

GENERAL BULLER TAKES POSITION

Marching Forty Miles in Three Days He Scores a Success of Consequence, Political as Well as Military.

FLEEING FROM THE BRITISH INVADERS.
As Lord Roberts' army advances through the Free State the burghers who are unwilling to remain under British rule are "trekking" toward the Vaal, after the manner of their forefathers. The above picture, taken from the Spear, shows a team that, too hastily driven, has about given out.

LONDON, May 15, 1900.—General Buller has turned the Biggarsberg position by a bold movement. The Boers had evacuated Helpmaakar, but were making a stand Monday evening at Bloemfontein seven miles from Dundee. The corps on the spot regarded this as a rear-guard action intended to cover the retreat of the army.

At the same time General Buller took Imbeba and it is reported that the Boers withdrew in disorder.

General Buller, who seems to be employing his full strength, is expected to push on. His first marches were forty miles in three days. He is thus breaking into English territory, which had been administered for six months by the Transvaal, they holding courts and levying taxes. His success, therefore, has political as well as military consequences.

While Lord Roberts' infantry are concentrating at Kroonstad, where they will rest for a day or two, his horsemen have penetrated sixteen miles northward. In the squadron which cut the railway fifteen miles beyond Kroonstad was the American scout, Frederick Burnham. Two hundred Boers who had hidden in the river jungles near Kroonstad to escape service have surrendered to the British and taken the oath of allegiance.

According to a dispatch from Bennett Burleigh to the Daily Telegraph, dated Thursday, May 10, Paul Botha and Macdonald, members of the Free State Volksraad, demanded that the chairman should call a meeting to sue for peace, as further resistance was suicidal and proposed to make President Steyn a prisoner.

Nothing definite has been heard about the expected relief of Mafeking. The Cape Town correspondents continue to wire that relief is imminent, fixing Tuesday or Wednesday as probable dates. Inquirers at the War Office are told that the news of the relief will be made public immediately upon its receipt. No word had come to hand at midnight.

The latest supposition concerning General Buller is that possibly he is marching upon the north bank of the Vaal with a force sufficient, in co-operation with Lord Roberts, to render Boer defense of the Vaal frontier impracticable.

East of Bloemfontein General Buller is advancing toward Ladybrand. His troops and those of General Brabant are stretched over a distance of thirty miles. The Boers are described as quite disorganized and as retreating northward. President Steyn's lieutenants are trying to rally them.

The same stories of disintegration come from nearly every point where the English correspondents are. Mr. Holloway, formerly a correspondent at Mafeking, who was put over the Transvaal border, telegraphing from Lourenzo Marques, Sunday, says:

"Judging from talks I have had with the Boers the end of the war will come in a month or six weeks. Mr. Steinkamp, chairman of the second Raad, who traveled with me, said that if the burghers were pressed from Pretoria they would retire to the district of the Leydenburg mountains, which had already been provisioned. He remarked that he hoped the burghers would stand firm, but he feared they were too broken in spirits. I gathered from him that the whole available force of the Transvaal was now in the field, the final commandering having taken place last Thursday, and that it is only the powerful magnetism of President Kruger getting his burghers together. At the British hospitals in Bloemfontein the deaths from fever average from eight to ten daily."

BULLER SUCCEEDS IN FORCING THE BIGGARSBERG

LONDON, May 14.—A dispatch received by the Associated Press from Pietermaritzburg, Natal, dated 12:30 to-day, brought the first intimation of a success attained by General Buller in Northern Natal. The sender of this dispatch evidently assumed that news of the affair had been received direct from the scene of hostilities, for he merely said:

"General Buller's official telegram telling of his success at the Biggarsberg, received here an hour ago, has given keen satisfaction. It is confidently anticipated that Dundee will be occupied by the British to-day. The residents of the north country are delighted, as forcing the Biggarsberg means that they will speedily be enabled to return to their homes."

