

CONSPIRED TO KILL CAPTAIN NEVILLS

Sensational Story Told in a Court at Fresno City.

Thomas Nolan Claims He Was Offered a Fortune to Take Life.

Swears That Foreman Azhderian Tried to Have Him Murdered His Employer.

Special Dispatch to The Call.

FRESNO, April 19.—The trial of the battery case brought by M. H. Azhderian against Thomas Nolan came up before Recorder Clark to-day and the alleged conspiracy to kill Captain Nevills, the wealthy vineyardist, was brought out. At the session held to-night Nolan disclosed the whole plot.

On the 8th of the present month Thomas Nolan, who was employed on Captain Nevills' La Favorita vineyard when M. L. Azhderian was foreman there, met Azhderian at the Grand Central hotel and they had a collision and exchanged warm words. It appears that there was considerable bitterness between the two, growing out of an alleged effort to assassinate Captain Nevills. It is claimed by Nolan and his friends that Azhderian and Mrs. Elsie Williams had entered into a conspiracy to have Captain Nevills assassinated while his wife was away in China.
Azhderian was foreman for Nevills and Mrs. Williams was his housekeeper. It is claimed that they wanted Nolan to do the killing by arousing Nevills' always too-high temper and killing him if he made for Dolan.

W. D. Grady appeared for Azhderian and Judge Stanton Carter for Dolan.
He also exchanged warm words. It appears that there was considerable bitterness between the two, growing out of an alleged effort to assassinate Captain Nevills. It is claimed by Nolan and his friends that Azhderian and Mrs. Elsie Williams had entered into a conspiracy to have Captain Nevills assassinated while his wife was away in China. Azhderian was foreman for Nevills and Mrs. Williams was his housekeeper. It is claimed that they wanted Nolan to do the killing by arousing Nevills' always too-high temper and killing him if he made for Dolan.

Charles C. Young was called and sworn. He lives at the Grand Central Hotel, where he is night clerk. M. H.
Azhderian and Thomas Nolan were at the hotel on the 8th instant. Azhderian, he said, was going to the office and went into the office, closing the door.
Dolan came up to guard the entrance and called Azhderian vile names. Azhderian went to a telephone and called an officer. Dolan feared Azhderian to come outside. Dolan said:

"You coward. You have been threatening to kill me; now come out here and do it."

The witness heard Dolan say: "You wanted to kill me, Nevills, and because I didn't do it, you wanted to kill me; now come and do it, you —!"

R. P. Russell was the next witness.
He said that when Dolan was arrested Azhderian said he was going to have trouble that night; that he would meet Azhderian at 11:30 o'clock at the Grand Central, and he would strike him. Thought he would be arrested; said he had not.

Mr. Carter asked the witness if Dolan had not told him that Azhderian had offered him $10,000 to kill Captain Nevills. Russell said he did not remember such a statement. He could not definitely remember that Dolan had told him that Azhderian had sent for him and wanted to kill him because he refused to kill Captain Nevills. There was some conversation, but it was vague.

The most sensational testimony was brought out at the evening session. M.
H. Azhderian, the first witness, was asked if he had not sent word to Dolan that he wanted him. He answered that he had not.

"Is it not a fact that Dolan accused you of attempting to kill Captain Nevills?"

The witness did not remember. He was asked if he did not propose to Dolan that Dolan go to court and deny that there was any attempt to kill Nevills. An objection to this question was sustained.

"Did you have a quarrel with Dolan, accusing him of a quarrel with Dolan, and that you would kill Dolan in order to kill Captain Nevills?"

"No," was the reply.

"Did you ever tell Dolan you would have killed him if he told Nevills?"

"This was objected to."

"Did you ever make the statement that you would kill Dolan in order to get into the pen with a year?"

"No."

Dolan took the stand and testified in substance as follows:

"I quit work for Captain Nevills on July 9, because my life was in danger.
Azhderian made me an offer to kill Captain Nevills, offering me $15,000 for the job. Azhderian said: 'Miss Loose, Miss Williams and I will be the ones and the assassination will take place behind the house. I will tell the captain that you are not doing your work and are using tools. He will then come back of the house and jump on you and then you can kill him.'"

"He said I would be arrested but that they would clear me. Miss Williams took a pistol and placed it in his hand after he had been killed. Azhderian promised to pay me from the crop in the vineyard, which was worth $25,000.
I did not take the money because Azhderian said the money would enable me to go away or go into business."

The witness said he came to town and told the story to Coon catcher, deputy constable. Afterward he went out to the vineyard and heard Mrs. Williams ask whether Azhderian thought he (the witness) had nerve enough to kill the captain. Azhderian said if Dolan would do it they would.

An adjournment was then taken until to-morrow.

BANQUET FOR CONVICTS.

Tollers on the Marin Boulevard Partake of a Priest's Charity.

SAN RAFAEL, April 19.—Thirty-five convicts employed on the boulevard in process of construction between here and Tiburon received a message of good cheer to-day in the shape of a substantial repast, tendered by Rev. Father Lagan, whose charitable work in lightening the burdens of those who have deviated from the path of rectitude has won for him the admiration of the community.

