

AN OUTSPOKEN ASPIRANT FOR U. S. SENATOR

First Step Required for Party Success.

MUST WIN THE LEGISLATURE

R. N. BULLA OF LOS ANGELES SPEAKS TO THE POINT.

He Entered the Contest When There Was No Thought of a Governmental Candidate From the South.

As A. Cammett desired to attend the Democratic convention in Amador County and T. W. H. Shanahan was engaged in the dissemination of Populist doctrine...

"I am in the field as a candidate," continued Mr. Bulla, "yet I have not asked a candidate for the Legislature or a single one of the hold-over Senators to vote for me..."

SEATING OF REA DELEGATES TO BE CONTESTED

Honest Republicans in the Saddle.

WILL HOLD A CONVENTION

SEPARATE DELEGATION TO BE SENT TO SACRAMENTO.

Santa Clara County Good Government League Repudiates the Fraudulent Primaries of Wednesday.

Special Dispatch to The Call. SAN JOSE, Aug. 12.—The delegates of the Good Government League will repudiate the Rea Republican county convention and with a full list of delegates nominated by the league organize a convention of their own at Ruthersford Hall to-morrow morning.

This action of the Good Government League, if sanctioned by the State Central Committee and State convention, will prove the death knell to "Jim" Reaism in Santa Clara County.

The Good Government League meeting this afternoon was long and enthusiastic. The greatest unity prevailed, and one expressed wish of the speakers was to adopt such drastic measures as would rid the Republican party of Santa Clara County of corruption and political bossism.

Resolved, That on account of flagrant fraud perpetrated by emissaries of the gang in almost every precinct in the county during the primary election of the 10th inst., we, the Good Government League, repudiate the election and any action which may be taken by the convention to be held on August 13...
