

FINLAND TO REJECT THE RUSSIAN BILL

Decides Not to Pass the Measure Prepared by Russian Government.

STAND AS A NATION

The Finns Are Loth to Bow to the Will and Pleasure of the Great White Czar.

STOCKHOLM, May 29.—According to a dispatch from Helsingfors, capital of Finland, published by the Aftenbladet, the Finnish Diet will virtually reject the Government army bill by adopting the bill recommended by the army committee, raising the strength of the army from 5000 to 15,000 men, and providing that as a condition of the service performed the Finnish army is to retain its national character and is only to be employed outside of Finland when the defense of Finland does not require it, and the Landwehr is only to be employed in Finland except in a case of emergency, when it may be used in defense of St. Petersburg.

GRAND DUKE VLADIMIR WILL GET COLD FROST

NEW YORK, May 29.—A cable to the Journal from St. Petersburg says: Grand Duke Vladimir has been ordered by the Czar to proceed to Finland on June 14 to report as to how the Finns receive the alterations in the constitution, and also to inspect the garrisons. The trip, it is expected, will take about a month, starting at Viborg and finishing at Uleaburg.

WILL RIVAL THE EXPRESS COMPANIES

Wide Scope of a Trust Formed by the General Carriage Company. NEW YORK, May 29.—When the General Carriage Company was formed with a modest capital under the laws of the State of New York it was supposed that it intended to operate simply in this and the regular session of the Legislature is to be used as the basis for a big trust, with a capital of $200,000,000, which is to extend its operations from one end of the country to the other, taking in all of the large cities, such as New York, Boston, Philadelphia, Chicago, St. Louis and San Francisco. At the start it was expected to be a terminal transfer company for the purpose of collecting and delivering freight and other merchandise in various parts of the country, but it is now expected to be a step further and undertake to relieve merchants and other shippers from the trouble of applying to various express companies, and to deliver goods as expeditiously as express companies do, but charging only freight rates for the service. The new trust will go a step further and undertake to relieve merchants and other shippers from the trouble of applying to various express companies, and to deliver goods as expeditiously as express companies do, but charging only freight rates for the service.

WALKS AFTER LOSING PART OF HIS BRAIN

Remarkable Vitality of an Aged Resident of Santa Barbara. SANTA BARBARA, May 29.—William Wood, 69 years of age, shot off the top of his head with a shotgun while seated on a bench on Ocean Drive. Wood showed wonderful nerve. With his skull fractured and the brain oozing out, he got into a carriage and was driven up town, where he walked two blocks to find a doctor. He then taken to the hospital before losing consciousness. It is not thought he can live. Wood said the "doing was accidental."

"DO YOU WANT DUNHAM?"

SAN JOSE, May 29.—The Sheriff is being deluged with letters and telegrams making inquiries about J. C. Dunham, murderer of the McGilley family at Campbell, and the chance for getting the $10,000 reward offered for the man's capture. If persistency counts for anything the murderer should be apprehended in time. The general belief here is that Dunham's bones are bleaching in the brush back of Mount Hamilton, where he was last seen. To-day Sheriff Langford received the following telegram from Lampasas, Texas: "Do you want J. C. Dunham? Let me know. RICE KING. King was informed immediately by wire that Mr. Dunham was wanted, and he further news has been received. This is but a sample of the telegrams and letters received."

FRASER RIVER RISING

VANCOUVER, B. C., May 29.—Fraser River is rising rapidly. Since Sunday night the rise at Mission City has been fourteen feet. From that point as far as Quenetta a similar rise is recorded. Settlers are becoming alarmed. Should warm weather set in within the next two weeks great damage will be done. Between Vancouver and Agassiz several meadows are inundated. The dikes at Coquitlan and near meadows are preventing an overflow from those points. Nothing has yet been heard from the delta, but it is believed the diking works there will be effective as well as those on Lulu Island. One of the great dike gates was left open, and water is running through in a torrent.

ADDITIONAL TROOPS NEEDED TO PACIFY THE PHILIPPINE INSURGENTS

Additional Troops Needed to Pacify the Philippine Insurgents.

