

INGLESIDE COURSE... Great Card... NORAH WON THE OPEN STAKE... DEFEATED SPEEDY MAUD 5 AFTER AN UNDECIDED.

Lowlander and Fox Kenny Chased a "Jack" for Over Five Minutes.

Metallic Victorious at Union Park.

T. J. McInerney's handsome black bitch Norah landed the open stake at Ingleside yesterday.

The sensational course between H. A. Deckelman's Fox Kenny and Lowe and Thompson's Lowlander caused intense excitement in the grandstand.

When the race ended the score stood 26 to 18 in favor of Fox Kenny.

CHANGES IN RELIGION.

Rev. R. Mackenzie Compares Old and New Methods of Reform.

Rev. R. Mackenzie of the First Presbyterian Church delivered the first of a series of lectures last night on the "Changes in the Protestant Religion."

"Fundamental changes have taken place in the Protestant religion in the past years," he said, "that have come by evolution."

There was plenty of rifle shooting at Shell Mound Park range yesterday.

There was a fair attendance of members of the Deutscher Krieger Verein at the regular monthly class medal shoot.

The Independent Rifles used the military musket and the Blunt target at their regular contests.
