

RECHANTS' PICNIC
A JULY TIME
AT EL CAMPO
Annual Picnic Was a Great Success.
A BIG CROWD ATTENDED
THE LUCKY WINNERS IN THE VARIOUS CONTESTS.
Wholesaler Rubbed Elbows With His Clerk, Traveling Man, Typewriter and Office Boy—Children's Hospital Benefited.

The twelfth annual picnic given under the auspices of the wholesale merchants of this city at El Campo yesterday was in every sense a success. This conclusion is arrived at both from the large attendance and from the enthusiasm manifested by the assembled guests. If there was a single individual or a married one who did not enter into the spirit of the festivities he discreetly kept himself in the background, but when it is known that every one who was there was distinctly in the fore in the matter of amusement it is safe to say that "enjoy yourselves" was the motto of the day and was rigidly adhered to. As a result the Children's Hospital, to which the surplus receipts will be turned over, will be enriched by several hundred dollars.

Too much praise cannot be given the various committees who had the affair in charge. President Henry M. Campe was ubiquitous in his painstaking efforts to make everything feel at home, and he succeeded admirably. Secretary Charles J. King was tirelessly active in his efforts to make it pleasant for everybody present, and their united efforts resulted in over fifteen hundred people unimpairedly agreeing that the outing was one of the most successful of the season.

Five hundred picnickers journeyed to El Campo on the first boat, which left the ferry at 9:30 o'clock. They went over with the determination to make a day of it, and after partaking of the good things which they had brought over in baskets they proceeded to the picnic grounds to arrive on the afternoon boat, which reached the pleasure spot at 2 o'clock. The noonday sweetened the number to fifteen hundred or more, and the first announcement made was that the children would be presented with candy. Some three hundred of the little ones had their hearts made glad by the proffered dainties, and the children of a larger growth followed suit in the distribution of the sweets. Dancing to the music of Blanchard's band was under the direction of A. Hanz.

Among the visitors to the grounds, who by reason of their official position are deemed especially worthy of mention, were School Director Edward Head, who discoursed on the beneficial results of a higher education; Judge Charles T. Conlan, whose legal lore served the assembled multitude in good stead; "Dan" O'Callaghan, whose infectious laugh was an inspiration to all who came within earshot of it; "Pop" Floyd, the genial boniface of the wholesale district on California street, who remarked that he was tired of the business fraternity and came over to be fed by the boys just for the "change" that was in it, and numerous others who possess claims to distinction in its various phases.

The games and races were under the supervision of P. J. Kennedy, who was assisted by J. L. Williams, and their decisions were received without a dissenting word. The winners in the various events were as follows:

Boys under 12—First, W. Wright; second, Aaron Tansie; third, John O'Brien; fourth, E. P. Colgan; fifth, Agnes Sarraw; second, Florence Thomas; third, Emma Evans; fourth, Mrs. Casey; fifth, Mrs. Walker; sixth, Mrs. Casey; seventh, Mrs. Walker; eighth, Mrs. Casey; ninth, Mrs. Walker; tenth, Mrs. Casey; eleventh, Mrs. Walker; twelfth, Mrs. Casey; thirteenth, Mrs. Walker; fourteenth, Mrs. Casey; fifteenth, Mrs. Walker; sixteenth, Mrs. Casey; seventeenth, Mrs. Walker; eighteenth, Mrs. Casey; nineteenth, Mrs. Walker; twentieth, Mrs. Casey; twenty-first, Mrs. Walker; twenty-second, Mrs. Casey; twenty-third, Mrs. Walker; twenty-fourth, Mrs. Casey; twenty-fifth, Mrs. Walker; twenty-sixth, Mrs. Casey; twenty-seventh, Mrs. Walker; twenty-eighth, Mrs. Casey; twenty-ninth, Mrs. Walker; thirtieth, Mrs. Casey; thirty-first, Mrs. Walker; thirty-second, Mrs. Casey; thirty-third, Mrs. Walker; thirty-fourth, Mrs. Casey; thirty-fifth, Mrs. Walker; thirty-sixth, Mrs. Casey; thirty-seventh, Mrs. Walker; thirty-eighth, Mrs. Casey; thirty-ninth, Mrs. Walker; fortieth, Mrs. Casey; forty-first, Mrs. Walker; forty-second, Mrs. Casey; forty-third, Mrs. Walker; forty-fourth, Mrs. Casey; forty-fifth, Mrs. Walker; forty-sixth, Mrs. Casey; forty-seventh, Mrs. Walker; forty-eighth, Mrs. Casey; forty-ninth, Mrs. Walker; fiftieth, Mrs. Casey; fifty-first, Mrs. Walker; fifty-second, Mrs. Casey; fifty-third, Mrs. Walker; fifty-fourth, Mrs. Casey; fifty-fifth, Mrs. Walker; fifty-sixth, Mrs. Casey; fifty-seventh, Mrs. Walker; fifty-eighth, Mrs. Casey; fifty-ninth, Mrs. Walker; sixtieth, Mrs. Casey; sixty-first, Mrs. Walker; sixty-second, Mrs. Casey; sixty-third, Mrs. Walker; sixty-fourth, Mrs. Casey; sixty-fifth, Mrs. Walker; sixty-sixth, Mrs. Casey; sixty-seventh, Mrs. Walker; sixty-eighth, Mrs. Casey; sixty-ninth, Mrs. Walker; seventieth, Mrs. Casey; seventy-first, Mrs. Walker; seventy-second, Mrs. Casey; seventy-third, Mrs. Walker; seventy-fourth, Mrs. Casey; seventy-fifth, Mrs. Walker; seventy-sixth, Mrs. Casey; seventy-seventh, Mrs. Walker; seventy-eighth, Mrs. Casey; seventy-ninth, Mrs. Walker; eightieth, Mrs. Casey; eighty-first, Mrs. Walker; eighty-second, Mrs. Casey; eighty-third, Mrs. Walker; eighty-fourth, Mrs. Casey; eighty-fifth, Mrs. Walker; eighty-sixth, Mrs. Casey; eighty-seventh, Mrs. Walker; eighty-eighth, Mrs. Casey; eighty-ninth, Mrs. Walker; ninetieth, Mrs. Casey; ninety-first, Mrs. Walker; ninety-second, Mrs. Casey; ninety-third, Mrs. Walker; ninety-fourth, Mrs. Casey; ninety-fifth, Mrs. Walker; ninety-sixth, Mrs. Casey; ninety-seventh, Mrs. Walker; ninety-eighth, Mrs. Casey; ninety-ninth, Mrs. Walker; one hundredth, Mrs. Casey.

