

STAKED HIS LIFE ON A HORSE RACE AND LOST

One More Victim of Corrigan Touts Who Will Fill a Suicide's Grave.

Patrick McDermott Bet His Last Cent With Ingleside Gamblers, Then Sought Death.

THE gamblers of Ingleside have claimed another victim. The bookmakers have checked off another name in the game that they are playing against the honor and the lives of the people of this city.

McDermott was 70 years of age. He had seen much of the dark side of life and had battled against adversity with but little success. Misfortunes accumulated upon him, and about a month ago he found himself without employment and with but very little money with which to provide for his necessities.

McDermott went on Friday to Emeryville, where Corrigan, by the courtesy of his associate gamblers, is playing his trade. The touting tipsters of the bookmaker urged the old man to wager his money on a certain horse. The old fellow knew nothing of the game. He was a stranger to the tricks by which the agents of the gamblers fleece their victims.

CORRIGAN DERBY IS CAPTURED BY CORRIGAN'S HOSS

Once the California Derby.

POSTPONED TO SUIT CORSIANE

COLT WON AS THE "CZAR" HAD CALCULATED.

The Victor Received With Deathly Silence—Former and Survivor Were Counted—Olinthus' Poor Showing.

The California Derby, one of the swell stakes of the exiled Pacific Coast Jockey Club, was decided at Oakland yesterday, and turned out a decidedly frappe affair. When Corrigan's Corsine ridden by Piggett, returned to the stand winner his victory failed to evoke a single cheer or demonstration of any sort.

Shields, ran third, followed in by Lime-water and Los Medanos. Balista and Earl Islington were both pulled up. Five other events were decided, of which number the favorites won four. Jenkins, Thorpe and Piggett divided the saddle honors.

WRECKED HIS HOME WHILE DRINK-CRAZED

PATRICK J. O'NEIL CREATES HAVOC IN SHORT ORDER

Drives His Wife Out of the House and Then Demolishes Everything of Value.

Patrick J. O'Neil, a painter, went to his home at 219 Eureka street last evening in an inebriated condition and on being remonstrated with by his wife became furious and drove her from the house. While the latter was receiving the sympathy of her neighbors the liquor-crazed husband began to vent his ire on the furnishings in the house.

FAST SWIMMERS ENTERED.

Grand afternoon Aquatic Entertainment at Sutro Baths.

Some of the champion swimmers and divers of the State are entered for the contests which will be held Sunday afternoon in Sutro Baths. Lovers of aquatic sport can count upon seeing races that will certainly interest the most exacting admirer of swimming. The entries are as follows:

ON PRESIDIO LINKS.

On Tuesday morning the following eight young ladies entered the eighth-annual regular monthly competition for the Winslow medal, with handicap: Miss M. B. Houghton, scratch; Miss E. W. Morgan, 10; Miss McBean, 10; Miss Carolyn, 14; Miss Taylor, 14; Miss Crockett, 14; Miss T. Morgan, 18, and Miss G. Carolyn, 18.

Odd Fellows' District Meeting.

W. L. Owen, district deputy grand master, has arranged for a district meeting of the Odd Fellows of District No. 67, to be held on Thursday next in the hall of the Victoria Lodge. The following lodges will participate: Ophi No. 171, Unity No. 131, Farnsworth No. 35, Pacific No. 155, Golden West No. 32, and Alt No. 205. Golden West Lodge has elected Past Grandens E. J. Tryer, Horace V. Scott and W. A. E. Nicholson (re-elected) as its representatives to the Grand Lodge.

REGULARS WILL RELIEVE THE VOLUNTEERS

Three Transports to Sail This Week.

TROOPS ARE NOW COMING

TWENTY-FIRST INFANTRY TO ARRIVE TO-MORROW.

The Scandia and Arizona Renamed. They Will Sail for Manila as the Warren and Hancock.

Next week will see another fleet of soldier-laden transports steam out of the bay bound for Manila. They will carry regulars this time to relieve the volunteers on the other side from further duty in the field and suffering in the hospitals.

GRAPE-NUTS.

Tasted from "CURIOSITY"

What the Athlete ate.

A BACK BAY MOTHER

Tries the Food Her Athletic Son Uses.

"Will you kindly tell me if your Grape-Nuts food is fat producing?"

"I do not care for cereals. Bought Grape-Nuts for my son, who has broken down from over study and excess of athletics."

"The food has done him lots of good and out of curiosity I tasted it. Now I eat Grape-Nuts three times a day, and actually crave it. I never was so well in my life and lately have been undergoing great nerve and brain tax. But I am afraid Grape-Nuts will make me fat and rather than gain seven five pounds more of weight I will drop Grape-Nuts, much as I like them."

"Please advise."

"We refrain from giving the writer's name, but the above is a veritable reproduction of the letter of a Boston matron."

Our answer is that a person with an unnatural quantity of flesh will lose a portion of it, and the individual who lacks a proper amount of flesh will gain a proportion; in other words, an equilibrium will be set up, such as Nature intends, if the individual uses the proper quality and quantity of food, and we know of no more natural, energizing, brain and body building food than Postum Cereal Food Coffee and Grape-Nuts.

she will not be able to get away at that time, as the last three sections of the Twenty-first Infantry, which has been assigned to sail on her, will not arrive here from Plattsburg, N. Y., until late in the afternoon of the 15th inst.

The Warren is due to sail on the day following, the 18th, and eight batteries of the Sixth Artillery have been assigned to her as one battery of light artillery. The batteries of the Sixth left Richmond, Va., Friday morning.

The 20th has been seen the day of sailing for the Newport, which will carry two light batteries of artillery, and it is said that the 21st will be sent to the men on the other side. The Hancock and Warren were both put on the dock when they arrived here and their bottoms painted, and are now cooling and taking on quartermaster's supplies. The New York is also being fitted up and getting ready for her trip. All three ships are in splendid condition, and their officers look for a fair voyage.