At noon Father Lagan, accompanied by Priest Director William Angellotti, County Clerk Bonneau, District Attorney Martinielli and County Treasurer Fallon, went down to where the men were working, the viands being transported in an express wagon. There were no stereotypical methods of giving and receiving.

"Eat and enjoy yourselves, boys," said Father Lagan, and the "boys" fell to and did justice to everything in sight without more ado.

OREGON CITIES
MENACED BY A
DREAD EPIDEMIC

Two Deaths From Cerebro-Spinal Meningitis Reported From Ilwaco.

ASTORIA, Or., April 19.—There was much excitement in this city to-day when it was learned that there were three or four cases of cerebro-spinal meningitis in Ilwaco, directly across the river from here.
Telegram after telegram was sent for information, and the Health Officer of this city endeavored to learn the facts with a view of establishing a quarantine if necessary. The authorities at Ilwaco at first refused to disclose any of the facts, evidently fearing the ill effect it would have on the reputation of their town. To-night Dr. Redmond, United States army, stationed at Fort Canby, near Ilwaco, telegraphs as follows:

"Two cases of cerebro-spinal meningitis of the fulminate form have occurred in Ilwaco in the past two days in the practice of Dr.
Gosnell. The first case was that of Ralph Finley, occurring Sunday morning and ending fatally in twenty-four hours. The second case was that of Leslie Messinger, occurring Monday afternoon and terminating in death in eighteen hours. A third case is now under observation at Ocean Park, but the symptoms of the latter case are as yet mild. All were young men from 18 to 21 years of age and of a robust health. So far the origin of the disease is not traceable to any particular source. Confirmatory evidence of the diagnosis was obtained by the autopsy."

Thorough investigation will be made and steps taken to protect this city against the dread epidemic.

Nevada Board of Health
Adopts Rigid Reg-

Rules Governing Shipment of California Herds Through the State.

Will Be Turned Back if They Are Found to Be Afflicted With Disease.

Special Dispatch to The Call.

CARSON, April 19.—The State Board of Health met at the Governor's office to-day and organized. Dr. Gulman Carson was elected president, Dr. Patterson of Reno, secretary, and Dr. S.
C. Gibson of Reno, vice-president. The following was adopted:

Whereas, Under the climatic conditions at present prevailing on the Pacific Coast our State is threatened with an invasion of large bands of cattle, horses and sheep from regions lying within the quarantine line established by the United States Government, which animals are likely to convey diseases dangerous not only to the livestock of this State, but also to the health and well-being of the people.

Resolved, That we pray the Governor of this State to issue a proclamation forbidding the introduction of all horned cattle and horses into this State from across said United States quarantine lines, except during the time between the 15th day of November of each year and the 15th day of February of the following year, also excepting horned cattle and horses in transit, not to be allowed to leave cars within the boundaries of the State except in company with a resting and feeding at a quarantine station hereinafter provided for to be established.

All sheep entering the State from across the quarantine line shall be required to undergo inspection at said station by an officer of this board, who shall, if he finds them entirely free from infectious or contagious diseases, issue a certificate to that effect, which certificate shall relieve them from restrictions otherwise imposed.
But if such certificate be not granted, then such sheep shall not be permitted to leave said station except to be loaded upon railroad cars and conveyed without the boundaries of the State.

That a quarantine and inspection station be established at the town of Verdi, Washoe County, Nevada.

That owners of sheep making application for inspection of their herds, and for bill of health for same be required to accompany said application with deposit of 25 cents per head on the number of sheep in the band, in compensation for the services of the inspector.

HARD STRUGGLE WITH THE SEA

Tug Fearless Arrives at Port Townsend With the Sin-tram.

Reports That the Cutter Bear Is Still at Unalaska, With All Well on Board.

Special Dispatch to The Call.

PORT TOWNSEND, April 19.—The tug Fearless arrived here to-night, seven days from Unalaska. The Fearless left San Francisco with the ship Sintram in tow for Dutch Harbor and arrived safely with her tow, but not without a hard struggle with the sea.
Twice the tug and the ship were parted by the violence of the storms they encountered.

The first time the vessels were parted it was two days before the tug could get a line to the ship again, owing to the storm. A few days later another storm was encountered and the heavy tug line of the tug was unable to hold the ship and again the vessels parted.
The storm that time was so severe that the tug and the ship were driven far apart and it was not until after thirteen days that the Fearless was able to find her.

New Phase of the Race War Being Waged
at Milpitas.

Whites Cause the Imprisonment of Nearly Four-Score Mongols.

Accuse Them of Violating the Cubic-Air Ordinance in a Cannery Bunkhouse.

SAN JOSE, April 19.—The trouble between the Oakland Preserving Company and its former employees at the cannery at Milpitas was renewed today in a different manner, and the little town is all excitement again. Last night Antonio Sepulveda went before Justice Jones and swore to warrants charging the seventy-eight Chinese employed in the cannery with violating the State cubic air ordinance. The arrests were made under the State law which makes it a misdemeanor for any person to sleep in or occupy a room or apartment for the purpose of lodging which contains less than 500 cubic feet of air. This law, it is claimed, is openly violated by the cannery company and its employees. In the bunkhouse built for the men the officers found seventy-eight Chinese packed in like sardines, with less than 200 cubic feet of air to each individual.

