

THE NAVAL REVIEW--THE DOLPHIN WITH PRESIDENT MCKINLEY ON BOARD PASSING DOWN THE LINE.

When the last division of the military and civil bodies had passed the reviewing stand President McKinley and other invited guests were escorted to the bank of the river, from which they were taken on board the Dolphin for the purpose of reviewing the fleet. In addition to other salutes, as the Dolphin, with the President's flag flying at her main, passed down the line, the great warships dipped their colors in honor of the Chief Magistrate.

by William W. Brady, Henry W. Knight and William McDonald. Price, 75c. Mackellar, McDonald and Knight are past commanders of the Grand Army of the Republic.

HISTORIC UTTERANCES.

Rifle-Shot Sayings of the Hero of Appomattox. In the April number of the Outlook, General James Grant Wilson has an article, in which he says it may be doubted if among the six or seven really illustrious soldiers of the nineteenth century, on which the curtain is about to drop, any except Napoleon has left behind well-authenticated records of so many rifle-shot utterances as did General Grant.

enthusiastic meetings were held in the chief cities and towns of the loyal States. Among those one met in Galena, Ill., at which Grant said: "I am in for the war and shall stay until this wicked rebellion is crushed at the cannon's mouth."

In another message he wrote: "The whole captures since the army started out guns will not amount to less than 12,000 and fifty pieces of artillery."

MAJOR-GENERAL DODGE.

War Record of the Man Who Marshaled the Hosts Yesterday. Major-General Grenville M. Dodge, the grand marshal of the Grant procession in New York, was a distinguished soldier during the war, and subsequently a member of Congress from Iowa and chief engineer in the construction of the Union Pacific Railroad.

FOUR SURVIVE THE DISASTER

Terrible Wreck of the Brigantine Vaillant on Icebergs. It is Believed That Sixty-Nine Fishermen Met a Fearful Death.

ATLANTA'S BANKING PANIC.

A Third Concern Forced to the Wall by Cassin's Rascality--Knockout at a Directors' Meeting. ATLANTA, Ga., April 27.--Another institution, hitherto supposed to be one of the staunchest in the city, has gone to the wall, a third victim to the defalcation of Cashier Cassin.

pull through it will be less and armless. The rescuers could learn few details from the survivors. The Victor Oligne cruised about two days looking for the other boats, but failed to see any sign of them, and it is believed they were crushed by the ice or swamped by heavy storms which frequently raged since the day of the disaster.

WILL HE GO TO PRISON?

Sugar Trust Chapman's Fate Rests With the District Attorney. WASHINGTON, D. C., April 27.--No action has yet been taken by District Attorney Davis toward enforcing the sentence passed upon Elverson Chapman, the contumacious Sugar Trust witness, who was sentenced to pay a fine of $100 and to be imprisoned for thirty days.

THE KORESHANITY TROUBLE.

Racy Developments in the Case of Editor Hoyt Against the Alleged Hypnotizer of His Wife. HAVERHILL, Mass., April 27.--The famous case of Editor Hoyt of the Bulletin against Dr. Weston Parsons, a man popularly known as the "Koreshanity Scandal," was heard before Judge Carpenter to-day.

SPECIAL TREASURY AGENTS DISCHARGED.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 27.--Nine special employees of the Treasury Department stationed in various parts of the country were dropped from the rolls to-day and their positions discontinued. The explanation is that a smaller force of special agents can perform the duties of that branch of the service satisfactorily.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 27.--"Owney," the famous postal dog, is not dead, as reported, but in St. Louis at the home of J. Melvin, a postal clerk, who will keep the dog until he dies. Owney has been a subject of official correspondence between the Postoffice Department and some of its officials.

WILL HE GO TO PRISON?

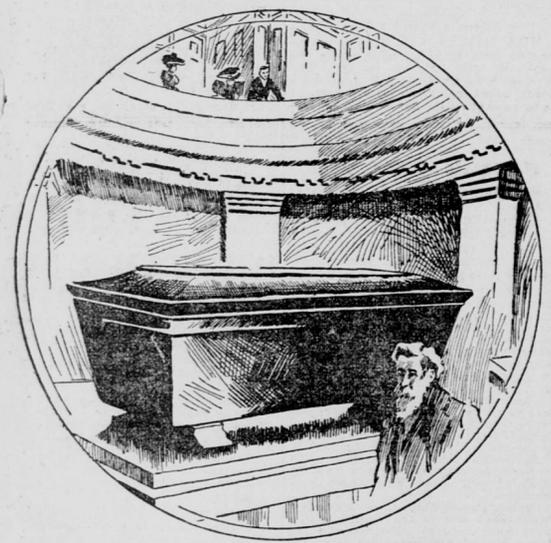

Sugar Trust Chapman's Fate Rests With the District Attorney. WASHINGTON, D. C., April 27.--No action has yet been taken by District Attorney Davis toward enforcing the sentence passed upon Elverson Chapman, the contumacious Sugar Trust witness, who was sentenced to pay a fine of $100 and to be imprisoned for thirty days.

