

DEWEY TO BE WELCOMED BY FORMER SHIPMATES

The Olympia Entering the Bay of Naples. The Royal Palace. Vesuvius. Piazza Nazionale. Theater San Carlo.

CALL HEADQUARTERS, WELLINGTON HOTEL, WASHINGTON, July 31.—Admiral Dewey will receive appropriate and an effective naval greeting when he comes sailing home in his flagship Olympia.

From Secretary Long and Assistant Secretary Allen I learned to-day that it is not the intention of the department to order the North Atlantic squadron to cross the Atlantic and escort the hero of Manila Bay back to his native land.

DU PATY DE CLAM REGAINS LIBERTY

Bruguiere to Counter-sign His Acquittal.

PARIS, July 31.—Le Soir announces that Colonel Du Paty de Clam was liberated at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

General Bruguiere, Military Governor of Paris, has the power to override the decision that there is no case against Colonel Du Paty de Clam.

Nothing is yet known of the actual grounds of the acquittal, but it is reported that Du Paty de Clam was exonerated because it was proved that he acted under direct orders from General Gonz and De Boisdeffre.

General Bruguiere, Military Governor of Paris, has the power to override the decision that there is no case against Colonel Du Paty de Clam.

Nothing is yet known of the actual grounds of the acquittal, but it is reported that Du Paty de Clam was exonerated because it was proved that he acted under direct orders from General Gonz and De Boisdeffre.

General Bruguiere, Military Governor of Paris, has the power to override the decision that there is no case against Colonel Du Paty de Clam.

Nothing is yet known of the actual grounds of the acquittal, but it is reported that Du Paty de Clam was exonerated because it was proved that he acted under direct orders from General Gonz and De Boisdeffre.

General Bruguiere, Military Governor of Paris, has the power to override the decision that there is no case against Colonel Du Paty de Clam.

Nothing is yet known of the actual grounds of the acquittal, but it is reported that Du Paty de Clam was exonerated because it was proved that he acted under direct orders from General Gonz and De Boisdeffre.

General Bruguiere, Military Governor of Paris, has the power to override the decision that there is no case against Colonel Du Paty de Clam.

Nothing is yet known of the actual grounds of the acquittal, but it is reported that Du Paty de Clam was exonerated because it was proved that he acted under direct orders from General Gonz and De Boisdeffre.

General Bruguiere, Military Governor of Paris, has the power to override the decision that there is no case against Colonel Du Paty de Clam.

NEW YORK, July 31.—A Times cablegram from London says: There has been little press comment upon the alleged utterances of Admiral Dewey at Trieste, though the papers here print much from the American papers.

A Washington special to the Times says Baron von Mumm, the Washington representative of Germany, denies that he made any complaint to the State Department of the interview in which Admiral Dewey said that "our next war will be with Germany."

It is not believed here that the Navy Department will make any inquiries of the Admiral concerning the interview.

NEW YORK, July 31.—A Times cablegram from London says: There has been little press comment upon the alleged utterances of Admiral Dewey at Trieste, though the papers here print much from the American papers.

A Washington special to the Times says Baron von Mumm, the Washington representative of Germany, denies that he made any complaint to the State Department of the interview in which Admiral Dewey said that "our next war will be with Germany."

It is not believed here that the Navy Department will make any inquiries of the Admiral concerning the interview.

NEW YORK, July 31.—A Times cablegram from London says: There has been little press comment upon the alleged utterances of Admiral Dewey at Trieste, though the papers here print much from the American papers.

A Washington special to the Times says Baron von Mumm, the Washington representative of Germany, denies that he made any complaint to the State Department of the interview in which Admiral Dewey said that "our next war will be with Germany."

It is not believed here that the Navy Department will make any inquiries of the Admiral concerning the interview.

NEW YORK, July 31.—A Times cablegram from London says: There has been little press comment upon the alleged utterances of Admiral Dewey at Trieste, though the papers here print much from the American papers.

A Washington special to the Times says Baron von Mumm, the Washington representative of Germany, denies that he made any complaint to the State Department of the interview in which Admiral Dewey said that "our next war will be with Germany."

It is not believed here that the Navy Department will make any inquiries of the Admiral concerning the interview.

NEW YORK, July 31.—A Times cablegram from London says: There has been little press comment upon the alleged utterances of Admiral Dewey at Trieste, though the papers here print much from the American papers.

