

MARTIN BACKED BY THE BOSSES

SAN JOSE'S GANG GAINS A RECRUIT

Status of an "Independent" Candidate for Mayor.

Receives the Indorsement of the Organ of the Clique.

Despicable Political Tricks to Defeat the Reform Ticket.

LIES GIVEN CIRCULATION.

Teachers Told That the New Charter Club Means to Discharge Them All.

Special Dispatch to The Call.

SAN JOSE, March 5.—Charles J. Martin, one of the alleged "independent" candidates for Mayor, has gone into the camp of the "gang" without reservation and without condition.

In this morning's Mercury appears the platform on which Mr. Martin professes to stand if elected. As the platform reads it is above reproach. But as the document was undoubtedly drafted and approved by the war-horses of the "gang" before even Mr. Martin had an idea that he needed a platform to stand on in order to catch some of the votes of the unsophisticated, it is not likely that any but the most unwary will be deceived.

In justice to the people of San Jose this platform is presented in these columns as it should in candor and truth appear, according to the opinion of those versed in the methods of the gang and in the local political conditions.

No one can be found here with the hardihood to doubt that the Mercury is now being edited from the rear office of the boss. In view of this fact the columns of the Mercury will be watched to see who are the men that are receiving the backing of the "gang." The indorsement of the Mercury will at once put the brand of the "gang" upon the individual whom it thus singles out. Charles J. Martin today received the indorsement of the Mercury.

No means are apparently too despicable for the gang to adopt to achieve its ends. To-day was exposed one of its peculiar political tricks. For the past few days its henchmen were busy disseminating the report that the New Charter Club candidates proposed, if elected, to remove about fifty of the schoolteachers. These gangsters went so far as to state that they had seen the list of the teachers to be dismissed. It has been the aim of these degraded tools of the gang to see every teacher in the schools of San Jose, and to convey to each the impression that he or she, as the case might be, had been proscribed. The "gang" hopes by this to array every member of the city school department against the ticket of the New Charter Club.

There is not the slightest foundation for this report, say all the members and candidates of the New Charter Club to whose attention the report was called. S. E. Smith, the Charter Club candidate for Mayor, denounced the action of the "gang" as malicious and based upon utter falsehood. He added that even if such a course was proposed it would not be possible to carry it out, as the charter provides that all employees of the city departments should hold during good behavior. The civil service provisions of the new charter are looked upon as one of the chief merits of the instrument under which the city will be hereafter governed.

At a conference to-night of committees representing three organizations allied with the good government movement the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That this joint committee recommend that the nomination by the New Charter Club to our several organizations, and that in our opinion it is the duty of all good citizens to heartily support the entire ticket.

These organizations alone have a voting strength of not less than 1200. Saturday next will be the last day on which voters may register for the coming election. Registration should be attended to at once by every one who wants to see the tentacles of the "gang" octopus removed from San Jose.

CHARLES J. MARTIN'S PLATFORM AMENDED AS IT SHOULD READ.

I keenly appreciate the fact that an emergency has arisen in this city which demands that the gang—under obligations to no political party, force or influence, and unalloyed with any individual, clique or corporation—irrespective of their individual political affiliations, and regardless of the sacrifice of time and personal inclinations which such action involves, step to the front and assume the responsibility of managing the affairs of the municipality, to the end that the official extravagance and corruption may be maintained, and that the local government may be administered along the lines of dishonesty and extravagance.

First—I believe that every contract for municipal supplies, machinery or material of whatever nature should be let to the highest and worst bidder.

Second—I do not believe that the officials of San Jose should conduct the business of the city in the same way they would carry on their own private business, exercising similar judgment, discretion and economy, or their opportunities for booting would be gone.

Third—I declare that for city officials to be interested in any manner in contracts or supplies to be furnished the city is not contrary to public policy. Any officer or appointee of the city may be a competitor for public supplies.

Fourth—I believe that the members of the Appointing Board should be men who will faithfully carry out the wishes of the gang; men whose personal reputation and business capacity are so well known that the most perfect trust can be placed in their judgment by the gang; so that every branch of the government will be under the management of only men allied with or under control of the gang.