PEACE COMMISSIONERS AND DIPLOMACY MUST TAKE A BACK SEAT UNTIL TAGALS ARE WHIPPED

NEW YORK, May 29.—The Washington correspondent of the Herald telegraphs: The question of calling for volunteers for continuing the war in the Philippines will probably come up again at to-morrow's session of the Cabinet. The situation in the islands, as described in recent dispatches, is such as to make it almost necessary to raise at least a part of the provisional army authorized by the last Congress, if the United States expects to secure complete control of the archipelago. The administration has been brought to realize that it is no longer war and diplomacy in dealing with the insurgents, but plain war. Diplomacy and the Peace Commission must take back seats until the campaign during the rainy season, it is appreciated that he will be able to do little more than garrison some of the points which the forces under General Otis has not a sufficient number of men to accomplish this end. It is expected that the officials will not admit it. They do admit, however, that the outlook for an early peace is very gloomy, and that more troops are badly needed in the Philippines. Just how to meet this situation is the question which confronts them and requires prompt decision. Although General Otis states that he will continue an aggressive campaign during the rainy season, it is appreciated that he will be able to do little more than garrison some of the points which the forces under General Otis has not a sufficient number of men to accomplish this end. It is expected that the officials will not admit it. They do admit, however, that the outlook for an early peace is very gloomy, and that more troops are badly needed in the Philippines.

YELLOW CORRESPONDENTS CAN'T USE THE CABLE

MANILA, May 29.—An alleged authorized interview with Major General Lawton, which was sent from here on May 23 by the New York Journal correspondent, is the subject of a letter from the Consul General at Hongkong, and which passed the censor over the certificate of his associate correspondent, Fagan, as to its authenticity. It has been officially declared that the cable branch associates of the Manila branch are not permitted to use the cable. Cable privileges will hereafter be denied to the yellow correspondents. An order has been issued re-establishing the Philippine courts, which have been closed since the outbreak of the insurrection. The order is signed by the American Consul General at Manila, and is dated May 29. It states that the Philippine courts are to be re-established, and that the American Consul General at Manila is to be the authority for the same. The order is signed by the American Consul General at Manila, and is dated May 29. It states that the Philippine courts are to be re-established, and that the American Consul General at Manila is to be the authority for the same.

FOUR DROWNED IN THE PASIG RIVER

WASHINGTON, May 29.—General Otis reports the following deaths since his last weekly report: Typhoid malaria—May 10, Claude R. White, private, A. Twenty-third Infantry. Malaria—May 20, Danley Hayes, private, E. Twenty-second Infantry. Typhoid—May 22, John Salawitka, private, E. Twenty-second Infantry. Typhoid—May 23, Charles Mikewicko, corporal, F. Twenty-second Infantry. From wounds in action—May 24, John C. Brown, corporal, First North Dakota. From wounds in action—May 24, Ernest Harrison, private, L. Twentieth Kansas. From wounds in action—May 24, Arthur M. Buglies, major, Thirtieth Minnesota.

DEWEY'S FLAGSHIP READY FOR THE SEA

NEW YORK, May 29.—A cable to the World from Hongkong says: Admiral Dewey's flagship, the cruiser Olympia, came out of the drydock to-day, the repairs being finished and a two-war paint removed. She is now ready for her leisurely voyage to New York. The admiral is regaining his health rapidly, but he is kept in doors at his hotel in the Peak district by the heavy rains. He has frequent talks with Lieutenant Hobson of Merrimac fame.

THE ELECTIONS IN PERU

LIMA, Peru, May 29.—The elections, which continue tranquil, will finish to-morrow. The majority continues to favor Scrotono Romana, Alzamora and Bresini, the only doubt, in view of the general abstention, being whether the candidates will obtain the 25,000 votes which comprise the legal one-third of the votes necessary for election.

DREYFUS TO GET A REHEARING

REPORT OF COURT OF CASSATION EVERYTHING POINTS TO THE INNOCENCE OF THE DEVILS ISLAND PRISONER.

ESTERHAZY IS GUILTY

The People of Paris Listen to the Evidence Without Showing Excitement.