Another dispatch to the Associated Press, dated Stonehill Farm, 8:20 this morning, says:

"After four days' march eastward, at the foot of the Biggarsberg ridges, in the direction of Helpmaakar, which was occupied by the Federals, the Second Brigade Sunday led the attack. Dundonald's Cavalry broke the Boers' center and General Buller advanced on their extreme right. In the direction of Pomroy a small party of burghers occupied a ridge overlooking Helpmaakar, but they did not wait for the assault."

CHAMBERLAIN INTRODUCES NEW AUSTRALIAN COMMONWEALTH BILL AND EXPLAINS THE PURPOSES OF THE GOVERNMENT.

LONDON, May 14.—The Secretary of State for the Colonies, Mr. Joseph Chamberlain, has introduced a bill to introduce the Australian Commonwealth bill, which he described as a great and important step towards the organization of the British empire.

Continuing, Mr. Chamberlain said it would be the greatest and most important federal commonwealth, united for the most important functions of government with intercolonial free trade, a common tariff for all the colony and common control of the national defense. Mr. Chamberlain pointed out that as foreign countries were concerned in the new constitution it was important that measures that might involve the imperial government in the most serious responsibilities should be introduced by a tribunal in which all the parties had full confidence, and the government could not consent to Clause 74 relating to the Appeal Court, because it meant the abolition of the imperial veto. The bill would, he said, be introduced in the House of Lords forthwith a scheme to appoint for seven years a representative each of Canada, South Africa, Australia and India to be members of the privy council and who would act as Lords of appeal. Life peers would be appointed to the House of Lords, although they would not act as Lords of appeal and at the cost of the imperial treasury. The bill would be introduced in the House of Lords, he said, on Monday.

The Liberal leader in the House, Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, said he thought it unfortunate that the government had received the unanimous approval of Australia and, he added, the opposition would refuse to support the government proposals in reference to the Court of Appeals. The bill passed its first reading. The second reading was fixed for May 21.

AFRIKANDER WOMEN ASK TO BE ARMED

PRETORIA, May 12 (via Lourenzo Marques).—A war bulletin has been issued here announcing that the British are advancing against the Federals at Helpmaakar and Tonders Nek. The burghers who had tried to escape, but who had a heavy rifle and cannon fire was heard before 6 o'clock to-day and that the "Kaif location" was in flames within an hour and was totally destroyed. At 10 o'clock, he said, everything was quiet.

A meeting of Afrikaner women, held yesterday, it was resolved to ask the Government for arms and ammunition and suggest that they do the work of the men officials in the town who, they declared, ought to be fighting at the front. The resolution was carried unanimously. The Volksraad asserts that the British prisoners in the hands of the Boers will first feel the effects of the embargo placed on tinned meats and clothing destined for the Transvaal at Delagoa Bay.

VOLKSRAAD MEMBERS READY TO SURRENDER

(Special Cable to the New York Herald, Copyright, 1900, by New York Herald Company. Reproduction of this dispatch is prohibited. All rights reserved in the United States and Great Britain.)

KROONSTAD, May 13.—Fully 200 local Boers hid under the river banks in order to escape the British. They were seen and others have now surrendered and taken the oath of allegiance. Our troops are rapidly concentrating and it is hoped that the requisite locomotive power will be here by Wednesday. Lord Roberts is determined to press on in pursuit.

It appears that on Thursday last Paul Botha and Mr. Macdonald, members of the Volksraad, demanded that the chairman should call a meeting to sue for peace, further resistance being suicidal, and that President Steyn be made a prisoner.

TEMPERATE TROOPERS

LONDON, May 14.—At the annual meeting of the Army Temperance Association to-day Major General Sir George White, the defender of Ladysmith, presiding, a letter was read from Lord Roberts, dated Bloemfontein, April 19, during the course of which he said: "These men were a more temperate army than that which marched under my command from the Modder river to Bloemfontein. Nothing but good can result from so many months being spent in the arduous campaign when they see how splendidly our temperance men have borne up against the hardships and dangers they have had to face."