Fifth—I am in favor of the creation of sinecure positions in all of the municipal departments, for political or personal friends, or for any person or purpose whatsoever.

Finally, I declare that it is my earnest wish that every department of the city government be administered in accordance with the wishes of the bosses, for the best interests of the gang. And, if elected, it will be my earnest aim and purpose to give the city over to the gang administration, to the accomplishment of which desirable end I will devote my time and direct my best energies.

THE BESSIE K REPORTED LOST

Startling Story Told by an Arrival From Alaska.

Says the Steamship Has Been Wrecked and All Hands Drowned.

Statement Discredited by the Master of the Vessel Which Brought Him Down.

Special Dispatch to The Call.

SEATTLE, March 5.—A passenger who arrived here to-day from Alaska on the steamship City of Seattle has informed Agent Grauman of the steamship Bessie K that the wreck passed by the City of Seattle north of Victoria, which was reported last night, had all the appearance of being the Bessie K, which is seven days overdue. The wreck lies on the rocks 100 miles north of Victoria, and there are no indications of any survivors.

The Bessie K was owned by J. S. Kimball & Co. of San Francisco, and left that port for Alaska with a heavy load of freight and passengers. She had a capacity of 100 passengers and 200 tons of freight, and was scheduled to leave here for Dyea on March 1. She is supposed to have been wrecked on her voyage south, having been in the track of the late disastrous storm that swept the northern coast. So confident is Agent Grauman that she is lost that he has arranged to send the passengers booked for her next trip north on the Navaro.

Owing to the fact that the Bessie K was coming south, it cannot be learned at present how many passengers she was carrying.

A letter received from Juneau, Alaska, to-day says the steamship Whitelaw, which ran ashore four miles from Juneau, is still on the sandbar. The Whitelaw was left in shallow water and careened at an angle of about 30 degrees. She is likely to draw off the beach on March 8, when the waters reach high levels in the channel.

TACOMA, March 5.—President Wallace and officers of the steamship City of Seattle know absolutely nothing of the loss of the steamship Bessie K, and heard nothing of it on the way down.

COLLECTS TOLLS FROM STAGE PASSENGERS. Lone Highwayman Holds Up the Santa Barbara-Los Olivos Coach.

SANTA BARBARA, March 5.—The stage running between here and Los Olivos was held up this morning by a lone highwayman eight miles this side of Los Olivos. The horses were climbing a small grade. When near the top a voice called out, "Halt!" and before the driver could take in the situation he was covered by two revolvers held by a small-sized man, who stood at the side of the road with a gunnysack over his head. The robber took $10 from the passengers. The Sheriff has sent two men to the scene of the holdup.

PIQUART AND HENRY FIGHT

The Friend of Zola and Dreyfus Triumphs in a Duel.

Twice Wounds the Officer Who Succeeded to His Command.

Esterhazy's Challenge to the Victor of the Combat Treated Contemptuously.

Copyrighted, 1898, by James Gordon Bennett.

PARIS, March 5.—As foreshadowed in my dispatch yesterday, the duel between Lieutenant-Colonel Henry and ex-Lieutenant-Colonel Piquart came off this morning in the riding school of l'Ecole Militaire. Only the seconds and surgeons were present, sentries being posted at the entrances of the school. The encounter was conducted with energy, but with great courtesy on both sides. Neither allowed his face to betray emotion. The combatants kept at close quarters, their swords being crossed to the extent of one-third of the blades as in a fencing bout, whereas in most Parisian duels the swords only a little more than touch. Both stood their ground throughout during the first bout, with a thrust from Colonel Henry, which grazed his adversary's neck, the director of the combat stopped the contest, supposing Colonel Piquart had been touched. A subsequent examination showed that he had not been wounded and the encounter was resumed.

In the second bout, which was extremely warm, Colonel Henry resolved his adversary's good point in his arm. The combat was again stopped and the surgeons turned up the sleeve of Colonel Henry's shirt. They found that Colonel Piquart's rapier had inflicted a deep wound in the elbow, which, besides being very painful, paralyzed two fingers. At the same time the surgeons discovered a second wound, very slight, on the inner side of his right forearm, which Colonel Henry in the heat of the encounter had not noticed.

