SCRATCHED TILL RAW

Eczema on Leg from Knee to Toe. No Rest Day or Night. Doctors, Salves, etc., Could Not Cure.

CUTICURA REMEDIES CURED

About three years ago my husband's legs, from the knee down to his toes, were red and itching with Eczema. He had no rest day or night, and would scratch all the time, so his legs would be raw. He had a good many doctors. They told him there was nothing wrong with his blood, and they gave him salve and other things to rub on. He had about a peck of bottles and boxes of salve and none of them did him any good. He worried that way about one year, and gave the doctors quite a lot of money. I told him one day the trouble was all in his blood, and told him to try CUTICURA remedies. He went that instant and got CUTICURA SOAP, CUTICURA Ointment, and CUTICURA RESOLVENT. That night he rested well, and kept getting better until he was cured, and it has not returned since.

ECZEMA ON BABY 8 MONTHS CURED BY CUTICURA

A friend of mine, Mrs. Staples, has a child two years old, whose almost entire face and head was covered with a mass of sores, which she had had for eight months. The doctors pronounced it Eczema, but did not relieve her any. She was so much worried that she was about to give up. She got CUTICURA, and she did so, purchasing two boxes of CUTICURA Ointment and one cake of CUTICURA Soap, and the child is well now.

RED ROUGH HANDS

At a meeting of the Sunnyside Progressive Improvement Club last night, a committee consisting of John Barrett, John A. Johnson, W. H. Peel, A. Ewell, William Brown, W. A. Metcalfe and Gustave Science was appointed to represent the club at the citizens' meeting to be held Monday night in Native Sons' Hall to endorse the proposition to vote bonds for the extension of the park parkway, the building of new schoolhouses and the construction of a sewer system.

The Sunnyside Club will also hold a mass-meeting with the same object in view on December 14 in Sunnyside Hall, when Mayor Finlan is expected to address the residents of that district.

SENTIMENT OF HOUSE IS AGAINST ROBERTS

Poll of Representatives Shows That Only Two Openly Declare They Favor the Polygamist.

For Roberts---2. Against Roberts---123. Non-committal but mainly opposed to Roberts---134. Total, 259.

In a careful poll of the members of the House of Representatives, made by The Call on the question of permitting Brigham H. Roberts, the Mormon member from Utah, to take his seat, the views of more than two-thirds of the membership have been obtained. Of this number only two—one from Michigan and one from Georgia—declare themselves in favor of admitting Mr. Roberts, regardless of the charge brought against him. The Call's canvass shows an overwhelming sentiment in favor of unseating the member-elect from Utah.

While more than one-third of the members express themselves emphatically as intending to vote to unseat Mr. Roberts, this proportion does not by any means indicate the whole number of those who will so vote. Many new members who have not yet taken their seats are disinclined to express their opinions for publication. There are many who take the ground that it would be improper for them to announce in advance their opinion in a case on which they are to sit in judgment. In almost every instance these members, while giving non-committal interviews for publication, privately admit that they expect the evidence to be such as to warrant them in voting against Mr. Roberts.

It is probable that Mr. Roberts will be sworn in when Congress assembles. Then will come the proceedings to expel him. Mr. Roberts declines to discuss his case. Upon being informed of the strength of the opposition, he declared: "The members have prejudged the case."

GATHERING OF MAGISTRATES OF A GREAT CHURCH

Bishop Nichols Returns Home.

The Episcopal Bishop of California arrived home last week after a month's sojourn in the East. At St. Louis he attended the missionary council of the church and met delegates from many of the dioceses throughout the United States. In addition to the ordinary business of the council Bishop Nichols was especially interested in the disposition of the great triennial convention, which is to convene in San Francisco in October, 1901. The Bishop of Sacramento was also in attendance and upon every occasion added his eloquent voice in support of San Francisco's advantages. Bismarck, Maryland is now in the East and has several important addresses to make before influential church bodies. He is also charged with the conclusion of necessary arrangements in connection with this great gathering of churches. With the assistance of all the Western Bishops there can be no doubt that the convention will really meet as proposed. Some little opposition has arisen on account of the distance and the time consumed in coming and going, but solely from the older generation. The young men of the church are in favor of the Bishop of Sacramento's plan, and the result was most gratifying to the broader minds in the church and profitable as well. The principal benefit accruing to the state, conservative elements who for the first time realized that all the power and greatness of the church was not confined exclusively to the thickly populated East.

Bishop Nichols states that he found a rapidly growing interest in San Francisco. One sanguine churchman expressed the opinion that if the prosperous conditions of the country are not interrupted there will be a larger convention in 1901 than was ever before held. The railroads have already promised extremely low rates and that will be a great influence in inducing many Eastern churchmen in taking the California trip and bringing with them a large number of church people who are not delegates. It is also understood that in all the dioceses delegates of preference will be given those who will promise attendance. The influence of all the Bishops of dioceses located west of the Mississippi River will be brought to bear upon the whole church to make the convention great in respect to numbers and representation of the intellectual standing and wealth of the church.