The men were arrested by Constable Matthews and taken before Justice Jones. They pleaded not guilty and gave bonds of $20 each, with Charles Copley and Michael Bellew, as sureties. Their trial was set for Thursday morning.

The people of Milpitas, whose places in the cannery were taken by the Chinese, are determined to drive out the Chinese. This is but one of several moves contemplated to make it hot for the coolies, and as soon as it is settled some other action will be taken.

REDWOOD CITY, April 19.—An enthusiastic meeting of Catholic young men was held in Redwood City last evening, April 18, and a branch of the Young Men's Institute of the Pacific Grand Council jurisdiction organized under the name of Mount Carmel Council by Grand Director Philip Princeville. The society is dedicated to the promotion of the Catholic faith and the advancement of the race. Twenty-six young men signed the roll and were initiated. Philip Prin-ceville, the organizing officer, was assisted by Grand Secretary George A. Stanley, Grand Director Harry Pinkham, D. D. G. P.
Henry C. Hall.

At the meeting is a list of the members and the officers elected for the ensuing term: President, J. Cullen; first vice-president, Will H. King; recording secretary, J. J. Brown; financial secretary, J.
D. Hedger; corresponding secretary, Joe C. Miller; chaplain, J. J. Curran; John C. O'Connell, Assa E. Hull, John Daly, Joseph Kelly, John C. Thompson, M.
Dolan, John Kerr.

After the initiation there were speeches from the grand officers. Then all partook of light refreshments.

SAUSALITO'S NEW TRUSTEES.
Messrs. Crumpton and Thomas Take the Oath of Office.

SAUSALITO, April 19.—The new Board of Trustees met last night. Adolph Sylva, Dr. H. J. Crumpton and J. Thomas were sworn in. General Dickinson and L. G.
Ambjornsen, the hold-overs, took their oath of office anew. General Dickinson was re-elected chairman, with Ambjornsen voting in the negative.

F. D. Linsley took his oath of office as town treasurer, and general "Jack" Hanson as town marshal. The resignation of O. C. Miller, superintendent of streets, was accepted. His adjournment was then taken until May 2.

The keynote of the policy of the new board is summarized in the remark of Trustee Thomas:

"I am for anything that will increase the revenue of the town, and benefit its citizens without casting a shadow on our good name."

It is a current "josh" that in case of any emergency, Dickinson's place as chairman may be supplanted.

SALINAS MAYORALTY FIGHT.
Frances Appeals to the Superior Court to Be Seated.

SALINAS, April 19.—The majority fight developed a new phase this afternoon, when Charles Frances, through his attorneys, filed a petition in the Superior Court praying for an order requiring W.
J. Hill to vacate the Mayor's chair, which it is claimed he holds illegally, by virtue of a forged commission, and to turn over to Frances all books, papers and other property which are in any way connected with the office. The petition will be fought vigorously.

San Rafael Bride of Six Months Files Suit for Divorce.

SAN RAFAEL, April 19.—Mrs. Malvina Shearer, wife of George D. Shearer, the local real estate agent, to-day filed a suit for divorce. In the complaint the allegation is made that Mrs. Shearer has been treated with extreme cruelty ever since her wedding day. She was the widow of Alexander Summerfield, who died here in February of last year, leaving an estate of $30,000. She married Shearer six months ago.

MOURNED BY MANY DESCENDANTS.
Wooland, April 19.—Mrs. Mary B.
Hutt, aged 83, a native of Tennessee, died in Stutter County last night. She left eight children, forty-one grandchildren, seventy great grandchildren and seven great-great-grandchildren. Twenty-seven of her descendants are dead.

GAY REVELRY

Many Features to Entertain San Rafael's Guests.

Rose Carnival Visitors Certain to Find Much to Delight Them.

Even the Children Have Come Forward to Make the Parade Attractive.

Special Dispatch to The Call.

SAN RAFAEL, April 19.—As the days wear on the fact becomes plainer that the coming rose festival will indeed be a "thing of beauty," and even if the joy does not last forever there will be enough of it crowded into two days to satisfy the most carping cynic.

What is causing the committee much thinking and argument at present is the matter of a suitable programme for Saturday evening, May 7. In addition to other minor points this was discussed at a meeting of the executive committee last evening. Some were in favor of a display of fireworks which would undoubtedly be an interesting feature. If fireworks should be agreed upon San Rafael will be the "strategic point."

Mrs. L. J. Hamm has persuaded the committee to accept a modification of the grand arch. It was in accordance with her ideas that Farnsworth drew the design originally agreed upon, but Mrs. Hamm is seldom satisfied with a first idea and in this instance the town will profit thereby.

The primary school, the infant of the county educational system, has turned disdainfully away from precedent for this great occasion and will "show off" in the parade as big as any body. Its float will represent a ship on which will be a neatly costumed crew of juvenile aspirants for glory.
The rest of the pupils will haul the float along. Additional features will be decided upon soon.