The duel was at an end. The combatants dressed and Colonel Henry received his adversary's good point in his arm. The combat was again stopped and the surgeons turned up the sleeve of Colonel Henry's shirt. They found that Colonel Piquart's rapier had inflicted a deep wound in the elbow, which, besides being very painful, paralyzed two fingers. There now remains the Esterhazy challenge. The Figaro announced that Colonel Piquart refused to receive Major Esterhazy's challenge. The latter will to-morrow publish a letter dated March 5 and addressed to Major Esterhazy's seconds, in which Colonel Piquart says:

"I have the honor to inform you that it is impossible for me to appoint seconds for the affair which was the object of your two letters yesterday."

VICTORY FOR THE SPORTS. Failure to Convict the Seconds of McCoy and Burley.

HOT SPRINGS, Ark., March 5.—"Billy" Layton and "Jack" Grace, seconds, respectively, for Kid McCoy and Nick Burley, were arrested here to-day on warrants issued at the instance of Sheriff Houpt, charging them with aiding and abetting a prize fight. They were tried this afternoon before Justice Aford by a jury. A large number of witnesses were present. The prosecution of the fight was to first show that the prize fight had taken place and then to connect Layton and Grace with it. The proof was made out by the testimony of several witnesses frequently pulled off here without interference from the authorities, had taken place. The State was covered by the fact that the fight had taken place, and was promptly returned by the jury. Warrants are out for McCoy and Burley, but it is not probable that they will be served, since they both left the city last night.

MICHAEL AT ST. LOUIS. ST. LOUIS, March 5.—The initial appearance of "Jimmy" Michael, the "Welsh Rarebit," in St. Louis packed the Coliseum to-night. In his five-mile race against time he was paced by tandems, and at times it seemed that he would forge ahead of his pacers. He made the five miles in 30.41, and left the track apparently as fresh as before the race.

Day Eaton won the mile open professional race, with Al. Newhouse second. Time, 2:10 4-5. The match race between Jay Eaton and Charles McCarthy was of especial interest. McCarthy won in straight heats. He won the first heat easily in 1:35 and the second heat by half a wheel in 1:30. The last race was the consolation race. Bob Walther won. Time, 2:16. Michael will go south, probably to Hot Springs, where he will go into training for the coming season.

CANADA BOARDS BOTH TRAILS

Mounted Police Camped Near Skaguay and Dyea.

Full Confirmation of the Reported Seizure of Territory.

Domestic Customs Officer Halting Klondike Argonauts at Lindeman.

Special Dispatch to The Call.

JUNEAU, Alaska, March 1 (via Seattle, Wash., March 5).—Further confirmation of the report that Canadian mounted police have occupied the White and Chilcot passes was brought to-day by James D. Esary. He said:

"Captain Strickland of the mounted police at the summit of the White Pass with a force of eighteen men, collecting duty, and a lieutenant with eighteen men is at Chilcot Pass doing the same thing. The White Pass camp of the mounted police is within twelve miles of Skaguay and the Chilcot camp is within eighteen miles of Dyea."

The following letter shows that rights of ownership are exercised at Lindeman definitely by Collector of Customs Godson:

BENNETT, B. C., Feb. 24.—Willie Thorpe, Skaguay—Sir: I have the honor to request that you will present yourself at Bennett's office on the next few days with all invoices of goods and meat now in the province of British Columbia at Lake Bennett, and found a notice of sale of your goods on the trail between Lakes Bennett and Lindeman, and have forbidden your man in charge to dispose of a single pound until the duty was paid.

Please give this your earliest attention. I have the honor to be your obedient servant. (Signed) J. GODSON, Collector of Customs, Lake Bennett.

EX-MAYOR WASHBURN OF CHICAGO INDICTED.

Accused of Having Procured Police Force Positions for Men Not Qualified.

CHICAGO, March 5.—Dudley Winston, president of the Civil Service Commission, and ex-Mayor Hempstead Washburn, also a member of the commission, were indicted by the Grand Jury for alleged irregularities in office. They are charged with having certified to the Commissioners of Police for appointment a number of men who are below 5 feet 5 inches in height, which the law prescribes as the minimum stature.

