PRESIDENT AT LONG BRANCH

Accorded Honors by the Citizens.

Special Dispatch to The Call.

LONG BRANCH, N. J., Aug. 25.—President and Mrs. McKinley, Vice President and Mrs. Hobart, General G. H. Hobart Jr., Attorney General Griggs, Dr. and Mrs. Rixey, Private Secretary Cortelyou and Executive Clerk Barnes arrived here this morning at 7:45 o'clock from Plattsburg on a special train of four palace cars. As the train drew into the station the Presidential salute was fired by Wilson Battery, N. G. N. Y., and a detachment of Troop C of Brooklyn presented arms. The President was greeted with enthusiasm as he emerged from the car and assisted Mrs. McKinley to alight. President and Mrs. McKinley looked in excellent health and bowed their acknowledgments repeatedly to the great crowd which was escorted to their carriage by the reception committee and driven to Vice President Hobart's cottage, Normanhurst, at Norwood Park.

At Norwood a great crowd gathered, which received the President and Mrs. McKinley with great enthusiasm. At 10 o'clock the reception committee and officers of Troop C of Brooklyn, and the Second Battery of New York drove over to Normanhurst in six carriages and formally welcomed the President to Long Branch. Miles O'Brien introduced the members of the delegation to the President, who exchanged a few words with each one present. Rufus Blodgett welcomed the President on behalf of the people of Long Branch.

A public reception was also tendered the President to-night, which the President declined. The President said: "I think the committee and citizens on behalf of Mrs. McKinley and myself for their courtesies and hearty welcome. I cannot say just how many plans are for to-day, but Rev. A. J. Price of Ocean Grove has a promise from me to visit that stronghold of Methodism. I feel, however, I am bound by the desires of the Long Branch citizens, as their invitation was the first I have wished for a long time to pay this visit, as I was fascinated by the surroundings of Long Branch when I first visited in this vicinity twelve years ago."

Rev. Price, dean of the Ocean Grove summer school of theology, called on the President and extended the formal invitation from the citizens and trustees of Ocean Grove. The President said he would be at Ocean Grove at 2 o'clock. The President, accompanied by Mrs. McKinley and Mrs. Hobart, subsequently drove to the iron pier to witness the arrival of the ship. As the carriage poached the pier the trim little gunboat dropped anchor and fired the Presidential salute. The President took a short drive to Ocean Avenue and returned later to Normanhurst for luncheon.

Everywhere the President was greeted with cheers, handclapping and waving of handkerchiefs.

Secretary of the Interior Hitchcock left the train at Jersey City. President McKinley and his party were escorted back to Long Branch from Ocean Grove by Troop C of Brooklyn and at 5 o'clock President and Mrs. McKinley, Vice President and Mrs. Hobart, drove to the Horse Show grounds to the tourney. The crowd, which was very large, tendered the Presidential party a Chautauquan salute as they were escorted to the grand stand. The President arrived in time to witness the rough riding, hurdle jumping and mounted gymnastics by the members of Troop C. He took a lively interest and applauded frequently. The President and party left the grounds at 6:30 o'clock.

RAILWAY PROPERTY BEFORE THE COURTS

Allegations Made in a Suit That Mortgage Bonds Take Precedence Over a Mortgage.

PORTLAND, Or., Aug. 25.—Judge Gilbert, in the United States Circuit Court, today heard argument on a case involving the title to the property of the Coeur d'Alene Railway and Navigation Company in Idaho.

In 1886 this company entered into a contract with one Spaulding by which he was to construct a certain line of railroad to secure the payment for which two mortgages were executed. These were foreclosed by Spaulding in 1887 and 1888, and judgment rendered in his favor and a receiver of the property appointed. The property was ordered sold, but in the meantime the Northern Pacific Railway Company had taken the road as the purchaser of the mortgage bonds of the road, and asserted that its claim was prior to that of Spaulding. The State court of Idaho decided against the Northern Pacific, but the matter was taken to the United States Court.

Judge Gilbert announced that he would render a decision to-morrow or Monday.