M. BALLOT DE BEAUPRE, President of the Civil Section of the Court of Cassation.

PARISIANS WEARY OF BOTH THE CASES

Special Cable to The Call and the New York Herald. Copyrighted, 1899, by James Gordon Bennett.

PARIS, May 29.—There will be no lack of interest in the week that opens to-day. Both the Dreyfus and Deroulede affairs come before the courts, while all sorts of preparations are being made to give Major Marchand a worthy welcome when he returns on Thursday. This same welcome promises to be very funny, for the historical enthusiasm of the self-styled nationalists has naturally called forth a retort from the opposite party that soldiers who do their duty are so rare that one who does is immediately hailed as a self-sacrificing hero. As far as the public is concerned there is absolutely not an atom of excitement. It almost seems as if everybody were sick and tired of the whole business. There is no likelihood of any disturbance. M. Cornely in to-day's Figaro gives the best reason, namely, that there are 8000 policemen in Paris, while it is not likely that that number of Parisians are willing to risk a black eye over either Dreyfus or Deroulede.

CORRUPT SUPERVISORS FAIL

lost by the usual vote, and again the solid seven found themselves in the air by another notice of reconsideration at the next regular meeting. The danger point for the defenders of the city had been passed. The remainder of the session was given to motions, amendments and amendments again on adjournment. This day and that hour purpose, as they invariably lost on notices of reconsideration. The railroad loafers in the gallery began to hiss when they saw that their fellows on the floor were losing or had lost the battle. But as the hiss sounded there also came the ominous response from the visiting citizens: "Where is the rope?" That silenced the hissing and the parliamentary battle continued to the end, when the board adjourned without fixing a day. "I believe," said Mayor Phelan after

RUSSELL ON THE ACT

Thinks the Board Cannot Meet Until July. Supervisor Lackmann claims the distinction of having forced the discovery of the fortunate blunder which the virtuous board made when it adjourned without fixing a certain time for the next meeting. "It seemed to me soon after the adjournment was taken," he said last night, "that the board could not convene until next Monday unless by special call from the Mayor. I went to John Russell and he looked over the consolidation act. After a reading of it he expressed an opinion that the board could not come together for official business until July, provided the Mayor did not call a special meeting. He thought the action which appointed special meeting days was mandatory

M. BALLOT DE BEAUPRE, President of the Civil Section of the Court of Cassation.

PARISIANS WEARY OF BOTH THE CASES

Special Cable to The Call and the New York Herald. Copyrighted, 1899, by James Gordon Bennett.

PARIS, May 29.—There will be no lack of interest in the week that opens to-day. Both the Dreyfus and Deroulede affairs come before the courts, while all sorts of preparations are being made to give Major Marchand a worthy welcome when he returns on Thursday. This same welcome promises to be very funny, for the historical enthusiasm of the self-styled nationalists has naturally called forth a retort from the opposite party that soldiers who do their duty are so rare that one who does is immediately hailed as a self-sacrificing hero. As far as the public is concerned there is absolutely not an atom of excitement. It almost seems as if everybody were sick and tired of the whole business. There is no likelihood of any disturbance. M. Cornely in to-day's Figaro gives the best reason, namely, that there are 8000 policemen in Paris, while it is not likely that that number of Parisians are willing to risk a black eye over either Dreyfus or Deroulede.

DEROULEDE AND HABERT ARRAIGNED

Agitators Make Most Defiant Harangues at the Opening of Their Trial. THEY DISLIKE LOUBET Men Who Tried to Incite Soldiers to Insubordination Applauded by the People.

MEMORIAL SERVICES

Patriotic Exercises in the Normal School at San Jose. SAN JOSE, May 29.—Special memorial services were held at the Normal School this morning. The place was prettily decorated and an interesting programme was rendered. The exercises opened with scripture reading and the chanting of the Lord's Prayer, followed by the song "Keller's American Hymn," by the entire school. As a recitation Miss Maude Hue gave "Memorial Day." The address of the day was by Rev. Dr. Kummer, and he took for his subject, "Grant, the True American Soldier." He reviewed General Grant's life and eloquently pointed out his great work and faith in the troublesome days of the rebellion. The man was one of the great mass of people, but so big and great, with so large a heart, that when at last the summons came which took him to eternity, the whole country, even those who had been in arms against him, mourned for his loss. Dr. Kummer was frequently applauded.

