

COMBINATION OF OPINIONS.

United States Senator."—GEORGE W. McCABE.
 "Burns is not my man."—ALBERT NELSON.
 "I would prefer some good Republican leader."—C. T. GREENFIELD.
 "My preference for United States Senator is Thomas R. Bard of Ventura."—JOHN W. HOLENBECK.
 "I would prefer some one else than Burns; if possible Knight."—C. W. WILCOX.
 "I have advocated the claims of Thomas R. Bard of Ventura for Senator."—BENJAMIN BROOKS.

NOT A MAN FAVORS BURNS IN PLACER COUNTY

AUBURN, Jan. 7.—F. M. MILLIKAN, publisher Placer County Republican.—Am unalterably opposed to any such man as Dan Burns. Any good Republican will suit me. Think Republicans generally in this county prefer Barnes. Scott would also be acceptable.
 F. A. STUART, publisher Placer County Leader.—Am not in favor of Burns by any means, and have yet to hear of a Placer County Republican who is favorable to him. My preference is Barnes.
 RICHARDSON.—My preference is Barnes. Don't think people here favor Burns.
 W. HOLLENBECK.—"Anybody but Burns. Grant is my choice."
 W. I. MAY.—"Barnes, not Burns."
 JOHN CHISHOLM.—"Barnes, but anybody but Burns."
 W. C. MORROW.—"Don't want Burns under any circumstances. Think Scott a good man."
 J. H. LINDSAY.—"Burns would be a blot forever on the party."
 F. TUTTLE.—"Any good Republican. Think Burns has been lied about and grossly misrepresented."
 PROFESSOR MACKAY.—"Were I in the Legislature I should certainly give my vote to Morris M. Este. Don't want Burns. Would be satisfied with Patterson or Morrow or Scott."

BURNS' OPPONENTS WILL MAKE A ROLL OF HONOR

MADERA, Jan. 7.—"There is certainly no man in the Legislature who is sticking to the election of Dan Burns to the United States Senate to represent the State of California."—R. R. PRECIADO, merchant.
 "I am strongly against the election by the Legislature of Dan Burns as a Senator. Am quite sure that if we were left to a vote of the people he would stand no show whatever."—O. T. REDFIELD, attorney.
 "In regard to the election of a Senator, I should say let us have any man but Dan Burns."—W. A. MOORE, merchant.
 "Under no circumstances can I believe that the Legislature of this State will so stupidly itself as to elect Dan Burns United States Senator."—E. E. VINCENT, chairman Republican County Central Committee.
 "I think the present Legislature is composed of men that will fight all that Colonel Dan Burns stands for in public life."—W. C. TIGHE, merchant.
 "When the vote is taken in the Legislature on United States Senator I am confident that the members of the Legislature will range themselves on the side of reputable citizens and not vote for Dan Burns."—FRED BARBER, contractor.
 "The election of a United States Senator with a criminal record like that of Dan Burns would be a disgrace to our State."—JOHN W. DEAR, carpenter.
 "I have nothing to say personally against Dan Burns, but should our Assemblyman vote for him I am very sure that he would not again receive the vote of this community."—R. A. BAY, jeweler.
 "I believe that the members of the Legislature who will elect Dan Burns as Senator will constitute a roll of honor that will hereafter constitute a part of the history of this State."—W. G. WILSON, merchant.
 "Any candidate thus far mentioned for United States Senator is far preferable to Dan Burns."—J. H. QUANT, vinedresser.
 "Under no circumstances or conditions do I favor the election of Dan Burns as United States Senator."—E. E. WILCOX, County Auditor.
 "I do not favor the candidacy of Dan Burns for Senator from this State, and I sincerely hope the Legislature will have the good sense to turn him down."—B. W. CHILD, attorney.
 "NOT BURNS AT ANY PRICE" IS THE VOICE OF LOS GATOS
 LOS GATOS, Jan. 6.—"I prefer Barnes, but not Burns at any price."—ISAAC WRIGHT.
 "I prefer Colonel Dan Burns, and think M. H. de Young preferable to all else."—R. F. ROBERTSON.
 "General Barnes is my choice."—J. W. RIDDLE.
 "Any one of the five candidates mentioned presents a more honorable man than general Barnes my first choice."—G. A. BUTLER.
 "I am not in favor of Dan Burns for Senator."—JAMES J. STANFIELD.
 "I prefer some one else to Dan Burns for Senator."—F. E. WATKINS.
 "What we want is a man of unquestionable character."—JOHN C. MILES.
 "BURNS IS NOT A FIT MAN" SAY GILROY REPUBLICANS
 GILROY, Jan. 6.—Hon. J. C. Zuck, ex-consul to China, is in favor of M. M. Este. S. W. Kroesen, City Clerk, favors Dan Burns. City Marshal McElroy does not want Burns, prefers Barnes. City Treasurer Hecker ditto.
 D. C. RIDDLE.—"I would regard the election of Dan Burns to the United States Senate as a disgrace to the State. Irving M. Scott is my choice."
 J. J. DORLAND.—"No Burns for me. General Barnes is my choice."
 RODNEY ECHENBURG.—"Burns is not a fit man and should not be considered. Barnes is my choice."
 ROBINSON.—"I am assuredly against Burns. Grant first on account of being from the south. Barnes second choice."

