EULOGIES OF GLADSTONE

English Statesmen Pay Tribute.

PARTY LINES FORGOTTEN.

GOVERNMENT LEADERS TELL OF HIS WORTH.

Premier Salisbury Says His Was a Great Example, Hardly Paralleled in the Annals of History.

Special Dispatch to The Call.

LONDON, May 20.—The eulogies of Mr. Gladstone formed a historic episode in the House of Commons to-day. There were more members assembled in the House to-day than upon any occasion since Mr. Gladstone himself introduced the home rule bill. They filled every seat and clustered on the steps of the Speaker's dais, and the Peers' gallery was crowded with the foremost members of the House of Lords.

After prayer, the House silently awaited Mr. Balfour for a quarter of an hour, and when he arose all heads were bared. The members were generally attired in black. All the galleries were full. The House went into committee to consider the address to the Queen in regard to the interment of the remains of St. Peter at Westminster Abbey.

Mr. Balfour, the Government leader, in spite of his illness, was able to move to the front of the House. He prefaced the address with a lengthy eulogy of Mr. Gladstone, the Liberal leader, Sir William Vernon Harcourt, seconded the motion.

In the House of Lords there was a full attendance of members. The Marquis of Salisbury spoke feelingly of Mr. Gladstone, who, he said, was "ever guided in all his efforts by a lofty moral ideal."

The Earl of Kimberley, the Liberal leader, followed with a touching tribute, and the Duke of Devonshire expressed generous appreciation of Mr. Gladstone's services in behalf of the Liberal Unionists, saying their sorrow for the Earl of Rosebery delivered an eloquent panegyric on the deceased statesman.

It is virtually decided that Mr. Gladstone's body shall be interred in Westminster Abbey.

Telegrams continue to arrive in great number at Hawarden Castle from all parts of the world. Mrs. Gladstone is as well as can be expected. The czar has telegraphed to the widow in English, saying: "I have just received the painful news of the decease. I consider it my duty to express my feelings of sincere sympathy on the occasion of this irreparable bereavement which has befallen you, as well as the deep regret which the sad event has given me. The whole civilized world will weep for the loss of the great statesman whose political values were so widely human and peaceful."

NOT AFRAID OF THE WHOLE SPANISH FLEET

Captain Clark of the Oregon Asked Not to Be Tangled up with Instructions.

NEW YORK, May 20.—A Washington special to the Herald says: In connection with the trip of the battleship Oregon an interesting story is in circulation at the Navy Department which cannot be confirmed, but which illustrates the intrepidity of Captain C. E. Clark, commanding the vessel.

Apparently the Spaniards are more afraid of the Oregon than that vessel is of them. Although the Oregon is unaccompanied on her voyage through the West Indies by a single ship, the Marietta and Nicholas having been left in Brazilian waters, no attempt has seemingly been made by Admiral Cervera to intercept the American battleship, although the department experts say that it would properly be his policy to destroy detached ships, and especially such great re-enforcement as the Oregon will undoubtedly be to the American fleet.

TEA INDUSTRY IS DECLINING

Outlook in Japan Not Assuring.

CROPS DAMAGED BY FROST.

COST OF MANUFACTURING HAS INCREASED.

Skilled Labor Commands Higher Wages and America Now Offers a Poor Market for the Surplus Product.

TACOMA, May 20.—Reports received at Yokohama up to May 2 show that Japan's tea crop was greatly damaged by a severe frost occurring on April 23.

Japanese papers state that the tea industry is surely declining in several districts, owing largely to the increase of expenses attendant upon tea manufacture.

Estimates for the cost of picking, firing, etc., amount this year to $7.90 per 20 catty, compared with 6.45 yen last year. Skilled labor is found to be higher throughout the districts than ever before, because of the greatly increased cost of living.

The Central Tea Dealers' Guild of Japan received cablegrams from New York on April 22 stating that the tea market prospects there were rendered very unfavorable by the outbreak of the Spanish war.

The Guild then sent circulars to tea dealers throughout Japan urging that the most stringent rules be adopted in marketing and shipping tea to this country, which constitutes Japan's best market.

The tea growers are considerably disheartened. The last season was a poor one, the Japanese market being greatly overstocked after June 15, previous to which shipments were unusually large, because the United States was expected to collect a duty on tea after July 1.

POLICY OF SPAIN'S NEW MINISTRY

Sagasta Says the War Is to Be Fought to the Bitter End.