DISTRICT COURT ADJOURNED

The United States District Court has adjourned until Tuesday of next week and the court calendar will not be called until that time. Wise is the fool who knows enough to keep his mouth closed

DEROULEDE AND HABERT ARRAIGNED

Agitators Make Most Defiant Harangues at the Opening of Their Trial. THEY DISLIKE LOUBET Men Who Tried to Incite Soldiers to Insubordination Applauded by the People.

MEMORIAL SERVICES

Patriotic Exercises in the Normal School at San Jose. SAN JOSE, May 29.—Special memorial services were held at the Normal School this morning. The place was prettily decorated and an interesting programme was rendered. The exercises opened with scripture reading and the chanting of the Lord's Prayer, followed by the song "Keller's American Hymn," by the entire school. As a recitation Miss Maude Hue gave "Memorial Day." The address of the day was by Rev. Dr. Kummer, and he took for his subject, "Grant, the True American Soldier." He reviewed General Grant's life and eloquently pointed out his great work and faith in the troublesome days of the rebellion. The man was one of the great mass of people, but so big and great, with so large a heart, that when at last the summons came which took him to eternity, the whole country, even those who had been in arms against him, mourned for his loss. Dr. Kummer was frequently applauded.

DISTRICT COURT ADJOURNED

The United States District Court has adjourned until Tuesday of next week and the court calendar will not be called until that time. Wise is the fool who knows enough to keep his mouth closed

EPIDEMIC OF YELLOW FEVER

AUSTIN, Tex., May 29.—Governor Sawyer issued a proclamation declaring a rigid quarantine at all Gulf points and points on the Rio Grande border of the State against Vera Cruz and other places in Mexico where the yellow fever epidemic has assumed an alarming character. He received advices from the State quarantine inspector at Laredo to-day that yellow fever cases exist at that place in places between Vera Cruz and the City of Mexico. Suspicious cases are also reported at Tampico.

ADVERTISEMENTS

It is the primary duty of every woman to take care of her face. The face is the mirror of the soul, and it is one of woman's natural missions to please. Deroulede and Habert are arraigned. The audience in court cheered M. Deroulede and Habert and cried "Here is a jury of acquittal" when the jurymen entered.

Murmurs were heard when the charges against the prisoners were read. The presiding Judge then asked M. Deroulede how he, a former officer of the army and the soldiers' lyricist (M. Deroulede is the author of "Chants du Soldat" and "Nouveaux Chants du Soldat"), could wish to turn the army away from its duty. To this M. Deroulede replied, amid laughter, with contempt for the letter written in the file, and said he (defendant) wished to lead a brigade to overthrow the Parliament republic, adding that his action was fully premeditated.

M. Deroulede, who is a member of the Chamber of Deputies and creator, in 1882, of the League of Patriots, was called upon to plead he began a diatribe against parliamentarians and the Jews. During the course of his remarks he declared his action was not a sign of disturbance, but that the court that he created Boulangism in order to save France.

The audience in court cheered M. Deroulede and Habert and cried "Here is a jury of acquittal" when the jurymen entered. Murmurs were heard when the charges against the prisoners were read. The presiding Judge then asked M. Deroulede how he, a former officer of the army and the soldiers' lyricist (M. Deroulede is the author of "Chants du Soldat" and "Nouveaux Chants du Soldat"), could wish to turn the army away from its duty. To this M. Deroulede replied, amid laughter, with contempt for the letter written in the file, and said he (defendant) wished to lead a brigade to overthrow the Parliament republic, adding that his action was fully premeditated.

M. Deroulede, who is a member of the Chamber of Deputies and creator, in 1882, of the League of Patriots, was called upon to plead he began a diatribe against parliamentarians and the Jews. During the course of his remarks he declared his action was not a sign of disturbance, but that the court that he created Boulangism in order to save France.