ROBBED ON DISPATCH TRIP.
A Wallet Containing Money Taken From Under a Mattress While the Woman Who Lost It Was Out for Beer.

A. Lovett, who keeps a fruit store on Twenty-second street and Potrero avenue, is lamenting the loss of $100, which was taken from under the mattress of his bed in the rear of the store on last Friday in dispatch time.

The manner of the theft is described by Mrs. Lovett in this way: A new building is in course of construction alongside of the one occupied by her and her husband. On the day mentioned she asked the carpenter who was at work if he would kindly put up a few little shelves in the windows upon which fruit might be placed. The carpenter consented, and when the shelves were up Mrs. Lovett asked him how much he would charge for the job. His answer was that if she would treat him he would "call it square."

Accepting this offer, the lady offered him some beer, but he suggested that some steam beer would be more palatable. The lady started after the amber-colored liquid, but before she got to the grocery store, on her return, and after the beer had been consumed, the carpenter had slipped under the mattress and then went across the street to the grocery store. On her return, and after the beer had been consumed, the carpenter had slipped under the mattress and then went across the street to the grocery store.

left and she went into the room to put back the change. Then to her astonishment she found a little wallet containing all the money she had in the world gone. She spoke to the carpenter about her loss, but got little satisfaction from him further than a denial that he knew anything about the missing money.

FIGHTING FOR OFFICE.
Commissioner of Public Works Before the Supreme Court.

The Supreme Court has issued an alternate writ of mandate to State Controller E. P. Colgan to show why he should not pay to Ed E. Leake, as Commissioner of Public Works, his salary for the month of March, amounting to $250. According to the petition of Commissioner Leake the office of public works was created in 1886, and he was appointed and qualified in 1886, since which time he has duly and properly discharged the duties of his position. When presented his demand for his March salary the Controller refused to draw his warrant for the same upon the ground that the office of Commissioner of Public Works had terminated and no longer existed.

Confidence Man Captured.
James Haley, better known as "Crutch" Haley, a notorious confidence man, was arrested last night by Detectives Gillan and Anthony and lodged in the City Prison. He is accused of having cheated Joseph A. Wilson of the Empire Novelty Works out of $50. It appears that Wilson needed a confidence man to help him in an appeal, and Haley promised to secure the bondsmen, but demanded $50 for the fee. The Wilsons agreed to pay the fee, and a part of the contract was fulfilled. As

MECHANICS' INSTITUTE.
The quarterly meeting of members of the Mechanics' Institute was held last evening, E. A. Denicke presiding. The president reported that a cablegram had been received from Manila stating that the Philippine exhibit for the forthcoming fair was complete and ready for shipment. Owing to Lieutenant Hayne having been ordered to the front with his command, the management of the exhibit has been transferred to W. P. Thomas, who is in Manila on business. The adoption of an amendment to the constitution offered at the last meeting to abolish the present system of electing trustees by the proportionate system and substituting the Australian ballot system. After a long debate the amendment was adopted. Several amendments to the constitution were read. They will come up at the next meeting for final action.

DR. McLAUGHLIN'S ELECTRIC BELT.

There is a change in the old-time policy of drugging. Drugs have failed in so many thousands of cases that sick people have begun to get tired of using them. It has been shown that the vitality in the human body is based upon Electricity. Disease comes when the vital force is exhausted. Strength of manhood and womanhood, therefore, depends upon the electrical energy in the nerves. Build up your weakened vitality with this famous life-giver, Dr. Sanden's Electric Belt, which gives sparks of electric life to the weak nerves.

RESIDENTS OF THE MISSION MAKE APPEAL

Residents of the Mission district propose to carry the war against the Southern Pacific Company into the enemy's country, and to this end they have petitioned the Board of Supervisors to bring proceedings in the courts to compel the corporation to remove its tracks from all of the streets in the Mission district.
