The Manners of Captain March of the Astor Battery Described by Alice Bix in Next Sunday's Call. Anti-Civil Service.

The committee of arrangements for the State convention of the Anti-Civil Service League of California met last night at B'nai B'rith Hall. The convention will be held on June 29, at the same place. Large delegations from all over the State have signified their intentions of attending. A resolution was adopted inviting all opposing the civil service principles to be delegates. The next regular meeting will be held on Monday evening.

In the Divorce Courts. Eliza A. Devine was granted divorce from William B. Devine yesterday on the ground of extreme cruelty. Suits for divorce were filed by Louise Muller against Frank D. Muller on the ground of desertion; Emma A. Hanlon against Joseph A. Hanlon on the ground of desertion; Robert A. Dunbar against Frederick Dunbar on the ground of desertion; and Ursula G. Herrman against Henry Herrman, who complains of cruel treatment as cause of action; Frank L. Watson against Clara Watson on the ground of desertion, with $15 a month alimony to Mrs. Watson.
