

GREEN WILL ENLIGHTEN THE ASSEMBLYMEN

Grant's Shy Manager May Want Another Day's Delay.

COGENT REASONS FOR BEING ABSOLVED

Political Sports Are Laying Odds on the Outcome of the Matter With the Man With the Sack a Strong Favorite in the Betting.

CALL HEADQUARTERS, SACRAMENTO, Feb. 6.—Milton J. Green has promised to do one of two things. He will either appear before the bar of the Assembly to-morrow to be punished for attempting to not answering the questions...

RESPIRE GRANTED TO NEWSPAPERMEN

Morehouse Will Again Have to Plead for Gore in the Senate.

CALL HEADQUARTERS, SACRAMENTO, Feb. 6.—"The forty-year-old reputation of Senator Morehouse must not be torn from him," declared the Senator from Santa Clara himself at the top of his voice and to the extent of an hour before the Judiciary Committee of the Senate this evening.

Those who pretend to know say that Green is merely sparring for time in order to allow the Grant men to bring forth the strength they boast of having in reserve, but which cannot be used until the end of the week.

The committee of investigation may be dissolved by action of the Assembly, but nevertheless there is a strong sentiment in the Legislature against bribery in any form.

Indignant denials come from E. A. McInley and Judge W. McKimley as to the story wired from this city to the effect that Bulla had no chance of being chosen Senator.

SENATE BILLS THAT WENT IN YESTERDAY

CALL HEADQUARTERS, SACRAMENTO, Feb. 6.—Bills were introduced as follows to-day: By Morehouse—To compel Supervisors of every county or municipality to provide in their jails or police stations special rooms for the detention of juvenile prisoners...

CALL HEADQUARTERS, SACRAMENTO, Feb. 6.—Assemblyman Stanford of Mendocino introduced by request in the Assembly this morning a bill which provides that no nepotism shall enter into the Board of School Trustees shall enter into...

any contract, express or implied, whereby any school moneys shall be directly or indirectly made payable to any member or members of the board or any one related to any member thereof...

FIGHTING AGAINST CITY CEMETERIES

CALL HEADQUARTERS, SACRAMENTO, Feb. 6.—The fight that the residents of the Richmond district and Western Addition have been waging before the Board of Supervisors against the San Francisco cemeteries has been transferred to the Legislature.

A Leper Settlement.

CALL HEADQUARTERS, SACRAMENTO, Feb. 6.—The consideration in the Senate of Assembly joint resolution No. 5, providing for the establishment upon Mokola of a leper hospital for lepers of this State brought Senator Shortridge to his feet with a protest against such official recognition of lepers in this country.

NO MONEY FOR THE MISSES SMITH NOW

CALL HEADQUARTERS, SACRAMENTO, Feb. 6.—Grove L. Johnson, the Assemblyman from Sacramento, was before the Assembly Committee on Ways and Means to-night to urge favorable recommendation for Assembly bill 573, in which it is said he is personally and financially interested.

Assembly bill 573 is designed to make a clean gift of $10,000, or as much that amount as does not find its way to Johnson's pockets as attorney's fees past and future, to Violet Evelyn and Ida Bernice Smith, survivors of Ida Morrell Smith.

Some Senatorial Incidents.

CALL HEADQUARTERS, SACRAMENTO, Feb. 6.—The following Senators were appointed to serve on committees in the places made vacant by the death of Senator John Boggs: Banks and Banking, Ashie, Forestry and Game, Finance, Doty, Labor and Capital, Hall, State Prisons, Hall.

SENATOR SHORTRIDGE FAVORS A CAUCUS.

An isolated island was the proper place for them, and if not then the resolution would not apply to any one.

Hungry Ones Must Wait.

CALL HEADQUARTERS, SACRAMENTO, Feb. 6.—Senator Cutter had a resolution that brought joy to the hearts of the hungry employes who worked so hard for the State until the Belshaw act left them out in the cold world.

Muenter's Bank Tax Bill.

CALL HEADQUARTERS, SACRAMENTO, Feb. 6.—Assemblyman Muenter of San Joaquin has a bill coming up before the Senate Committee on Judiciary within a very few days that is already attracting the attention of stockholders in the national banks of this State and upon which there bids fair to be centered much heat before it is finally passed by the Senate.

The Assembly was introduced two years ago, but was so bitterly opposed by two members of the Judiciary Committee, who were attorneys for national banks, that it failed of committee recommendation and final passage.

CHARLEY SHORTRIDGE BREAKS THE MONOTONY

Santa Clara's Junior Senator Does a Little Work for Dan.

Murky Atmosphere of the Assembly Chamber Illuminated for a few Brief Minutes by Flashes of Lurid Oratory.

CALL HEADQUARTERS, SACRAMENTO, Feb. 6.—It remained for Charles M. Shortridge, the Senator from Santa Clara, to break in on the monotony that has characterized the Joint Senatorial ballot these three weeks. He did it this morning in a style that is essentially his own.

The Shortridge opportunity presented itself upon the completion of the first and last ballot of the day. With the light of a renewed intelligence illumining his ordinarily mobile features he rose from his seat in the left of the chamber.

"I want to say," continued Mr. Cutter, "that this conclusion is commendable, although it is two years late. I remember two years ago, when the gentleman had a brother a candidate for this position, he would go into caucus under no consideration, for he knew that if he did so the Republican party would throw a man out of the race the people of this State did not want, and I want to say that no man and no power under the canopy of heaven can force us into a caucus that would now elect another man from the United States Senate whom the people of this State do not want, either."

President Flint wound up the spectacular proceedings by putting Mr. Shortridge's resolution to a vote and a chorus of noes sent the Santa Clara man back to his seat.

There was no change in the ballot. It was the same as on Saturday and when Assemblyman Belshaw moved adjournment there was no opposition. The vote was as follows: BARNES 11 ESTEE 1 BULLA 1 BURNS 24 FELTON 1 GRANT 25 DE VRIES (D.) 1 BARD 1 ROBERTS (D.) 1 WHITE (D.) 29
