

PIERCE WAR OF RACES IN KEY WEST

Negroes Guard a Jail to Prevent a Threatened Lynching.

ENCOUNTERS IN WHICH BLOOD IS SHED.

One White Man Killed and Five Others Wounded in the Struggle.

FLORIDA'S GOVERNOR APPEALS TO THE GOVERNMENT.

Asks That Regular Troops Be Ordered Out as State Authorities Are Helpless.

KEY WEST, Fla., June 25.—This city has been in the hands of a wildly excited and uproarious crowd of negroes the past forty-eight hours, culminating in the killing of William Gardner last night and the wounding of five other whites.

The Key West Guards were called out in the evening, but it was found that the negroes had blockaded the armory, and the guards could not get in to secure their arms.

Later in the afternoon an attempt was made to mob Colonel Pendleton for his share in the attempt to lynch Johnson. He was waylaid near his house and several shots were fired.

An immense crowd gathered in the jail square. The negroes were in a fighting mood, and they swore to clean out the whites if Johnson was injured.

At midnight a party of fifty went down to the jail to try to get into the armory. The negroes ordered them to halt. As they refused the negroes fired.

Several minutes the firing was general. William Gardner was killed and five others were wounded, one severely. The whites then retreated. The negroes followed a short distance and then returned to the jail.

Later on firing was again begun by some whites, who attempted to stampede the negroes on guard, but the latter were well armed and replied so sharply that their assailants soon fled.

The Sheriff has sworn in seventy-five deputies, but their authority is little respected. The prospects are grave now and more rioting is expected.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 25.—The President today received a dispatch from the Governor of Florida stating that he feared a race war at Key West at any hour.

Secretary Alger and Attorney-General McKenna were sent for, and they took the matter under consideration. Florida's Governor was advised to send more definite information.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 25.—Three of the most desirable assignments for army officers were disposed of by the President at Secretary Alger Thursday.

WOOL, SILK AND TOBACCO PASSED

The Senate Disposes of Three Schedules in One Day.

Obstruction Motions Voted Down With Amusing Regularity.

Vest Pleads for the Silk Trade of Japan, but His Eloquence Is Wasted.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 25.—In the Senate today discussion of the tariff bill was more fairly divided than usual between Republicans and Democrats.

When the bill was taken up the pending question was Vest's motion to make the duty on Saxony carpets (paragraph 371) 40 per cent ad valorem instead of the committee rate of 62 cents per square yard and 40 per cent ad valorem.

Vest offered a similar amendment to paragraph 372 (Brussels carpets), and said the duty on matings was intended to force the people to buy cheap grades of carpets.

A similar amendment was offered by Vest to the next paragraph relating to velvet and velvet tapestry carpets.

White of California moved as a substitute for paragraphs 375 and 376 (ingrain carpets), but the motion was defeated.

The next paragraph, relating to Oriental, Berlin and similar rugs, was altered so as to make the rates 10 cents per square foot and 40 per cent ad valorem.

White moved to strike out the specific duty on Oriental rugs, leaving the duty 40 per cent ad valorem.

Paragraph 377 (drugs) was modified by striking out the second clause, and the remaining paragraphs of the wood schedule were not contested.

Silk, Schedule L, was then reached. Vest's motion to make the duty on spun silk (paragraph 382) 30 per cent ad valorem, instead of the rates in the bill, was rejected.

Jones of Arkansas offered an amendment to paragraph 384 (silk-woven fabrics), and asserted that the duties of that paragraph were highest on cheap silks and lowest on expensive silks.

Platt of Connecticut replied. Japanese competition, he said, was a very serious question, and hence the duties on Japanese goods were high, but the duties in this paragraph were not equivalent to 700 or 200 per cent.

White moved to add to the words "in no case shall any of the foregoing fabrics in this paragraph pay a less rate than 50 per cent ad valorem" the words, "or greater rate than 60 per cent."

Morgan appealed to the Senate not to make an enemy of Japan by refusing to limit the duty on a woolen fabric, which she alone produced to 200 per cent.

Schedule F, relating to tobacco manufactures, was then taken up. The committee's amendment to paragraph 210 was adopted after modification in line with last night's caucus agreement.

Paragraphs 210 and 211 were agreed to. Schedule E, relating to tobacco manufactures, was then taken up.

