

PAUL GRIGGS WAS A FLIER Defeated Libertine Over a Mile in the Fast Time of 1:39 1-2.

Spencer Landed the Oakland Handicap With Argentina.

Three First Choices Crossed the Wire First—Gotobed Won Unbacked at Odds of 20 to 1.

Paul Griggs and Libertine reeled off a very fast mile in the Boston special, decided at Emeryville yesterday, but the record over a circular course, held by the latter horse, remains unbroken.

The other starters in the event were Howard Mann and Robair. Griggs was a warm 10 to 1 favorite in the betting, while Libertine had a large following, which took the 8 to 5 offered about him.

The other two entries commanded very little backing. The half was reached in 48 seconds, with Griggs a neck before Brown's big bay. The six furlongs were covered in 1:13 flat, and Griggs had increased his lead slightly.

From that point on to the wire Libertine was plainly outfooted, and was beaten out half a length in 1:39 1/2. Howard Mann, not up to a bruising race, easily took third place from the Ryan entry.

The card was an uneven one and the betting very feverish. Favorites managed to hold their own by taking three of the events decided. The surprise of the day was furnished by Gotobed, which won the mile selling dash practically unbacked at odds of 20 to 1.

The Oakland handicap, over one mile and a quarter, worth $700 to the victor, though attracting but a field of four to the post, resulted in one of the prettiest contests of the season. "Longshot" Conley's mount, the black horse Oyster Joe, even though delegated to carry 123 pounds, was made favorite in the betting, a raft of coin going into the books on him at odds of 8 to 5.

Argentina, a bay, looked nicely located with but 105 to pack, still her odds floated back from 13 to 5 to 7 to 2. Palomacita, with 90 pounds up, was accorded considerable support at 11 to 5, and Los Prietos was not neglected. According to orders, Conley started out to make the running with the favorite, but found the pace too warm, and, after passing the stand, gave the lead up to Argentina.

The Baldwin mare was never again headed, and, after a few furlongs, she put up Conley the last part of the journey, won comfortably by over a length in the fast time of 2:07 1/2. Los Prietos looked to have finished third, but show honors were conceded to the Burns & Waterhouse mare, Palomacita.

A cheap band of "skates" started in the opening six-furlong dash. Sing Wing had a shade the best of the 800 yard race, ridden out by a couple of lengths. In a drive, W. Taylor landed Scintillate in the place, a short head in front of Rosa. There was no pronounced favorite in the betting, the winner going to the post at odds of 5 to 1.

The Inverness colt, E. Come, carrying the colors of H. L. Frank, was a strong favorite in the betting on the favorite ticket, but he was never in the race, and won in commanding fashion. Semolon, a well-played outsider, made the running to the paddock, where the first choice coiled and led him over the mark a head in 49 1/2 seconds. Odd Eyes, badly mistimed about the last sixteenth, was nosed out by the laggy Ranier.

Barney Schreiber's Imperious had first call in the betting on the mile selling race, but he was out of the race, and was won by Judge Stouffer and Highland Ball were equally well backed at a trifle higher price. Turning into the back stretch, Woods on the favorite ticket scumbled at four furlongs, and he had to be held to the post, followed by Highland Ball. The latter gradually moved to the front and looked to be winning, when opposite the paddock Gotobed shot clear of the bunch and won galloping in 1:41 1/2. Highland Ball easily disposed of Charles M. Forth, who was with children.

Town Topics was a prohibitive choice for the final six furlong run, and experienced no difficulty in winning easily from Ravelette. Plandes came strong at the finish, taking the show.

TRACK ITEMS. The third event was responsible for the death of Neil & Coney's shifty performer. A three-furlong pole from the wire the cat was bumped, and, crossing his legs, had one fore ankle snapped. A bullet ended his misery.

Spencer rode astride Argentina that would be hard to improve on. If the odds didn't bother the tall boy he would command a big following at the track, for he is a very clever rider.