from this county who votes for him could ever be re-elected.
 J. M. HUNTER, secretary of Board of Trade.—Burns is the epitome of corruption in politics, representing an element which every good citizen should oppose regardless of party. If guilty of half the charges against him he is unworthy of the position. My first choice is Bulla, but the woods are full of other good Republicans.
 SOLOMON JEWETT, president Kern Valley Bank.—My objection to Burns is his associations. We don't want him. I prefer Barnes.
 W. H. SCRIBNER, capitalist and merchant.—If Burns is good enough to be entrusted to do work for the party, as has been the case in the past, he should be complimented. My choice is General Barnes.
 S. N. REED, secretary Republican County Central Committee.—California is a great big State and she needs a great big man for Senator. In my opinion that man is General Barnes.
 DR. S. F. SMITH, physician.—Don't want Burns under any consideration. Don't know the man, but don't think he is the right man. I want General Barnes.
 CHARLES MAUL, old G. A. R. man.—We don't want that blankety blank Burns. The idea of a scoundrel like him aspiring to go to the Senate. I like General Barnes, but Grant is my choice.
 C. H. FAIRCHILD, commercial agent of the Southern Pacific.—General Barnes over any other in the field.
 J. P. BENDER of Bender & Hewitt, abstractors.—Am not for Daniel Burns. His election would be a great detriment to the party and would be the cause of losing the State for McKinley two years hence. General Barnes is my choice.
 L. P. ST. CLAIR, president City Trustees.—

RATLIFF, member State Central Committee.
 "The most desirable and most available man for United States Senator is U. S. Grant."—T. H. THOMPSON.
 "I do not believe the best interests of the State or the Republican party would be subserved by the election of Burns. Were I a member of the Legislature I would support W. H. L. Barnes."—J. W. DAVIS.
 "Barnes is my choice."—J. B. BECKWITH.
 "I am for Barnes. Have no use for Burns."—D. F. J. REED.
 "I am for Barnes."—A. YOUNG.
 "Do not favor D. M. Burns. Am for Grant."—J. H. VANDEVER.
 "I am opposed to Burns. Favor Grant."—W. A. CLARK.
 "Barnes is my choice."—E. C. BEALS.
 "I am opposed to Burns. Favor Grant."—E. E. SCHONEMAN.

WATSONVILLE WANTS BURNS UNDER NO CIRCUMSTANCES

WATSONVILLE, Jan. 7.—"I do not want him under any circumstances."—W. SANBORN, Prominent Fruit Grower.
 "It is a disgrace to the State and a menace to the Republican party."—A. N. JUD, Prominent Fruit Grower.
 "Burns' record is such that he is a stench in the nostrils of the public."—E. F. WYCKOFF, President of the City Council.
 "I don't want him; prefer Grant."—GEORGE SEITZ, Proprietor of the Mansion House.
 "Burns' record ought to beat him. My choice is Grant."—

California in Congress."—H. M. RIER.
 "I, as a Republican, do not want Dan Burns for Senator."—WILLIAM VAN SANT.
 "Dan Burns should not represent California in the United States Senate."—ARTHUR BELLEVUE.
 "I do not think that Dan Burns is the right man for Senator."—OGLE.
 "I don't think Dan Burns should be Senator."—GEORGE STEINMILLER.

"SEND DAN BURNS TO JAIL" COMES FROM COLTON

COLTON, Jan. 7.—"I do not want to see Dan Burns elected for our next Legislature."—W. W. WILCOX.
 "We have had all we want of Dan Burns and his records, and hope never to hear of him as a possible candidate for Senator."—G. E. SLAUGHTER.
 "Any one but Dan Burns."—B. A. YOUNG.
 "I am unqualifiedly in favor of U. S. Grant for United States Senator."—G. L. HULL.
 "I would not favor Burns for Senator under any circumstances."—CHARLES MEDHURST.
 "I do not believe the Legislature will dare disgrace the State by sending Burns to the Senate."—S. F. BROOKS.
 "I am in favor of U. S. Grant instead of the Senate."—C. B. HAMILTON.
 "The election of Dan Burns to the United States Senate would be a public misfortune."—ARTHUR SMITH.
 "I favor sending Burns to Mexico."—THOMAS D. HAMILTON.
 "I consider the election of Dan Burns to the United States Senate would be a disgrace and an outrage to the State of California and a fatal blow to the Republican party of this State."—WILSON HAYS.