Robert Lindblom, an ex-member of the commission, was indicted for keeping a bucketshop. Richard C. Gunning, Assessor of the South Town, was indicted for having solicited a bribe of $1000 as his price for reducing the assessed valuation of the Reliance building, 310 State and Washington streets, to $100,000.

Manning Ballast Point. SAN DIEGO, March 5.—Lieutenant Humphreys, commanding Battery D, Third Artillery, stationed at this place, received orders yesterday to send his company of artillery at once to Point Loma and to proceed to mount the three ten-inch rifles without delay. He expects to send his whole company, with the exception of six men, who will be left in charge of the barracks, to Ballast Point, where they will remain until the guns are mounted. This morning the third gun was shipped to its destination at Ballast Point, so that now three guns and their carriages are on the ground.

FAMILY STRIFE AIDED IN COURT

Prisoner Accused of Incendiarism by Brother and Sister.

Has the Support of His Father in a Feud Begun Long Ago.

Special Dispatch to The Call. SALINAS, March 5.—The Cudiford arson case now being deliberated upon by a jury in the Superior Court of Monterey County, is indeed a puzzling one. The jurors have been deliberating for over twenty-four hours, but cannot reach a verdict.

The facts leading up to the arrest of Arthur Cudiford, charged by his brother with firing the latter's barn near Bradley, prove that a feud has existed in the Cudiford family for some time. Two sisters and one brother against the father and son seemed to be the way they were divided at the trial, and all through the case this alignment was more forcibly brought out as different members of the family were put upon the stand to testify.

James Cudiford, the father of seven children, came to California in '49, sailing around the Horn. He went direct to Tuolumne County, where he was engaged in mining until 1858. He then went to the Hawaiian Islands and engaged in the mercantile business. In 1865 he married a half-breed Kanaka, Cudiford was not very happy after his marriage, and he and his Hawaiian wife never agreed. Seven children were born, however, before the couple finally separated. The youngest child, a girl, who gave the most damaging testimony against her brother at the trial, was only two years old when the mother left the family for Hawaii. This was at a time when the children were sick with typhoid fever. During this illness two died.

In 1886 Mr. Cudiford removed his family to this State and settled in the lower end of this county. He had considerable money, and gave his children a good education, but there were always family quarrels, the last one occurring in November. A young Spaniard was paying attentions to the youngest daughter. The father and Arthur Cudiford objected, and the other children, two of whom were already married, favored the girl. As a result there was a separation, the young girl going to one brother and the father and elder brother remaining together. Their ranches were adjoining and the quarrel continued. One night soon after one of these disputes young Cudiford's barn was burned. Arthur Cudiford was accused, and the youngest sister says that she saw her brother at the time the barn was ablaze.

CARNIVAL WEEK AT SANTA ROSA

Pythian Grand Lodge to Be Entertained in May.

Queen of the Roses Will Be Crowned at the Same Time.

Extensive Preparations Made for the Reception of the City's Guests.

Special Dispatch to The Call.

SANTA ROSA, March 5.—As the result of several weeks' planning the executive committee having in charge the entertainment of the delegates to the Grand Lodge, Knights of Pythias, which will meet in this city on May 16 to 21, announced this evening a programme which is perhaps more elaborate than anything of a similar nature ever before attempted in this city.

It is proposed to combine the annual Rose carnival, which for so many seasons has been eagerly looked forward to by a host of Californians, with the entertainment offered the Sir Knights and their ladies. On Monday evening, May 16, the delegates to the Grand Lodge, Knights of Pythias, and the delegates to the Grand Temple of the Rathbone Sisters will arrive in this city. They will be met at the depot by the reception committees of the Pythian lodges of Santa Rosa, and by the Sir Knights in the Odd Fellows' building, which is to be utilized as headquarters for the week. It is expected that the Grand Lodge of both orders will convene in initial session that evening at the Sir Knights in Odd Fellows' Hall and the Rathbone Sisters in Fraternity Hall, in the same block.