A Washington special to the Times says Baron von Mumm, the Washington representative of Germany, denies that he made any complaint to the State Department of the interview in which Admiral Dewey said that "our next war will be with Germany."

It is not believed here that the Navy Department will make any inquiries of the Admiral concerning the interview.

NEW YORK, July 31.—A Times cablegram from London says: There has been little press comment upon the alleged utterances of Admiral Dewey at Trieste, though the papers here print much from the American papers.

A Washington special to the Times says Baron von Mumm, the Washington representative of Germany, denies that he made any complaint to the State Department of the interview in which Admiral Dewey said that "our next war will be with Germany."

It is not believed here that the Navy Department will make any inquiries of the Admiral concerning the interview.

NEW YORK, July 31.—A Times cablegram from London says: There has been little press comment upon the alleged utterances of Admiral Dewey at Trieste, though the papers here print much from the American papers.

the New England coast, it will be ordered to prepare for Dewey's reception. When the Olympia is about due on this side of the water, the fleet will go out to meet her and escort her triumphantly into port, so that all America may share in the sincere welcome home awaiting Dewey and his gallant officers and crew.

TRIESTE, July 31.—Admiral Dewey spent the day at the Hotel de la Ville, while his flagship, the Olympia, was being coaled. He will return to the ship to-morrow, and expects to sail in the afternoon.

At last the presence of the mysterious Steele at the Palace Hotel is explained.

Mr. Steele, who is a member of Seward, Guthrie & Steele, one of the leading law firms of New York, arrived here a few days ago under circumstances which caused not a little comment.

He was brought here by Attorney Herrin of the Southern Pacific, who journeyed to Denver in a private car for the purpose of meeting and escorting his distinguished guest.

Upon the arrival in this city Mr. Steele was assigned to rooms in the Palace Hotel without having to go through the formality of putting his name on the hotel books.

He brought a stenographer with him, who was kept busy until all hours of the night. He denied himself to reporters. Mr. Herrin professed to be entirely ignorant of his identity, and altogether refused to give any information of intrigue and romance and gave his character a character that would have stood for his being anything from a foreign potentate to a domestic train robber.

The fact of the matter is that Mr. Steele's presence here was for the purpose of consulting with Herrin and arranging the details of the big deal which is fully explained in the following dispatch from Salt Lake City.

SALT LAKE, Utah, July 31.—The Central Pacific Railway Company was incorporated here to-day for the purpose of acquiring all the railroad land, land grants and franchises of the Central Pacific, and is in the interest of the Southern Pacific.

Thomas Marshall of Utah is named as president of the new corporation, whose capital stock is placed at $7,000,000.

REV. J. C. LYNN OF SAN JOSE RESIGNS

The Well-Known Divine Leaves the United Presbyterian Church for a Larger Field.

At a called meeting of the San Francisco Presbytery at San Jose yesterday the Rev. John C. Lynn, for the past three years pastor of the United Presbyterian Church of San Jose, tendered his resignation.

This course was made necessary by reason of the action of the committee on Home Missions, which met at Philadelphia, Pa., in May last, when the past year's report of the Home Mission Board has supported in part the San Jose church, but this year it failed to grant it any aid, thus leaving the pastor without a living salary.

The Rev. Mr. Lynn has rendered faithful service and his work has been eminently successful. The action of the board is not for the purpose of dismissing Dr. Lynn, but to strike the church from support. Dr. Lynn will either go East, where several calls await him, or take up the work at Astoria, a new and flourishing mission near Salinas.

Accept Crocker's Offer.

WOODLAND, July 31.—The grape growers of Yolo County have adopted a resolution accepting the offer of H. J. Crocker and will contract to deliver to him for term of seven years their grape crops at $14 a ton. The resolution was adopted without a dissenting vote.

WASHINGTON AWAITS THE SAMOAN TREATY

Meanwhile Every One, Including Officials, Is Marveling Over The Call's Great Scoop.

NEW YORK, July 31.—The Call's great scoop on the Samoan treaty was all the talk of the town on Park Row last night, or rather early this morning. The correspondents, who sit up for early morning papers, discussed this scoop and speculated on the way The Call managed to secure the big piece of exclusive news.