"OUR HEADS WILL HANG IN SHAME IF BURNS GETS IT"

POMONA, Jan. 4.—EX-STATE SENATOR S. N. ANDRUS.—"I favor Bulla for United States Senator and never Burns."
 L. T. BRADY, President Pomona National Bank.—"I am in favor first, last and all the time of the election of Bulla. The Republican party will be disrupted in California by the election of Burns."
 WALTER M. AYERS.—"We shall all hang our heads in shame at the election of Burns. I cannot believe our State legislators will deliberately disgrace the State by electing Burns."
 JOHN W. STRINGFIELD.—"Oh, horrors at the possible election of Burns. I should never have been born if I were in California if Defaulter Burns is elected."
 CITY ATTORNEY EDWARD FLEMING.—"I want any one of the United States Senatorial candidates but Horace Bulla. I do not want Burns. I think of the possibility of the election of Dan Burns."
 MAYOR C. P. PATTERSON.—"We all want Bulla and we shall all utterly regret in our party if Defaulter, Horseracer, Mexican Dan Burns is ever chosen Senator."
 ATTORNEY WILLIAM A. BELL.—"I want Bulla, and I don't believe there is a single Republican in Pomona who will be chagrined and discouraged if Dan Burns is made Senator."
 STATE COMMISSIONER BROUGHTON.—"Put me down for Bulla. I think of how blasted Republicanism in California would be if Dan Burns should be sent to sit where Webster, Clay, Seward and Sumner have sat."
 BANKER J. A. M. DOLE.—"I can scarcely conceive a greater calamity to our grand old party than the election of a Senatorial toad on Dan Burns of race, traitor, defaulter, and Mexican mine retainer for Burns. Bulla is my man."
 JUDGE E. W. BARN.—"Anybody but that man Burns. We will never dare look honest Democrats in the face if our representatives Sacramento give him the votes for Dan Burns. Bulla is my ideal for United States Senator."
 DR. E. W. HENNINGSON.—"Why, the idea of Burns for United States Senator is disgracefully preposterous. Wouldn't we Republicans be ashamed to have such a character as Dan Burns sit in the United States Senate for our great and glorious State?"
 Why the thought is sickening. I should blyman Huber and Senator Currier vote Pomona Valley."

"PEOPLE ARE UNIVERSALLY AGAINST DAN M. BURNS"

CHICO, Jan. 6.—BEN F. ALLEN.—"I am not in favor of the election of a man of Burns' character, and think it a disgrace to the party to forward a man of his type. If he had his just deserts he would be now in the State's Prison instead of trying for office."
 GEORGE MILLER.—"The Legislature does not dare elect a man like Burns. The members would not dare to return to their respective homes if they voted for him. The people are universally against his election, and I think the members will look to their constituents for advice before voting."
 DR. N. WATTS.—"It would be a disgrace for any party for its members to support Dan Burns with the record he carries. He might be a smart man and all that, but he is not honest, and none but honest men should be supported. There are many honorable men in the party who are worthy of the place who have lived honest and straight lives, and Dan Burns is not one of them. His record should receive the best office at the hands of a party which he has disgraced."
 "WILL QUIT REPUBLICAN PARTY IF BURNS IS SENATOR"
 RED BLUFF, Jan. 7.—"I will quit the Republican party when it will put in such a man as Burns for Senator."
 MAJOR E. H. WARD.
 "It will be an eternal disgrace to the fair faces of California to elect Burns to the United States Senate."—D. G. WESTLAKE.
 "The Republican party would be everlasting disgraced by electing Dan Burns as Senator."—SUPERVISOR A. O. WHITE.
 "Dan Burns is a very unfit man for Senator from this State."—D. G. WESTLAKE.
 "I am in favor of U. S. Grant for United States Senator."—ERKIN FLETCHER.
 "Burns for United States Senator? Never, especially when such men as General Barnes or Grant ask for the nomination."—HENRY JACKSON, Chairman Republican County Central Committee.
 "I am opposed to Dan Burns for various reasons. I think that he is not a representative citizen of California, and therefore would not represent any party. In my opinion, or the reputable citizens of the State, I favor U. S. Grant."—W. P. WILLIAM BIXBY, M. D.

"BURNS MUST BE BEATEN" SAYS SNOW-CLAD TRUCKEE

TRUCKEE, Jan. 7.—"My choice for United States Senator is decidedly Grant."—J. G. BOOTH.
 "My choice for United States Senator is Grant."—G. W. BRANT, M. D.
 "My preference for United States Senator is U. S. Grant. Any one to beat Burns."—D. J. WILLIAMS.
 "I am in favor of United States Senator Grant."—W. M. BURCKHALTER.
 "No one in California need suffer any anxiety about Burns being elected Senator."—R. F. RUTHERFORD.
 "Anything to beat Burns. Preference Barnes."—R. SPALDING.
 "Knight of Barnes will suit me."—JOSEPH MARZEN JR.