THE KORESHANITY TROUBLE.

Racy Developments in the Case of Editor Hoyt Against the Alleged Hypnotizer of His Wife. HAVERHILL, Mass., April 27.--The famous case of Editor Hoyt of the Bulletin against Dr. Weston Parsons, a man popularly known as the "Koreshanity Scandal," was heard before Judge Carpenter to-day.

SPECIAL TREASURY AGENTS DISCHARGED.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 27.--Nine special employees of the Treasury Department stationed in various parts of the country were dropped from the rolls to-day and their positions discontinued. The explanation is that a smaller force of special agents can perform the duties of that branch of the service satisfactorily.

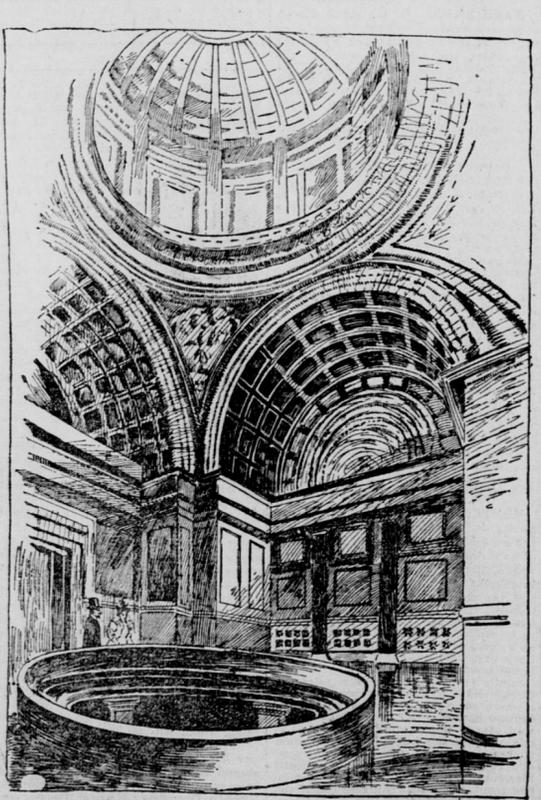

THE SARCOPHAGUS.

MANY THOUSANDS IN LINE.

The Main Divisions of the Marching Column. In spite of all efforts made by General Grenville M. Dodge, grand marshal of the procession, to limit the size of the marching column at the dedicatory ceremonies, the main divisions were as follows:

- FIRST DIVISION. Grand Marshal and his staff, regular army, 2,500. Sailors and marines, 1,500. SECOND DIVISION. National Guard, New York, 13,000. THIRD DIVISION. National Guard, Pennsylvania, 4,000. National Guard, New Jersey, 4,000. National Guard, Connecticut, 800. National Guard, Massachusetts, 800. National Guard, Virginia, 700. National Guard, Maryland, 600. National Guard, Rhode Island, 400. National Guard, Vermont, 300. National Guard, Ohio, 1,100. National Guard, District of Columbia, 250. GOVERNOR OF ILLINOIS and staff. FOURTH DIVISION. Uniformed, armed and equipped cadets, 4,000. FIFTH DIVISION. G. A. R. Veterans, 10,000. SIXTH DIVISION. Civic organizations, 10,000.

INTERIOR OF THE GRANT MONUMENT.

ATLANTA'S BANKING PANIC.

A Third Concern Forced to the Wall by Cassin's Rascality--Knockout at a Directors' Meeting. ATLANTA, Ga., April 27.--Another institution, hitherto supposed to be one of the staunchest in the city, has gone to the wall, a third victim to the defalcation of Cashier Cassin.

At a meeting of the Georgia Company's directors to-day there was a lively row between President G. V. Gress and Judge R. T. Dorsey, who is Atlanta's foremost lawyer.

An amendment has been filed by Morgan Gress, son of the president, in his original petition which precipitated the receivership, in which he claims that his father obtained large sums of money on inadequate securities.

To Drain Leadville's Downtown Mines. LEADVILLE, Colo., April 27.--At a meeting of mine managers last night it was unanimously decided to begin pumping the downtown mines immediately, with a view to their operation in June.

Must Have Been an Oversight. BOSTON, Mass., April 27.--Former Governor Boutwell, who was Secretary of the Treasury under Grant, did not receive an invitation to the Grant memorial exercises.

Off for South Georgia's Gold Fields. CHATTANOOGA, TENN., April 27.--Admiral Stevenson and a party of wealthy men interested in gold-mining started to-day en route to the gold fields of North Georgia.