The Call's correspondent at Washington sends the following: "The newspapers have scored a scoop on the department," said Secretary Hay to-day, when asked for an expression of opinion on the detailed report of the Samoan commission published in The Call Sunday and in other papers this morning.

The Secretary playfully indulged in newspaper slang and at the same time assured me that he was officially ignorant of the findings of the commission. He did not attempt to discredit the report as published in the morning papers, but he gracefully declined to discuss the subject or make any comment upon the report of the commission until an official copy of that document is before him.

The Secretary explained that the administration has the greatest confidence in the wisdom, ability and discretion of the members of the commission, and their recommendations or suggestions will now naturally be received with full force. He added that the official report arrived in San Francisco by the same steamer which brought the published report and suggested that it may be on its way to Washington by mail.

In diplomatic circles there was but little disposition to comment upon the report, because few of the responsible legation men are in Washington at this time. There are some differences of opinion as to the wisdom of forming a council composed of delegates from each power with an administrator from a neutral nation.

It is believed by many persons that the problem will not be finally solved until either the United States, Great Britain or Germany takes absolute possession of Samoa. It is contended that friction will continue so long as the existing three-cornered responsibility prevails.

DEATH OF A ONCE FAMOUS BEAUTY

Close of the Career of Mrs. Kate Chase Sprague, Who Was Well Known in Washington.

WASHINGTON, July 31.—Mrs. Kate Chase Sprague, wife of the former Governor Sprague, of Rhode Island and the daughter of the late Salmon P. Chase, Governor of Ohio, United States Senator and Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, died at her homestead, Edgewood, in Washington suburbs, early this morning.

She was 59 years old. For three months she had been ill, but had consented to medical treatment only ten days ago. She grew steadily worse and the end came a few minutes after 3 o'clock this morning.

At the bedside were her three daughters, Miss Kittie Sprague, who lived with her mother; Miss Portia Sprague of Narragansett Pier, and Mrs. Donaldson of Brooklyn, N. Y.

Not many American women have had a more varied career than did the beautiful and brilliant daughter of Salmon P. Chase, one of the great statesmen of the country.

She was a woman of noble character and noble family, and on which she herself in years of prominence in the highest social life of the country.

She was a woman of noble character and noble family, and on which she herself in years of prominence in the highest social life of the country.

She was a woman of noble character and noble family, and on which she herself in years of prominence in the highest social life of the country.

She was a woman of noble character and noble family, and on which she herself in years of prominence in the highest social life of the country.

She was a woman of noble character and noble family, and on which she herself in years of prominence in the highest social life of the country.

She was a woman of noble character and noble family, and on which she herself in years of prominence in the highest social life of the country.

She was a woman of noble character and noble family, and on which she herself in years of prominence in the highest social life of the country.

She was a woman of noble character and noble family, and on which she herself in years of prominence in the highest social life of the country.

She was a woman of noble character and noble family, and on which she herself in years of prominence in the highest social life of the country.

She was a woman of noble character and noble family, and on which she herself in years of prominence in the highest social life of the country.

She was a woman of noble character and noble family, and on which she herself in years of prominence in the highest social life of the country.

She was a woman of noble character and noble family, and on which she herself in years of prominence in the highest social life of the country.

She was a woman of noble character and noble family, and on which she herself in years of prominence in the highest social life of the country.

She was a woman of noble character and noble family, and on which she herself in years of prominence in the highest social life of the country.

She was a woman of noble character and noble family, and on which she herself in years of prominence in the highest social life of the country.

ENTWISTLE NOW

Six Months Ago He Was a Commander. PRAISED BY ADMIRAL DEWEY

SERVED IN THE NAVY DURING THE CIVIL WAR.

Dewey Says the Victory at Manila Was Largely Due to Entwistle's Excellent Management.

Special Dispatch to The Call.

CALL HEADQUARTERS, WELLINGTON HOTEL, WASHINGTON, July 31.—From commander to rear admiral in less than six months is the remarkable quick jump made by James Entwistle, chief engineer of Admiral Dewey's fleet, as a result of the action just taken by the Navy Department in ordering his retirement.

With the rank and three-quarters sea pay of his next higher grade, by the operation of the navy personnel law Rear Admiral Entwistle was transferred to the line of the navy with the rank of captain.