Tuesday, May 17, is to be devoted to the work of the grand lodges, and on Tuesday evening the visiting delegates will be tendered a reception at the Athenaeum. An address of welcome will be delivered by the Mayor of the city, and suitable responses made by the grand officers. Music and other exercises will follow, and a banquet will be served in the banquet room and in Society Hall, both of which are located in the Athenaeum building. The Lodge work will occupy the time and attention of the delegates on Wednesday morning, but on Wednesday afternoon an excursion will be run to Bolinas near Guerneville. The train to the San Francisco and North Pacific Railway will return to this city before 6 o'clock. The delegates will probably be tendered some sort of a reception by the citizens of Guerneville, and the fare from the city has been placed at a low rate for the round trip. On Wednesday evening a banquet will be served in Ridgeway Hall. This will be entirely a Pythian affair, and the preparations will be on a scale commensurate with the importance of the occasion. The hall will be elaborately decorated.

Thursday, both forenoon and afternoon, will be given over to lodge work, but on Thursday evening the great Pythian ball will be given at the Athenaeum. This will be one of the chief features of the week, and it is proposed to break into a scale never before attempted here. Before the ball the knights and ladies begin their tripping of the light fantastic the coronation of the Rose Carnival Queen will take place. It is proposed to have this feature carried out with great pomp and splendor that it may be in harmony with the idea of Pythian chivalry.

After the coronation of the queen, at a given signal, all the bells in Santa Rosa will break into joyous clamor, whistles will be blown, and by a proclamation from the Queen's prime minister, the citizens of Santa Rosa and her distinguished guests will be commanded to lay aside the cares of business and devote twenty-four hours to gaiety and revelry. For on Friday will be held the grand carnival of 1898. Following the announcement will come the grand ball.

The carnival pageant will take place Friday afternoon, and if the present plans do not miscarry the parade will be one of marvelous beauty. Floats are already being planned, and a number of wealthy citizens will enter the traps, dog carts, phaetons, surries, carriages, etc., all beautifully decorated in honor of Queen Flora's reign.

Sad Fate of a Man Who Attempted to Walk to Dawson.

Humboldt County Argonaut Passes Away at Tacoma.

Attacked by Spinal Meningitis on the Trail and Forced to Turn Back.

Special Dispatch to The Call.

TACOMA, March 5.—A man suffering intensely arrived from Victoria yesterday, and went directly to the Fannie Paddock Hospital. He announced himself as B. D. Witter of Rio Del, Cal., and said that he had just come from Skaguay on the steamship Islander, arriving yesterday at Victoria. After making this explanation to Mrs. McCutcheon, the matron of the hospital, he added: "Oh, it's nice here, but I am very sick." Then he became unconscious. During the night he died.

Physicians believe the cause of the man's death was spinal meningitis, contracted on the trail. This is substantiated by Witter's diary, which details his sufferings. He went north with a Portland friend named Gieger and Charles Rigby of San Francisco. On the first night out of Skaguay their beds were made upon the snow. Witter mentioning particularly that he missed a mattress. He caught a severe cold, and the next day was sick. Rigby returned to Skaguay and procured more bedding for him. He got some better, and their packing was continued. Soon he was complaining, and became so ill that all agreed he should return home.

Witter's face bore evidence of intense suffering when he reached the hospital, and his head especially pained him. His pockets contained letters addressed to his wife, Mrs. Rigby and to Mrs. Geiger. Mrs. McCutcheon wired to Mrs. Witter, who replied that she would come if one if needed, and requested that her husband write to her daily. Witter never received the message, as he was unconscious when it came. His wife was informed of his death, and when she was told that he had died at Humboldt County, to-night for San Francisco, where she will board a train for Tacoma. She asked that the body be embalmed.

Witter's diary speaks tenderly of his wife and two little daughters, whom he intensely desired to see once more. In one entry he says he would give all he owned to be home again. Nevertheless, he could press on, hoping to conquer the cold. He took north a first-class outfit, including a kodak, which was left with his partners. He was about 30 years old, and had been a machinist and electrician. He sailed for Skaguay on the steamship Cleveland early in February.