"TOO SMART AND NOT HONEST ENOUGH FOR SENATOR"

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 7.—"I am for Bulla for United States Senator first, last and all the time. I have no second choice."—F. P. FLINT, United States District Attorney.
 "I am for a Southern California man, and have paid very little attention to the subject at all."—JOHN DRAIN, Superintendent of Streets.
 "I am not stuck on Dan Burns for Senator. I think there are a whole lot of good men in California suitable for the place."—FRED EATON, Mayor.
 "If Dan Burns were as honest as he is smart he would make an ideal Senator. Should he be elected to the Senate it would be a grave mistake. I prefer to see a Southern California man elected."—W. H. RULE, Secretary Republican County Central Committee.
 "U. S. Grant is all right. I prefer to have a Southern California man, every time."—A. H. RULE, Secretary Republican County Central Committee.
 "U. S. Grant is my choice. I don't think Dan Burns is the man to represent the Republic party of this State."—F. R. WELLS, Deputy District Attorney.
 "I consider the election of Dan Burns to the United States Senatorship would be a blot on the fair name of our proud commonwealth and a step backward in our civilization."—H. L. BARNES first and U. S. Grant second. Do not care to speak of Burns. I consider Barnes one of the most brilliant men in the State. I know he would do what is right."—H. H. APPEL.
 "As between Grant, Burns and Bulla I am in favor of Grant. Burns has more ability than either of the other two. Grant would be my second choice."—WILLIAM F. JAMES.
 "I am for U. S. Grant as against Burns. The election of Burns would create a national scandal."—W. R. BACON.
 "I have just returned from Pomona. With every one with whom I have spoken in the past two weeks, and they number hundreds, the expression of opinion is that the election of Burns would be a blight upon the party. Grant is the second choice of all that have come under my notice."—H. G. TINSLEY.
 "I am in favor of a Southern California man."—GENERAL E. P. JOHNSON.
 "I favor Bulla for United States Senator, while U. S. Grant is my second choice. As to the effect of the election of Burns I can only say I am not a prophet nor the son of a prophet."—WALTER LINDLEY.
 "The Republican party of this county has endorsed Mr. Bulla for Senator and instructed our legislators to vote for a candidate from the south. Nothing should prejudice his candidacy. Do not think conditions have arisen to change this situation."—BRADNER W. LEE.
 "HIS REPUTATION IS TOO BAD" SAYS SANTA ROSA VOTERS
 SANTA ROSA, Jan. 6.—JAY WILLIAM HUDSON.—"Until the record of Colonel Burns has been thoroughly investigated and authoritatively given the public I can say nothing concerning him as a man, but with California's brilliant sons available with no stigma of scandal, with no reproach of political chicanery, with no sullied reputation, I reiterate with all my being against his representing me as a citizen in the United States Senate."
 C. A. WRIGHT, Stationer.—"I don't think a man of Burns' reputation should be elected to fill such an important office."

