

DEATH CLAIMS
JUDGE COOLEY
Michigan's Noted Jurist
Passes Away.

WAS A GREAT AUTHORITY
ON QUESTIONS OF CONSTITUTIONAL LAW.

For Many Years Was a Member of the State Supreme Court and Later an Interstate Commissioner.

Special Dispatch to The Call.

ANN ARBOR, Mich., Sept. 12.—Judge Thomas M. Cooley, the noted jurist and constitutional lawyer, died early today at his home. Three months ago he returned from a private sanitarium at Flint, Mich., where he had been treated chiefly for mental weakness. He was then so much improved in mental health that he was able to recognize acquaintances. He realized his weak physical condition and his falling mental faculties, and often expressed a wish that death would come. Several weeks ago he relapsed into a comatose condition. During the ensuing interval the only intelligible utterance he made was once when he inquired for his eldest son. His demise had been expected for weeks past.

Thomas McIntyre Cooley was born in Attica, N. Y., January 6, 1824. He began the study of law in Palmyra, N. Y., in 1842, and, removing to Michigan in 1843, completed his legal studies at Adrian, where he was admitted to the bar in January, 1849. He practiced his profession for the years following at Tecumseh, after which he settled in Adrian. For a time he edited a paper, the Watch Tower. In 1857 the State Legislature assigned to him the work of compiling the general statutes of Michigan, which were published in two volumes. In 1859 he was made professor of law in the University of Michigan. Five years later he was elected a Justice of the Supreme Court of the State to fill a vacancy, and in 1869 he was re-elected for the full term of eight years. In 1869-70 he was Chief Justice and in 1875 retired permanently from the bench. In 1881 a school of political science was established in the University of Michigan, and Judge Cooley assumed the professorship of constitutional and administrative law. It was in 1886 that he was given the chair of American history in the Michigan University, and at the same time he became lecturer on constitutional law and dean of the school of political science. Among the works published by Judge Cooley are: "Digest of Michigan Reports," 1836; "The Constitutional Limitations Which Rest Upon the Legislative Power of the States of the American Union," 1863; enlarged edition, 1871, and editions with copious notes of Blackstone's "Commentaries," 1870, and Story's "Commentaries on the Constitution of the United States," with additional chapters on the "New Amendments," 1873; "The Law of Taxation," 1876; "The Law of Torts," 1879; "General Principles of Constitutional Law in the United States," 1889; "Michigan—A History of Governments," 1885. It was while a member of the United States Interstate Commerce Commission in 1888 that Judge Cooley paid a visit to San Francisco.

Osculation Annexes the Only Running Event, With Libertine Second and Wheel of Fortune Third.

Special Dispatch to The Call.

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 12.—The program of five races for light harness horses and one contest for the gallopers looked quite attractive on paper, but all the victories of the trotters and pacers were won by such wide margins as to cause no exciting thrills to chase up and down the spine of the earnest enthusiast in the land. However, the running race, won by Osculation, lightened up the crowd track ground materially and the crowd went home with few "kicks" to register on the day's sport.

THE CALL'S RACING CHART

B. Spreckels, M. F. Tarpey and General Barrett were the judges. Mr. Spreckels presiding and Mr. Tarpey acting as starter of the light harness races, at which work he did fairly well.

The Stanford stake, mile heats, three in five, for foals of 1886, had four starters. Don Minutos, a chestnut colt by Captain Harris' old campaigner Melvar, dam Elmorene, was at 2 to 5 in the betting, and going further and further away from his opponents all the time, won by over a sixth of a mile, distancing the bunch and settling the argument in one heat. Time, 2:30. Don Minutos' opponents, if such they could be called, were Dr. Frasse, George Buckman and I. L. B. Riley was a 1 to 2 favorite, Phoebe Childers 4 to 1, Shelby 5 to 1, the others 6 to 1. After scoring half a dozen times, they were away to a fair start. Shelby led for about a furlong. Then Joe Selby went to the front, leading Shelby by a small margin past the quarter and half, with Phoebe Childers third, the favorite away back fourth. Shelby passed to the front on the final turn and Joe Selby dropped back beaten. Shelby looked a winner up to the last sixty yards, when he broke, and Donathian shot Phoebe Childers in a winner by a half length. Shelby second, two lengths before Mammie Riley. Joe Selby a poor fourth. Time, 2:16 1/2.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 12.—Philadelphia was never in to-day's game. Boston played all the points, making everything count and winning easily. Attendance 3100. Score: R. H. E. Philadelphia 1 5 4 Boston 7 7 2

BALTIMORE, Sept. 12.—The Baltimore club forgot how to bat Mercer at critical stages of to-day's game and the Senators carried the victory by clean-cut, fast work. Attendance 2500. Score: R. H. E. Baltimore 5 3 0 Senators 8 5 0

PITTSBURG, Sept. 12.—Inability to hit Hart and two errors by Galien defeated the Chicago team. Philadelphia pitched a good game, but allowed the locals to bring their hits in the sixth. Attendance 1200. Score: R. H. E. Philadelphia 3 6 0 Chicago 1 6 0

CHOYNSKI FAILS TO PUT OUT GODDARD

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 12.—Joe Choynski had all the better of it in his bout with Joe Goddard to-night at the Arena. Goddard was considerably heavier than the Californian, but he lacked in scientific boxing, and a chopping foot. Choynski made several times it looked as though Goddard would not be able to stay the full six rounds.

BONNER WINS HIS FIGHT WITH CREEDON

NEW YORK, Sept. 12.—"Jack" Bonner, the middle-weight pugilist from Summit, Pa., gained an easy victory over Dan Creedon, the Australian boxer, in the second round of their fight at the Greater New York Athletic Club to-night. Creedon was knocked down by a heavy right hand punch on the jaw, and in falling he twisted his right ankle. He was not knocked out by any means, but the blow he received was one to settle the boxing aspirations of any roadie who repeated around and tried to regain his feet while the referee was counting off the seconds, but his ankle was too badly injured for him to stand up straight and he fell again and was counted out. Had this not occurred the fight might have gone on for many rounds.

LONG SPEAKS OF NAVAL LEGISLATION

BOSTON, Sept. 12.—Before leaving for Washington to-day Secretary of the Navy Long was asked about a bill prepared by him concerning promotions in the navy. He said the bill relates to promotion without the consequent degradation of others. A second bill deals with the officers who have suffered in numbers and otherwise by promotions already made and aims so to provide that they shall receive the promotion which would have come to them at a certain time had no exceptional promotions been made.
