

THE TENDERLOIN GOES PHONY Jimmie Bulkeley Was Too New. DROVE A GIRL TO TEARS

"Jimmie" Bulkeley, the boy wonder of the Tenderloin, has been at it again. Several months ago he jumped into prominence by his unsuccessful attempt to make a runaway marriage with a girl in short clothes, whose sister objected.

His latest outbreak occurred Friday afternoon at the Stanford photographic parlors, 821 Market street. A few days before the boy wonder had discarded his goggles and, looking upon himself in the mirror, found the sight to be good.

Mr. Thomas, the proprietor of the gallery, attracted by the cries of the girl, hastened to her side. With him were Julian R. Brandon, a well-known athlete and professor of physical culture.

Mr. Brandon moved on, as the crowd gathered to see the young woman, and the tenderloin crawl away nursing a ringing ear and a sore jaw.

The San Francisco Turn Verein celebrated the independence of Switzerland last night at the San Francisco Turner Hall, on Turk street. The singing section, composed of young women, had prepared a series of tableaux, which were rendered with great success.

The annual masquerade and ball given by the Danish Society, at the Dannebrog, Nos. 2 and 4 Cortina street, last night, was a grand success. The beautifully decorated hall, the gorgeous costumes of the masqueraders and the rays of hundreds of electric lights all combined to make a magnificent and inspiring picture.

SPLendid STRUCTURE FOR MARKET STREET, NEAR SIXTH FOOTPADS HOPE

HALE BROS.' NEW DRY-GOODS HOUSE SOON TO BE ERECTED.

WHERE the old Central Market stood on Market street, near Sixth, the firm of Hale Brothers is soon to erect one of the buildings of that section of the city. The improvement will have a frontage of 88.6 feet, and extend to Stevenson street, a distance of 170 feet.

The interior finish of the many departments, etc., is to be of hardwood, excepting at the store front and at the elevator walls, where ornamental iron will be used.

It has been stated that the new structure would be converted into a department store, but Hale Brothers assert that there is no truth in this. They are putting up the building themselves for their own use, and the intention is to make it one of the largest dry-goods and furnishing stores in the West.