Western country, even to the candidacy of Dan Burns for United States Senator. I should ever after be ashamed that I am a citizen of this State if he could be successful. That would be the apotheosis of machine politics. I cannot believe it possible."—J. H. JANSSEN.
 "I am not in favor of Burns for Senator. It surely would be a great misfortune for this State if he is elected. In fact, it would be a calamity. The Republican party is disgusted with Burns ever since the State party refused to endorse him."—HENDERSON, President Humboldt County Bank.
 "The election of Dan Burns to the United States Senate would be an outrage, the like of which never was perpetrated on this State before. The men who would vote for him ought to be ostracized forever after."—C. G. STAFFORD.
 "As to the election of Dan Burns, I am utterly opposed to it and I believe that his election would be a disgrace to California. His reputation should defeat him."
 "The election of Burns would demoralize the Republic and ashamed that I am a citizen of this State if he could be successful. That would be the apotheosis of machine politics. I cannot believe it possible."—J. H. JANSSEN.
 "I am not in favor of Burns for Senator. It surely would be a great misfortune for this State if he is elected. In fact, it would be a calamity. The Republican party is disgusted with Burns ever since the State party refused to endorse him."—HENDERSON, President Humboldt County Bank.
 "The election of Dan Burns to the United States Senate would be an outrage, the like of which never was perpetrated on this State before. The men who would vote for him ought to be ostracized forever after."—C. G. STAFFORD.
 "As to the election of Dan Burns, I am utterly opposed to it and I believe that his election would be a disgrace to California. His reputation should defeat him."
 "The election of Burns would demoralize the Republic and ashamed that I am a citizen of this State if he could be successful. That would be the apotheosis of machine politics. I cannot believe it possible."—J. H. JANSSEN.
 "I am not in favor of Burns for Senator. It surely would be a great misfortune for this State if he is elected. In fact, it would be a calamity. The Republican party is disgusted with Burns ever since the State party refused to endorse him."—HENDERSON, President Humboldt County Bank.
 "The election of Dan Burns to the United States Senate would be an outrage, the like of which never was perpetrated on this State before. The men who would vote for him ought to be ostracized forever after."—C. G. STAFFORD.
 "As to the election of Dan Burns, I am utterly opposed to it and I believe that his election would be a disgrace to California. His reputation should defeat him."
 "The election of Burns would demoralize the Republic and ashamed that I am a citizen of this State if he could be successful. That would be the apotheosis of machine politics. I cannot believe it possible."—J. H. JANSSEN.
 "I am not in favor of Burns for Senator. It surely would be a great misfortune for this State if he is elected. In fact, it would be a calamity. The Republican party is disgusted with Burns ever since the State party refused to endorse him."—HENDERSON, President Humboldt County Bank.
 "The election of Dan Burns to the United States Senate would be an outrage, the like of which never was perpetrated on this State before. The men who would vote for him ought to be ostracized forever after."—C. G. STAFFORD.
 "As to the election of Dan Burns, I am utterly opposed to it and I believe that his election would be a disgrace to California. His reputation should defeat him."
 "The election of Burns would demoralize the Republic and ashamed that I am a citizen of this State if he could be successful. That would be the apotheosis of machine politics. I cannot believe it possible."—J. H. JANSSEN.
 "I am not in favor of Burns for Senator. It surely would be a great misfortune for this State if he is elected. In fact, it would be a calamity. The Republican party is disgusted with Burns ever since the State party refused to endorse him."—HENDERSON, President Humboldt County Bank.
 "The election of Dan Burns to the United States Senate would be an outrage, the like of which never was perpetrated on this State before. The men who would vote for him ought to be ostracized forever after."—C. G. STAFFORD.
 "As to the election of Dan Burns, I am utterly opposed to it and I believe that his election would be a disgrace to California. His reputation should defeat him."
 "The election of Burns would demoralize the Republic and ashamed that I am a citizen of this State if he could be successful. That would be the apotheosis of machine politics. I cannot believe it possible."—J. H. JANSSEN.
 "I am not in favor of Burns for Senator. It surely would be a great misfortune for this State if he is elected. In fact, it would be a calamity. The Republican party is disgusted with Burns ever since the State party refused to endorse him."—HENDERSON, President Humboldt County Bank.
 "The election of Dan Burns to the United States Senate would be an outrage, the like of which never was perpetrated on this State before. The men who would vote for him ought to be ostracized forever after."—C. G. STAFFORD.
 "As to the election of Dan Burns, I am utterly opposed to it and I believe that his election would be a disgrace to California. His reputation should defeat him."
 "The election of Burns would demoralize the Republic and ashamed that I am a citizen of this State if he could be successful. That would be the apotheosis of machine politics. I cannot believe it possible."—J. H. JANSSEN.
 "I am not in favor of Burns for Senator. It surely would be a great misfortune for this State if he is elected. In fact, it would be a calamity. The Republican party is disgusted with Burns ever since the State party refused to endorse him."—HENDERSON, President Humboldt County Bank.
 "The election of Dan Burns to the United States Senate would be an outrage, the like of which never was perpetrated on this State before. The men who would vote for him ought to be ostracized forever after."—C. G. STAFFORD.
 "As to the election of Dan Burns, I am utterly opposed to it and I believe that his election would be a disgrace to California. His reputation should defeat him."
 "The election of Burns would demoralize the Republic and ashamed that I am a citizen of this State if he could be successful. That would be the apotheosis of machine politics. I cannot believe it possible."—J. H. JANSSEN.
 "I am not in favor of Burns for Senator. It surely would be a great misfortune for this State if he is elected. In fact, it would be a calamity. The Republican party is disgusted with Burns ever since the State party refused to endorse him."—HENDERSON, President Humboldt County Bank.