By a provision of the same law officers who served in the war of 1898 are entitled to retire with the rank of the next highest grade. The grade of commodore having been abolished by the same law, rear admiral is the next highest grade to that which Entwistle obtained by his transfer to the line. Hence his promotion to the rank of rear admiral.

Entwistle was in the navy during the Civil War and has served Uncle Sam on the sea ever since. When the war was declared with Spain he was assigned to the fleet engineer with Dewey's squadron. He was on the Olympia at the admiral's side during the battle, and his promptitude was such that he was complimented afterwards by Dewey. The great commander declared, too, that the faultless condition of the machinery throughout the fleet and the excellent management of the Olympia were largely responsible for the wiping out of the Spaniards.

Admiral Dewey's commendation referred in a very complimentary manner to Entwistle in a speech which he made in Austria. He must have spoken of Entwistle's services for it was not long after the great battle that a commission as captain arrived for Entwistle near the age limit and was sent to his home in Paterfamilias, N. J., with the expectation of being retired. But Entwistle, who was at that time at Lake George and received no information of the action in his case until a few days ago, then he learned that he was being promoted to the rank of rear admiral.

Rear Admiral Entwistle will finish the summer at the lake and thinks he may afterwards accept employment of the sort ordered by Congress for all the heroes of Manila.

Silver Paramout, Says Teller.

SEATTLE, July 31.—United States Senator Teller of Colorado arrived here to-night from his home in the mountains. He has just received a fine medal of the sort ordered by Congress for all the heroes of Manila.

Encampment of Clergymen.

PACIFIC GROVE, July 31.—The annual summer encampment of the Methodist Conference, was opened in this city to-night by Rev. Dr. W. W. Case, presiding elder of the San Francisco district. The opening address, "Jesus in Prophecy," was given by Rev. E. P. Bennett. A large number of clergymen were present.

Pickpockets at Work.

Mrs. J. Bahr, who lives at 812 Van Ness avenue, reported at police headquarters yesterday that her pocketbook, containing $6, had been stolen from her pocket by a man who had been passing by at Bush street and Van Ness avenue. There were also several ferry tickets in the pocketbook.

Suicide in a Cemetery.

SEATTLE, July 31.—The body of Jesse K. Cowles of St. Paul, Minn., was found in the G. A. R. cemetery to-day. He had committed suicide with laudanum. Cowles was about 29 years old and came to this city about two weeks ago. His failure to obtain employment is assigned as the cause of his suicide.

Vettinger Was Murdered.

SAN DIEGO, July 31.—Physicians who have examined the remains of John Vettinger, the aged German whose charred body was found in the ruins of his cabin, declare that the old man was murdered and the body burned.

Sir James Edgar Dead.

OTTAWA, Ont., July 31.—Sir James Edgar, Speaker of the House of Commons, died at Toronto to-night.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

In the olden days men were not so physically weak, worthy of the admiration of women. It is a great big something for a woman to feel that her husband is a true and intrepid protector. It is a comfort for her to feel that he has the strength and courage to defend her through all the vicissitudes of life.

Nowadays there are a great many who are not so physically strong, and he is not in nature for a sickly man to be a brave man. His spirit may be willing but his body is weak. That is the man's own fault. Any man who is weak in health will pay a little common sense attention to his health when he has it, and when he gets a little out of sorts, take the right remedy. Many of the diseases that afflict mankind are traceable to disorders of the digestion, impurities of the liver and impurities in the blood. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is the greatest medicine for disorders of this nature. It strengthens the digestion, gives edge to the appetite, invigorates the liver, purifies and enriches the blood and tones up and invigorates the nerves. It searches out disease germs, kills them and carries them out of the system. It is the great blood-maker, flesh-builder and nerve-tonic and restorative. It makes strong, healthy men out of weak, sickly invalids. Medicine dealers sell it and no honest dealer will urge a substitute upon you.

I have been taking Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and Pellets and must say that they have worked wonders in my case. I feel like a new person, in fact I think I am, but I will not take any more until I can speak to you highly of the "Discovery." I can eat anything now without misgiving and I have gained some weight in pounds, weighing as heavy as I did three years ago.

The medicine certainly worked like a charm on me, but when I first began to take it I felt a little worse for a few days, had pains through my body and bones, but all this left me after taking the medicines four or five days.

Advertisement for Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and Pellets.

Advertisement for Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and Pellets.

Advertisement for Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and Pellets.

Advertisement for Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and Pellets.