday morning, will be made unusually attractive. Mondays are always attractive days at the Big Kearny-Street Store; in fact, every day is, but the last few days of this month will prove out of the usual run of days. You will find them very attractive and the tiny prices will more than find favor with you.

Some 300 pairs of those sweet little Junior Trousers in blue, little buckles on the side; a high-class fabric; usually sold at 75c; ages 3 to 8. Till they're gone, 35c.

Our Ladies' Collar and Cuff Department needs no introduction, does it? It's the most popular department in San Francisco to-day. It is the only department that is showing the new shapes, and these are absolutely correct. Some in collars—some in cuffs—some in Ladies' Dickey's, with collar attached or without.

An Unusual Attraction!

Some 600 Little Reefer Suits in blue, handsomely braided, and some very handsome new plaid suitings, all Spring colorings, with deep sailor collar, also handsomely braided; ages 5 to 10. Not one of 'em worth less than $3.00. An equal amount in double-breasted Suits for lads between the ages of 5 to 15; all in very swell colorings; $3.00 values, all of 'em; blues among 'em and those very swell browns. They're thrown on the Bargain Tables Monday at $1.50. $1.50. $1.50.

We Have Selected

From our $3, $1.85, $1.75, $1.65 and $1.50 Wash Suits, the very handsomest effects in Galatea and Butcher Linens; these are the very swiftest things; the color combinations are beautiful; the collars are deeper than anything ever shown in this city before; for lads between the ages of 5 and 15; the price will keep 'em on the Bargain Table only a few hours. Your pick of any of 'em at 95 Cents.

Our Sailors

This season have attracted any amount of attention from mothers. They're awfully swirl affairs; nautical jibe, sweet and pretty. Some 300 of 'em in sky you see in picture on side, in long trousers, with red and gold sailor collar, in cadet gold and blue and gold. Very handsome and striking combinations. This is the season of 'em, and they're sold at $7. Made from the very highest class of English Cheviots. The Bouse is made with fly front and shield; shield very handsomely braided. Your pick from any of 'em at $4.50.

The Eton Middy

Is another new one; just arrived Saturday evening, a little too late to be shown Saturday, she it would have created a furor. It's a swell affair, with four rows of notache in gold and black, and in many other striking combinations, with its pretty little cloth vest; ages 5 to 8; 'twas to be $7.50, but we want the attractions to be great for next week, so these go on sale at $4.50.

Another Whirl In Straws.

Monday we start another one of our sensational Straw Sales in Sailors for little fellows. Some 200 dozen Little Sailor Straws in brown and white combinations; in black and white; in plain white and in fancy colorings; selections from our 55c line. Monday at
