YEARS OF SUFFERING FROM NASAL CATARRH BROUGHT TO AN END.

"My miseries are over now," said E. R. Ormsby of 424 Leavenworth street. "The horrible catarrh of the head, nose and throat that I suffered with for 5 years was all cured up by the treatment they gave me at the Fleckenstein Medical Institute. But before that I had undergone misery enough for a life time. My nostrils were closed, my throat was always in a state of feverish soreness and besides the incessant hawking and spitting and the constant use of the handkerchief I suffered greatly from catarrhal headache. When at the office I would disgust customers with my constant endeavor to clear my nose and throat, and when at dinner would often have to leave the table to spit out the corruption which was constantly dropping down into my throat. But Dr. Fleckenstein cured me and that ended the whole trouble.

ROUGH GOING FOR THE SHORT PRICED ONES

Napamax Took the Burlingame.

FOUR FAVORITES DEFEATED

VELOZ WON THE DISTANCE EVENT IN A GALLOP.

Lost Girl Finished in Front of Her Field at Odds of 20 to 1—Horton a Rare Good Colt—Etta H Beats Captive.

The customary Saturday crowd of racegoers filled the betting ring and grand stand at Oakland, and were treated to some splendid sport, replete with surprises.

NAPAMAX WINNING THE BURLINGAME STAKES.

Had Napamax not taken the Burlingame stake the favorites would have been whitewashed. Lost Girl's win of the opening event at odds of 20 to 1 was the most unexpected of the afternoon.

By many the victory of Napamax for the stake was considered a very lucky one. Charley Thorne had betted down to the weight (105 pounds), and the Burns & Waterhouse filly was sent to the post a 7 to 10 favorite. The game Morinel was by no means neglected, especially as Beauchamp was to replace Carrigan in the saddle. The fates were against her.

Sent away to a good start, there was some bumping at the first turn, which did not help either Espionage or Morinel. Napamax and the latter quickly showed in front, but when Beauchamp perceived Piggot on Rubicon, making for the lead he took his mount back to third place.

Rubin showed first as the turn for home was rounded, but there gave way to the favorite. Morinel was at this point fully five lengths behind the leader. Beauchamp now began urging his mount, and compelled to sit on a sliding seat the last part, he was beaten out a long neck in J. H. Hat.

Rainier, roughly ridden by McCarthy, was a close third. Espionage showed to no advantage any part.

Everything went wrong in the opening event, a seven furlong run decided under selling conditions. San Venado, the favorite never looked a winner, getting away from the post poorly, and when Peixotto, carrying the light, started to have the race up his sleeve, Bullman came along with Lost Girl, an outsider, effects of the gas, payment was postponed a few days. A few days later another bill for $500 was sent in, presumably by Dr. Schumat. Marks talked the matter over with his daughter, he alleges, and she advised him to transfer his property to her. This he did, and now Marks is confident that his daughter entered into a fraudulent conspiracy with Thompson to deprive him of his property, and he asks the court to cancel the deeds he executed in favor of Mrs. McPherson.

Catarrh Can Be Cured.

Catarrh is a kind of inflammation, long continued, incurable, and yet there is one remedy that will positively cure catarrh in any of its stages. For many years this remedy was used by the late Dr. Stevens, a widely noted authority on all diseases of the throat and lungs. Having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, and desiring to relieve human suffering, I will send free of charge to all sufferers, catarrh, asthma, consumption and nervous diseases this recipe, in German, French or English, with full directions for preparing and using. and won cleverly by a length. The first choice was beaten four lengths for the place by Peixotto.

In the 2-year-old sprint over six furlongs, the fast colt Horton showed some of his real form. Midlove was played for a "moral," but a tedious delay at the post did not help the favorite filly's chances, and she finished third. Horton, piloted by Rutter, overhauled Almoner in the stretch, and at the wire won with something to spare. Limewater came with a fine burst of speed, leading the first choice out for the place. The ring laid as good as 18 to 5 against the winner.

The mile and three furlong selling run was only a gallop for Veloz, excellently ridden by Ivy Powell. The long striding gelding was as good as 5 to 1 in the betting and won at his ease from the favorite, Red Glenn. Don Luis, the second choice, had little speed, but finally managed to get the show.

Aided by getting the best of a poor sendoff in the concluding race of the day, a six furlong high-weight handicap, Etta H at odds of 6 to 1 made all the running and ridden out at the wire downed Captive half a length. The topheavy favorite Headwater was fourth, behind Elizabeth H.

HE ALLEGES A CONSPIRACY.

Frederick Marks Sues His Daughter to Recover Valuable Real Estate. Frederick Marks, a retired merchant, residing at 2612 Sutter street, has filed suit against his daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth McPherson, to recover possession of property valued at $700, which he claims she secured from him by entering into a conspiracy with that object in view with one Henry Thompson.

On September 9 Marks narrowly escaped asphyxiation in his home by inhaling illuminating gas. When found by his family he was unconscious. Dr. Schulz was hurriedly summoned and Marks' life was saved. A few days later the physician presented Marks with a bill for $50, but, as Marks was still ill from the Struck by a Street Car.

STOCKTON, Nov. 12.—John Shoemaker, an old man, was struck by street car No. 12, F. Neely, motorman, to-day, receiving injuries which may prove fatal. Shoemaker was on a bicycle at the time. The car was coming west and a carriage just north of the car was moving in the same direction. Shoemaker tried to go between the car and the bicycle and his scheme will eventually be realized, and he has frequently reverted to it during his trip. In his dispatch to the Grand Duke of Baden his Majesty went to the extent of speaking of the Evangelical Church of the country, which really has no existence.

Roasted to Death.

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 12.—Joseph Boyle, an eccentric character about the city, met a horrible death this morning. He was roasted to death in a room in the St. Charles Hotel on Main street. Boyle had been to a restaurant and eaten breakfast and had returned to his room before daylight. He carried a lamp in his hand and must have been overcome by a fainting spell. The room was discovered in flames and an alarm was turned in. A chemical engine quickly extinguished the fire, but the body of Boyle was found in a corner, horribly burned.