NO PEACE FOR SPAIN

Philippine Rebels Scoff at the Spanish Governor's Manifesto of Pardon.

VICTORIA, B. C., June 25.—The Japanese mail arriving on the Victoria to-day contains a published letter from the rebel camp at Balinupang in the Philippine Islands, dated May 18, the day after Governor-General Rivera issued his recent manifesto of pardon.

The writer declares that the rebellion is at an end and states that while the insurgents denied the rebellion with only nine efficient guns, they now have nearly 10,000 Remington and Mauser rifles which have been captured from the Spanish.

"We shall never," says this patriot, "accept the mas-acre of hundreds of our illustrious patriots, nor the outraging and murdering of our helpless mothers, sisters and children," says this patriot.

"No promise, no proclamation, from the Spaniards will induce us to surrender. Viva Filipinas libre!"

The writer declares that during the recent campaign the Spanish have suffered very severe losses. He says that on the first day of the attack on Cavite the Spanish troops lost 200 killed.

At Manila, the rebels have just been in rebellion. The rebel troops to which he belongs have left Cavite and are now in the neighborhood of Manila, within an hour's drive of the city.

Verdict Rendered in Favor of the Eastern Heirs in the Senator Foley Estate Case.

RENO, Nev., June 25.—The Foley estate case, one of the most important that have been tried in Washoe County in many years, was decided this morning.

It had been on trial for twenty-one days and was submitted to the jury at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon. After nineteen hours' deliberation a verdict was returned at 9 o'clock this morning.

A previous decision of the court prohibiting Mrs. Hartley (the slayer of Senator Foley and the mother of his putative son) from testifying in the main question was interest left the question on a division of the estate between Foley's widow and the mother, sister and three brothers of the son.

DIES DEFENDING HIS BANDIT SON

Rancher Colby of Middleton Slain by a Posse.

His Death Speedily Avenged by the One for Whom He Fought.

Deputy Storey Mortally Wounded in a Battle at the Old Man's Farm.

LAKEPORT, CAL., June 25.—George W. Colby, an escapee from the San Quentin prison, fought a battle to the death with a Sheriff's posse on the ranch of his father, near Middleton, early this morning.

The fugitive's father, who assisted in resisting the posse, was shot and killed, and James B. Storey, one of the attacking party, was mortally wounded.

Sheriff Jones received a telephone message from Middleton last night stating that Colby had been seen at his father's ranch. He at once organized a posse of ten men and started for the scene.

They reached the elder Colby's ranch at about 4 o'clock this morning. They found the fugitive's father, W. R. Colby, in hiding in the brush. The rancher, when ordered to hold up his hands, exclaimed: "Parade, I am ready for you."

The father attempted to draw his revolver, but one of the posse was too quick for him, and fired, killing him instantly.

Then young Colby arose from the bushes a short distance away and fired upon the Sheriff and his men. The first bullet took effect in Storey's shoulder, inflicting a fatal wound.

Colby emptied his revolver at the posse, and then dropped out of sight in the brush, the darkness enabling him to disappear as though he had vanished into the air.

The officers sprang for the spot where he had been seen, but the most careful search failed to reveal a trace of the outlaw.

The entire neighborhood was aroused, and the search was extended. Throughout the day and to-night the surrounding country has been thronged with armed men, but the pursuit of the murderer has been unavailing.

If captured alive lynch law may rule in fixing upon his fate.

Colby was arrested on October 31, 1885, on a charge of burglary. For a number of years people in the vicinity of Middleton had been robbed of various articles.

One day a party of boys while hunting in the neighborhood found a small cottage in which was stored the stolen goods. Tools, blankets, crocks, lamps, provisions, a sewing machine, a whole school library and a bicycle were among the articles. The cabin was watched and George Colby was seen to enter with a load of plunder.

He was placed under arrest, taken to Lakeport and put into the county jail. After a long trial he was finally convicted and sentenced to three years in San Quentin.

A few days afterward Colby succeeded cutting through the floor and removing the bricks in the wall of the jail. This he did, it is supposed, with the aid of his father, who waited outside and helped him to make his escape.

A vigorous search was instituted, but without results until today.

It is not believed that Colby will be taken alive.
