

ROBERTS' PREPARATIONS FOR ADVANCE PROGRESS

Country Around Bloemfontein Swarms With British Tents, While Boers Get Ready for Attack.

With General Buller—The Famous Chestnut Battery, R. H. A., Going Into Action.

An original sketch by F. A. Stewart, special artist of the Sphere.

LONDON, April 12.—Lord Roberts' preparations for the advance are apparently proceeding apace.

On their side, and apparently in expectation of an attack, the Boers at Brandfort are intrenching themselves parallel to and east of the railway.

The colonial force which is beset by the Boers at Wepener is still holding out well.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

AFTER THE BANQUET, Man Feels Well, but It's Different in the Morning.

And Yet It's So Easy to Avoid the Dark Brown Taint, for Science Comes to the Rescue, A Magic Microbe-Killing Tablet.

Good fellowship does it. You eat too much and wash the good things down with too much drink.

Thin of mixing up the various lots of food you eat at a dinner, from soup to nuts, in one receptacle, and adding half a dozen different kinds of drinks, alcoholic and otherwise.

Yet that is what you do in your stomach, and your digestive apparatus can't handle it.

All this fermentation of undigested food with its evil consequences can be easily avoided.

It's what Cascarets do, not what we say they do, that proves their merit.

of Helmsmaaker. A portion of General Buller's army has been detached to swell the forces of the commander-in-chief.

Roberts' Assurances. In a roundabout way London hears that Lord Roberts, when writing to the Prince of Wales at Copenhagen congratulations upon his escape from assassination, added two or three hopeful sentences portending an early advance with wide reaching combinations.

The Boer note in Portugal regarding the use by the British of the Beira route for the transportation of troops to Rhodesia must be the motto of all things.

"Never Again," the Motto. Sir Alfred Milner, when replying to a deputation of clergymen in Cape Town yesterday (Thursday), said: "Never again" must be the motto of all things.

These absolute utterances of Sir Alfred Milner he speaks for the imperial Government.

It is calculated that Lord Roberts now has 24,000 effective troops, with 12,000 more on order.