Lieutenant Calhoun Dead. NEW YORK, N. Y., April 28.--Naval Lieutenant George Calhoun dropped dead on Broadway at midnight or shortly after on his way home from the Union League reception.

ATLANTA'S BANKING PANIC.

A Third Concern Forced to the Wall by Cassin's Rascality--Knockout at a Directors' Meeting. ATLANTA, Ga., April 27.--Another institution, hitherto supposed to be one of the staunchest in the city, has gone to the wall, a third victim to the defalcation of Cashier Cassin.

At a meeting of the Georgia Company's directors to-day there was a lively row between President G. V. Gress and Judge R. T. Dorsey, who is Atlanta's foremost lawyer.

An amendment has been filed by Morgan Gress, son of the president, in his original petition which precipitated the receivership, in which he claims that his father obtained large sums of money on inadequate securities.

To Drain Leadville's Downtown Mines. LEADVILLE, Colo., April 27.--At a meeting of mine managers last night it was unanimously decided to begin pumping the downtown mines immediately, with a view to their operation in June.

Must Have Been an Oversight. BOSTON, Mass., April 27.--Former Governor Boutwell, who was Secretary of the Treasury under Grant, did not receive an invitation to the Grant memorial exercises.

Off for South Georgia's Gold Fields. CHATTANOOGA, TENN., April 27.--Admiral Stevenson and a party of wealthy men interested in gold-mining started to-day en route to the gold fields of North Georgia.

Lieutenant Calhoun Dead. NEW YORK, N. Y., April 28.--Naval Lieutenant George Calhoun dropped dead on Broadway at midnight or shortly after on his way home from the Union League reception.

ATLANTA'S BANKING PANIC.

A Third Concern Forced to the Wall by Cassin's Rascality--Knockout at a Directors' Meeting. ATLANTA, Ga., April 27.--Another institution, hitherto supposed to be one of the staunchest in the city, has gone to the wall, a third victim to the defalcation of Cashier Cassin.

At a meeting of the Georgia Company's directors to-day there was a lively row between President G. V. Gress and Judge R. T. Dorsey, who is Atlanta's foremost lawyer.

An amendment has been filed by Morgan Gress, son of the president, in his original petition which precipitated the receivership, in which he claims that his father obtained large sums of money on inadequate securities.

To Drain Leadville's Downtown Mines. LEADVILLE, Colo., April 27.--At a meeting of mine managers last night it was unanimously decided to begin pumping the downtown mines immediately, with a view to their operation in June.

Must Have Been an Oversight. BOSTON, Mass., April 27.--Former Governor Boutwell, who was Secretary of the Treasury under Grant, did not receive an invitation to the Grant memorial exercises.

Off for South Georgia's Gold Fields. CHATTANOOGA, TENN., April 27.--Admiral Stevenson and a party of wealthy men interested in gold-mining started to-day en route to the gold fields of North Georgia.

Lieutenant Calhoun Dead. NEW YORK, N. Y., April 28.--Naval Lieutenant George Calhoun dropped dead on Broadway at midnight or shortly after on his way home from the Union League reception.

ATLANTA'S BANKING PANIC.

A Third Concern Forced to the Wall by Cassin's Rascality--Knockout at a Directors' Meeting. ATLANTA, Ga., April 27.--Another institution, hitherto supposed to be one of the staunchest in the city, has gone to the wall, a third victim to the defalcation of Cashier Cassin.

At a meeting of the Georgia Company's directors to-day there was a lively row between President G. V. Gress and Judge R. T. Dorsey, who is Atlanta's foremost lawyer.

An amendment has been filed by Morgan Gress, son of the president, in his original petition which precipitated the receivership, in which he claims that his father obtained large sums of money on inadequate securities.

To Drain Leadville's Downtown Mines. LEADVILLE, Colo., April 27.--At a meeting of mine managers last night it was unanimously decided to begin pumping the downtown mines immediately, with a view to their operation in June.

Must Have Been an Oversight. BOSTON, Mass., April 27.--Former Governor Boutwell, who was Secretary of the Treasury under Grant, did not receive an invitation to the Grant memorial exercises.

Off for South Georgia's Gold Fields. CHATTANOOGA, TENN., April 27.--Admiral Stevenson and a party of wealthy men interested in gold-mining started to-day en route to the gold fields of North Georgia.

Lieutenant Calhoun Dead. NEW YORK, N. Y., April 28.--Naval Lieutenant George Calhoun dropped dead on Broadway at midnight or shortly after on his way home from the Union League reception.

There is room for other extra fine food products besides

Trophy Baking Powder.

Those who like "Trophy" will still more appreciate

Jillmann's Spices and Flavoring Extracts.

There is room for other extra fine food products besides

Trophy Baking Powder.

Those who like "Trophy" will still more appreciate

Jillmann's Spices and Flavoring Extracts.