

THE CITY MAY AGAIN BE LEFT IN DARKNESS

Gas Company Disposed to Retaliate.

CROCKETT MAKES A THREAT

BILLS MUST BE PAID OR OUT GO THE LIGHTS.

Refuses to Reduce July and August Accounts to Bring Them Within the Appropriation as Per- rault Suggested.

There is every reason to believe that the city may again be left in darkness if the bills of the San Francisco Gas and Electric Company for lighting the streets and public buildings are not paid. President Crockett, in a communication sent to the Board of Supervisors yesterday, reiterates a threat he made in August last that unless the bills of his company are paid the lights of the municipality will be shut off. The company is disposed to resort to retaliatory measures in order to force the board to pay the bills.

The communication is in reply to one sent by Chairman Perrault of the Finance Committee accompanying the bills for August, which were returned to the company because they were $33 over and in excess of the appropriation pursuant to the tax levy adopted by the Supervisors, and calculated according to the one-twelfth act. Chairman Perrault requested Mr. Crockett to scale down the bills so they would conform with the appropriation. Incidentally Perrault stated that according to Gas Inspector Tupper the streets had not been lit on one night when they should have been, and he asked that charge be stricken out.

In reply Mr. Crockett refused to comply with both requests and took occasion to refer the board to his letter of August 12. This accompanied the bills for July, which had also been returned by the Finance Committee because they were $49 in excess of the legal appropriation. This is the letter in which threats were made to throw the city and the public buildings in darkness unless the bills were paid as originally presented by the gas company.

The matter is now in abeyance, and it is a clear-cut issue between the Supervisors and the gas company. Perrault and his colleagues on the committee have no intention of backing down from their position, and say that unless the bills are reduced so as to come within the appropriation they will not be paid. Whether the corporation intends to make good its threats or whether it is only making a large-sized bluff to coerce the Supervisors into submitting to its dictates remains to be seen.

SOLDIERS' DAY AT THE FAIR.

Volunteers Will Be Guests of Honor at the Pavilion To-Night.

The volunteer soldiers now stationed here will be entertained at the evening of the Mechanics' Fair. The Governors of the Eastern States who have come here to welcome their returning soldiers will be the special guests of honor. Every man in uniform will be given a free ticket. The management has flooded the Presidio with invitations to the volunteers and undoubtedly the Pavilion will be filled this evening with the boys in blue. The band has arranged a special program for the occasion.

The exposition is rapidly getting into shape and the attendance is on the increase. The Filipino village is one of the new features of the fair. The little brown men and their wives and children moved into their new quarters, and will live in native huts constructed on the Pavilion until the end of the fair.

The musical programme for to-day and this evening follows:

To Review the Blythe Case.

George W. Towle, representing the Blythe Company, filed yesterday in the United States District Court a petition for a writ of review in the famous Blythe estate case. The case was decided in favor of Florence Blythe, the daughter of a year ago by the Supreme Court of the United States. The petition asks for a review of Judge Morrow's decision in that case.

Fire Among Dried Lizards.

A fire in the basement of 722 Dupont street yesterday afternoon did $500 worth of damage to the stock of dried lizards. The fire started in the kitchen of the company, whose drug store is at No. 722 Dupont street, across the street. The basement was used as a storeroom for the company. It is not known how the fire originated.

CHRIS RYER DIED ON THE SURGEON'S TABLE

CHRISTOPHER H. RYER, one of the best known liquor drummers on the coast, died suddenly yesterday forenoon on the operating table of the Golden Gate Sanitarium.

Mr. Ryer returned to this city a week ago last Wednesday and on Sunday morning went to the sanitarium to be treated for a disease of the bladder. He was advised by his physicians, Drs. J. G. Deardorff and J. L. Le Fevre, that a simple surgical operation would relieve him, and he consented to undergo the operation. He did not think it necessary to notify his family that an operation was about to be performed, and the news of his death came to them as a sudden and overwhelming shock.

Yesterday morning he was placed upon the operating table and Dr. Le Fevre proceeded to administer an anesthetic, when Mr. Ryer went into a convulsion and expired. The physicians reported to Coroner Hill that they did not believe that Mr. Ryer inhaled much if any of the anesthetic, and that his death was largely due to sudden nervous depression caused by fright.

Mr. Ryer came prominently before the public several years ago as a contestant of the will of Dr. Washington Ryer, a pioneer of this city, claiming to be a natural son of the doctor. The case was finally compromised out of court by the payment to young Ryer of a snug sum, a part of which he invested in residence property in Richmond.

The deceased had been employed by the wholesale liquor firm of Joseph Bremer & Co., at 310 Sacramento street. He was a large, fine looking man and weighed more than 250 pounds. He left a widow, two daughters and a son, the elder daughter being Mrs. A. Cohen of Oakland and the younger Miss Mabel Ryer of this city. C. Blaine Ryer, the son, is employed by Bremer & Co.
