GUNS CRACKED IN THE FIELD AND ON MARSHES. Quail and Duck Season Opens Auspiciously—Huntmen Enjoying the Sport. Hunters who looked out of their windows yesterday morning and observed the drizzle remarked, "It's a good day for ducks." Many of them forgot to add that it was also a good day for "quail." Had they done so they would have been correct, as the Fish Commissioners officially announced the opening of the quail and duck season yesterday. Nimrods did good execution on the marshes. Many big bags were landed by the experts.

RIGHTS OF CHINESE. Judge Estee Hands Down an Important Opinion of Law. HONOLULU, Sept. 24.—United States Judge Estee has just rendered an important decision regarding the rights of Chinese to land in Hawaii. It was in the case of Ah Sing, who came here from New York as one of the crew of the ship Chin-lung, who refused permission to land in Honolulu. He was brought before Judge Estee on habeas corpus proceedings. The judge decided that, having shipped from New York to Honolulu, he has a right to land in any American port, and Honolulu is now an American port. The decision is regarded as highly important as bearing upon the question of whether the many Chinese in the Hawaiian Islands have a right to land on the mainland. A clause in the Hawaiian territorial act declares that the Chinese in Hawaii shall not be admitted to the rest of the United States. This clause is believed by some to be unconstitutional, and the decision of Judge Estee is in line with that opinion. There are about 20,000 Chinese in Hawaii.

JAMES GORDON BENNETT'S YACHT LYSISTRATA

Reference to James Gordon Bennett's yacht, which was launched from Nenny's yard at Dunbarton on August 23, and is now being finished at the wharf, the London Yachtsman, in its last issue, says: "This vessel has been built by the Messrs. Denny from plans prepared by G. L. Watson for James Gordon Bennett, one of the senior members of the New York Yacht Club. The boat is the largest and most powerful yacht that has yet been built on the Clyde. Lysistrata—for so the big vessel was named by Miss Amy Denny—is 255 feet long on the load water line and 214 feet over all, 40 feet in breadth and 25 feet in depth, and 202 tons T. M. She has a plumb stem, a long and singularly graceful counter, a full poop aft, a long shade deck amidships and a short turtle back forward, one huge funnel and a very rudimentary sort of mast with nothing on it but a signaling yard. The boat is built of the finest steel, is a twin screw vessel, and a spread of eighteen knots has been contracted for with her; triple expansion machinery of about 6500 indicated horse power is being fitted and the engines are being arranged on the four-crank principle. Like her twin sister, Margarita, Lysistrata has been built with the butts of her plates overlapping, which is a novelty introduced to yacht building by Mr. Watson. With regard to saloon and cabin accommodations, Lysistrata has suite after suite of handsome staterooms (many of them supplemented with dressing rooms and bathrooms), while dining-room, library and owner's business room leave nothing to desire. The dining-room, 35 feet long by 20 feet broad, and lofty and well lighted and airy, is being done in the Grecian fashion. The lighting and ventilating of the yacht are on the most modern and costly principles."

MATEBEY TAKES STATION STAKE WITHOUT EFFORT

Opening of Tanforan Park's Week of Harness Events.

Favorites Capture All Three Events on the Card—Tags a Winner. Janice Had No Cake-walk.

With fair weather and a fast track to step over the harness horses attracted only a moderate crowd of spectators yesterday to Tanforan Park. John Humphrey and Joe Harlan each paid $100 a day to book on the heats, and Tom Hurlick from the auction box endeavored to stir up some excitement, but those present were quite evidently not attired in their betting clothes.

The sport was above the average. Of course the Western stallion stake had the place of honor on the card, and was captured by the veteran Pete Williams with Monterey, 2:09 1/2, the other starters being outclassed. The big chestnut reeled off the second heat in 2:12, now the track trotting record. Tags took the pace and Janice the 2:39 trot.

M. P. Tarpey, Joseph Cairn Simpson and Ed Smith did the judging, the latter also acting as starter. Everybody had it reckoned that Tags, the Woodland mare, had been left a legacy, and she sold a $10 to $5 favorite over her company in the betting indicated in on the 2:39 pace. Quite handsly the daughter of Diablo polished off her field in the opening heat, causing the price to shorten up considerably, $20 to $5 being the auction quotation. In the second heat Bunch, behind Fredericksburg, buckled up with Tags, and after a ding-dong struggle beat her by a nose, evidently having forgotten the speculating, the second heat was different. Pete Williams had Monterey trimmer for action, going out to distance the other three starters. By some ragtime steps, a hop, step and a jump and a few backside glides, Durlee, holding the ribbons over Alta Vela, just missed the mark, but Alta Vela and Iron Ace were returned from business. The two following heats were only jogs for the odds-on favorite.

What might have proved a pretty contest had the odds-on favorite been at the very commencement by a harsh and finely drawn decision from the stand in declaring Zarina distanced in the opening heat. Sprackles, evidently having forgotten the speculating, the second heat was different. Pete Williams had Monterey trimmer for action, going out to distance the other three starters. By some ragtime steps, a hop, step and a jump and a few backside glides, Durlee, holding the ribbons over Alta Vela, just missed the mark, but Alta Vela and Iron Ace were returned from business.