 "The election of Dan Burns to the United States Senate would be an outrage, the like of which never was perpetrated on this State before. The men who would vote for him ought to be ostracized forever after."—C. G. STAFFORD.
 "As to the election of Dan Burns, I am utterly opposed to it and I believe that his election would be a disgrace to California. His reputation should defeat him."
 "The election of Burns would demoralize the Republic and ashamed that I am a citizen of this State if he could be successful. That would be the apotheosis of machine politics. I cannot believe it possible."—J. H. JANSSEN.
 "I am not in favor of Burns for Senator. It surely would be a great misfortune for this State if he is elected. In fact, it would be a calamity. The Republican party is disgusted with Burns ever since the State party refused to endorse him."—HENDERSON, President Humboldt County Bank.
 "The election of Dan Burns to the United States Senate would be an outrage, the like of which never was perpetrated on this State before. The men who would vote for him ought to be ostracized forever after."—C. G. STAFFORD.
 "As to the election of Dan Burns, I am utterly opposed to it and I believe that his election would be a disgrace to California. His reputation should defeat him."
 "The election of Burns would demoralize the Republic and ashamed that I am a citizen of this State if he could be successful. That would be the apotheosis of machine politics. I cannot believe it possible."—J. H. JANSSEN.
 "I am not in favor of Burns for Senator. It surely would be a great misfortune for this State if he is elected. In fact, it would be a calamity. The Republican party is disgusted with Burns ever since the State party refused to endorse him."—HENDERSON, President Humboldt County Bank.
 "The election of Dan Burns to the United States Senate would be an outrage, the like of which never was perpetrated on this State before. The men who would vote for him ought to be ostracized forever after."—C. G. STAFFORD.
 "As to the election of Dan Burns, I am utterly opposed to it and I believe that his election would be a disgrace to California. His reputation should defeat him."
 "The election of Burns would demoralize the Republic and ashamed that I am a citizen of this State if he could be successful. That would be the apotheosis of machine politics. I cannot believe it possible."—J. H. JANSSEN.
 "I am not in favor of Burns for Senator. It surely would be a great misfortune for this State if he is elected. In fact, it would be a calamity. The Republican party is disgusted with Burns ever since the State party refused to endorse him."—HENDERSON, President Humboldt County Bank.
 "The election of Dan Burns to the United States Senate would be an outrage, the like of which never was perpetrated on this State before. The men who would vote for him ought to be ostracized forever after."—C. G. STAFFORD.
 "As to the election of Dan Burns, I am utterly opposed to it and I believe that his election would be a disgrace to California. His reputation should defeat him."
 "The election of Burns would demoralize the Republic and ashamed that I am a citizen of this State if he could be successful. That would be the apotheosis of machine politics. I cannot believe it possible."—J. H. JANSSEN.
 "I am not in favor of Burns for Senator. It surely would be a great misfortune for this State if he is elected. In fact, it would be a calamity. The Republican party is disgusted with Burns ever since the State party refused to endorse him."—HENDERSON, President Humboldt County Bank.
 "The election of Dan Burns to the United States Senate would be an outrage, the like of which never was perpetrated on this State before. The men who would vote for him ought to be ostracized forever after."—C. G. STAFFORD.
 "As to the election of Dan Burns, I am utterly opposed to it and I believe that his election would be a disgrace to California. His reputation should defeat him."
 "The election of Burns would demoralize the Republic and ashamed that I am a citizen of this State if he could be successful. That would be the apotheosis of machine politics. I cannot believe it possible."—J. H. JANSSEN.
 "I am not in favor of Burns for Senator. It surely would be a great misfortune for this State if he is elected. In fact, it would be a calamity. The Republican party is disgusted with Burns ever since the State party refused to endorse him."—HENDERSON, President Humboldt County Bank.
 "The election of Dan Burns to the United States Senate would be an outrage, the like of which never was perpetrated on this State before. The men who would vote for him ought to be ostracized forever after."—C. G. STAFFORD.
 "As to the election of Dan Burns, I am utterly opposed to it and I believe that his election would be a disgrace to California. His reputation should defeat him."
 "The election of Burns would demoralize the Republic and ashamed that I am a citizen of this State if he could be successful. That would be the apotheosis of machine politics. I cannot believe it possible."—J. H. JANSSEN.
 "I am not in favor of Burns for Senator. It surely would be a great misfortune for this State if he is elected. In fact, it would be a calamity. The Republican party is disgusted with Burns ever since the State party refused to endorse him."—HENDERSON, President Humboldt County Bank.
 "The election of Dan Burns to the United States Senate would be an outrage, the like of which never was perpetrated on this State before. The men who would vote for him ought to be ostracized forever after."—C. G. STAFFORD.
 "As to the election of Dan Burns, I am utterly opposed to it and I believe that his election would be a disgrace to California. His reputation should defeat him."
 "The election of Burns would demoralize the Republic and ashamed that I am a citizen of this State if he could be successful. That would be the apotheosis of machine politics. I cannot believe it possible."—J. H. JANSSEN.
 "I am not in favor of Burns for Senator. It surely would be a great misfortune for this State if he is elected. In fact, it would be a calamity. The Republican party is disgusted with Burns ever since the State party refused to endorse him."—HENDERSON, President Humboldt County Bank.
 "The election of Dan Burns to the United States Senate would be an outrage, the like of which never was perpetrated on this State before. The men who would vote for him ought to be ostracized forever after."—C. G. STAFFORD.
 "As to the election of Dan Burns, I am utterly opposed to it and I believe that his election would be a disgrace to California. His reputation should defeat him."