No day has yet been set for the sailing of the transport Morgan City, and it is likely she will be sent to the other side of the rest of the transport fleet now on the way from the Philippines. Artillery and infantry are being hurried to the ship by the 15th inst. The Scandia will have taken on almost as much of a military aspect as when the volunteers were camped here waiting for orders to the front.

AROUND THE CORRIDORS

M. Mason, a business man of Portland, Or., will be at the Russ for a few days.

Edwin A. Sutter, a wholesale tobacconist of Chicago, is staying at the California Hotel.

Thomas Gundelfinger, a Fresno banker, is registered at the Lick with his wife and son.

D. D. Schenck, a merchant of Toledo, is at the Palace, accompanied by his wife and daughter.

Dr. George E. Davis has returned from the City of Mexico, where he has been for the past three weeks.

R. A. Borgess, who owns quicksilver mines at Sulphur Creek, is at the Occidental with his wife.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnell of Ventura are stopping at the Grand while spending a few days in San Francisco.

Miss Birdie Dray, daughter of ex-Senator Dray of Sacramento, has been visiting Mrs. J. J. Speaker of this city.

R. Cunningham, a mining man of Reno, Nev., and J. G. Taylor, a stock raiser of Lovelock, Nev., are guests at the Russ.

John H. Millner, a mine owner of Tucson, Ariz., and Dr. A. Morrison of Los Angeles are among the arrivals at the Grand.

Dr. William Martin, U. S. N. (retired), a well-known member of the Bohemian Club, has just returned from a two months' visit to Hermosillo, Mexico.

Congressman Frank G. Clark of New Hampshire has arrived in this city. Mr. Clark is a member of the Committees on Elections and Pacific Railroads, and is making a tour of this coast for pleasure and information.

Dr. William Martin of the Bohemian Club has returned after a two months' visit to Hermosillo, Mexico. Dr. Martin is a retired surgeon of the marine hospital service and an acknowledged authority on yellow fever.

Dr. P. J. Farrell, who was assistant surgeon of the First California Volunteers, arrived yesterday from the East, where he went several weeks ago, after coming from Manila. Dr. Farrell is of the opinion that the Filipino trouble will soon come to an end. General Lawton's tactics of getting through the country by throwing up firing columns, he thinks, will accomplish the desired result.

with vagrancy, was called in Judge Conlan's court yesterday. Secretary Wadhams of the Eureka Society, who had been asked for a dismissal, which was promptly ordered by the Judge. The question of the custody of Mrs. Aubrey's child will be argued before Judge Coffey to-morrow.

When Corrigan's Corsine ridden by Piggett, returned to the stand winner his victory failed to evoke a single cheer or demonstration of any sort. The attendance, too, was light, that is for Derby day, there being apparently no additions to the usual Saturday crowd. The race was set for and should have been decided just one month ago. At that time the Ingleside Association was engaged in a debate with the Supervisors, which fact was taken corrupt management. No general ever outlined his plan of battle better. Everything matured just about as the Corrigan confederacy had been decided. While Corsine was gradually receiving his "prep" those of the original nominations eligible were losing all semblance of true form. And yesterday the Corrigan colt was "cherry ripe" with virtually nothing to contest the prize with him.

EVERY DOG MAY HAVE HIS DAY

Only a Week More for Entries in the Big Bench Show at the Pavilion.

Never in the history of San Francisco dog shows have entries been made at such an early stage as for this show. Owners seem to have realized at last that the earlier they enter their dogs the better are the chances for a flawless catalogue. Inquiries at the office of the San Francisco Kennel Club at 238 Montgomery street have developed the fact that the number of entries made amounts to 325. With this unprecedented early entry the chances are more than favorable that this year will see about a thousand dogs on the bench of the Mechanics' Pavilion. A. M. Thomson, the clerk of the club, is punctuating the entries with the names of his corrugated brow, while general Harry Carlton the secretary wears an expansive smile and a bright garland.

Among the additional cups and trophies offered since the premium list was issued it is understood that George Crocker's and H. A. Wegman's annual gifts prominently, the American Mastiff Club has offered a long string for competition, including silver challenge cups, shields and medals. The unique feature of the show will be the parade of greyhounds in training on the penultimate night of the show. After the parade the hounds will line up before the judge for competition for three silver cups, one each for the best dog and bitch and one for the best puppy. These cups will cost $50 each. Such noted dogs as Fox Freedom, False Flatterer, Emin Pasha, Gladiator, Royal Flush and over a hundred others will figure in the parade and competition.

It should be distinctly understood that no pedigree is required to show your dog. A dog is judged in the ring—not what he is, not for the qualities or defects of his sire and dam. If your dog has no pedigree the American Kennel Club retires the annual payment of 25 cents for listing to entitle him to the privilege of exhibition under the rules of the club. For $1 a pedigreed dog can be registered, which gives to the animal the added value of a pedigree. The pedigree enables him to be shown during his lifetime without any further expense. Registrations can be made through the clerk of the San Francisco Kennel Club, which will act as agent for the owner.

Competition is rife among the different breeds. The American Club promises to bench 150 of the holy breed. Cocker spaniels and fox terriers will probably rank next. The Pacific Mastiff Club expects to show about twenty-seven watchdogs.

Advances made on furniture and pianos, with or without removal. J. Noonan, 1017-1023 Mission.

Had His Head Cut. Charles Flood, living at 462 Eddy street, while jumping off a car at Market street and Grant avenue last evening, fell and sustained an ugly scalp wound and an abrasion of the forehead. He was taken to the Receiving Hospital, where his injuries were dressed by Police Surgeon Weil.
