THE WEATHER BUREAU.

Weather conditions and general forecasts. The pressure has fallen rapidly in the past 12 hours over Washington and Oregon. Rain is falling along the coast of Washington. The first rain since December 13th.

EASTERN MARKETS.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET. NEW YORK, Dec. 23.—Several factors combined in the last hour of trading on the stock market to-day to lift it out of the dullness and depression which had been its characteristic for several days. The market was sharply above last night's level.

CHICAGO GRAIN MARKET.

CHICAGO, Dec. 23.—Apparently the principal reason for the firmness with which wheat opened was the strength of the market yesterday, which was due, it was claimed, to apprehension over the European political outlook. That market showed a 1/2 cent advance at the opening.

LONDON MARKETS.

NEW YORK, Dec. 23.—The Evening Post's London financial news says: The market was adversely affected by politics and dear money. A rise in the bank rate next year would not be wholly surprising. There was a further sharp fall to-day in China and Japan stocks.

THE STOCK MARKET.

Mining stocks still drag along at the old prices, with no trading or any consequence. The Belcher assessment of 20 cents per share will be delinquent in the company's office to-day.