STRIKE AT FRESNO.

Employees of the Flume and Irrigating Company Walk Out.

FRESNO, Aug. 25.—At noon to-day the employees of the Fresno Flume and Irrigating Company, numbering over 100 men, went out on a strike after the corporation had refused to accede to their demands for a 10 per cent increase in wages and shorter hours of work.

The plant of the company at Clovis was closed this afternoon and the men declared that not a wheel would be turned until their demands were met.

A meeting of the officials of the company were present. They accepted the demands of the men, but only on condition that no changes should be made until September 1. The men wanted the officials refused to effect immediately, but the officials refused and the strike was ordered. Late to-night another meeting of the men was held and the situation was again discussed. The result was that they agreed to go back to work in the morning.

Pioneer Dies Suddenly. SALINAS, Aug. 25.—Anton Gilling, one of the early pioneers of California as well as an early resident of this county, died suddenly at his home at Blanco, about three miles west of this city, today. Deceased was born in Baden, Germany, in 1816. He came to America when he was 14 years old and to California in 1847. He has resided in this valley for over thirty years. He was once very wealthy, but met with reverses.

AN UNTIRING WORKER'S EFFORTS WERE CROWNED

MRS. RUSSELL BASSETT, WHO HELPED ENTERTAIN OUR BOYS.

MRS. RUSSELL BASSETT did yeoman service as a member of the Parents' and Relatives' Association, which tendered such a brilliant reception to the First California Regiment and Batteries A and D, California Heavy Artillery, yesterday morning. The lady is completely fagged out as a result of her unceasing efforts to make the affair a success, but pluckily states that she would do it again for the pleasure of seeing the boys in blue made happy.

The beautiful decorations seen in the banquet hall were planned and executed by Mrs. Bassett and a few other members of the decoration committee. In her efforts to see that everything went off without a hitch she worked early and late superintending things, answering innumerable inquiries from the country and visiting merchants with a view to securing their aid. That she was successful was evidenced by the appearance of the interior of the breakfast room. Her efforts were highly appreciated by the members of the association and although she is fatigued she is contented.

Mrs. Bassett is the sister of Captain Thomas Sparrow and Corporal W. G. Sparrow of Company G. With her other sisters she gave the long absent members of the family a glorious welcome.

SESSION OF THE PEACE SOCIETY

Three Thousand People Attend.

STRONG SPEECHES MADE

SEVERE DENUNCIATION OF THEODORE ROOSEVELT.

In His Address the Presiding Officer Spares Neither President McKinley Nor Admiral Dewey.

Special Dispatch to The Call.

MYSTIC, Conn., Aug. 25.—Fully 3000 people attended the annual meeting of the Universal Peace Union and the Connecticut Peace Society in the peace temple here to-day. At the morning session President Love delivered a brief address on the Philippine situation. Other addresses were made by J. H. Earl of Boston, Mrs. Comings of Philadelphia and Mrs. Hannah White of Lebanon. At this afternoon's session the principal address was by William Lloyd Garrison of Philadelphia, who took for his theme "No Compromise With War." Mr. Garrison spoke in part as follows:

A year ago when, in the interest of peace, we met upon this spot the war with Spain was in full blast. Then in the national eye a Spaniard was the type of treachery and oppression, and the sorrows of the suffering Cubans filled our hearts.

What space twelve months covers. The Spaniard is no longer a monster, but respected as a brave and gallant foe. The Cubans, then patriots and statesmen, now in the opinion of military experts and politicians, are people incapable of governing themselves. A war with the device of freedom and chivalry on its banner has developed into a conflict for conquest and lustres.

At the Hague the convulse of the great power have eagerly engaged in plundering schemes of its own.