 "The election of Burns would demoralize the Republic and ashamed that I am a citizen of this State if he could be successful. That would be the apotheosis of machine politics. I cannot believe it possible."—J. H. JANSSEN.
 "I am not in favor of Burns for Senator. It surely would be a great misfortune for this State if he is elected. In fact, it would be a calamity. The Republican party is disgusted with Burns ever since the State party refused to endorse him."—HENDERSON, President Humboldt County Bank.
 "The election of Dan Burns to the United States Senate would be an outrage, the like of which never was perpetrated on this State before. The men who would vote for him ought to be ostracized forever after."—C. G. STAFFORD.
 "As to the election of Dan Burns, I am utterly opposed to it and I believe that his election would be a disgrace to California. His reputation should defeat him."
 "The election of Burns would demoralize the Republic and ashamed that I am a citizen of this State if he could be successful. That would be the apotheosis of machine politics. I cannot believe it possible."—J. H. JANSSEN.
 "I am not in favor of Burns for Senator. It surely would be a great misfortune for this State if he is elected. In fact, it would be a calamity. The Republican party is disgusted with Burns ever since the State party refused to endorse him."—HENDERSON, President Humboldt County Bank.
 "The election of Dan Burns to the United States Senate would be an outrage, the like of which never was perpetrated on this State before. The men who would vote for him ought to be ostracized forever after."—C. G. STAFFORD.
 "As to the election of Dan Burns, I am utterly opposed to it and I believe that his election would be a disgrace to California. His reputation should defeat him."
 "The election of Burns would demoralize the Republic and ashamed that I am a citizen of this State if he could be successful. That would be the apotheosis of machine politics. I cannot believe it possible."—J. H. JANSSEN.
 "I am not in favor of Burns for Senator. It surely would be a great misfortune for this State if he is elected. In fact, it would be a calamity. The Republican party is disgusted with Burns ever since the State party refused to endorse him."—HENDERSON, President Humboldt County Bank.
 "The election of Dan Burns to the United States Senate would be an outrage, the like of which never was perpetrated on this State before. The men who would vote for him ought to be ostracized forever after."—C. G. STAFFORD.
 "As to the election of Dan Burns, I am utterly opposed to it and I believe that his election would be a disgrace to California. His reputation should defeat him."
 "The election of Burns would demoralize the Republic and ashamed that I am a citizen of this State if he could be successful. That would be the apotheosis of machine politics. I cannot believe it possible."—J. H. JANSSEN.
 "I am not in favor of Burns for Senator. It surely would be a great misfortune for this State if he is elected. In fact, it would be a calamity. The Republican party is disgusted with Burns ever since the State party refused to endorse him."—HENDERSON, President Humboldt County Bank.
 "The election of Dan Burns to the United States Senate would be an outrage, the like of which never was perpetrated on this State before. The men who would vote for him ought to be ostracized forever after."—C. G. STAFFORD.
 "As to the election of Dan Burns, I am utterly opposed to it and I believe that his election would be a disgrace to California. His reputation should defeat him."
 "The election of Burns would demoralize the Republic and ashamed that I am a citizen of this State if he could be successful. That would be the apotheosis of machine politics. I cannot believe it possible."—J. H. JANSSEN.
 "I am not in favor of Burns for Senator. It surely would be a great misfortune for this State if he is elected. In fact, it would be a calamity. The Republican party is disgusted with Burns ever since the State party refused to endorse him."—HENDERSON, President Humboldt County Bank.
 "The election of Dan Burns to the United States Senate would be an outrage, the like of which never was perpetrated on this State before. The men who would vote for him ought to be ostracized forever after."—C. G. STAFFORD.
 "As to the election of Dan Burns, I am utterly opposed to it and I believe that his election would be a disgrace to California. His reputation should defeat him."
 "The election of Burns would demoralize the Republic and ashamed that I am a citizen of this State if he could be successful. That would be the apotheosis of machine politics. I cannot believe it possible."—J. H. JANSSEN.
 "I am not in favor of Burns for Senator. It surely would be a great misfortune for this State if he is elected. In fact, it would be a calamity. The Republican party is disgusted with Burns ever since the State party refused to endorse him."—HENDERSON, President Humboldt County Bank.
 "The election of Dan Burns to the United States Senate would be an outrage, the like of which never was perpetrated on this State before. The men who would vote for him ought to be ostracized forever after."—C. G. STAFFORD.
 "As to the election of Dan Burns, I am utterly opposed to it and I believe that his election would be a disgrace to California. His reputation should defeat him."
 "The election of Burns would demoralize the Republic and ashamed that I am a citizen of this State if he could be successful. That would be the apotheosis of machine politics. I cannot believe it possible."—J. H. JANSSEN.
 "I am not in favor of Burns for Senator. It surely would be a great misfortune for this State if he is elected. In fact, it would be a calamity. The Republican party is disgusted with Burns ever since the State party refused to endorse him."—HENDERSON, President Humboldt County Bank.
 "The election of Dan Burns to the United States Senate would be an outrage, the like of which never was perpetrated on this State before. The men who would vote for him ought to be ostracized forever after."—C. G. STAFFORD.
 "As to the election of Dan Burns, I am utterly opposed to it and I believe that his election would be a disgrace to California. His reputation should defeat him."
 "The election of Burns would demoralize the Republic and ashamed that I am a citizen of this State if he could be successful. That would be the apotheosis of machine politics. I cannot believe it possible."—J. H. JANSSEN.
 "I am not in favor of Burns for Senator. It surely would be a great misfortune for this State if he is elected. In fact, it would be a calamity. The Republican party is disgusted with Burns ever since the State party refused to endorse him."—HENDERSON, President Humboldt County Bank.
