FOOTBALL AT BOTH THE UNIVERSITIES

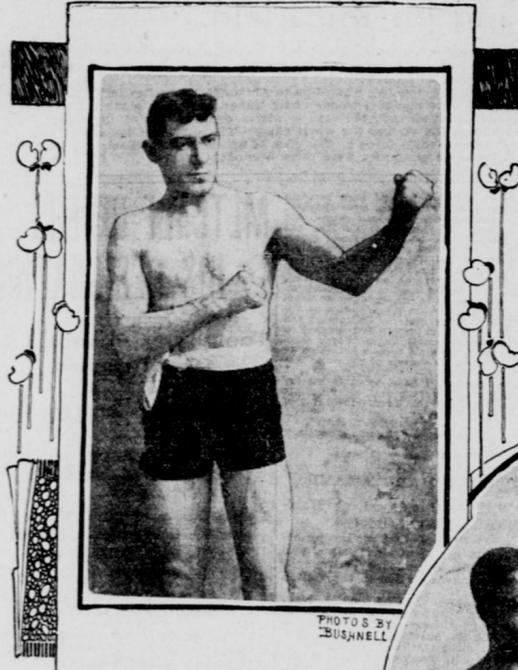

Stanford Goes to Del Monte. California Is Too Fine.

Will they win, or will they not? These two questions are giving much real trouble to about 200 students at Stanford and California just now than all the problems in mathematics, political economy and philosophy that ever bothered college professors. It is all football at either university, and the students have been sacrificed without compunction or remorse. At the University of California conditions are altogether novel. There was a football game on the campus yesterday afternoon, which lasted but fifteen minutes. The singular part of it was the presence of the teams that played. In the "varsity" more than three of the regular players lined up—Cornish, Greteberg and Aitern—and the football they played wouldn't win a prize in a grammar school contest. Though lambs were sent to the football field, the game was not a football game. The game between Oregon and California, no time was lost in experiments, his immediate resolution being set upon a plan of remedy, and Monday morning the football and the game were sent to the Hotel Hotel, where they are now loafing, trying to forget all about football and regain some of their fire and anger. Fringie is likewise staid, and he has been sent far from the rear of coaches, Kaarsberg and Whipple are still in Berkeley, but are not playing. This accounts for nine of the team, with the three center men, who are in good condition. The other two positions, left and quarter, are not yet determined.

SURPRISE BLOW TO SPORTSMEN

Anti-Game Shipping Ordinance Knocked Out.

The Sportsmen's Association and the Supervisors of Stanislaus County have received a setback at the hands of the Justices of the Supreme Court. Some time ago the Stanislaus Supervisors passed an ordinance making it a misdemeanor to ship game out of the county. This was aimed at the market hunters, who persisted in using huge scatter guns throwing a pound of shot into the flocks of birds. The first person to contest this ordinance was a market hunter named James Knapp, who attempted to ship a quantity of ducks to this city. He was arrested and fined $20, with the alternative of twenty days in jail. The case was carried to the Supreme Court and heard yesterday. The attorney for Knapp, in his argument on the writ of habeas corpus, contended that the ordinance was unconstitutional, inasmuch as the game of the country was the property of the public and more especially the property of the man who killed it, and that this being so the owner had a right to do with it as he pleased. Attorney General Ford took the position that the ordinance was a public regulation and not contrary to the constitution. Late in the day the Justices gave an oral order discharging the prisoner. No reason was given, but it is inferred that they are of the opinion that the ordinance is invalid. The effect of such a decision is far-reaching. A number of the counties of the State have passed similar laws, and if they are void the doors are again thrown wide open to market hunters.

SIX-DAY MEN ARE AHEAD OF THE RECORD

Long-Distance Bicyclists Are Keeping Up a Very Hot Pace.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.—For the first time since the opening of the meeting the rain interfered with the attendance at the Benning track today. The steeplechase proved the attraction. DUCKOY A VERY FAST YOUNGSTER

F. W. Brode Beaten in a Gallop—Several Surprises at Oakland.

In Duckoy, a big, growly looking son of imp. Brutus and Decoy Duck, the Burns & Waterhouse stable introduced an apparently very useful piece of racing hardware to the public at Oakland yesterday. One of the twelve entries in the six-furlong dash, second on the card, the ring laid 6 and 7 to 1 about the youngster, and he plowed through the muddy going like a Yukon ice cutter. F. W. Brode, the crack two-year-old of the Schorr string, finished second, with the favorite, Mortgage, third. The winner was ridden by Charley Thorpe and had pounds to spare at the finish. The track was still in a muddy condition, but there was no "path" for the battlers to follow. Three favorites met defeat, still there were no reversals for the crowd to grumble about. In the first race, a seven furlong selling affair, the all white colors of W. F. Shulte were seen to marked advantage for the first time at the meeting. Schancken, a diminutive daughter of Volante, with Ranch up, trailed Schiller, the favorite, into the stretch and then beat Schreiber's horse quite nicely. Rossmore, the old jumper, piloted by Burns, ran third. Barney Schreiber's colors met with more success in the third event. Miss Marlon, at odds of 1 to 2, won in a big gallop from Baitum. The fast mare showed a flight of speed and should win many a purse before the curtain falls on the final day of the meeting. In the fourth event, Loveloy enjoyed the honors of favoritism, with Meadowthorpe and Lavator equally well backed. Jennie Reid, New Moon and Judge Woodford also came in for strong support. Jack Martin, the young Canuck, had the mount on Jennie Reid, and after rounding the first turn showed in front. From that on it was only a matter of time before the mare, which led Meadowthorpe out, with her head down, would have won. Judge Woodford came from the rear in the run home, taking the show. Lavator was fourth, a length further away. Southern Girl had altogether too much speed for Princess Zeika in the two-year-old sprint over the Futurity course. The books held her a 3 to 5 choice and she won without ever being extended. The Princess, hard ridden from the stretch turn, downed Drudeless five lengths for the place. "Laggle" Smith's Horton, which seems to have been scratched, was managed to scratch out a victory in the final six-furlong run, and that was all. Backed to a standstill in the ring at odds of 7 to 10 he took all of Tommy Burns' cleverness to land him first at the wire, a nose in front of Ringmaster. With a stronger rider up the latter horse would assuredly have scored. Show honors went to Mike Rice.