It is strange that the international congress failed to notice the armed savagery of the Philippines that threatens America, but the savagery that Theodore Roosevelt represents. Had President McKinley, understanding the needlessness and iniquity of the war forced upon Spain, vetoed the declaration of Congress and saved his purpose of resigning his high office rather than to prostitute it by subservience to wrong, he would have made a niche in the world's pantheon. Had John D. Long, a man of finer quality than the President and in touch with the public sentiment which make his commonwealth exceptional, paraphrasing the indignant response of Charles Sumner in "fugitive slave days," "I was a man before I was a (slave) commissioner," declared Massachusetts manhood more precious than the Secretaryship of the Navy, and surrendered his portfolio, he would have occupied a place in her love and respect now forever lost.

Had Admiral Dewey, the one man who in military life, who after distinguishing himself in his destructive profession, refrained from self-laudation—had Admiral Dewey in protest of the Philippine betrayal, retired from the quarters to private citizenship, rather than abet the outrage, the victory of Manila would have paled in comparison.

Political independence, however, has not been wanting, as is demonstrated by such party adherents as Hon. Boutwell and Edmunds—all honor to them. But we look in vain for a single instance where an office has been sacrificed to principle. Even the Secretary of State clings to his position, forgetful of his vow, when an untraveled bard, he wrote:

"For always in thine eyes, O Liberty, shine that high light whereby the world is saved. And though thou slay us, we will trust in thee."

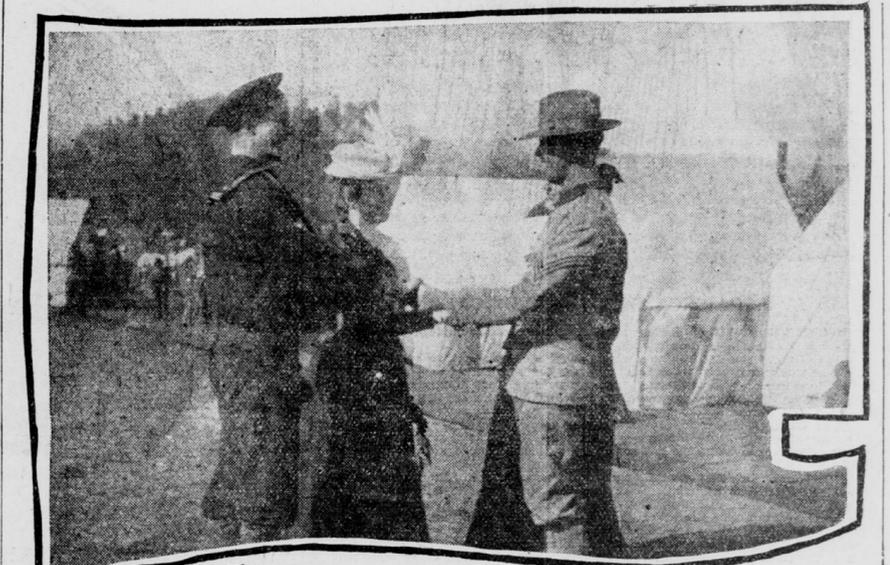

Has Liberty met its high light, or has John Hay lost his vision?

GREETING OLD FRIENDS

THE GLAD HAND. FEATURES OF THE HOME-COMING.

COPPER BELT IN YUKON DISTRICT

Ore Is Plentiful and Very Rich.

Special Dispatch to The Call.

TACOMA, Aug. 25.—Bennett City advices state that an immense copper belt is known to extend from White Horse Rapids on the Yukon River to a point on the Dalton trail forty miles from the Lynn Canal. It is all in British territory.

Captain Jarvis of the Northwest mounted police left Bennett last week for the end of the belt on Dalton trail, known as the Copper Blowout District. He was in the district several weeks ago, and is returning with a large party. He says the quartz taken out assays 38 to 53 per cent copper, and there is apparently an unlimited deposit. Hundreds of claims have been staked.

The district is just beyond the Porcupine placer fields and eight miles beyond the international boundary. It is reached by trail from Haines Mission, and it is said an easy water grade is available for taking the product to tidewater. The White Horse copper leads are thought to be extensions of those on Dalton trail. The best of the find is four miles from the Yukon.