 "The election of Dan Burns to the United States Senate would be an outrage, the like of which never was perpetrated on this State before. The men who would vote for him ought to be ostracized forever after."—C. G. STAFFORD.
 "As to the election of Dan Burns, I am utterly opposed to it and I believe that his election would be a disgrace to California. His reputation should defeat him."
 "The election of Burns would demoralize the Republic and ashamed that I am a citizen of this State if he could be successful. That would be the apotheosis of machine politics. I cannot believe it possible."—J. H. JANSSEN.
 "I am not in favor of Burns for Senator. It surely would be a great misfortune for this State if he is elected. In fact, it would be a calamity. The Republican party is disgusted with Burns ever since the State party refused to endorse him."—HENDERSON, President Humboldt County Bank.
 "The election of Dan Burns to the United States Senate would be an outrage, the like of which never was perpetrated on this State before. The men who would vote for him ought to be ostracized forever after."—C. G. STAFFORD.
 "As to the election of Dan Burns, I am utterly opposed to it and I believe that his election would be a disgrace to California. His reputation should defeat him."
 "The election of Burns would demoralize the Republic and ashamed that I am a citizen of this State if he could be successful. That would be the apotheosis of machine politics. I cannot believe it possible."—J. H. JANSSEN.
 "I am not in favor of Burns for Senator. It surely would be a great misfortune for this State if he is elected. In fact, it would be a calamity. The Republican party is disgusted with Burns ever since the State party refused to endorse him."—HENDERSON, President Humboldt County Bank.
 "The election of Dan Burns to the United States Senate would be an outrage, the like of which never was perpetrated on this State before. The men who would vote for him ought to be ostracized forever after."—C. G. STAFFORD.
 "As to the election of Dan Burns, I am utterly opposed to it and I believe that his election would be a disgrace to California. His reputation should defeat him."
 "The election of Burns would demoralize the Republic and ashamed that I am a citizen of this State if he could be successful. That would be the apotheosis of machine politics. I cannot believe it possible."—J. H. JANSSEN.
 "I am not in favor of Burns for Senator. It surely would be a great misfortune for this State if he is elected. In fact, it would be a calamity. The Republican party is disgusted with Burns ever since the State party refused to endorse him."—HENDERSON, President Humboldt County Bank.
 "The election of Dan Burns to the United States Senate would be an outrage, the like of which never was perpetrated on this State before. The men who would vote for him ought to be ostracized forever after."—C. G. STAFFORD.
 "As to the election of Dan Burns, I am utterly opposed to it and I believe that his election would be a disgrace to California. His reputation should defeat him."
 "The election of Burns would demoralize the Republic and ashamed that I am a citizen of this State if he could be successful. That would be the apotheosis of machine politics. I cannot believe it possible."—J. H. JANSSEN.
 "I am not in favor of Burns for Senator. It surely would be a great misfortune for this State if he is elected. In fact, it would be a calamity. The Republican party is disgusted with Burns ever since the State party refused to endorse him."—HENDERSON, President Humboldt County Bank.
 "The election of Dan Burns to the United States Senate would be an outrage, the like of which never was perpetrated on this State before. The men who would vote for him ought to be ostracized forever after."—C. G. STAFFORD.
 "As to the election of Dan Burns, I am utterly opposed to it and I believe that his election would be a disgrace to California. His reputation should defeat him."
 "The election of Burns would demoralize the Republic and ashamed that I am a citizen of this State if he could be successful. That would be the apotheosis of machine politics. I cannot believe it possible."—J. H. JANSSEN.
 "I am not in favor of Burns for Senator. It surely would be a great misfortune for this State if he is elected. In fact, it would be a calamity. The Republican party is disgusted with Burns ever since the State party refused to endorse him."—HENDERSON, President Humboldt County Bank.
 "The election of Dan Burns to the United States Senate would be an outrage, the like of which never was perpetrated on this State before. The men who would vote for him ought to be ostracized forever after."—C. G. STAFFORD.
 "As to the election of Dan Burns, I am utterly opposed to it and I believe that his election would be a disgrace to California. His reputation should defeat him."
 "The election of Burns would demoralize the Republic and ashamed that I am a citizen of this State if he could be successful. That would be the apotheosis of machine politics. I cannot believe it possible."—J. H. JANSSEN.
 "I am not in favor of Burns for Senator. It surely would be a great misfortune for this State if he is elected. In fact, it would be a calamity. The Republican party is disgusted with Burns ever since the State party refused to endorse him."—HENDERSON, President Humboldt County Bank.
 "The election of Dan Burns to the United States Senate would be an outrage, the like of which never was perpetrated on this State before. The men who would vote for him ought to be ostracized forever after."—C. G. STAFFORD.
 "As to the election of Dan Burns, I am utterly opposed to it and I believe that his election would be a disgrace to California. His reputation should defeat him."
 "The election of Burns would demoralize the Republic and ashamed that I am a citizen of this State if he could be successful. That would be the apotheosis of machine politics. I cannot believe it possible."—J. H. JANSSEN.
 "I am not in favor of Burns for Senator. It surely would be a great misfortune for this State if he is elected. In fact, it would be a calamity. The Republican party is disgusted with Burns ever since the State party refused to endorse him."—HENDERSON, President Humboldt County Bank.
 "The election of Dan Burns to the United States Senate would be an outrage, the like of which never was perpetrated on this State before. The men who would vote for him ought to be ostracized forever after."—C. G. STAFFORD.
 "As to the election of Dan Burns, I am utterly opposed to it and I believe that his election would be a disgrace to