Weylerites Arraign the Cabinet Because It Follows the Plans of Its Predecessor.

MADRID, May 20.—The Ministers, in full uniform, appeared in the Senate to-day.

Owing to the circumstances, the new Cabinet is already nicknamed the "circumstantial Cabinet." The Premier, Senor Sagasta, explained the ministerial crisis and asserted that the new Ministry would continue the policy of the former Ministry.

Senor Sagasta explained that the Cabinet changes were due to the fact that several Ministers were "ill and extremely fatigued after the recent anxieties," howbeit Sagasta found himself confronted with war or dishonor, and accepted the former, adding solemnly: "The Spanish Government will never accept peace if it is said to have been imposed upon it."

Senor Sagasta promised a day to debate the "Red Book," although howbeit the debate was disappointing to the Chamber and to the public galleries, which had expected sensational scenes.

Professor Salmeron made a speech vigorously attacking the Cabinet. In an interview to-day the Minister of Marine is quoted as saying: "I am greatly rejoiced at the safe arrival of the Spanish fleet at Santiago de Cuba. It is an immense triumph for the Spanish navy. The sailors who executed the movement and those who planned it are worthy of all praise."

Continuing according to the usual custom, Sagasta congratulated himself upon the first event happening in his administration auguring so well for the navy and for the country.

A dispatch from Havana says two American ships have bombed Guantanamo, and adds that the Spanish gunboat Santuario and a regiment of troops repulsed the attempt to land there. According to the Minister of Marine the Spaniards did not suffer any loss, and the Americans retired.

Admiral Camara, the commander of the Cadiz squadron, is here receiving instructions relative to the Spanish fleet, which, it is explained, "depends upon the requirements of the war." The new Minister of Marine has offered the greatest activity into his department, which, it is said, has been injected war munitions from many quarters.

It is evident the new Spanish Cabinet intends to push the campaign vigorously, and according to the Minister will negotiate actively with the foreign diplomats to protect Spain against a combination of her enemies.

Senor Romero y Robledo then pressed another motion, Minister of Public Instruction and Public Works, to disclose his individual opinion and to say how half-mute, when McCoy rushed but was blocked by the Kid. McCoy rushed and landed on the back of the head.

Round 15—The Kid planted a right on the face. Gus sent a right to the body and another to the face. McCoy jabbed the face and Ruhl did the same, sending McCoy's head back. Gus landed a left swing on the body and then sent a right to the face. McCoy sent his right to the face, and McCoy got back with a hard left jab. The Kid rushed, and Ruhl rushed, and McCoy sent a light uppercut to the face. The Kid put his left very hard to the wind as the round ended.

Round 17—Ruhl jabbed lightly with his right to the face. The Kid swung a left to the jaw and then clinched. Ruhl put a right to the face, and the Kid fell back. Ruhl put a left to the face again, and McCoy swung a left to the body. Ruhl swung a left on the ear once more in an attempt to reach the jaw, and failed. The Kid rushed and was blocked. Ruhl uppercut with the right. Ruhl fought well in this round, and appeared to be very strong.

The decision was given to McCoy.

BRITISH SHIP TO CARRY COAL FOR AMERICA

Steamer Pakshan Chartered at Victoria, Despite the Fact That War Is On.

VICTORIA, May 20.—Messrs. Libby and Robinson, acting on behalf of the United States Government, to-day chartered the steamer Pakshan to carry coal to San Francisco. The Pakshan is a British craft, and her engaging in the work contemplated would be a distinct breach of the neutrality laws.

ADVERTISEMENTS. WONDERFUL CURES. When Doctors Fail to Give Relief, Dr. Sanden's Grand and Simple Remedy Cures. ELECTRICITY has taken the place of drugs. In its own simple manner it helps all the organs of the body to do their work—helps them by adding to their strength—and nature then cures the trouble. ANOTHER OF ITS QUICK CURES. DOUGLAS MINE, VOLCANO, Amador County, Cal., May 15, 1898. I bought the Belt from you I was laid up with sciatica. I could scarcely get in or out of bed. I received very little benefit from our local doctors, so I concluded to try your Electric Belt. I wore it as directed, and believe me, I felt the least sign of the trouble. If I feel out of sorts I put the Belt on, and in ten minutes I am away. Yours respectfully, D. ODGERS.