The convention will be large in point of numbers. There are now eighty-five Bishops entitled to seats and 250 clergy and as many lay delegates, making a lower house 510 in number. The Bishops elect themselves as a separate body. The assemblage will not only be the first great national ecclesiastical gathering of the new century, but will be notable for bringing together the devotion, wealth and intellect of a great and expanding church, whose Bishops lead a direct and continuous descent from the apostles and whose clergy and laity represent the scholarship and culture of the country. The Chief Justice of the United States has represented his diocese in the General Convention for a generation and will be present, together with Senator Edmunds of Vermont, famed as a lawyer and legislator. Several Governors of States and numerous of men known throughout the country will be among the honored delegates. The intention of the California Bishops is to make the convention of 1901 representative of the wide sway of the church throughout the world.

The Archbishop of Canterbury has already designated Dr. Creighton, Bishop of London, as his personal representative. The Metropolitan of Canada, Australia and India have accepted invitations and will be present by representatives if not in person. The American Bishops of China, Japan, Brazil and Africa will be there and Bishop Bompas of the Arctic diocese of the Mackenzie River, who has not entered the exile of his quarter of a century, will shed the benediction of his presence upon this notable gathering. Representatives from Ireland, Scotland and land have been asked and will probably accept the invitation. In fact, the whole Anglo-Saxon world will be represented. Already arrangements are being made for the hospitable reception of the distinguished delegations. Bishop Nichols will send an episcopal residence by the convention meets and his efforts to entertain will be supplemented by numbers of the laity who will gladly show to the strangers the true meaning of what a California greeting is. The Episcopal church, it is claimed, is growing more rapidly than any other Protestant denomination. It numbers 750,000 communicants and its offerings for church purposes are nearly $2,000,000 a year.

SPEAKS FOR NEW TRIPLE ALLIANCE

Chamberlain Favors a Combine Between America, Great Britain and Germany.

LONDON, Nov. 30.—Joseph Chamberlain, Secretary of State for the Colonies, in a speech at a luncheon at Leicester to-day, said that ever since the great split in the Liberal party he had found himself a mark for the slanders and misrepresentations of the "baser sort of politicians," but that he had found compensation in the generous appreciation of the majority of the countrymen. Continuing, Mr. Chamberlain said he was deeply gratified that the foreign relations of Great Britain were so satisfactory, and asserted that the country owed a debt of gratitude to Lord Salisbury for the great improvement in Great Britain's position. It was especially gratifying, he said, to note the friendly relations existing between the two great branches, saying that the understanding between the United States and Great Britain was a guarantee of the peace of the world. "This statement was greeted with cheers. It was of the utmost importance, Mr. Chamberlain further remarked, that Great Britain should not remain isolated in Europe, and her natural alliance was with the great German empire. They had difficulties with Germany, but the interests and sentiments were the same. He expressed the hope that the word "alliance," but it mattered little whether they had an alliance committed to paper or an understanding which existed in the minds of the statesmen of representative countries. A determination in every case to look for favorable moments upon the part of the Anglo-Saxon friendship was desired would be an enormous advantage to both nations combined.

FORGED HIS FATHER'S NAME.

Sacramento Man Charges His Nephew With a Grave Offense. Joseph Rose, a young man whose parents reside in New London, Conn., was arrested last night by Officer Marston on the complaint of his uncle, A. C. Nunes, a saloonkeeper of Sacramento, and charged with forgery. He was locked up in the California-street Police Station. Rose resided in this city at 138 Jackson street. He is accused of having forged his father's name to a document, on the strength of which Nunes loaned him $100. Rose says he gave his personal note for the money, which he required for sickness, and that his uncle is the author of the forged document. Yesterday afternoon Nunes got his nephew in an attorney's office and after some dispute an officer was called and Rose was arrested.

Reception and High Jinks.

The officers and members of Division No. 20 of the Ancient Order of Hibernians gave one of their annual receptions and high jinks in the lower hall at Native Sons' building on Seventeenth street last night. Over 200 members with their friends assembled, and without any fixed formality the social features of the evening commenced. Pipes and tobacco were there galore, and this, with short recitations, songs and set speeches, relieved the intervals. This was followed with a more substantial repast in the anteroom, which was much enjoyed by all present. The following officers of the division saw to it that none went away regretting their visit: Eugene O'Connor, president; Pat Maloney, vice president; W. Shaughnessy, recording secretary; Michael McAvoy, financial secretary, and John O'Neill, treasurer.

Pythians Celebrate.

The largest hall in the Pythian Castle was crowded Wednesday by the members of Golden Gate Lodge of the Knights of Pythias and their lady friends who had accepted invitations to be the guests of the lodge at its Thanksgiving and Christmas celebration. Knights Scherer, Hutchison, Bishop, Krause and Dohmann offered a program of recitations, cakewalking and dancing. The contributors to the evening's entertainment were Tessie Greenfield, Miss Johnson, Miss Ida Sweigert, Mrs. M. Lewis, Alexander Bentley and the Manning sisters. The dancing which followed the programme kept the dancers on the floor until a late hour.

Turkey at the County Hospital.

Dr. David A. Hodghead, superintendent of the City and County Hospital, treated his 500 patients to a genuine Thanksgiving turkey dinner yesterday. Six hundred pounds of the great American bird, with 200 pounds of mince and fifty sacks of sweet potatoes, was the consignment of edibles delivered at the hospital for Thanksgiving day. The feast was provided out of the funds of the regular monthly appropriation.
