

ALAMEDA COUNTY NEWS.

Three Bullets Grazed Mrs. Needham's Arms.

Dress Parade Causes Justice to Lag.

Mrs. Bell's Plan Did Not Save the Fees.

Kihlmeier is Now in Jail.

The Judge is Powerless Against Bayonets.

She Felt Death Approach.

As No One Will Swear to a Positive Statement the Prisoner Will Probably Have to Be Released.

James Meadors Secures One Day's Respite Because of a Fancy Drill at Camp Barrett.

Six Attorneys Were Then Required, Where One Would Have Ordinarily Been Enough.

Oakland Office San Francisco Call, 908 Broadway, Sept. 1.

A dress parade at Camp Barrett clashed with the course of justice to-day in Judge Lawrence's court, and James Meadors, who murdered Jonas Ury, obtained one more day's respite from what would have ultimately been pronounced against him.

The practice of making deeds and gifts contingent upon death has received another severe blow by a decision of the Supreme Court which was forwarded to Alameda County this afternoon. Recently the cases of Mrs. Tripp and of Professor Richardson, who died in Greece, both of whom were anxious to avoid the expense of probating their wills, have been decided against such a course.

Since Needham has been in Alaska some one wrote him an anonymous letter about his wife, which he forwarded to her, and the writer of this letter, it is surmised, may know something of the attempt to murder Mrs. Needham.

Judge Lawrence held a little consultation with the attorneys as to whether or not Captain Barnes, of Petaluma, and other officers were amenable to the subpoena of a township justice's court. The constable joined in the argument, and stated that when he approached the lines he was met by bayonets, and that he did not think it wise for the sake of a half-dollar per subpoena to be exposed to the bayonets, and that he did not think it wise for the sake of a half-dollar per subpoena to be exposed to the bayonets.

Collector Jackson has been informed that the sentence of exclusion passed by the Secretary of the Treasury last Wednesday morning on Customs Broker John E. Youngberg does not apply to the Custom House, the exclusion being merely from the office of the collector of internal revenue. In that department he will not be allowed to do business any longer, unless the department should see fit to reverse the ruling.

Detective Denny Holland has made a thorough search of the records of the day, and as a result he decided to take Kihlmeier into custody, although there is some doubt whether a complaint will be filed.

The Constable joined in the argument, and stated that when he approached the lines he was met by bayonets, and that he did not think it wise for the sake of a half-dollar per subpoena to be exposed to the bayonets, and that he did not think it wise for the sake of a half-dollar per subpoena to be exposed to the bayonets.

Captain Youngberg said yesterday that the movement against him was the result of personal feeling on the part of some person whom he did not desire to name. He would have his appeal perfected within a few days, pending which time he did not care to discuss the matter.

"I had a long talk with Mrs. Needham this morning," said the detective, "and although she convinced in her own mind of the identity of the party who shot at her, she did not see him, and consequently could not swear to his name. He certainly had the narrowest escape from being murdered I have ever seen. Had she stood with her back to the window instead of standing sideways she would now be dead, and I could have saved her. Any of the bullets would have caused her death."

The morning some of the staff officers from San Francisco went to Camp Barrett to inspect the troops, and military rules required that the captain of each company should be on parade. This prevented Captain Billy Barnes, San Francisco's District Attorney, and the command of the Petaluma company from exercising his own discretion in the premises, and therefore Justice Lawrence had to adjourn his court.

Whether that case has been urged against him, or for any purpose existing in any year the income and revenue provided for for such, without the assent of two-thirds of the qualified electors voting at an election held for that purpose, and in which the State of California, to-wit:

Reliant's Boxing Night.

One of the Best-Known Athletes in Oakland—Other Officers Who Will Hold Prominent Positions.

Notes From the Courts.

Where Marriages Were Failures.

Young Republicans Meet.

Notes From the Courts.

Will Clear the Sidewalks.

Water Rate Suit Dismissed.

Notes From the Courts.

Cotton Mills Flourish.

Water Rate Suit Dismissed.

Notes From the Courts.

Oakland City Appeals.

Water Rate Suit Dismissed.

Notes From the Courts.

The Water Front Suit.

Water Rate Suit Dismissed.

Notes From the Courts.

Postmistress Resigns.

Water Rate Suit Dismissed.

Notes From the Courts.

New Minister Arrives.

Water Rate Suit Dismissed.

Notes From the Courts.

He was taken suddenly ill while at the counter this morning.

A Talk on the Dead Sea.

Youngberg Fixes the Blame on Enemies.

Entered the University.

Notes From the Courts.

Advertisements.

Praise From Those Who Know.

Advertisements.

Advertisements.

Advertisements.

Advertisements.

Advertisements.

Advertisements.

Advertisements.

Advertisements.

Railroad Travel.

Southern Pacific Company.

Read how two girls run a big sheep ranch, in next Sunday's Call.

Read the anecdotes about "Soapy" Smith by Cy Warman, in next Sunday's Call.

Witness my hand and the Great Seal of the State of California, this 2nd day of September, 1898.

Witness my hand and the Great Seal of the State of California, this 2nd day of September, 1898.

Witness my hand and the Great Seal of the State of California, this 2nd day of September, 1898.

J.J. HANNIFIN.

ALAMEDA, Sept. 1.—The annual election of the Acme Athletic Club was held last night, and the following officers were elected: J. J. Hannifin, president; G. F. Bovard, Miss K. B. Foster, J. K. Hamilton Jr., Miss E. G. Hitchcock, R. G. Hunt, Miss L. A. Knowles, Miss J. W. Meriam, James E. Elsworth, and Miss A. M. Sykes, C. A. G. Weymouth, Miss F. H. Young, P. T. Clay, A. W. Smith, W. A. Newbold, and J. W. White.

An insurance and collection agent in Otsego County, New York, constantly recommends Ripans Tablets to everybody whom he suspects of suffering from dyspepsia, and takes pleasure in relating his own experience, as follows: "I have been a sufferer from dyspepsia for a dozen years or more, and have tried all kinds of medicines that were said to be good (or a positive cure), but none of them afforded much relief. I have always been blessed with a keen appetite and have, perhaps, indulged too heartily at times and suffered accordingly. Last winter while traveling through an adjoining county I first learned of Ripans Tablets, and was induced by a friend to try them. They have done me a great deal of good, and I think that I have fair promise of a permanent cure. If I would be regular about my meals now, I am sure should be well."

Witness my hand and the Great Seal of the State of California, this 2nd day of September, 1898.

Witness my hand and the Great Seal of the State of California, this 2nd day of September, 1898.

Witness my hand and the Great Seal of the State of California, this 2nd day of September, 1898.