HEILBRUN THE CAPITAL

KROONSTAD, May 12.—President Steyn has gone to Heilbrun, not Lindley. He has declared the former the new capital. Four hundred burghers have given up their arms here and in this neighborhood. Although the bridge across the Valsch has been destroyed, a good deviation exists where the road ran before the bridge was constructed. The Transvaalers are reported to be marching at the Vaal, never to be seen again.

The Standard and Digest's News of Johannesburg shows that dissensions exist in the Transvaal Volksraad.

Railway repairs are progressing rapidly. The town accepts the occupation quietly.

FUGITIVE NEELEY TO RESIST EXTRADITION

Fourth Assistant Postmaster General Sent to Cuba to Straighten Out the Postal Frauds.

CHARLES F. W. NEELEY, CHIEF OF THE FINANCE DIVISION OF THE POSTOFFICE DEPARTMENT OF CUBA, WHO IS CHARGED WITH EMBEZZLEMENT.

NEW YORK, May 14.—In speaking of the scandal made public by the arrest of Neeley. There is some disposition in certain quarters to transfer to the shoulders of General Alger all the responsibility possible. He is blamed first for the appointment of Director Rathbone and of the postal auditor, and secondly because he ignored General Breckinridge's first cabinet recommendation permitting the auditor to continue a long inspection of the postal accounts. General Breckinridge, relative to the statements published this morning, telegraphed Secretary Root, asserting he was not responsible for the criticisms and intimating that the responsibility rested with Mr. Root's predecessor. It is pointed out by army officers, however, that Mr. Root was Secretary of War when General Breckinridge submitted his annual report, in which special stress was laid upon the advisability of having the inspectors general inspect all civil expenditures.

Friends of General Alger resent the attempt of the administration to shift the responsibility to his shoulders. They point out that it was appointed Director Rathbone upon the recommendation of Postmaster General Smith, and the auditor upon the recommendation of Secretary Gage.

FAVORABLE REPORT MADE ON CANAL BILL

Senate Committee on Inter-oceanic Canals Recommends that the Measure Be Passed.

WASHINGTON, May 14.—The Senate Committee on Inter-oceanic Canals to-day ordered a favorable report on the Nicaragua canal bill as it passed the House.

There were only five members of the committee present at to-day's meeting. A motion was made to report the bill, and without debate the vote was taken. Senators Morgan, McBride, Harris and Turner voting in the affirmative and Senator Hanna in the negative.

VESUVIUS ACTIVE

Professor Matteucci Narrowly Escapes Being Buried by Lava.

ROME, May 14.—Mount Vesuvius is again in a state of eruption, and spectators are forbidden to approach within a certain distance. Signor Matteucci, professor of geology in the University of Naples, who is devoting himself to a study of volcanic action, had a narrow escape. He had received a special permit to approach the crater, and was brushed and burned by a shower of incandescent stones.

Amaya on Trial.

SANTA CRUZ, May 14.—The taking of testimony in the case of Manuel Amaya, charged with murder, was commenced to-day in the Superior Court. Attorney Lindsay, for the defense, argued against the admission as evidence of the written statements made by G. D. Loucks, the victim, before his death. District Attorney Knight argued to the contrary. Judge Smith will render a decision to-morrow.

CUBANS GRIN OVER AMERICAN DISHONESTY

Postal Frauds in the Island Far Greater Than Was Originally Supposed.

HAVANA, May 14.—The extent of the postal frauds is far greater than what was originally expected. Besides taking in the postal department, the frauds seem to include the Havana office and various burghers have given up their arms here and in this neighborhood. Although the bridge across the Valsch has been destroyed, a good deviation exists where the road ran before the bridge was constructed. The Transvaalers are reported to be marching at the Vaal, never to be seen again.

"I firmly believe that I owe my life to Warner's Safe Cure. For two years I suffered with kidney trouble and could find no relief anywhere. I spent hundreds of dollars on doctor's medicines—some would give temporary relief and others none whatever. I decided to try Warner's Safe Cure as a last resort and with I had followed the advice of friends sooner, it was the only thing that helped me and in less than four months it had made a new man out of me. I am entirely well and I give all the praise to Warner's Safe Cure."