The audience in court cheered M. Deroulede and Habert and cried "Here is a jury of acquittal" when the jurymen entered. Murmurs were heard when the charges against the prisoners were read. The presiding Judge then asked M. Deroulede how he, a former officer of the army and the soldiers' lyricist (M. Deroulede is the author of "Chants du Soldat" and "Nouveaux Chants du Soldat"), could wish to turn the army away from its duty. To this M. Deroulede replied, amid laughter, with contempt for the letter written in the file, and said he (defendant) wished to lead a brigade to overthrow the Parliament republic, adding that his action was fully premeditated.

M. Deroulede, who is a member of the Chamber of Deputies and creator, in 1882, of the League of Patriots, was called upon to plead he began a diatribe against parliamentarians and the Jews. During the course of his remarks he declared his action was not a sign of disturbance, but that the court that he created Boulangism in order to save France.

The audience in court cheered M. Deroulede and Habert and cried "Here is a jury of acquittal" when the jurymen entered. Murmurs were heard when the charges against the prisoners were read. The presiding Judge then asked M. Deroulede how he, a former officer of the army and the soldiers' lyricist (M. Deroulede is the author of "Chants du Soldat" and "Nouveaux Chants du Soldat"), could wish to turn the army away from its duty. To this M. Deroulede replied, amid laughter, with contempt for the letter written in the file, and said he (defendant) wished to lead a brigade to overthrow the Parliament republic, adding that his action was fully premeditated.

M. Deroulede, who is a member of the Chamber of Deputies and creator, in 1882, of the League of Patriots, was called upon to plead he began a diatribe against parliamentarians and the Jews. During the course of his remarks he declared his action was not a sign of disturbance, but that the court that he created Boulangism in order to save France.

The audience in court cheered M. Deroulede and Habert and cried "Here is a jury of acquittal" when the jurymen entered. Murmurs were heard when the charges against the prisoners were read. The presiding Judge then asked M. Deroulede how he, a former officer of the army and the soldiers' lyricist (M. Deroulede is the author of "Chants du Soldat" and "Nouveaux Chants du Soldat"), could wish to turn the army away from its duty. To this M. Deroulede replied, amid laughter, with contempt for the letter written in the file, and said he (defendant) wished to lead a brigade to overthrow the Parliament republic, adding that his action was fully premeditated.

M. Deroulede, who is a member of the Chamber of Deputies and creator, in 1882, of the League of Patriots, was called upon to plead he began a diatribe against parliamentarians and the Jews. During the course of his remarks he declared his action was not a sign of disturbance, but that the court that he created Boulangism in order to save France.

The audience in court cheered M. Deroulede and Habert and cried "Here is a jury of acquittal" when the jurymen entered. Murmurs were heard when the charges against the prisoners were read. The presiding Judge then asked M. Deroulede how he, a former officer of the army and the soldiers' lyricist (M. Deroulede is the author of "Chants du Soldat" and "Nouveaux Chants du Soldat"), could wish to turn the army away from its duty. To this M. Deroulede replied, amid laughter, with contempt for the letter written in the file, and said he (defendant) wished to lead a brigade to overthrow the Parliament republic, adding that his action was fully premeditated.

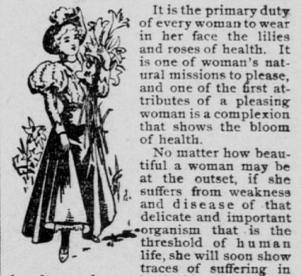

M. Deroulede, who is a member of the Chamber of Deputies and creator, in 1882, of the League of Patriots, was called upon to plead he began a diatribe against parliamentarians and the Jews. During the course of his remarks he declared his action was not a sign of disturbance, but that the court that he created Boulangism in order to save France.

The audience in court cheered M. Deroulede and Habert and cried "Here is a jury of acquittal" when the jurymen entered. Murmurs were heard when the charges against the prisoners were read. The presiding Judge then asked M. Deroulede how he, a former officer of the army and the soldiers' lyricist (M. Deroulede is the author of "Chants du Soldat" and "Nouveaux Chants du Soldat"), could wish to turn the army away from its duty. To this M. Deroulede replied, amid laughter, with contempt for the letter written in the file, and said he (defendant) wished to lead a brigade to overthrow the Parliament republic, adding that his action was fully premeditated.

