When He Won at Odds of 80 to 1.

MANASSAS ALSO A CRUSHER

ALGOL ALL THE WAY IN THE ORIENTAL HANDICAP.

Happenings on the Hawthorne and Newport Tracks—Borden, a California Colt, Wins at Corrigan's.

Special Dispatch to The Call.

NEW YORK, Sept. 17.—There was a notable day's racing at Gravesend, Killarney, and Manassas (as good as 20 to 1) the second event on the card. Manuel, with California Spencer up, took the third at the comfortable odds of 5 to 1, and then Algol, 4 to 1, with top weight, 126 pounds—won all the way in the Oriental handicap, run in 2:07 1/2. Satin Slipper, favorite, made every post a winning one in the fifth, in which there were sixteen starters, and Tantris, 4 to 1, beat a good field of jumpers in the last. His margin over old Manchester, a Californian, was but a head.

First race, high hurdle, six furlongs: Killarney, 114 (Clawson) 2; Charcuterie, 112 (Hagan) 3.

BRITTON'S DAY AT NEWPORT.

PUTS THREE WINNERS OVER THE FINISHING LINE.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 17.—Britton was in rare form to-day at the Newport track, riding Fantasy, Donation and Provolo to victory. On Donation a "killing" was made, he being played from 2 1/2 to 5 to win the third race, which he did very easily by three lengths. Ma Angeline, Fantasy and Donation were the winning favorites, then Firenze won at long odds, Provolo at a comfortable price and Odahle at pleasing figures. The track was still fast.

First race, selling, one mile: Ma Ang'ne, 100, Matthews 0 1 2 1 2 1 1 2; McCleary, 105, Shakeloff 2 0 0 0 0 2 3; Locally, 104, Swagers 0 0 0 0 0 0 0; Uncle Ab, 107, Hinkley 0 2 2 2 2 0 0; Bill Powell, 104, Hughes 1 1 0 0 0 0 0.

Time, 1:42 1/2. Won easily. Second and third driving. Ed Boyken 104, Flop 105 and Domsie 108 also ran. Sausalito odds—6 to 5, 10 to 1 and 5 to 1.

Second race, purse, five furlongs: Fantasy, 105 (Britton) 1; George, 112 (Gutterer) 2; Fanny H., 109 (Gutterer) 3.

Third race, selling, one and a quarter miles: Donation, 104, Britton 2 2 2 2 3 1 3; Kathie May, 112, Gleason 0 0 0 0 0 0 0; Barus, 94, Shakeloff 0 0 0 0 0 0 0; R. Choice, 103, Van Dusen 1 1 1 1 1 1 1.

GRAPE-NUTS.

CRISP FOOD.

Or Hot Mush, A Question.

The president of the American Fine Art Company of Milwaukee, a German, commenting on the likes of his countrymen in food, states that many do not care for mush or soft cereal food for breakfast. He says the crisp character and delicate sweet of Grape-Nuts have charmed him so that he and his family use them regularly.

No cooking is required and if one wants a hot mush, it can be instantly prepared by pouring hot milk on Grape-Nuts.

No form of nourishment known is like Grape-Nuts and the quick feeling of being "well fed" is one of the pleasures in their use.

Grocers sell them and they are made by the Postum Co., at Battle Creek, Mich.

STATE FAIR RACE MEETING CLOSED

Three Well-Backed Favorites Win Purses.

MONTANA HORSES ARE FLEET

GRADY, WILLIAM O'B AND TOM SMITH VICTORIOUS.

Now the Two Weeks' Meeting of the California Jockey Club Begins, With Every Prospect of Success.

Special Dispatch to The Call.

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 17.—The very successful race meeting of the California State Fair drew to a close to-day with a large crowd in attendance, which fumed and steamed and sweated in the oppressive heat, but withal were goodnatured and contented with everything but the disgusting prices laid by the short-horn bunko men doing business in the ring under the guise of bookmakers. The machinations of this clique have proved a dampener to the sport from the outset, and the methods adopted by them would indicate that they were ordained by nature to sell red lemons to the poor Indians or deal "brace fero."

Three well-backed favorites snatched purses, and three heavily played ones let the crowd down with a thud. The horses lately returned from Montana demonstrated that the ozone from that section of the country is beneficial to the racer. This was noticeably the case with Grady, William O'B and Tom Smith, all handy winners.

The feature of the card was the Favorite stake, a handicap over one and a quarter miles, which was captured by Grady, with "Jody" Piggett in the saddle. There were but four starters, and the odds against the Three Cheers horse were hammered down from 3 to 2 to even.

Over the other starters Cromwell and Marplot were most in demand. It proved something of a cakewalk for the favorite. Headed at one stage of the journey by Marplot, with Hal Brown up, Piggett assumed the lead again with his mount in the stretch and won galloping in 2:08 1/2. Marplot took the place without difficulty from Wheel of Fortune.

The scarcity of starters was noticeable in the opening event for two-year-olds, but four facing the barrier. Napien, with young Houck in the saddle, ruling a strong second choice, made all the running and driving hard at the end beat the favorite, Nilgar, out half a length. Favorham was a close third.

Another quartette galloped to the post in the six and a half furlong sprint, decided under selling conditions. Backed off the boards, Lochness was pounds the best of a bad lot.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 17.—Baltimore kept up its winning streak by defeating T. C. W. Wanderers this afternoon. The game was anybody's up to the eighth inning, when McCann drove out a home run when the bases were full. Attendance 3000. Score: Clubs—W. L. P. C. Baltimore 44 65 10 10 Philadelphia 21 61 50 10

NEW YORK, Sept. 17.—The Giants won their eighth game of the season by defeating the Brooklyn Dodgers 4 to 2 at the Polo Grounds. Attendance 10,000. Score: Clubs—W. L. P. C. New York 44 65 10 10 Brooklyn 21 61 50 10

NEW YORK, Sept. 17.—The best that Pittsburgh could get in the double header to-day was to the Brooklyn in the second game. Dunn was too much for the Pirates in the first, and narrowly escaped a shutout. Ruess was hit hard during the early stages. Bill Clark saved the second game for the Pirates by making two three-baggers with the bases full. Score first game: Clubs—W. L. P. C. Pittsburgh 44 65 10 10 Brooklyn 21 61 50 10

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 17.—Cincinnati defeated Philadelphia to-day in a hard-fought game. The Quakers were the game in the ninth by a batter's streak. In the sixth pitcher Dwyer was hit on the head by a ball from Orth's bat and was rendered unconscious. He was taken to a near-by hospital, where it was found he had a slight concussion of the brain. He is doing well tonight and probably will leave the hospital to-morrow. Attendance 4000. Score: Clubs—W. L. P. C. Cincinnati 44 65 10 10 Philadelphia 21 61 50 10

BOSTON, Sept. 17.—The Champions dropped a game to Louisville to-day through inability to hit Cunningham at the right time. The visitors also fielded in the sharpest style. Attendance 3000. Score: Clubs—W. L. P. C. Boston 44 65 10 10 Louisville 21 61 50 10
