RIOTING GROWS WORSE IN THE ST. LOUIS STRIKE

Three Persons Shot and Will Probably Die From Their Wounds.

Eight Others Injured by Bullets That Were Fired Indiscriminately by Train Crews, Strikers and Sympathizers.

ST. LOUIS, May 29.—In a rioting sense to-day's developments were the worst experienced since the strike on the lines of the St. Louis Transit Company was inaugurated, over three weeks ago.

HERMAN PESITCHKE, shot in the back, fatal. JOHN T. RICE, shot through the chest, fatal. R. H. STILSON, Cleveland, Ohio, shot through the chest, fatal.

Two of the riots occurred on South Broadway as a result of the attempt of the Transit Company to run its cars through the strike zone.

At 10 o'clock the convention was called to order in the Assembly Hall to hear the day's proceedings.

As soon as the double began a riot call was sent to the Chief of Police and twenty-five men were hurried to the intersection of California and Market streets.

The most riotous disturbances occurred near the intersection of California and Market streets.

HEART DISEASE

is often said to exist when symptoms really point to other derangements. The heart is seldom diseased, and when it is no medicine can cure it. The remedies given are usually wrong, for the trouble may not be in the heart but the nerves of that organ. Irregular beating and a sense of fullness may result from stomach trouble, heavy diet, sudden exercises or violent emotion. Electricity is the best remedy, and my