M. Deroulede, who is a member of the Chamber of Deputies and creator, in 1882, of the League of Patriots, was called upon to plead he began a diatribe against parliamentarians and the Jews. During the course of his remarks he declared his action was not a sign of disturbance, but that the court that he created Boulangism in order to save France.

The audience in court cheered M. Deroulede and Habert and cried "Here is a jury of acquittal" when the jurymen entered. Murmurs were heard when the charges against the prisoners were read. The presiding Judge then asked M. Deroulede how he, a former officer of the army and the soldiers' lyricist (M. Deroulede is the author of "Chants du Soldat" and "Nouveaux Chants du Soldat"), could wish to turn the army away from its duty. To this M. Deroulede replied, amid laughter, with contempt for the letter written in the file, and said he (defendant) wished to lead a brigade to overthrow the Parliament republic, adding that his action was fully premeditated.

M. Deroulede, who is a member of the Chamber of Deputies and creator, in 1882, of the League of Patriots, was called upon to plead he began a diatribe against parliamentarians and the Jews. During the course of his remarks he declared his action was not a sign of disturbance, but that the court that he created Boulangism in order to save France.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It is the primary duty of every woman to take care of her face. The face is the mirror of the soul, and it is one of woman's natural missions to please. Deroulede and Habert are arraigned. The audience in court cheered M. Deroulede and Habert and cried "Here is a jury of acquittal" when the jurymen entered. Murmurs were heard when the charges against the prisoners were read. The presiding Judge then asked M. Deroulede how he, a former officer of the army and the soldiers' lyricist (M. Deroulede is the author of "Chants du Soldat" and "Nouveaux Chants du Soldat"), could wish to turn the army away from its duty. To this M. Deroulede replied, amid laughter, with contempt for the letter written in the file, and said he (defendant) wished to lead a brigade to overthrow the Parliament republic, adding that his action was fully premeditated.

EASTON, ELDRIDGE & CO. REAL ESTATE AGENTS AND GENERAL CONTRACTORS

At Auction!

TUESDAY, JUNE 6, 1899, AT 12 O'CLOCK NOON. At Our Salesroom, 638 Market St.

West side (1750-56) Polson st., 138 ft. north of Fourteenth, 44x127 ft.; four elegant flats of 2, 3, 4 and 6 rooms and bath; in modern improvements; new plumbing; rents $65. WESTERN ADDITION BUILDING LOT. North side McAllister st., 157.5 ft. west of Fillmore st., 46x137.8 ft.; a fine site for sunny flats or house with garden; desirable location; surroundings; view; cars convenient. NORTH BEACH INVESTMENT. West side (19) Salmon st., east side (8) Himmelman st., 57.5 ft. south of Broadway st., 29x90 ft.; two nice cottages; each with four rooms and bath; porcelain tubs, etc.; large two-story stable on rear street. TO CLOSE AN ESTATE. North side Seventeenth st., 155 ft. east of Market, 25x85; a fine building site, half block from Junction of Market and Chestnut streets. GUERRERO-ST. BUILDING LOT. West side Guerrero st., 45 ft. north of Fourteenth, 42x44 ft.; fine building lot; good renting locality; one block from transfer point. MISSION-ST. RESIDENCE. West side (214) Mission st., 23.4 ft. south of Clark st., 21-1/2x32; (two-story) bay window house of 8 rooms and bath; in business neighborhood. BY ORDER OF ADMINISTRATOR. South side Duncan st., 240 ft. east of No. 21 st., 25x114; cheapest lot in this neighborhood; 100 ft. frontage; subject to condemnation of court. PEGGITE-AVE. LOTS. South side Peggite ave., 500 ft. west of Polson st., 80x123, or three good lots all ready for building; street work done. CUMBERLAND-ST. LOTS. North side Cumberland st., 195 ft. west of Sanchez st., 75x117; three lots well situated; fine view; good investment. EASTON, ELDRIDGE & CO., Auctioneers, 638 Market St.