

FOR DELEGATES TO THE REGISTAR. NAMES SHOULD BE PRINTED ESTIMATE THAT NEARLY 12,000 REPUBLICANS ARE ENROLLED.

The Voters Will Not Take Orders From the Bosses or Go to Saloon Headquarters for Instruction.

Yesterday the Registrar of Voters sent a communication to each of the organized political parties asking that the Election Commissioners be furnished with the list of the delegates to be voted for at the primary election.

It is feared now that the Election Commissioners will not receive the names in sufficient time to have them printed in the tally book, and as a result the clerks at the various polling places will be compelled to write the names in the tally book.

It is asserted that Republican headquarters are endeavoring to collect the names of club rolls numbers 1,880. The call believes this is an overestimate, but records the slight increase in the number of voters who have hitherto withheld their names from club rolls.

The meeting of the delegates of the Advisory Central Club of the Republican party will be held at the Regatta Hotel on Wednesday evening.

DECKHANDS ON RIVER STEAMERS STRIKE.

There was another strike on the Sacramento River steamers yesterday. Last week the freight handling steamer, the Relief, was struck by the deckhands on the Sacramento River.

After a conference with the agents of the vessels a compromise at 40 cents an hour was reached, and the men went back to work.

After considerable delay a new crew was secured for the Onward, and she started away for Sacramento River points about 10 o'clock.

GUINESE COOK OPERATES TO BYE.

ALAMEDA, July 31.—Mrs. George R. Chambers of 1829 Clinton avenue has received anonymous threats through the mail that unless she dismisses her Japanese servant he will be shot and the mail carrier will be poisoned.

The threatening missive bears the Oakland postmark and is supposed to be the work of a Chinaman named Kay, or a Japanese who covers the position now held by Mrs. Chambers' servant.

Mrs. Chambers took the letter to the Chinese consul at the home of Mrs. Peter White, her aunt, who had recommended Kay. He insisted that Kay had no knowledge of the matter.