Four thousand acres are staked, and one company of twenty-two men has 3000 acres. They have filed water rights at the several rapids at Miles Canyon with the view of working the mines by electricity. It is estimated that in one place there are 150,000 tons of copper quartz in sight that is worth $60 per ton. Many strikes of silver and gold bearing quartz are being made in the Upper Yukon district, but development is not far enough along to prove the value of the properties.

ADMIRAL WATSON IS SERIOUSLY ILL

Suffering From Heart Disease on His Ship and No One Permitted to See Him.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 25.—The Army and Navy Register, in its issue to-day, navy, will say:

Recent letters from Manila mention the illness of Admiral Watson as the source of great anxiety to his officers. The illness is the effect of an accident which occurred to his launch while he was on board on July 11. The Baltimore, his flagship, has been for some time at Cavite, leaving Manila so as to escape the full force of the typhoons. Requiring to make a trip up the river, the admiral started in his launch. A strong wind was blowing and as the launch, the Undine, went under the bridge over the river, known as the Bridge of Spain, the strong current, aided by the wind, set against the little boat and she was taken out of her course and thrown against a bawser from a sailing vessel.

This rope carried away the awning, and, striking the smokestack, took that also. Admiral Watson, sitting in the forward part of the launch and witnessing the full danger of the accident, showed no conspicuous appearance of having been startled excessively by the occurrence or in any way of having suffered by it. Later, however, in fact before his return to the flagship, serious heart trouble developed, and in consequence he was regarded as extremely ill up to the date of the letters of the 17th. No one but his physician is allowed access to him and all business of the fleet is forbidden. It is hoped, however, that the enforced quiet may restore him to his previous health.

LOCATE SMOKELESS POWDER DISCHARGE

Experiments Conducted by the American Association for the Promotion of Science.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Aug. 25.—The next meeting of the American Association for the Advancement of Science will be held at New York June 25 to 30, 1900.

The officers will be: President and treasurer, Professor Robert Simpson Woodward, dean of the School of Applied Sciences of Columbia University, New York; permanent secretary, Leland O. Howard of Washington, Government entomologist; general secretary, Charles Baskerville of Chapel Hill, N. C.; secretary of the council, William F. Hallowell of New York.

The general committee adopted a resolution favoring Denver as the place of meeting in 1900. This, however, does not bind the association until acted on next year.

Professor R. A. Fessenden to-day read a paper on the location of smokeless powder discharge by means of colored glass. The powders selected for experiment were the United States regulation powder and the Union Metallic Cartridge Company's smokeless powder cartridges. In these the red light predominates. The glass used was gold ruby, which transmits red light and cuts off the other colors. The discharge was thus rendered distinctly visible as a red light. Vice President Elihu Thompson, in discussing this method, suggested that the enemy might render observations nugatory by turning red fire at other points.

ACCIDENT TO THE GUNBOAT WILMINGTON

During a Severe Storm Off Cape Polonio the Vessel Breaks Her Screw.

Special Cable to The Call and the New York Herald. Copyrighted, 1899, by James Gordon Bennett.

CAR SHOPS FOR SANTA FE.

Forty Acres of Land in Fresno Purchased.

FRESNO, Aug. 25.—The Santa Fe Railroad has purchased from W. D. Foote a tract of forty acres of land near the southern limits of this city as a site for carshops. The land is near the present roundhouse of the Valley road and along the company's line. The transfer of the property was made public through a condensed suit, which was filed in the Superior Court to-day.

Foote's infant child has a remainder interest in the land, and being a minor could not give a deed. The suit was, therefore, the only means of making the transfer possible. The complaint sets forth that the railroad company wants the land as a site for carshops and that it is the intention of the company to locate the latter in this city.

REFUSED ADMITTANCE TO PORT OF ECUADOR

PANAMA, Aug. 25.—The steamer Santlago of the Pacific Steam Navigation Company, which sailed from Central American ports on August 18, bound south, was refused pratique at Guayaquil, Ecuador. She is quarantined off Puna, about forty miles from Guayaquil, on account of yellow fever cases on board.

The total bonds sold at a premium of $2100.
